What Did Mark Hanna Do to Him

Ben Butterworth, Now Doing Oregon for "McKin- ley and Prosperity," Once for Bimetallism.

(The following are extracts taken from a letter written by Congressman Ben Butterworth, March 26, 1896, to Senator Henry M. Teller, and printed in the Congressional Record April 29, 1896. The letter was a vigorous assault on the influences and the awful clutches the money power had on the government, and in favor of free silver coinage by the United States.)

GOLD STANDARD CONFIDENCE NO REMEDY.
I thought until recently that, possibly, if congress should proclaim to the world our fixed determination to pay every debt in gold or its equivalent, confidence would be restored and our industries quickened, and the gloomy conditions pass away. BUT I AM SATISFIED THAT THOSE OF US WHO INDULGED IN THAT HOPE WERE IN ERROR.

Nothing can be more natural and appropriate than an alliance between those who favor an extreme tariff and those who opposed bimetallism.

The triumph of such an alliance would hasten the condition in our own country which would present the people divided into the classes —"beasts of burden and beasts of prey." NOR COULD THERE BE A MORE JUST AND USEFUL UNION THAN ONE BE-TWEEN THE SUPPORTERS OF A JUST AND REASONABLE TARIFF AND THOSE WHO CHAMPION BIMETALLISM. It would be a holy alliance in the interest of the many—those who are in the last analysis the nation, the state, the people.

And the conviction is growing that the demonization of one half of the money of the world, no matter what theoretical financiers may say, is—and was by those who were chief contrivers of the manner of its accomplishment, intended to be—a scheme to increase by legislative enactment the wealth of those who are already wealthy and the power of those already too powerful.

That it has done so is certain; that it has taken from the farmer and confiscated half of the product of his fields is sure. AND NOW, AS A MEASURE OF RELIEF, HE IS URGED TO TAX HIMSELF STILL FURTHER AS A MEANS TO INCREASE HIS ASSETS.

THE TARIFF TAX BURDEN OFFERS NO RELIEF.
NOR WILL WE FIND RELIEF IN A SYSTEM OF TAX-ATION SUPPOSED TO BE LESS ONEROUS BECAUSE INDI-RECT, BUT WHICH COMPELS THE MEN WHO HOLD THE PLOW, OR STAND AT THE ANVIL, OR THE THROTTLE, OF AN ENGINE, TO PAY AS MUCH OR MORE THAN THE MILLIONAIRE TO SUPPORT THE GOVERNMENT.

Is it folly to suppose that the capitalists of England—and they are the capitalists of the world—will easily be persuaded to agree or consent to bimetallism. Why should they? How is it to their interest to do so while we make it to their advantage to refuse? They have doubled the value of their credits by demonization of silver, and thus in effect doubled the interest received by them.

The United States blundered into that trap, and within a year begged a million of her citizens, and if we adhere to the blunder will beggar five million more, and double the burden of every debtor and burden bearer in the land. If it be said the United States cannot act alone, the answer is, conditions are such that she must give notice that she will act with England if the latter consents; otherwise she will act alone.

We are the greatest debtor nation on earth. Hence it may be we must start alone, if at all, and CREDITOR NATIONS WILL SPECIALLY JOIN US FOR THEIR OWN PROTECTION IN RE-ESTABLISHING BIMETALLISM. IF NECESSARY, AND THE UNITED STATES DOES NOT START ALONE, GOLD MONO-METALLISM WILL BE SO FIRMLY INTRENCHED BEHIND THE RAMPARTS OF WEALTH AND POWER, AND THE MASS OF THE PEOPLE BE SO HELPLESS, THAT BIMETALLISM WILL BE POSTPONED A GENERATION, IF NOT FOREVER.

THE PITIABLE FEATURE OF PROTECTION.

One thought more: How in the name of common sense can we reasonably hope, under our present system of monometallism, to protect our producers against the competition of those of China and Japan without building a tariff wall about our country as that which we induced those countries to take down in order to admit our goods to their markets?

See what a show we have made of ourselves under the pretense of protecting the producers of the United States.
We insisted in getting into the Chinese and Japanese markets. We got there, but the gate that opened to let us in remained open to let the Japanese and Chinese out.

They came out, and are rapidly learning the art of manufacturing certain articles which they sell in our markets at prices that defy competition, since they can manufacture at half the cost to us.

That would be quite enough to make us anxious, but beyond that our capitalists, acting in concert with our creditors abroad, compel us to pay the Chinese and Japanese in gold, or its equivalent in demonetized silver. The result is that the Japs, selling their goods in our market, in matter of exchange also get an advantage of 100 per cent.

With the advantage in cost of labor and 100 per cent in exchange, what kind of a tariff would we require to protect our manufacturers?
Thus, by the monetary system adopted by our capitalists, co-operating with our foreign creditors, we have practically closed the Japanese market to our people and opened our market to the Japanese, and now the great monopolies of our country that have been protected to the verge of toleration, while protesting against bimetallism, pray for a tariff that must be prohibitory as to other nations in order to shut out the Japanese.

The striking feature of a tariff necessary to shut out the present and threatened Japanese competition will be a rate of duty so high as to be practically prohibitory as to other nations, and THE CON-SUMERS OF THE UNITED STATES WILL BE LEFT TO THE TENDER MERCIES OF THE MONOPOLIES OF OUR OWN COUNTRY. As it is, the Japs would injure a small part of the community, and to prevent that injury to a few, CONGRESS WILL BE ASKED TO SECURE TO HOME MONOPOLIES THE PRIVI-LEGE OF FLEEING THE WHOLE POPULATION.

The danger of Chinese and Japanese competition will trouble the manufacturers and producers of Europe as well as ourselves, and the remedy will be for the United States and Europe to return to bimetallism and establish an equitable reciprocity in trade between themselves while warding off the destructive competition from China and Japan by an adequate protective tariff.

War With England.

Great Britain to Collect Debts at Mouth of Cannon. Cowardly Attitude of American Tories.

War with England is threatened by the American representatives of the English bondholders and Shylocks, in the event that Bryan is elected. It is not an idle threat. The money power is desperate and will not surrender its clutch on the throats of the American people without a fight. Here are two recent editorial expressions from well-known London newspapers:

London, Sept. 12.—(Copyright, 1896, by the Associated Press.) —London newspapers are now more fully realizing the importance of the presidential election in the United States to Great Britain and the continent. The Daily Telegraph says that the American department of the stock exchange is a veritable sick room, because "English capitalists will never take their interest from the United States in depreciated currency," and it goes on to say that "the adoption of bimetallism, or, as it would be later, the silver standard, in America, would practically mean the repudiation of their debts, and it is this sort of thing which leads to the withdrawal of envoys and declarations of war."

The following from the London Times and Echo, a paper of enormous circulation, owned by Edwards, an Englishman of enormous wealth:

"The election of W. J. Bryan—a young man from Nebraska, an impassioned orator, but hitherto an unknown politician—as the Democratic candidate for the presidency seals the adherents of the Democrats to the silverites. The gravity of the situation can hardly be exaggerated. It is by no means so certain that Mr. Bryan may not be elected, and if he should be, and congress decrees that silver, which is today worth half a crown an ounce, shall be worth 5 shillings, and that all national gold bonds shall be paid in silver, there will be war between this country and the United States before this time next year.
The great capitalists who forced Gladstone to occupy Egypt will compel any government in office here to declare war against America, sooner than that their holdings of American bonds shall shrink to half values."

Threats of this kind will not deter the American people from rejecting, by an enormous majority, English domination and a British financial system. This is the same England which the United States has on two memorable occasions defeated in war, and there is yet enough manhood in America to defend our homes against English greed and aggression. It is the same old fight over again. The American tory, who hung upon our rear and made secret and open war against American liberty, yet exists in New York, Chicago and other great money centers. He yet longs for an American monarchy.
He yet believes that the republic is a failure. He does not disguise his hatred of the common people. He is now plotting for the disenfranchisement of those who cannot qualify on a property basis. His purse is open to Mark Hanna. His daughter is either married to or scheming for a marriage with an English lord.

If the election of William Jennings Bryan means war with England, we must prepare for war. Bryan will be elected, and in the which war will ensue, the English aristocracy and their American allies, the hereditary Tories of New York and elsewhere, will be wiped out of existence. They never won a fight against American freemen and they never will.—Chicago Dispatch.

BRYAN IN NEW JERSEY.

Day's Journey.

The gold standard means half time in the factories and double time on the farms.

If you ask me what the campaign song ought to be this year, I will tell you there is no better than "Home, Sweet Home."

We find against us those who will contribute liberally to the corruption fund. We find those with us who have no money to corrupt voters with.

We have opposed to us every man who has attempted to destroy labor organizations. We have with us those who have aided labor to better its condition.

If presidents of railroads will manipulate votes before election, they will manipulate men after election.

mills unless you first make the people able to buy what the mills produce?

Show me a man who makes money out of legislation, and I will show you a man who abuses the people when they want legislation for themselves.

A financial system that commends itself to the wealthy only is a curse

Show me a man who has made money out of unjust laws, and he will deny legislation can be of ben-

The Populist Vote.

BY W. H. WASHINGTON.

And "How will the Populist vote?"
A friend of mine unto me wrote, They'll vote for free silver, they'll vote for free gold,
And then, my dear friend, you needn't be told—They'll vote for the freedom of men.

Yet, how will the Populists vote?
Says the goldbug. Gram this down his throat—They'll vote in the morning, they'll vote in the night;
They'll vote the straight ticket, they'll vote in their might,
For their vote gives them freedom again.

And where will the Populists vote?
They'll vote where the folk are remote; They'll vote in the country, they'll vote in the town;
They'll vote in the woods and they'll vote on the down—
For their freedom depends on their vote.

And why will the Populists vote?
Because the monopolists ORAY Under Texas golden rule; they keep wages down, Till the poor lie on straw, while the rich roll on down,
But they'll alter all this by their vote.

"Anarchist" John P. Altgeld: Patriotism does not take root in the soil of leisure and dissipation. The hot air of the drawing room is not conducive to its growth; it finds no nourishment in either pride or pretense, and it withers and withers in the hollow glare of fashion. Patriotism thrives among the hard lines of care and vigilance; it becomes robust on the diet of justice and is always found in its most vigorous form among the intelligent, upright, and industrious masses of the people.

Something About the "New Man."

HE BELIEVES IN PRAISING THOSE TO WHOM PRAISE IS DUE.

A Story from Tennessee which is the Equal of that of J. M. Foster Published in these Columns Some Weeks Ago.

From the Herald, Columbia, Tennessee.

Many and various are the discussions of the "new woman," but most of the women we've seen have no aspirations toward the emancipation of their sex from any yoke except the burdensome yoke of ill health.
They all seem to think—and think rightly—that their proper field is their home, and to work faithfully in this field she must be strong and hearty. Care is peculiarly a woman's heritage. But it was not the "new woman" or any other kind of woman that we started out to talk about. It is a "man in the case" this time, and a man, too, that thinks he is the newest kind of a "new man."

From what he tells us, he has good cause to think so. There is no comparison between his present state of feeling and that of two years ago. But let the following speak for itself. We published a few weeks ago a statement of the miraculous cure of Mr. J.
M. Foster, of Carter's Creek, now one of the Herald's men, from locomotor ataxia (a disease said to be incurable), by the use of Dr.
Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People.

The account was read by numbers of people who were eye-witnesses of his bodily suffering and who know what Mr. Foster stated to be true beyond a peradventure of a doubt; it was read by others, also, who believe it just the same as if they, too, had seen all because Mr. Foster never knew over the country to be a man of unimpeachable veracity.

So strong is his belief in the Dr. Williams' Pills, he has influenced a number of other people to use them, and all have become as new persons.

One of the number is a young man of Southport, Maury County, Tennessee, Mr.
N. F. Murphy. He is only twenty-one years old, and being of rather a delicate constitution, has been afflicted the greater part of his life.

Young Murphy says, he verily believes that very few people of any age or clime have been called upon to endure the bodily suffering which he had undergone.

In an interview with the Herald, he told us the following, which we give in his own words:

"Five years ago I was attacked with a severe spell of the grippe, which affected me very much. However, with the summer before me, I gradually grew better until I considered myself nearly well, when in September following I was prostrated by an attack of cholera.

"I took the medicine administered by my family physician and was soon on foot again, though with a large amount of malaria in my system. Being in a low state of health, I was troubled all winter with dreadful colds and coughs.

"The following spring I was again attacked with another severe case of biliousness, and only rallied in part from this spell when at the suggestion of some of my friends, I resorted to various patent medicines for relief, but without satisfactory results.

"The malaria continued, and there was no end to my taking cold, which at last began to settle on my left lung, which was weak, inasmuch as it had undergone the terrible effects of an abscess when I was quite small.
As a result expectoration began and grew worse until May, 1894.

"I believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best for children I ever used. For croup it is unequalled. It is a splendid seller with us. T. M. ECKLES, Ph. G., Manager Wampum Pharmacy, Wampum, Pa." When used as soon as the first symptoms appear, that is as soon as the child becomes hoarse or even after the croupy cough has appeared, it will prevent the attack. The mothers of croupy children should bear this in mind and always keep the remedy at hand. It is also the best medicine in the world for colds and whooping cough. For sale at 25 and 50 cents per bottle by Dr. S. L.
Leneve.
