Commissioners B. F. Ross of the bay and I. T. Weekly of Grayel Ford came to this place yesterday on county business. They joined County Judge Schroeder here and will get through the business tomorrow. F. A. White has received his stock and is now prepared to do shoemaking and mending, harness repairing, etc., of every kind. Shop—First street between Nosler's livery stable and Wilson's new blacksmith shop.

J. C. Wilson secured a 10-horse power engine and other machinery last week at Prosper, which reached here Sunday on a scow towed up by the little steamer Maria. The machinery was delivered at the mine above town yesterday and Uncle Jack will soon have work moving at a lively rate. A blaze broke out on the roof of F. A. White's residence, in the Spurgeon addition, about noon last Wednesday, from where the pipe passed through the roof. Mrs. W. discovered it and turned on a stream from a small spray pump. Neighbors also came to her relief and soon had the fire extinguished. Damage nominal.

The young people gave a surprise greeting to Miss Mattie Anderson, at J. W. Nosler's, last Saturday night. A host of them met at Prof. K. V. Millard's in the early part of the evening and there organized for their foray. The surprise was complete, but none the less enjoyable to hosts and guest—the order being reversed in this case. The evening passed pleasantly in a social way. The bon-bon ball, given last Saturday evening at Masonic hall under the management of Gray's orchestra, was a brilliant affair. The attendance was beyond expectation, and all so heartily entered into the charms of such an occasion that its success was complete. The instrumentation of the orchestra was varied from the usual order, being a piano, bass viol and violin, each well sustained, which was an attraction and gave much satisfaction. Mr. Gray is a good violinist, while he was well supported by Mr. Whitestone at the piano and Al Wilson on the bass viol.

If your tea is not good, why don't you drink water? It is cheaper and better for you than poor tea. If it is good, your stomach is glad to get it; does it work better. Shilling's Best is good tea—at grocers' in packages.

The presbytery of the Presbyterian church, including the district of southwestern Oregon, will meet in Oak and, Douglas county, on April 13th. Miss Fannie Moore, for the past two terms a teacher at our Collegiate Institute, took her departure per steamer Coquille River last Saturday for her home at Meridian, Miss. FOR SALE OR LEASE—A splendid blacksmith and wood-work shop, two forges, first-class location, and supplied with necessary tools and machinery. Apply and learn particulars from the HERALD OFFICE. Peter Loggie, one of Bandon's enterprising citizens, came up last Saturday from Riverton on the new steamer Coquille River. Mr. L. is officially connected with the Bandon Block Coal Co. and was interested in loading the new steamer on her reaching Riverton from this place. The steamer Moro came to this place from San Francisco last Wednesday and discharged considerable freight. She received a large quantity of broom-handles from the factory here and 100 tons of coal from our Stockman mine, at this place, the first large quantity shipped from here. Judge Schroeder and County Commissioners Ross and Weekly met in this place yesterday to confer on business regarding the advertising for bids for the construction of a courthouse, etc. They inspected the block, the buildings that have been proffered for temporary use, etc. The Coquille Dairyman's Union, at its annual meeting Monday of last week, elected the following officers for the ensuing year: President, J. J. Lamb; secretary, B. F. Lawrence; treasurer, J. W. Leneve. Mr. Kerrigan, W. H. Waddington and S. P. Van Dyke were chosen as directors, of which the president and secretary are ex-officio members.

From Cripple Creek. After the big fire in Cripple Creek, I took a very severe cold and tried many remedies without help, the cold only becoming more settled. After using three small bottles of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, both the cough and cold left me, and in this high altitude it takes a meritorious cough remedy to do any good. —G. B. HENDERSON, editor Daily Advertiser. For sale by R. S. Knowlton, druggist. Neil Monroe, an old and respected citizen of Isthmus slough, on Coos bay, was on a brief visit here yesterday, including a call on his old friend, Mr. Strang. Mr. Monroe returned to Riverton on business. It seems he has a bid for his coal lands on the bay from a syndicate at Seattle. Mr. Monroe has been a resident of Coos for 30 years, and this was his first visit to Coquille. W. H. Waddington, of Lampey creek, came up last Saturday. He placed two handsome paintings, of his own skill, on exhibition at Knowlton's store. One is a fruit piece, and the other a "stag fight" of two Scottish red deer, presenting a blending of both animated nature and a handsome landscape. Mr. W. has exhibited much artistic taste and skill, especially in view of being a farmer and cut off from the opportunities of study of art criticism. Hon. Jerry Huntley, contestant for the seat of Hon. W. H. Nosler as joint representative for Coos and Curry in the late legislature, returned from Salem via this place last Tuesday. He came via Portland per steamer Farallon to the bay, thence to Coquille on an extra train but too late for the lower-river boat. He left Wednesday for his home in Curry county. If the legislature had organized, he expressed confidence of getting his seat. He favored the action of the Davis house, or temporary organization, as the legal body, and says that Mitchell's conduct was unscrupulous and led to him many who had always been his friends and admirers.

Given by the W. C. T. U. at Masonic hall last Tuesday night, for a charity purpose, was nicely managed, well patronized and most enjoyable. A table, bountifully filled with good things, substantial and tempting, was spread in the upper hall at 6:30 p. m. and caught many a languishing appetite. This interesting program proceeded till 8 o'clock, when the musical program was announced in the main hall. The seats were well filled in expectancy, and for some time over an hour the audience feasted on a varied and entertaining rendition of solos, quartets and choruses by the Coquille Choral Society. The following numbers were given: Anthem, full chorus—The Earth is the Lord's. Solo, He Was a Prince—Miss Zetta Messer. Solo and chorus—Dem Walls of Jericho; solo by J. W. Sugg, and chorus by the society. Solo, Flee as a Bird to Your Mountain—A. A. Leach. Male quartet medley—Manhattan Quartet of Coquille City—Frank Strang, Claude Nosler, Fred Nosler and Aaron Wilson. Solo and chorus—We'll Git There, All the Same; solo by J. S. McEwen, and chorus by the society. Solo, The Lost Child—W. S. Perry. Solo, Jamie—Mrs. J. S. Conwell. Solo and chorus of male voices—Excepting when I Vote; solo by Claude Nosler; chorus by A. A. Leach, M. O. Hawkins, J. W. Sugg, Aaron Wilson and J. S. McEwen. Duet and chorus—The Deacon's Duty; duet by Mrs. Nora Good and Mrs. Conway, chorus by the society. Solo and chorus—Asleep on the Mantop; solo by J. S. McEwen, and chorus by the society.

The pieces were all well received, while the Manhattan Quartet's medley and Mr. Perry's comic solo were each enjoyed. Miss Marvin Lamb presided at the organ in a charming manner. The solos of Miss Zetta Messer, Mr. Leach, Mr. Perry and Mrs. Conwell were each well sustained by the organist in expression and harmony, and the several pieces were well given and heartily applauded. The Choral society was represented by only a portion of its membership, as follows: Sopranos—Mrs. Conwell, Mrs. Sugg, Mrs. Good, Misses Zetta Messer and Maude Nosler; altos—Miss Marvin Lamb and Miss Mamie Conwell; tenors—A. A. Leach, J. W. Sugg, M. O. Hawkins, Claude Nosler and Frank Strang; basses—Aaron Wilson, Fred Nosler and J. S. McEwen. Organist—Miss Marvin Lamb. Some of the members were prevented from participation by sickness. Taken altogether this supper and social entertainment was a success and enjoyed by all. The balance of the evening was passed in a purely social way, with greetings of friends, introductions, conversation, plays, etc., occupying till about 11 o'clock. The Christian church friends loaned their splendid organ for the occasion.

Riverton Riotings. Riverton, March 15.—Arthur Flynn has been visiting Frank Kinnicut and family. Steamer Coquille River took a load of coal at B. B. coal mine. Moro took a mixed load of coal from Coquille City, and from Lyons' mine and Timon's mine at this place. J. D. Barklow was with us again Sunday last. T. P. Hanly contemplates building here on his lot and taking advantage of our schools. Mr. Smith and family of Newport have moved into the Peterson building, lately vacated by Mr. Russell. DONNA AXA.

The music pupils of the Collegiate Institute gave a recital at the residence of the president, Rev. J. L. Fattrell, last Saturday evening. The double-parlor was seated for the parents, friends and a few invited guests, and an appreciative audience was gathered to the feast. Miss Keely, the teacher, stated the object of the assemblage, and called the numbers, which included recitals from all the pupils who were present, from little tots to young ladies. The exercises were attractive and entertaining, and the pupils showed marked progress. There were also intervening the numbers two or three brief select readings about musical celebrities and the peculiarities of their styles, as also definitions of some musical terms as to different compositions. On the walls of the parlor were also exhibited several beautiful paintings, the work of the pupils in Miss Keely's art class. They were much admired. Rev. Mr. Stine and one or two others of the audience expressed their pleasure at being present and congratulated the teacher and pupils on their advance in these art accomplishments, which go so far to make life desirable and beautiful. S. N. B. Hunt and family of Bandon have been visiting on the bay several weeks, returning home via this place yesterday. Grandma Hayes, Mrs. Hunt's mother, came with them.

LAXOL is the best medicine for children. Doctors recommend it in place of Castor Oil. Rifle Team Organized. As per call in last week's HERALD, a meeting of several citizens was held at C. L. Gray's store last Friday evening to organize a Creedmoor rifle team. C. Romander was called to the chair and T. A. Walker to be secretary. The following persons signed with the team: C. Romander, W. C. Rose, John Johnson, W. W. Shields, B. F. Collier, Ira Johnson, C. L. Gray, Geo. Collier, Russ Johnson, Chas. Collier, T. A. Walker. C. L. Gray was elected captain. The club decided to practice each Saturday afternoon, distance 200 yards, Creedmoor regulations. The hope was expressed that other neighborhoods will organize and a shooting tournament soon take place. The first match was shot under auspices of the club last Saturday, with the following total result, each shooting five shots, 50 being perfect: Russ Johnson, 39; B. F. Collier, 36; C. Romander, 37; Chas. Collier, 44; W. W. Shields, 21; Ira Johnson, 43; Geo. Collier, 13; Wm. Rose, 22; John Johnson, 10; T. A. Walker, 24.

The Woman, The Man, and The Pill. She was a good woman. He loved her. She was his wife. The pie was good; his wife made it; he ate it. But the pie disagreed with him, and he disagreed with his wife. Now he takes a pill after pie and is happy. So is his wife. The pill he takes is Ayer's. Moral: Avoid dyspepsia by using Ayer's Cathartic Pills.

Quite a number of the Summerites attended the entertainment given by the singing school at Fairview, assisted by the Sumner Dramatic Club and others, on the 6th. Program lasted until about midnight, when an excellent lunch was served. After supper the dancing commenced, but though the games was blocked for about one-fifth of a minute by the Great Mogul with the long whiskers, other music was immediately provided and the dance went on. And the next day it snowed. SUSANNAH.
