BREAKERS AHEAD.

The un-American, monocratic spirit which breathes in the following language, uttered by Thomas F.
Bayard, ambassador to England, in a speech delivered in Boston, Eng-lan, last August, ought to be shown up and denounced by every newspaper in the United States, regardless of party. Here is the utterance:
"The president of the United States stands in the midst of a strong, self-confident and oftentimes violent people, men who seek to have their own way. It takes a real man to govern the people of the United States."

That there is a large plutocratic class of monarchists growing up in this country is very well known to a few people, but it is not generally recognized by the masses of our American constituency. Mr. Bayard evidently belongs to that class, and when he imagines himself out of earshot of his countrymen he does not hesitate to give expression to his monarchial sentiments. So thoroughly is he imbued with this aristocratic spirit that he looks upon the president of the United States in the same light as he views the czar of the Russians, as autocratically governing a violent, turbulent mob, rather than as the chosen servant of a free people. Mr. Cleveland himself has often indicated that he holds the same views as his ambassador.

The facts are, a plutocracy cannot flourish so successfully under a republican form of government, where the people govern themselves, as under a monarchy, and hence this drift, by the wealthy classes, in that direction. We should be derelict of our duty if we failed to lift a warning voice against the encroachment of this anti-republican sentiment. We proudly and indignantly spurn the infamous doctrine, that Mr. Cleveland or any other man "governs" the American people; and we call upon the spirit of a Washington and a Jefferson to rise and vindicate themselves and all our Revolutionary sires from this base slander upon our free government.
We call upon the spirit of a Patrick Henry to once more inspire these "violent" American patriots until they will rise above sordid cupidity and shout, in deafening notes, into the ears of all monarchists at home or abroad, "give us liberty, or give us death."

Some while since a very prominent, able and respectable state official of Colorado—Attorney-General Tarsney—was kidnapped, tarred-and-feathered and left in a half-murdered condition, by some of the broadcloth anarchists, genteel businessmen, clubmen and property-owners (for saloon, gambling and dice purposes, but still carrying high heads and wearing saintly faces in daytime). This was for enforcing the laws against goldbug anarchists, and yet nothing seems to have been done in the matter of arresting and punishing these genteel thugs for their lawlessness.
Somewhat later, after Governor McIntyre of the g. o. p. was in his seat and the dives and gamblers and dice, gentlemen owners of the dens were all moving along harmoniously and prosperously, a "colored brother" named Marshall made a criticism on his excellency, while at a celebration at Greeley, and for this he was taken out and tarred-and-feathered. Some time has elapsed since this occurrence but no word that the outlaws have been apprehended and punished.

It is not the usual party name that will greet us in the U. S. senatorial election. While both are Republicans, yet one goes as a Morman and the other a Gentle.

Next week the HERALD will publish Judge Schroeder's letter to the Coast Mail in full; we have not room for it this week.

RESPIRE FOR DURRANT.

In the case of Durrant Judge Murphy has granted a stay of proceedings for twenty days to give his attorneys time to prepare their application to the supreme court for a certificate of "probable cause." Justice Beatty, of the supreme court, was present at the time of the granting of the respite, and from remarks he made there it is understood that the supreme court will grant the certificate of probable cause, and thus prevent the prisoner from being removed to San Quentin until the said court has passed upon the matters at issue in the trial by the lower court. From present indications the end is not yet.

The National Central Committee of the People's party will meet in St. Louis, on January 17, 1896, for the purpose of arranging for the national convention.

Bandon's Budget.

Bandon, Dec. 21.—Ben Inman got pretty badly hurt some time ago while painting a building, but is getting along nicely now.
The weather at Bandon the last few days has been very stormy.
L. Jacobson finally concluded to leave, and departed last Tuesday morning for Portland, but not until he had made several of the breakwater boys happy.

Editor HERALD, notice is hereby given that all members of company K are requested to meet at the Presbyterian church at 7:30 o'clock Tuesday eve, Dec. 24th, as business of importance will be transacted.

Two schooners sailed in Wednesday and three were towed out.

Mrs. E. A. McDuffee and Ed Sunner have both been quite sick the last few days, but are better at this writing.

Almost everybody is complaining of a grip, or bad cold.

There is nothing that Bandon needs worse than sidewalks. Why not spend some of the city money and build some?

Several of the Bandon citizens have moved the past week into new quarters for the winter.

C. S. McCulloch returned this week from Grants Pass, where he went to stay the winter. Why he came back and whether he expects to return to that place, your reporter has not had time to find out.
It might be well to give you an outline of the Christmas program at Bandon. At 4 o'clock Tuesday the Methodists will open up with a program and distribution of presents. At 7 o'clock, "carry arms"— "right about face"—"forward march" to the Presbyterian church, where another program and tree awaits the arrival of the congregation, and while there the people will have the pleasure of seeing a couple of Bandon's most popular young people united in marriage.
At about half past 9 the G. A. R. will open up a rask ball down town, which will be no small affair of itself, for almost everybody is going. On Christmas day a good time in general—talking, visiting, eating turkey and chicken, etc.
The Episcopals will have a program and tree at the church sometime during the day, which will last three for Bandon this year.
At 8 o'clock p. m. Capt. Blum-enrother will give a free dance in the armory in honor of the newly wedded couple, which will close the Christmas festivities.

RAMBLER.

DON'T STOP TOBACCO

How to Cure Yourself While Using Tobacco.

The tobacco habit grows on a man until his nervous system is seriously affected, impairing health, comfort and happiness. To quit suddenly is too severe a shock to the system, as tobacco, to an inveterate user, becomes a stimulant that his system continually craves. Baco-Curo is a scientific cure for the tobacco habit, in all its forms, carefully compounded after the formula of an eminent Berlin physician who has used it in his private practice since 1872, without a failure, purely vegetable and guaranteed perfectly harmless. You can use all the tobacco you want, while taking Baco-Curo; it will notify you when to stop. We give a written guaranty to permanently cure any case with three boxes, or refund the money with 10 per cent interest.
Baco-Curo is not a substitute, but a scientific cure, that cures without the aid of will power and with no inconvenience. It leaves the system as pure and free from nicotine as the day before you took your first chew or smoke. Sold by all druggists, with our ironclad guaranty, at $1 per box; three boxes (thirty days' treatment), $2.50; or sent direct on receipt of price. Write for booklet and proofs. Eureka Chemical & Mfg. Co., Mfg. Chemists, La Crosse, Wisconsin.

The mock legislature adjourned over the holidays, and to resume proceedings the first Tuesday following New Year's day. The meetings are becoming very interesting and afford much amusement as well as business instruction. Everybody should take part; the ladies are cordially invited.

WANTED—A PRINCE OR DUKE.

From the Gold Mines—Christmas Looked For By the Miners.

Johnson Creek, Dec. 20.—Rain and snow.

A Merry Christmas to you, HER-ALD!

So Christmas is coming! It will come to rich and poor, to kings and slaves, all alike. It comes to Grover's crystalline palace filled with all the luxuries that a nation can afford, and to the poor miners' isolated, storm-beaten huts, half buried in snow, as well. How indifferent Nature is to us all! But what a wonderful difference in rank men create!

Mr. Lundy, of Myrtle Point, was up to the Courier mines last week, on business connected with the development of the mines.

The road is muddy and we have no regular mail service between here and Eckley. We want a good, open-all-the-year-round road, and we are going to have it soon; and a postoffice, too.

George Divilbiss was up to the mines last Sunday, but his visit was a very brief one.

Charles Green, who met with a painful accident last week by an explosion of dynamite in a mine on Rusty Gulch on the South Sixes, and who went to Myrtle Point for medical treatment, is reported to be improving rapidly.

Yonder, in the depths of the snow-capped mountains, and in the blasts of the wild storms, remember that there are honest miners toiling away for gold. Yes, as you say, Mr. Editor, if the results of their hard labor must all go to England, not by their own faults, but through the frauds and rascal-ties of the Clever Grocklands— then let the music of Buzzard's Bay swell, "a third term never-more!"

Allow me, Mr. Editor, as I am a constant and patient reader of your paper, to present you and your readers my logic on politics. I am a monometalist and goldbug, and I'll tell you the reason why. You know, I struck, accidentally, the only mother lode of this mining country, and now I am digging gold by the ton every day. Soon I will be a millionaire, and the indications are that there are billions of pounds in the veins yet to be dug.

Perhaps you would like to know why it is that you, honest toilers, laboring and by the sweat of your brow for half a century can hardly support your families today, while a lucky man like myself may become a millionaire within a few months, and that without much labor, either. Who said that Nature is just to all men? Well, listen, I tell you the facts. It is because you are potato diggers, while I am a gold digger, and because you say that one pound of my product is equal to 16,000 pounds of your crops. This is what makes me rich and you poor, and that is why I stick to my principles.

I held a connel with my wife last night and decided to visit Europe early in next spring. The object of my tour is to look for a prince, duke or count for my daughter. I have a son, too, but I don't go much on him. He is always talking of what he calls "sound money," and he is always in sympathy with poor laborers. I have no use for such a boy; sorry I sent him to school. Yankee boys, as a general rule, are too independent and too bold; they stand ready by the flag and by the principles, and freely discuss their politics even against their own fathers' views—a disgraceful thing, sir. I have a notion of sending him down to the Beaver Hill coal mine. Or, Mr.
Editor, if you are in need of a boy in your office, please let me know.
He is a model Yankee, with ambitions and courage, and true to his honest convictions, but disobedient to his dad's politics, hence would make a good subordinate on your staff.

Well, for my charming daughter, I would take no common blood.
She shall marry either a divine or a titled person. You see, we millionaires are well aware of the fact that, sooner or later, the time will soon come when your honest Yankees would arouse and cry for justice, demonetize gold, disfranchise monopolies and dethrone money-kings—we know it. When that time shall come and we can no longer keep you down, we'll go to Europe at once—Pallman, Goulds, Vanderbilts and I, and see our noble sons-in-law, and ask for their mercy to put you re—oh, I don't know what may follow then! But we are not afraid of you a bit, and I tell you, sir, we are all prepared for—see the point, now—eh? what!
ha! ha! EUCLID.

Notice to Policy-Holders.

I will substitute North America policies for paid-up State (Salem) policies, and allow the unearned premium credit on new policies.
The North America has a $3,000,000 paid-up capital and is 103 years old.
It went through the great Chicago fire in 1871, paying $2,000,000 of losses; later it paid $1,000,000 in the Boston fire. Time tried and fire tested. T. A. WALKER.

WANTED.—Several trustworthy gentlemen or ladies to travel in Oregon established, reliable home, salary, $750 and expenses. Steady position. Enclose references and self-addressed stamped envelope. The Dominion Company, Third Floor, 318 Main Building, Chicago, Illinois.

UPPER-RIVER DEPARTMENT.

Myrtle Point and the Upper-Coquille, and What is Going on There.

That masque ball next Wednesday is attracting much attention.
The M. P. band will do all in their power to make it one of the best.

Township 39 south, range 14 west, is advertised in the Bandon Recorder to be open for settlement after Jan. 29, 1896. Ain't you mistaken in number of township, Brother Stitt?

Prof. W. H. Walker's class in vocal music has progressed very nicely and the teacher has shown that he is an able teacher. It is hoped by many that he will continue another term.

Judge Bender was down to Arago on the 18th to perform the wedding ceremony for George Lainger, who was united in holy wedlock with Ella Schroeder, a daughter of Judge J. H. Schroeder. The young couple have many well-wishers in this vicinity.

Mrs. Clara J. Wheeler of Parkersburg made final proof on her homestead last Thursday before the U. S. court commissioner at this place. Mr. Wheeler should be happy to capture such a fine lady and get a homestead in the bargain.

An elderly gentleman named Scoggins died near Custer last week.
His home was on the edge of Col-well's prairie. The deceased had gone to the barn to look after the stock and was struck with a paralitical shock and exposed to severe cold several hours before he was rescued; he leaves a widow.

Mrs. W. O. Corbin, a noble lady resident of this place, died very suddenly last Wednesday, 18th inst. from apoplexy of the brain.
She had lately made a journey to the Sixes mines to visit her husband, and it is supposed that the journey was too much for one of her age. She was near 60 years old. The deceased leaves a sorrowing husband and several children to mourn her untimely death.

Married, at the residence of the bride's parents, at Myrtle Point, Dec. 18, 1895, Edgar Alford Dodge and Miss Ethel E. Graham, Rev.
Thos. Barklow officiating. The wedding was private, members of the two families being present.
They will occupy a new cottage on 4th street, built by the groom this autumn. Mr. Dodge is ticket and freight agent for the C. B. R. & E. railway and Wells, Fargo & Co's express agent at this place, hence, he is well known. The bride is a native of Coos county and is well known as a young lady in good standing.

The merry wedding bells have been chiming out lively this past week, and included two prominent and popular couples from this place. Last Saturday the brothers, Oscar and Samuel M. Nosler, sons of our townsman, Comrade W. H.
Nosler, so well and favorably known here, took passage on the steamer to Bandon, having in charge, each, one of Coquille's charming young ladies—the former, Miss Birdie Elliott, daughter of Comrade and Mrs. Chas. Elliott, and the latter Miss Lula Moulton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Moulton, of old and prominent citizenship here —and were there joined in holy wedlock Sunday morning by Rev.
Mr. Scott, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Evan Morgan.

The happy couples returned to this place by Monday's steamer and were each greeted at the residences of the brides' parents with a sumptuous dinner and warm welcome.

This reporter was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Elliott at the reception of their daughter and new son, and fared grandly. It was a quiet, family affair, there being present Mr. and Mrs. Elliott, Mr. and Mrs.
Oscar Nosler, Miss Nellie and Earl Elliott, Grandpa Clark of Roseburg, Miss Ella True-Donaldson of Riverton, Comrade A. H. Snyder of the upper river, Mr. and Mrs.
W. Sugg.

This office was also kindly remembered by Mr. and Mrs. S. M.
Nosler. A pleasant visit and supply of wedding cake were accorded us.

The HERALD sincerely greets both young couples and wishes them unbounded happiness.

Geo. W. Jenkins, editor of the Santa Maria "Times," Cal., in speaking of the various ailments of children said: "When my children have croup there is but one patent medicine that I ever use, and that is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It possesses some medical properties that relieve the little sufferers immediately. It is, in my opinion, the best cough medicine in the market." If this remedy is freely given as soon as the croupy cough appears it will prevent the attack. It is also an ideal remedy for whooping cough. There is no danger in giving it to children, as it contains nothing injurious. For sale by Dr.
S. L. Leneuve, druggist.

McDonald's shaving parlors are always open; so are the bath-rooms for hot and cold baths. Go and get a smooth shave and primp up for Christmas.

Editor Connor has moved the Enterprise office to the upper story of the building he was occupying.
We presume the masculine mule kicked the plant to its present quarters. Titcomb once said in his plain way, "If a young man finds out that he is a masculine mule he will succeed; if he never does find it out there is no hope for him." The letter in last week's Enterprise, that claims to be the product of many, is convincing within itself that the writer is in a fair way to success, although one can see by his rhetoric and forcible arguments that he is an educated(?) animal.
The insinuation in those able(?) articles, which the kicker is imposing on the Enterprise, that this department is kept up as an "indignant and malicious" opposition to our town paper is very amusing to those who are better posted than he can ever be in the newspaper world. We have a good, live paper and to have a department in a neighboring journal that has the large circulation that the HERALD has and thus have comparatively two notices a week of this upper river should not offend the most delicate nerves of such a wise, split-hazel scholar. Now as the writer in the Enterprise infers in his letter that our friends all left us at the last election and flocked around him and elevated him to the high and honorable position he occupies it is evident that he is looking for another term, and suppose that we drop this smart talk and enter the merits of the case. It may be a benefit to the town and perhaps some reforms may take place.
Men get careless sometimes and not intentionally but carelessly neglect their duty; and as you threaten to warm us up next week, suppose you tell us whether or not after you have passed an ordinance with a full board and the proper official records the same, you can go out on the street and two or three change that ordinance or nullify it? The propounding such questions and discussing the same in a gentlemanly manner would be instructive and would not be imposing upon the good nature of the publishers. In the wild discussion so far we have shown that my mind runs after the mule family; well, I believe the Savior rode an ass and you are too fast when you get angry if that is a fact; but my poor fellow, I am sorry to see that your mind runs to hazel splitters and bourbon barrels. Keep away from the old sow and take the Keely.

Our attention has been called to a splendid volume of 640 pages, containing 230 fine illustrations, which should be in the hands of every lover of the Christian Endeavor movement, and in fact everyone else. Rev. Francis E. Clark, D.D., president of the United Societies of Christian Endeavor, and his wife have returned from a trip around the world, and have written one of the most interesting and instructive books of travel ever offered to the American people.
Mr. Clark and his wife traveled nearly 50,000 miles, and took more than a year for their journey.

The reader is carried with a magic spell of interest through Australia, India, China, Japan, Palestine, Egypt, Turkey and many other lands, and the fine illustrations of persons, places, customs and things make one feel as if they were making this splendid journey in person.

B. E. Hampton of Myrtle Point is agent for the introduction of this superb volume, and the HERALD readers will do well to examine this book and give it more than a passing notice. The work is published by the old and well-known firm of A. D. Worthington & Co., Hartford, Conn., whose imprint is a guarantee of the excellence of the volume.

Our Journey Around the World.
Our attention has been called to
a splendid volume of 640 pages,
containing 230 fine illustrations,
which should be in the hands of
one else. Rev. Francis E. Clark,
D.D., president of the United Societies of Christian Endeavor, and his
offered to the American people.
Mr. Clark and his wife traveled
than a year for their journey.

Australia, India, China, Japan, Pal-
in person.

B. E. Hampton of Myrtle Point
readers will do well to examine
firm of A. D. Worthington & Co.,
the volume.

NEURALGIA cured by Dr. Miles' PAIN
