Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Horsefall of Marshfield were in town a short while yesterday.

Henry Johnson and John and Will Barrows are logging down on the Hancock place.

Watch and jewelry repairing in a workmanlike manner at the lowest rates, by C. L. Gray.

Mrs. Hersey's new millinery arrived earlier than expected. Call early and make your choice.

Call at Mrs. Hersey's for the latest millinery, just from the east, at prices to suit the times.

Rev. C. A. Stue, the pastor, will preach next Sunday and Sunday night at the Christian church.

Beautiful new hats and other millinery goods have just been received from the east by Mrs. Hersey. Call soon.

If our good citizens want to encourage a good class of entertainments, let them attend that to be given at Masonic hall Friday night.

Sheriff Gage was at Myrtle Point last Sunday at the Woodmen's unveiling ceremonies. He remained with his family at this place till yesterday's train.

Our dentist, Dr. Carter, has been spending several days at Bandon, where he has made a good reputation as a gentleman and qualified dental practitioner.

There is a good and a poor quality of almost everything on the market—even in drugs—but Dr. Moore keeps only the best grade of medicines at his Pharmacy. One's health should not be trifled with.

Legal notices to and from the courts, which are required to be posted at the courthouse door, now read "at the courthouse door in Coquille City," and are accordingly occupying places at the entrance of Masonic hall, the temporary temple of justice at this place.

Our Labor Exchange column from week to week is very interesting, and should prove doubly so to farmers and working people particularly. Keep informed, and sooner or later you will join the hosts that are peacefully rallying to the call of freedom and independence.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Tuttle will take the steamer Coquille River this trip and return to their home in the city. Mrs. T. has spent several months here and by her mild and social ways has endeared many friends who will not thank Bert for breaking in on the circle. Still, he has a prior claim, and good wishes accompany both.

The J. S. Kimball Co. of San Francisco has made cut rates for freight on the steamer Moro to and from the city and this river. Freight from San Francisco to Bandon, Prosper, Parkersburg, Randolph, Riverton and Coquille City is placed at $1 per ton. The cut rates of the steamer Coquille River were first made, we understand, to meet a secret cut rate—or rather a rebate—given by the Moro.

The new "Tuttle Hotel"—the Lyons property—is a very inviting place to put up at or take a meal. The rooms are large and airy, and everything so clean and nice, that it must become a popular stopping place for the traveling public, and for entertainment to attendants at the courts or on business. A large and commodious stable is in connection with the house and travelers in vehicles or on horseback can be cared for and their teams be provided for also.

The best way to buy anything is to borrow it first. Get a package of Schilling's Best tea of your grocer. He pays you your money back if you don't like it.

That's our way of lending.

Schilling & Company San Francisco

Our term of public school ends next Friday. Toothbrushes, soaps, etc.; a Coquille Pharmacy.

Johnson Bro's are selling cheap for cash—and cash only. Coquille Pharmacy for stationery, tablets and school supplies.*

Just received, a large and nice stock of boys' clothing, at Mrs. Martin's.

For Sale at Your Own Price and terms; 1/4 section of fine timber on Coquille river.

WANTED—To trade Bandon property for Coquille City property. Inquire at this office.

Only 90 cents will buy a fine pair of misses' shoes, sizes from 9 1/2 to 11, at Mrs. C. W. Martin's.

WANTED—To borrow, $400, on 3 or 5 years' time; good security. Apply at HERALD office.

The Choral Society has re-adopted Monday night of each week for its regular meeting.

Mrs. Root will supply bread during Mrs. Wilkins' absence. Also furnish hog yeast at 10 cents per quart.

A free dance was given at Masonic hall last Saturday night. It was well attended and thoroughly enjoyed.

Mrs. Lizzie Godfrey (nee Lizzie Buzan) dispatched a wild-cat near Weaverville, Trinity county, Cal., a few days ago.

WANTED—A band of 25 to 40 head of good sheep. Will trade a saddle horse and pay the difference in cash. R. D. SANDFORD Coquille.

Don't miss the program at Masonic hall next Friday evening. It will be decidedly entertaining in both literary and musical features.

Mrs. C. W. Martin has a full line of men's and boys' clothing, which would be well for all to see and price before purchasing elsewhere.*

Backingham's Dye for the Whiskers is a popular preparation in one bottle, and colors evenly a brown or black. Any person can easily apply it at home.

Prof. Hodgkin, of Bandon, was in this place yesterday, and we believe leaves at once for Roseburg to enter the practice of law. We believe Mr. H. will honor his profession both in integrity and ability.

A movement is on foot to organize a Labor Exchange at Marshfield. Friends of reform are signing to that effect at C. Howe's Racketstore, and all who are interested in this advance step are urged to put down their names and help the cause along.

Sheriff Gage has been having quite a family of law-breakers on his hands for some days past, three of whom will continue boarders at his hotel till October term of court. One Turner was discharged a day or so ago, and Poland will be free again in a day or two.

John Johnson, of the North Fork, came down from Myrtle Point yesterday and will spend several days visiting his brothers, Sam and Dad, and other relatives and friends. He is feeling pretty well and has almost wholly discarded medicines for some while, but he does not flout and strengthen.

The Joint Traffic Association and other illegal pooling combines can raise freight and passenger rates, but the government and state and interstate and railroad commissions can not reduce rates or do anything legal, though they are organized under law to protect the public. The courts, which are organized under law, should be stopped from grinding.

The editor partook of a birthday dinner last Thursday, given in honor of our "devil," John Stone, on the occasion of his 20th birthday, by his sister, Mrs. Nannie Fellows. Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Dean, Bud Stone and other of the immediate family and a few friends were present to "boost" the occasion and wish John many returns of happy anniversary days.

The closing exercises of the Bandon school took place last Wednesday for the school year 1896-97, and a class of nine graduated, three from the minor and six from the major course. The graduates from the minor course were, Ralph B. Hunt, J. Frank Johnson, Henry Goetz; from the major course, Kallona K. Scott, Guss Gross, Rose J. Long, Pearl Walker, Jennie Charleston, and Florence A. Rosa. The graduating exercises were excellent and appreciated by the large audience of patrons and citizens who were in attendance.

A small blaze occurred this morning, at quarter past 10 o'clock, at the property of L. P. Maury, near the Methodist church. Mrs. Maury was alone, attending to her household duties, having considerable of a fire in the range, and a spark fell from the flue upon the roof and was fanned into a flame. Mrs. Maury observed the fire, and gave an alarm while engaged in fighting it. Miss Emma Stauff was close at hand and signaled an employe of the HERALD, and within a few minutes a force of five men were present and successfully ended the ravages of the flames. The only damage sustained is a small hole in the roof and a flooded loft and dining room.

Nails! Nails! Only $3 at the Fair Store. Goods sold to suit the hard times at the Fair Store.

For coffins, caskets and funeral supplies, consult the Coquille Furniture Store.

Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Stine are visiting their daughter, Rev. Mrs. H. H. Backner, at Marshfield, for a few days.

WANTED TO TRADE—A gentle, well-broke horse, for a good dairy cow or young stock. J. C. WATSON.

Ethan McDuffee and family have moved up from Riverton to this place. Uncle Mc—the father—makes his home with them.

WANTED—A good dairy farm of from 100 to 300 acres, already stocked with good dairy cows, for a cheesery. Will lease for a few years with privilege of buying.

Mrs. Watkins, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Airey, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bunch, Mr. and Mrs. Bennett and Mr. and Mrs. Ham Bunch were down from the North Fork on business yesterday.

Mrs. Aiken and Miss Alice came over yesterday to pack and remove their wearing apparel, bedding, etc., to their home at Marshfield. We regret exceedingly to lose our friends and neighbors.

Mrs. Martin has received a fine stock of new goods, including principally ladies' and misses' shoes in great variety and at astonishingly low prices; also boys' clothing and many other goods.

The steamer Coquille River arrived at this place this morning, direct from San Francisco. She is a welcome visitor, and her coming and going are looked upon as one of the family, with deep interest and solicitude.

The children and youth of the town are urged to meet with the W. C. T. U. next Friday afternoon, at 3:30 o'clock, at the Methodist church, to complete the organization of a company of the Loyal Temperance Legion. The scholars are expected to be present on adjournment of school.

Mr. Jacobson, the new proprietor of the Coquille Furniture Store, is pushing business. He is receiving new stock from the city, besides being busy manufacturing special orders. He is well prepared for undertaking, and will furnish caskets and coffins of all sizes at prompt notice.

The Loyal Temperance Legion was not organized last Sunday, owing to the excursion which took so many away from town and other distracting causes, but it was concluded by those present to organize at the W. C. T. U. meeting next Friday afternoon, at 3:30 o'clock, at the Methodist church. Most or nearly all of the scholars from the school will be present, and others are cordially invited, youth and parents, to take part in this work.

Mr. Odell, representing the cooperative fire insurance scheme by the Oregon Fire Relief Association of McMinnville, Or., passed home-ward last Friday, via the bay, after a very thorough canvass of this valley. He has found a ready patronage from our citizens, and a growing desire of the people to free themselves from the oppressions of the old corporation system, and thus secure to themselves a cheaper and safer insurance and keep their money at home for circulation and investment. We believe Bandon was the banner community, he having written at times as high as eight or ten risks a day there, and all along the river up to Myrtle Point is becoming deeply interested in the people doing business for themselves, in their own interests, and not for the benefit of the few.

One of the boldest and meanest of thieves that has ever taken place in this community occurred last Friday night. A clothes-line heavily laden with a two weeks' washing was left out by Mrs. Root, embracing five suits of Martha's wear, three suits of her own—all except what they had on their backs—besides those of others of the household, was swept of everything except a few napkins. It is to be hoped the thief will be apprehended. The loss is severely felt by Mr. and Mrs. Root, not just so much for the value of the goods, but the fact of the labor lost and inconvenience of replacing the wearing articles. There is a clue to the perpetrator of the crime, and we hope he may be caught and receive the punishment that is his due.

IN THE COUNTY COURT OF THE State of Oregon, in and for Coos County in the matter of the estate of William G. Way, deceased, I, Notice is hereby given that Colla L. Way and William Marshall Way have been appointed executors of the last will and testament of William G. Way, deceased, by the County Court of the State of Oregon for Coos County, and all persons having claims against the said estate must present their claims duly verified, as by law required, to the said executors, at Coquille, Coos county, Oregon, within six months from date.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER Absolutely Pure. Celebrated for its great leavening strength and healthfulness. Assures the food against alum and all forms of adulteration.

Waiting for Papa to Come. In memory of Beniah Vivian Baker.

Such a quiet, curly haired little darling, sitting there in the big rocking chair, as the sinking sun smiled in upon her.

The red sun disappears o'er the hills tops, and the gentle breeze sinks down to rest, as the sinking sun smiled in upon her.

Such a wan, fever parched little darling, lying there near the coverlet white, as the pale moon peeps in at the window.

On the bank of that beautiful river, where the beautiful earth and a rest, where the palm branches needs and quiver.

It will not cure everything. It is not claimed that it will cure but one complaint, that is, dyspepsia. We cannot say that it will cure every case of dyspepsia, but it will cure a large majority of them.

The Shaker Digestive Cordial is especially adapted for emaciated or elderly people whose food does them but little or no good because it is not digested. The Cordial contains an artificially-digested food and is a digester of food highly combined.

A really palatable Castor Oil can now be had under the name of LAXOL.

Miss Effa Gregory, whose health had been failing for some months past, passed away last Sunday, at the home of her father, a short distance from this place.

The Entertainment

Provided last Saturday night at the Collegiate Institute by the ladies of the Methodist church, to realize a fund to repair and improve the interior of their church building, was not as well patronized as it deserved, but it was nevertheless a success financially, and a decidedly pleasurable, refined and edifying occasion.

The program was as follows: Mixed quartet, Yachting Glee—Mrs. L. H. Morgan, soprano, Misses Birdie Nosler and Laurel Conway, altos, A. A. Leach, tenor, J. S. McEwen, bass; prayer by Rev. J. L. Futrell; instrumental duet—Misses Irene Lamb and Mary Lee Futrell; vocal solo, "The Breezes Are Rocking the Roses to Sleep"—Mrs. Nora A. Good; recitation, The Old Methodist's Testimony—Miss Laurel Conwell; comic solo, "He Got It in the Same Old Place"—Anderson Lamb; instrumental trio, "Music Box"—Miss Keely and pupils, Irene Lamb and Mary Lee Futrell; vocal solo, "Home, Sweet Home and Mother's Arms"—A. A. Leach; recitation, "Shadows on the Blind"—Mrs. Dr. J. B. Moore; instrumental solo, "Ripples on the Alabama"—Miss Marvin Lamb; instrumental duet, by Misses Keely and Irene Lamb; vocal solo, "No, Thank You Tom"—Mrs. Conwell; recitation, "The Famine"—Miss Hanna Keely; instrumental duet, by Misses Marvin Lamb and Zetta Messer.

These numbers were unusually well rendered and heartily applauded as they deserved to be, and displayed a marked advance in taste, grade and culture in both literary and musical selections. The music was modern and up-to-date, and each selection was a gem and creditably given. Miss Marvin Lamb is a charming accompanist on piano or organ, whose taste and technique immensely sustain the vocalist if diffident or lacking independence, and in this instance went far toward winning success.

After the program the throng took "strawberries and cake" and passed a social season. The young ladies were kept quite busy in receiving and filling orders, but didn't daily or miss many sales, and thus augmented the fund for church improvement considerably over the door receipts.

A nice residence property at Marshfield has been placed in our hands for exchange for Coquille property. Call, if you mean business.
