Le Bal Masque. The masquerade given Christmas night by the band was the event of the season. The attendance was immense, and the maskers in greater number than ever before.

The grand march was called at 9 o'clock and conducted by R. E. Buck and Miss Ella, after which followed alternate quadrille, waltz or schottische till early morning. The floor was crowded, but good behavior and good humor ruled throughout. The committees had provided for every emergency, and everything passed off to the pleasure of all.

We could not catch all the masqueraders, but give the characters and names of actors as far as we can, beginning with the principal and most attractive ones: Hand organ girl and monkey, Miss Minnie and Is Noser, the former taking the ladies' prize; Bryan and Watson, represented by Ben Lawrence and Jim Noser, who took the gentlemen's prize; Mark Hauna and Wm. McKinley, by Geo. Pike and Anderson Lamb; a Turk and his trained bear, Sam Johnson and Geo. Guerin. These all were first-class and a source of constant amusement and favorable criticism.

The monkey and bear were extra well persecuted. "Oregon pioneers," lady and gentleman, unmasked before we could interview them; Hank Bannan represented a clown; football players—Tug Wilson and another party; Mother Goose, squaw and papoose, haymaker, queen of diamonds—Mrs. C. E. Strang; two "boys in blue," hundert, Mexican, cowboy, troubadour, policeman—Oscar Noser; ghosts—J. J. Stanley and another party; Spanish grandee, advertising girl—Mrs. McDonald; popcorn girl—Lilly Wilson; kodak feud, flower girl, school girls, etc, etc.

The committee of awards was: Capt. Graves, Capt. Jorgensen, N. Lorenz, Mrs. Ella A. Tattle, Mrs. J. W. Leneve and Miss Eufa Carman.

The midnight supper was served to a host by the ladies of the Relief Corps, and was a spread of genuine good things and in great abundance.

The gentleman's prize was auctioned off by B. E. Lawrence, the receipts therefrom to go to the W. C. T. U. to aid in sending an afflicted sister to San Francisco for medical treatment. It brought $5, J. F. Fitzpatrick being the highest bidder.

Mr. R. then added: "Go to Dayton, Wash., at once. Love to all."

Deafness Cannot be Cured. by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the eustachian tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give one hundred dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Holes in Your Health.

What does that mean? Suppose you are taking in money all day, and drop it into a pocket with holes; you will find yourself a loser instead of a gainer by the day's business. Same with your health. You eat and drink and sleep, yet lose instead of gain strength. There's a hole in your health. Some blood disease, probably, sapping your vitality.
