OF INTEREST TO THE PEOPLE.

Address to the People.

FROM THE CHAIRMAN OF THE POPULIST NATIONAL COMMITTEE.

The Mission of the People's Party to Restore the Principles of Lincoln and Jefferson, Discarded By the Old Parties.

Senator Butler, chairman of the People's party national committee, has issued the following:

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES:

In the remarkable campaign just closed the People's party was the only party that supported, solidly and unitedly, the great and vital issues represented in the candidacy of Mr. Bryan. This was natural, for the People's party came into existence to bring to the front and to press to victory the principles of Lincoln and Jefferson, already long discarded by the two old parties. The money power, feeling reasonably sure of its control and domination of the leaders and the controlling influences in the Republican party in 1892, gave its support to the candidacy of Grover Cleveland for the especial purpose of having him, through the use of patronage and otherwise, crush out the silver sentiment in the south and make the leaders in that party as completely subservient as those in the Republican party. To accomplish this purpose, four cabinet ministers were selected from the south, and an unusually large amount of patronage used on political leaders to the same end. It will be remembered that Mr. Cleveland demanded that the Democratic senators and congressmen give a decisive vote in the interest of the gold standard before he would seem to give out the postoffices.

This deep-laid plan might have succeeded had not the People's party at this juncture sprung into existence, exposed the plot, stood in the breach and appealed to the patriotic hosts of both parties to check the scheme of the people's despoilers, and to rally to the common defense.

The People's party forced the Democratic organization to repudiate Clevelandism and return to correct fundamental principles. Not only this, the People's party then forced the Republican party to cease hedging and straddling for the purpose of deceiving the people, and drove them to take a stand on one side or the other of the vital issue at stake.

The issues now being squarely joined, it was evident that those influences in the Democratic party which had dominated and debauched the party for a quarter of a century would be driven to the party that took a position on the side of trusts, monopolies and money gamblers. While, on the other hand, it was evident that a large percentage of the Republican party favored the principles now squarely forced to the front, yet only a small per cent would, in this campaign, support them because they found them under the Democratic banner.

PATRIOTISM OF THE PEOPLE'S PARTY.

Had it not been for the prejudice against the Democratic name, as well as a want of confidence in Democratic promises, for which, it must be admitted, past experience furnishes ample ground, a majority of the voters of the country, in spite of tremendous and unparalleled forces put forward by the Republican managers, would have cast their votes for financial reform and American independence.

The People's party, with a high patriotism and an unselfish devotion to principle, greater than ever before exhibited by any other party, stepped outside of its organization to throw its 2,000,000 votes solidly for Bryan. Had not more than this number of those who called themselves Democrats in 1892 given their support to Mr. McKinley, the cause of the people and American principles would have triumphed this year.

This class of Democrats will surely support the party of monopolies in the future. Their places in the ranks of the reform hosts must be taken by patriotic Republicans. In fact, Bryan would have been elected in this contest had even 25,000 silver Republicans come to the rescue. The election of McKinley and the triumph of the gold standard does not express the desires and sentiments of the people. The majority oppose the policy for which he stands and will so vote whenever an opportunity is presented for a proper alignment. The remarkable and brilliant campaign of William J. Bryan would have aligned these forces and march them to a triumphant victory if any candidate or leader in America could have done so under the Democratic banner.

CANNOT BRING PROSPERITY.

The administration of McKinley cannot bring prosperity to the American people. The mills cannot be kept open, idle labor given employment and general prosperity restored and maintained until the wealth producers receive fair returns for their labor and are thus enabled to purchase. The gold standard and monopoly rule, to a continuation of which McKinley stands pledged, means four more years of falling prices, four more years of lock-outs and strikes, four more years of reduced wages and idle labor. This will cause the patriotic rank and file of the Republican party to condemn and repudiate McKinleyism, as the patriotic rank and file of the Democratic party has condemned and requdiated Clevelandism.

HOPE FOR THE FUTURE.

I cannot believe otherwise, for I have not less confidence in the patriotism of this class of Republicans than the rank and file of the Democratic party has already demper cent, who, though not fooled by the ambiguous plea of honest money and promised prosperity, yet who would not in this campaign fight under the Democratic banner, will surely join hands with the majoriity of the American voters outside of the old parties to overthrow a government of trusts and monopolies run in the interest of foreign capitalists. The People's party has made this possible, in fact, inevitable. The position of the People's party in this great contest has convinced every patriotic American that the party can be trusted to stand for the principles of good government and the interests of the people under any and all circumstances. Therefore, the People's party will be the nucleus around which the patriotic hosts must and will gather to redeem a betrayed republic and to restore prosperity to an oppressed and outraged people.

(Signed) MARION BUTLER,
Chairman People's Party National Committee.

It Will Be a Big Thing.

The lithographic presses from which the five-colored supplement of The Oregonian's special Cascade locks number will be printed, are now running to their full capacity. The size of the edition can be appreciated from the statement that The Oregonian's contract with the lithographers for this work provides for a 30 days' continuous run. Even with the big edition already provided for, the orders being placed for extra copies promise to more than tax the capacity of the lithographic presses to meet this demand. The number will be attractive in typographical appearance, and its handsome illustrations and subject matter will commend it to popular approval. The opening of the Columbia river offers a new and wide field for the expenditure of Portland's energy and Portland's capital, and the special significance of the completion of the government works at the Cascades and the opportunities it presents to the Portland business man will be fully exploited in the special number of The Oregonian devoted to the interests of this undertaking. All regular subscribers will be supplied with the full paper, including the five-colored supplement. Extra copies of the paper and supplement will be sold at the regular price charged for The Daily Oregonian.

The Feller What Rips Yer Up the Back.

You can always face a man that stands an' sasses to yer face,
A feller that defends the law but damns ther human race—
A feller that stands up and spits and swears you aren't right,
That what you saw by daytime green, was yeller seen at night;
But the meanest man ther Lord lets live and hover 'round life's track
Is the chap thet's pleasant to yer face, then talks behind yer
back.

You'll find them everywhere you go, an' treat 'em as yer may,
You'll hear strange echoes o' their talk when they've moved away;
You'll hear of things you never did, of words you never said,
Or acts that if you were guilty you'd wish thet you were dead;
But when you sift the rumors down, you'll find thet truth they lack,
And thet you've met some friend thet talks
behind
back.

Ef you'd do some men a favor; ef you'd keep 'em out o' jail;
They would get you into prison ef you'd let 'em tell ther tale;
Ef yer married thet same kind o' man will go and tell yer wife
Thet you've got another sweetheart, ter promote domestic strife;
Yet he'll smile whene'er he meets yer, an' some joke he'll crack,
Fully meanin' when he leaves yer fer to rip
yer up ther
back.

A rattlesnake gives warnin' when he's goin' ter jump ther game,
Ther panther snarls afore it leaps, ther wildcat does the same,
The lion roars afore et goes ter usin' of its claws,
Ther bulldog gives a warnin' growl 'fore op'ning of its jaws,
But a measly human bein' will smile and then, alack,
When you've turned to greet another he will rip
yer up
the back.

GENERAL NEWS.

LARGE PIECE OF MOUNTAIN WENT INTO MEADOW LAKE.

M'Minnville, Or., Nov. 20.—Word reached here last night of a large landslide at Meadow lake, about 18 miles northwest of this city. Such damage was incurred that the present proprietor, A. A. Unruh, will not attempt to restore it. The slide occurred last Saturday. For more than a mile in length and 300 feet up the mountain side the earth gave way. The dam and away, power generators for the buildings and machinery, including two large turbine waterwheels. Water over the entire lake, which is ½x1½ miles, was raised more than seven feet. The loss was a heavy one.

JACKSON AND WALLING'S FATE.

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 25.—It is rumored that the court of appeals has agreed on a decision affirming the death sentence imposed on Scott Jackson and Alonzo Walling for the murder of Pearl Bryan, and that the decision will be handed down not later than Friday or Saturday.

AN AGITATOR.

"Dear, oh dear!" said Uncle 'Rastus, shaking his head, "what a terrible anarchist de Lord must a' been!"

GOVERNMENT BY INJUNCTION.

"I care not," mused the financier, "who gets the majorities as long as I get the judges."

A LOVER'S QUARREL

"Do you despise me so much, then?" she said.

"Do I?" exclaimed the railroad president, scornfully. "Why, I couldn't feel more contempt for you if you were the people of the United States."

STATISTICS DO.

"Say, Wagsey, what's statistics?" "Statistics, Ragsey? Why, statistics is figgers."

"Yer must be wrong. Figgers don't lie."

WHY NOT?

"Papa, what does the word coin mean?" asked the cherub.

"It means gold," replied the financier.

"Then, papa, does banker mean thief?"

GENIUS.

"You're studying to be a lawyer, eh?" asked Farmer Brown.

"I am," replied the youth.

"Don't you find it a dry thing to study the laws of the country?"

"But I never study them at all."

"But how can you be a good lawyer, then?"

"Well, Farmer Brown, it's this way. If I were to study the laws, the supreme court would have reversed them by the time I was admitted to the bar; so I don't bother my head about them."

OREGON'S LINE OF GOVERNORS.

Beginning With George Abernathy in 1845, and Extending to and Including the Present State Executive.

State Printer W. H. Leeds is preparing cards about 4x10 inches in size bearing the names of the different territorial and state governors of Oregon, dates of appointment or election, etc., says the Salem Statesman. These will be arranged under the oil paintings of the several dignitaries now on the walls of the senate chamber and the representative hall. The cards will be at once put in the positions they are to occupy, and during the session of the next legislature they will serve a good purpose in identifying the different paintings to the citizens from different portions of the state who gather in this city at that particular time, and many of whom are anxious to know the features of the men who are so prominent in making the history of this grand state.

Following are the inscriptions on the cards as they will be printed:

"Governor George Abernathy, governor of Oregon before the creation of Oregon territory, 1845 to 1849. Elected governor of the provisional government by the people in 1845; re-elected in 1847."

"General Joseph Lane; first territorial governor of Oregon. Also fourth territorial governor, 1849 to 1850, and in 1853. Appointed governor of Oregon territory by President James K. Polk in 1849. Also appointed governor of Oregon by President Franklin Pierce."

"Governor John P. Gaines; third territorial governor of Oregon, 1850 to 1853. Appointed governor of Oregon territory by President Zachary Taylor."

"Governor George L. Curry; the fifth and also the seventh territorial governor of Oregon territory, and the last under territorial government, 1853 to 1859. Was secretary of the territory and he came governor by virtue of his office on the resignation of Governor Lane in 1853, was also secretary of the territory and became governor by virtue of his office on the resignation of Governor Davis in 1854; also appointed governor of the territory by President Franklin territorial governor of Oregon, 1853 to 1854. Appointed governor of Oregon by Preident Franklin Pierce in place of General Joseph Lane, who resigned to become a delegate in congress."

"Governor John Whitaker; first governor of the state of Oregon, 1859 to 1862. Democrat; elected by the people at the general election in 1858."

"Governor Addison C. Gibbs; second governor of the state of Oregon, 1862 to 1866. Republican; elected by the people at the general election in 1862."

"Governor George L. Woods; third governor of the state of Oregon, 1866 to 1870. Republican; elected by the people at the general election in 1866."

"Governor Lafayette F. Grover; fourth governor of the state of Oregon, 1870 to 1877. Democrat; elected by the people at the general election in 1870; re-elected in 1874; resigned in 1877, having been elected United States senator from Oregon."

"Governor Stephen F. Chadwick; fifth governor of the state of Oregon, 1877 to 1878. Democrat; elected secretary of state by the people at the general election in 1874, and became governor February 1, 1877, by the resignation of Governor Grover."

"Governor W. W. Thayer; sixth governor of the state of Oregon, 1878 to 1882. Democrat; elected by the people at the general election in 1878."

"Governor Z. F. Moody; seventh governor of the state of Oregon, 1882 to 1887. Republican; elected by the people at the general election in 1882."

"Governor Sylvester Pennoyer; eighth governor of the state of Oregon, 1887 to 1895. Democrat; elected by the people at the general election held in 1886, and re-elected at the general election held in 1890."

"Governor Wm. P. Lord; ninth governor of the state of Oregon, 1895, present term expires in 1899. Republican; elected by the people at the general election held in 1894."

The likeness of Dr. John McLaughlin, which hangs just back of the chair of the senate, has already been provided with a card bearing his name. While this great pioneer was never governor of Oregon, he exerted a wide influence in the country which now forms this state and his name will go down in history as one of the founders of this great commonwealth.

"I don't like your slipper, ma." "That's strange, I thought it would hit you just right."

THE STEAMER SAN BONITO WRECKED

Off Point Arena—Of 43 Members of Her Crew, 35 Were Saved, and 8 Drowned.

Point Arena, Cal., Nov. 23.—The steamer San Bonito, bound from Tacoma to San Francisco, went ashore seven miles north of Point Arena this morning. The steamer struck on a sandbar and broke in two. The San Bonito carried 43 men. During the severe storm last night she must have lost her bearings. The wind blew terrific and a heavy sea was running.

The vessel struck about 1 o'clock in the morning and an hour later broke just aft of the smokestack. Boats were lowered but one capsized immediately with five men in it, four of whom were drowned. Another boat, with four of the crew, capsized nine times, losing two men. The three men by heroic means reached the shore. Daylight found the rest of the crew clinging to the rigging. Such a heavy sea was running that it was impossible to render assistance.

State Tax Board to Meet.

The state board of equalization meets at Salem December 1. In former years it had been customary for the clerk to come to Salem many days ahead of time to "prepare" for the board. The clerk has not yet arrived this year, the reason perhaps being that a majority of the board are new members. Out of 32 assessment rolls necessary to be received at the office of the secretary of state before the board can go to work, only fourteen had been received up to Nov. 23d. Following are the members of the state board of equalization for 1896:

First District, A. C. Auldon, Lakeview; Second, Robt. Walker, of Bandon; Third, S. D. Gibson, Salem; Fourth, D. P. Thompson, Portland; Fifth, G. Wingate, Astoria; Sixth, Chas. Johnson, Heppner; Seventh, W. C. Wills, Hay Creek; Eighth, O. P. Goodall, Union; Ninth, I. H. Holland, Vale.—Capital Journal.

"Are you a single man?" asked a lawyer of a stolid-looking German on the witness stand. "Now no smoke ... me yoost because I vas green. Do I look like I vas a double man? Do I look like I vas a Si-mese dwin? Hub! I vas no fool if I am not long in dis guntry!"

A man at Munice, Ind., swallowed a potato bug by accident, and then followed it with some paris green as an antidote. The doctors took him in hand and he is likely to recover, but he thinks the dying agonies of that potato bug were awful.

Of One Mind—"Chumply, I've made up my mind I was crazy when I lent you that $50." "Strange! for I am equally certain that I was not responsible when I borrowed it."
