Gasoline—scholar Mono brought in an immense amount of bargains for the Berlin Store. Come and see them.

Mrs. Root will supply bread during Mrs. Wilkins' absence. Also furnish hop yeast at 10 cents per quart.

The work of repairing the S. O. Co. wharf at Empire is progressing under the management of T. J. Rennie.

Capt. H. W. Danham's family came over from Marshfield yesterday to abide in their nice new home at this place.

WANTED—A band of 25 to 40 head of good sheep. Will trade a saddle horse and pay the difference in cash. R. D. SANFORD Coquille.

Mrs. C. W. Martin has a full line of men's and boys' clothing, which would be well for all to see and price before purchasing elsewhere.

Rev. E. A. Ross, evangelist, preached at the Southern Methodist church in this city last Sunday morning and night to large and interested audiences.

Nearly all women have good hair, though many are gray, and few are bald. Hall's Hair Renewer restores the natural color, and thickens the growth of the hair.

The Koon land below town has been divided into small tracts and some sold. This is a good move, and we are informed that small tracts are for sale at very low prices. This is the best of river bottom land and very desirable property.

Mr. Lafferty, of Norway, was down yesterday. The HERALD had a pleasant call from him, and from C. H. Clark, a prosperous rancher of Humboldt county, Cal., who is visiting in Coos county on a prospecting errand for himself and others. The latter will hardly invest till he has disposed of his property in California, but he is looking about for information.

The evangelist, Rev. E. A. Ross, and wife, who spent several weeks here last fall, returned from California last Wednesday. They have an appointment of several weeks at Dairyville, Curry county, will then conduct a protracted meeting at Bandon, and later visit this place again. Mr. R. needs a vacation, and to that end will spend the summer season in this section. Mr. R. will begin a two-weeks' appointment at Myrtle Point next Sunday.

Miss Mattie Anderson has written from her new home, at Modesto, Cal., to her friend Mrs. D. F. Dean, at this place, giving an account of her trip and that of Mr. Alexson's family, and also of impressions about Modesto and the country. She is in good health, is well satisfied and may permanently reside there. She desires to be kindly remembered to her many friends here.

Wm. Abernethy and J. G. Bouldin, of Dora neighborhood, spent last Thursday in town on business. Mr. A. is known as a dyed-in-the-wool Republican, always ready to twit a Pop., but he only "manages" and put gaffs on the little "Cock-of-the-Walk" Bouldin this time, set him going, then lost all control over him. This was the opening of the campaign of 1898 in Coos, happening between Mr. B. and "Old Whiskers," but a prosperity bomb exploded, knocking both out, and "they haven't done anything since."

Schilling's Best is simply good honest tea, well graded, fresh-roasted, packed air-tight.

If you don't like it, your grocer returns your money in full.

There is no other such dealing in tea.

Schilling & Company, San Francisco.

Nails! Nails! Only $3 at the Fair Store.

Goods sold to suit the hard times at the Fair Store.

Breakfast tea, 1897 spring crops only 25 cents a pound at the Berlin Store.

New goods—new goods at bed-rock prices at Mrs. C. W. Martin's.

The North Fork folks will celebrate the Glorious Fourth on Monday, 5th.

Harvey Schweers pushed out a new baby carriage to his home last Saturday.

Henry Sengstacken of Marshfield has been commissioned a notary public.

Save money by ordering your wall-paper of J. S. Edmonds. Address him at Coquille City.

Anyone wishing to trade a single rig—cart or buggy—for produce off a farm, apply at this office.

The Labor Exchange of Bakersfield is making an effort to raise $5000 with which to build a cannery this summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brown, and Miss Harman, of Lee neighborhood, were in town shopping and visiting last Saturday.

WANTED TO TRADE—A gentle, well-broke horse, for a good dairy cow or young stock.

J. C. WATSON. Henry Lorenz is at his usual quarters behind the counter here, after an absence of about a month in charge of the store at Bandon.

Aunt Lottie Mast and Mrs. Waters, of the North Fork, were in town a short while last week. They were guests of Mrs. Elliott while visiting.

Rev. E. A. Ross, the noted evangelist, will begin a protracted meeting at Myrtle Point on the 3d Sunday—next Sunday—to continue two weeks.

WANTED—A good dairy farm of from 100 to 300 acres, already stocked with good dairy cows, for a cheesery. Will lease for a few years with privilege of buying.

John Yoakam, formerly managing the logging camp above this place, passed through Coquille last Friday with a band of steers for Coos river.

We learn that Miss Annie Laird will return from San Francisco per next steamer Coquille River. We are glad to learn that she comes in improved health.

There is a good and a poor quality of almost everything on the market—even in drugs—but Dr. Moore keeps only the best grade of medicines at his Pharmacy. One's health should not be trifled with.

Miss Annie Guerin, of Eckley, sister of our townsman Harry Guerin, returned from Portland via the bay and this place yesterday. Miss J. had been at school in Portland. Her brother Frank accompanied her home.

Mrs. Rebecca Cardwell and daughter (Mrs. Will Miller) of Bandon have been visiting relatives and friends in this place for some days past. Mrs. Miller yesterday extended her visit to relatives and friends at Norway.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Price, of Riverton, returned yesterday from Marshfield, where they had been present at a double wedding of nieces of Mrs. Price, the Misses Mertie and Grace Lewis, which took place Sunday afternoon.

G. G. Swan, a well known, prominent and popular North Fork citizen, was in town last Thursday. Mr. S. included a call at the HERALD office, though we were so engaged at the time that we did not get an "interview" about his section. However, as an old and respected correspondent, he will keep our readers posted.

Comrade G. W. Derby, who has been mining on Dad's creek, a tributary of Cow creek, in Douglas county, for about two years past, will pass the present dry season at Bandon. His partner in the mine is our old friend Comrade McGraw, whose son Ed was drowned at Coos bay on the wrecked steamer Arago. Comrade Derby was in this place last Thursday and made us a pleasant call. His mining prospects are very flattering, though much hard work has attended the opening.

In mentioning the commencement exercises of the Metropolitan (Ill.) high school, the Review says: Miss Irma Lukens, salutatorian of the class, was first introduced and in clear, ringing words addressed a welcome to all present. Miss Lukens' oration, "Deserve Success and You Will Command It," left none of her hearers to doubt that she fully deserved the honor of her high position in the class. Her costume was entirely of white with a bouquet of white roses charmingly arranged on her left shoulder.

U. S. Assistant Engineer Ogden, from Capt. Fisk's office at Portland, reached this place on the 11th inst. to inspect the machinery and appliances used by the contractors, Messrs. Nobles & Saunders, in their river improvement operations. The scows, pile-driver, snag-puller, dredge, etc., were anchored at our wharf at the time and ready to begin operations. The first thing done was to remove the ugly and dangerous snag at our wharf, and the improvements in the river include between this place and Myrtle Point, chiefly in the channel near the latter place.

3 bars of big laundry soap for 5 cents at the Berlin Store.

The Mason fruit jars, at bed-rock prices, at the Fair Store.

Finest line of toilet soaps on the river at Coquille Pharmacy.

Best of bacon at Johnson Bros., also eastern honey drip syrup.

WANTED TO RENT—An organ. Leave information at this office.

A large and select stock of ladies' shoes at bottom prices, at Mrs. C. W. Martin's.

3 BARS OF BIG AND GOOD LAUNDRY SOAP FOR ONLY 5 CENTS, at BERLIN STORE.

Myrtle Point will hold its celebration of the 4th of July on Saturday, 3d. A big time is being arranged for.

Mrs. C. W. Martin has received a fine stock of goods fresh from the city, and at very low prices. Call and see them.

A baseball game was played here last Sunday between an Aragon nine and our Kids. The game resulted 24 for Coquille, 8 for Arago.

L. L. Dietz, a practical watch repairer, will soon open a shop in Coquille City—in the meantime will do all kinds of repairing at home, at the Judge Noser residence.

A very valuable property and most eligibly located, containing 210 acres, has been placed in our hands for sale. See description elsewhere in today's HERALD.

You need not go nor send elsewhere for clothing, either for men or boys. Mr. and Mrs. Martin have brought them right to your door, and have the invoices of much more to come on next steamer.

Mrs. Judge Dyer visited Marshfield last Friday, returning yesterday with her grand-daughter, Miss Maud Garfield, of Oakland, Cal. The latter will spend the summer with Mrs. Dyer and other relatives and friends at Bandon.

Sunday, June 6, was Methodist day in Corvallis, the occasion being the dedication of a new church building. A church debt of $1300 was wiped out, thus the edifice costing $5000 is entirely clear of debt. The bell in the church was brought around Cape Horn.

Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Stine made a visit of several days to Marshfield last week, returning Friday. They drove over in a buggy, and came near having a serious experience, caused by the train frightening their horse and the dangerous condition of the road at several points.

The president of the Coos County Pioneers' Association will receive bids for holding the annual reunion, Empire yielding its claim. Coquille City can do the honors in first-class style. We have the prettiest grounds, already prepared with grand stand, seats and provided with water; we have big-hearted people who will not spare in hospitality. Why not hold a citizens' meeting and invite the pioneers?

Bird Noser has enlarged his storeroom materially and added to his stock. Including nice, fresh confectionery, he keeps and is adding by each steamer, oranges, lemons, bananas, apricots, cherries, peaches, pears, etc., from California, besides fresh fruits of our own raising. He is prepared for the hot weather, also, with a neat new soda fountain and a variety of temperance drinks.

Dud Johnson's team started from the wharf last Saturday afternoon and took a spin up through town, across the bridge on Front street to the East Side, stopping near Mr. Sherwood's residence where the end of the street is fenced, near the railroad cut. The team frightened at the steamer Moro. No person was hurt and no damage done to the team or wagon, notwithstanding bad results seemed inevitable. The brake-blocks were lost from the wagon, making an outlay of not over 50 cents for all necessary repairs.

Prof. Claude Noser is visiting at the State Normal at Monmouth and will extend his visit, after the commencement exercises at Monmouth, to Portland and other points. He went on his bicycle.

Several Presbyterian ministers are announced to hold a presbytery or conference here next Thursday at the Southern Methodist church. There will be preaching at night.

The steamer Coquille River sailed for this place yesterday, and we learn that Mrs. J. W. Noser is a passenger on her, much improved in health by her treatment in the city.
