The Lumber Octopus About Crushed.

The Examiner of November 25 gives a graphic account of the trials and tribulations into which the great lumber trust—or combine, or pool, as you choose—has fallen and which threaten to destroy it.

The Examiner says it was organized to "establish the Central Lumber Company and to shut out domestic and foreign competition."

"It was a splendid fight," said the Cuban officer, "and gave great hope and courage to the entire army."

000 worth of real estate along the Chicago lake shore, on the ground that the United States never possessed the right to grant lands in the former "Northwest Territory."

Oregonian: Benjamin Franklin, whose wisdom was usually more of the worldly and practical than of the religious kind, is the author of this statement: "A bible and a newspaper in every house, a good school in every district—all studied and appreciated as they deserve—are the best supporters of virtue, morality and liberty."

The department stores in the big cities are now invading the smaller towns—they are offsetting the little agents of the manufacturing combines and trusts, who were satisfied with their work of cinching the people while the big bosses shared the spoils.

THE CUBANS CLAIM A VICTORY.

Maceo Sends Greetings from His Mountain Camp to His Countrymen in the United States.

Philadelphia, Nov. 25.—The first authentic news from the mountain camp of General Antonio Maceo that has been received in this country since Weyler left Havana for the front two weeks ago, came today by special messenger, who stopped in this city.

General Maceo sends greeting to his countrymen in the United States, and in a few words assures them and the friends of Cuba throughout the country that his gallant band is safe for a time at least to take care of itself, no matter what the Spaniards may do.

"We have withstood the enemy in many encounters, and are prepared for any move he may make. We have rendered him much injury, and will be able to withstand any of his attacks for some time to come."

The message was dated at the rebel army camp, near Las Posas, on the northern coast at the farthest western end of the Rubi chain of mountains, along which are the several camps and strongholds of Maceo's forces.

"Maceo did not use his entire force against the Spaniards, but the latter, who numbered between 6000 and 8000, were driven back from the foothills, and many of them were slain upon the hard plateau before the town."

The burden of labor is constantly being lightened by new inventions, but nothing new has yet been discovered to brighten the hours of labor and make life worth living like Simmons Liver Regulator does.

Death of LaFayette Lane, One of Oregon's Pioneers, at Roseburg.

Roseburg, Nov. 24.—Hon. LaFayette Lane, congressman from Oregon from 1874 to 1876, died at his home here Monday.

Born in Myrtle Point, Nov. 25, 1836, to Mr. and Mrs. Z. T. Johnson, a daughter.

Two flourishing schools in our town speak well for the parents of pupils, as they are both private.

Confidence having been restored by the election of McKinley, the price of lumber in San Francisco has fallen from $4 to $6 per thousand feet during the month of November.

Every taxpayer should read a Salem paper this winter. The Oregon Weekly Statesman is the biggest, brightest, cheapest and best paper published at the capital.

The Herald is the only paper in the county that is all homeprint. If one that is half printed in the city is worth a dollar a year, certainly one all printed at home and in the interest of its people is worth two dollars.

There never has been such a large and handsome display of holiday goods in Coquille as this season, with more a-couing. Mrs. Martin has a nice selection at wonderfully low prices.

Preparations are already being made for a general term Christmas. The festivities here will be first class.

It is a pleasure to be able to announce that the much needed sidewalk to the depot at this place has been commenced.

Several homesteads have been filed in the branch land office at this place recently, and still there is much vacant land in Coos county that is valuable and would make excellent homes.

Miss Grace Dietz, who has been stopping with Mrs. Capt. Reed at Empire the last two months, returned home last week.

Our neighbors living on the Sugarloaf mountain, east of town, were treated to a coat of snow on last Thursday—just a little and for a Thanksgiving surprise.

We have had more cold weather in this November than we had all of last winter. It reminds the old settler of 1861 and 1862, also of 1875, when the ground was crusted for over two weeks, and the hills were white with the "beautiful" about three weeks.

Since Wm. Corbin and wife have moved to town, J. H. Matheny (the Mark Hanna of Populism in this place) is keeping bachelor's hall and says if any young lady wishes to improve the privilege of leaping year she must not delay the proposition later than Dec. 31, 1896.
