CARD OF THANKS.—Members of the Christian church desire to return their sincere thanks to all who helped in papering the church, either by donation or labor—especially to N. W. Leneve and T. A. Walker for hanging the paper.

The HERALD is the only paper in Coos county that published a summary of the coal formations of Oregon and the mining industry of Coos county from the U. S. geologist's report—in preference to fooling its readers with plate matter and patent outside.

John Wyo and Mr. Dewees were hurt in the mine at Beaver Hill last Friday. The former is probably fatally injured, being unconscious at the hour we received the word. He is a married man, and has five or six children. Both men were hurt by falling coal. Mr. Dewees' foot is crushed. What a pity so many persons are getting hurt.

Poisons engendered by food fermenting in a dyspeptic stomach are the direct cause of rheumatism, gout, bronchitis, liver and kidney complaints, asthma, pneumonia and many nervous ailments.

These results are prevented by the use of the Shaker Cordial, a remedy discovered and prepared by the Shakers of Mount Lebanon, N. Y. It is in itself a food and has power to digest other food taken with it. Thus it rests the diseased stomach and finally masters the worst case of dyspepsia. It acts promptly and fresh strength and increase of weight soon follows. The first dose, taken immediately after eating, abates the pain and distress so dreaded by dyspeptics. Trial bottles—enough to prove its merit—10 cents.

LAXOL is the best medicine for children. Doctors recommend it in place of Castor Oil.

SCIATICA. St. Jacobs Oil. A Thumbscrew Torture to the BIGGEST NERVE. USE SCIATICA. St. Jacobs Oil. It turns back the screw.—It unwinds the twist.—IT SOOTHES.—IT CURES. NO FURTHER PAIN.

The annual school meeting is drawing near. Read the HERALD's great clubbing offers—the best ever offered.

Not long ago a farmer who lives three miles from here, came to my store before breakfast and bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He said their little boy had a bad cold, and as they had used what they had in the house his wife would not let him go to plow until he came and got another bottle. The little boy, who was with him, remarked: "Now I will soon be well, for Chamberlain's 'cough' medicine always cures me."—R. C. McElroy, Black Hawk, Pa. In speaking of this remedy Mr. McElroy said people came from far and wide to his store to get it, and many of them would not know what to do without it. For sale at 25 and 50 cents per bottle by R. S. Knowlton, druggist.

IN THE SENATE. Salem, Jan. 26.—The Davis house was called to order at 9:30 a. m. The roll was called and an adjournment taken till the usual hour tomorrow.

Price introduced a petition from the residents of Gilliam county, asking that the charter of Eugene and other cities where state schools are located, be amended so as to prohibit the licensing of saloons.

Fourteen new bills were introduced in the senate this afternoon; Holt's bill for the appointment of judges and clerks of election; by Gesner, prohibiting the sale of liquor near the Soldiers' Home; Smith, by request, enabling attorneys to administer oaths and take acknowledgments, selling, providing for recording certified copies of deeds and patents; Gesner, fixing the boundary lines of Marion and adjoining counties; McClung, enjoining defects in title to real property purchased at administrators' or executors' sales; Holt, exempting homesteads from attachment and judicial sale; Johnson, fixing the salaries of county treasurers and judges; Reed, providing for improvements at the Soldiers' Home and appropriating the sum of $3700 therefor; Holt, providing for the relocation of county seats; Johnson, fixing salaries of clerks, recorders and sheriffs; Holt, providing in judicial sales that unpaid taxes be a first lien; Johnson, fixing salaries of county judges. adjourned.

As Though It Were a House. Salem, Jan. 26.—Thirty-one members responded to their names when the Benson house was called to order at 10 this morning. By direction of the speaker, the clerk read aloud the names of the absentees. The journal of yesterday was read in full. Brown of Morrow and David of Gilliam presented petitions against the licensing of saloons in college towns.

Somers presented a petition from Brownsville, Linn county, asking that the house organize and enact certain remedial legislation. "We are already organized," remarked Speaker Benson.

A motion prevailed refusing to renew relations with the senate. The speaker then announced as the order of business the first reading and introduction of bills.

Twenty-five bills were then presented, but were not read in full or by title. The house adjourned till 2 p. m.

Just after the Benson house met this afternoon, Misener, Democrat, arose and asked permission to say a few words. Permission being granted, he said: "I have been here a week, and this house has not yet been organized. Why can't it be organized? It is time to do something."

Misener stood for several moments, evidently expecting a reply, but none was made. He then sat down. Misener's remarks created a stir, as he is one of the two Democrats who helped to organize this house. The following bills were introduced:

By Bridges, fixing at $4000 the maximum salary and compensation of public officers in the state of Oregon; Brown, amending the act creating the sixth judicial district; Chapman, providing for holding primary elections; Conn, relating to the assessment and collection of taxes; Crawford, abolishing the board of railroad commissioners; Gratzke, relating to the payment of state taxes; Gurdans, creating liens on crops; Hogue, providing for recording certified copies of deeds and patents; Hudson, regulating the rate of interest; Huntington, amending the code; Jennings, providing for the election of prosecuting attorney; Lake, to protect eastern oysters planted in Oregon waters; Langell amending the act incorporating Gold Hill; Marsh, preventing the production and sale of unwholesome food and medicine; Mitchell, providing for and regulating elections; Nosler, establishing free public libraries and reading-rooms; Palm, amending the code, relating to school districts; Rigby, amending the act incorporating Adams; Smith, creating a board of railroad commissioners; Somers, creating a commission to relieve the supreme court; Stanley, protecting food fishes; Thomas, providing for the registration of voters; Veanness, providing for a board of canal commissioners, for the locks at Oregon City; Wagner, providing for holding primary elections; Hope, providing for acceptance by the state of desert lands under the act of congress.

TO BRING IN ABSENTEES. Salem, Or., Jan. 27.—The Benson house managed to kill nearly half an hour this morning by the reading of the journal in full, but Misener of Crook withdrew immediately after. No one raised the point of no quorum. A cigarette petition was read, and also one from Washington county to abolish all commissions.

Crawford of Douglas here introduced a resolution requiring the 29 unqualified members to appear and qualify at noon on Thursday, January 28. The sergeant-at-arms was directed to serve the delinquent members each with a copy of the resolution.

In explaining the resolution, Crawford said his purpose was simply to exhaust every remedy known to the constitution. If the members failed to appear, then the house would have a basis for future action. On rollcall the resolution was adopted. Ayes, 28; absent, 3.

The following bills were introduced: Hogue, to amend code; Hope, relative to taxation of sheep; Hudson, by request, relative to election of road supervisors; David, to amend game law; Gratzke, to exempt Astoria firemen; Benson, to amend code; Crawford, regulating railroad freights; Jennings, for collection of fees; Marsh, to amend code; Palm, to amend code; Thomas, to amend Portland charter; Conn, exempt homesteads from judicial sale; Brown, to amend code; Merrill, to abolish commissions and relative to fees.

Adjourned. IN THE SENATE—MORNING SESSION. Salem, Jan. 27.—The senate this morning decided that in the interest of the taxpayers they could dispense customary printed calendar showing the status of different measures before the senate.

The following new bills were introduced: King, amending the act relating to irrigation districts; Gesner, providing for board for county prisoners; Wade, fixing fees of assessors; Bale (by request), amending code; Smith, amending code; Reed (by request), providing for working state convicts upon public roads; Patterson of Marion, amending act incorporating Woodburn.

Dufur offered a petition signed by 150 residents of the town of Dufur against the sale and manufacture of cigarettes. Harmon offered a similar resolution from the Presbyterian church of Ashland. A number of bills were read the second time and referred.

The senate then adjourned. The senate had only a 20-minute session this afternoon, the entire time being devoted to the second reading of bills. When senate bill 118, which was the last of those printed, had been reached, the senate adjourned.

O. C. ("Col") Harry, living a few miles north of this place, was in town last Wednesday on business. While returning home on horseback at a short distance out of town he was stricken with paralysis and fell from his horse. He was picked up, brought to this place to the hotel and Dr. Cullin summoned. His case is very peculiar. Some days the poor fellow is helpless and speechless, while at other times he seems nearly recovered; sometimes he is only slightly affected, and sometimes it is in one portion of the body and then it shifts to another. His brothers and many friends have been present with him, and it is hoped that his youth will carry him over to recovery.

IT'S CURES THAT COUNT. Many so-called remedies are pressed on the public attention on account of their claimed large sales. But sales cannot determine values. Sales simply argue good salesmen, shrewd peddlers, or enormous advertising. It's cures that count. It is cures that are counted on by Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Its sales might be boasted. It has the world for its market. But sales prove nothing. We point only to the record of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, as proof of its merit: 50 YEARS OF CURES.
