Our "crank" friend, T. J. Perkins, nurseman, of the lower river, was in town Monday and made us a pleasant call. Mr. P. is on his tour as nursery agent and supplying spray pumps, etc., and needs no commendation from the HERALD. Coos county has no better citizen. Mr. P. will also receive subscriptions for the HERALD, the only live, all-home-print, all-home-brains, and all-home-advocate paper in Coos county. No patent or plate matter in it.

The editor thanks Miss Irma Lakes, of Metropolis, Ill., for an invitation to attend the commencement exercises of the high school at that place, held yesterday. This charming young lady, for some years a resident of this place and known to most of our citizens, held the post of honor of the graduating class, delivering the salutatory, "Deserve Success and You Will Command It." The invitation and program is exceedingly handsome, a work of art, and this, of the high school, excelling many that had been issued by colleges formerly.

Prof. Kamenatz, of the Berlin store, is exhibiting a very handsome gold watch and some cocoons in a show case, and he offers to every purchaser of $1 worth of goods—and for each additional $1 worth of goods another chance—a guess of the number of cocoons, and at a time to be announced, maybe in July or August, the watch will be given to the one guessing nearest to the number of cocoons. Call and see them and make a guess.

The approaching election campaign in Oregon will be of unusual interest, especially in Coos county, and a fine opportunity is given to the people to patronize newspapers who decared them and sold them out, as far as it was possible—first by pretending to be independent; and secondly by selling themselves to the plutocratic tools to advocate their long citizenship and friendship for the dear people. Principles or pelf will be the leading contestants.

"Pretty Pill" says "Pretty Pill". She's just "poll parrotting." There's no prettiness in pills, except on the theory of "pretty is that pretty does." In that case she's right. Ayer's Pills do cure biliousness, constipation, and all liver troubles.

Only a day or two yet remain till Marshal Brown will officially inspect the premises of our citizens as to their cleanliness and healthfulness, after which he will report all delinquents and proceed to enforce the law. The bay papers extended a cold reception to Photographer Baker from this place, notwithstanding many citizens there solicited his presence. Better build a wall around your town and hang out the British flag and get a British manager. Mrs. Judge Dyer, of Bandon, came up on a visit last Saturday, remaining till yesterday, the guest of her sister, Mrs. R. E. Buck. She expected to greet her granddaughter, Miss Maud Garfield, of Oakland, Cal., on her return home, who comes to spend her vacation with her relatives and friends at Bandon. Elbert Garfield, her brother, came up with Elbert Dyer some days ago. A company of the Loyal Temperance Legion will be organized in this place at 2:30 p. m. next Sunday, at the Christian church. Mrs. Good, organizer, and other ladies of the W. C. T. U. will be present to make known the aims and objects and urge the presence of the parents and children of the community to that end. Every friend of temperance and morality should turn out. A Children's Day service will be given at the little church next Sunday evening, to which the public is cordially invited to attend.
