

REGULAR TRAINS

Table with 3 columns: Leave, Arrive, and Station. Rows include Marshfield, Coquille City, and Myrtle Point.

LOCAL ITEMS.

Announcements.

G. A. R. Encampment at Myrtle Point on Wednesday, August 18th, lasting three days.

County teachers' institute will open at Bandon on the 26th inst. and continue three days.

High grade smoking tobacco per pound 30 cents at the Berlin Store.

Toothbrushes, soaps, etc.; at Coquille Pharmacy.

Johnson Bros. are selling cheap for cash—and cash only.

Coquille Pharmacy for stationery, tablets and school supplies.

Best of bacon at Johnson Bros., also eastern honey drip syrup.

Bob Benham, who works at Smith's logging camp, had the misfortune to cut his left foot last Thursday. He came to town and hobbles about some.

Camping and visiting parties are the rage just now. They come and go in all directions by teams, to say nothing of the great army outing at the beach.

Miss Lettie Thomas, of Coos river, spent the past week in Coquille, the guest of Miss Clara Gage. She attended the teachers' examination and also participated in some of our social events.

The HERALD Land Company has a house and half acre lot on the edge of town to let for 18 months or two years on easy terms to a reliable tenant. Call and get particulars.

There is a good and a poor quality of almost everything on the market—even in drugs—but Dr. Moore keeps only the best grade of medicines at his Pharmacy. One's health should not be trifled with.

Outgoing passengers on the steamer Coquille River last Thursday were D. F. Young, G. W. Long, Mrs. W. C. Scott, Miss Kallona Scott, G. E. Moulton, A. Kellner, I. H. Good, J. K. Mack, Geo. P. Topping, Albert Offinger and Mrs. M. King and child.

The whole HERALD family thank M. Alexson for a treat in the way of a large basket of selected fruit last Thursday. There were delicious ripe apples and immense plums. One of the latter, a "Bradshaw" plum, measured 6 1/2 x 7 inches in circumference.

Elder Hollenbeck was in last Thursday from Fairview with fruit and vegetables. He disposed of his roasting-ears before he reached the heart of town, they were in such demand. Watermelons do not promise so well this season, but muskmelons will be extra fine.

Among the leading and prominent persons to attend the G. A. R. encampment at Myrtle Point this week, Bishop Cranston of the M. E. church (a comrade in the late war) and Hon. T. H. Tongue, representing this district in congress, are announced. Of course if Bishop Cranston should attend, much interest will be added to the assemblage, while Mr. Tongue is named as the orator of the day. Hon. Binger Hermann may also be present.

Three boys, Herbert Johnson, Ed Teters and Clyde Barker, were arrested at Fairview last Friday by Deputy Sheriff Johnson and brought to this place on a charge of disorderly conduct. Justice Harlocker presided at a hearing, the charge being for "discharging fire arms, beating on a house occupied by J. D. Benham, smashing a window in said house and acting in a disorderly and unlawful manner making great noise and disturbance in the presence of ladies." The boys had gone to charivari Steve Benham and bride, which act was opposed, hence the alleged misconduct. Attorney C. L. Moon conducted the defense, and the cases were discharged.

What the Shakers of Mount Lebanon know more about than anybody else, is the use of herbs and how to be healthy.

They have studied the power of food. They nearly all live to a ripe old age.

The Shaker Digestive Cordial is prepared by the Shakers from herbs and plants with a special tonic power over the stomach.

It helps the stomach digest its food, and digested food is the strength-maker.

Strong muscles, strong body, strong brain, all come from properly digested food.

A sick stomach can be cured and digestion made easy by Shaker Digestive Cordial.

It cures the nausea, loss of appetite, pain in the stomach, headache, giddiness, weakness and all the other symptoms of indigestion, certainly and permanently.

Sold by druggists. Trial bottle 10 cents.

Finest line of toilet soaps on the river at Coquille Pharmacy.

We pay spot cash for our goods and sell the same way at the Fair Store.

TO TRADE—A farm on Coos river for a house and lot in Coquille City, or a small acreage property in the vicinity.

J. H. Cecil began the work of ditching at the courthouse block yesterday, for the purpose of laying drain pipes.

Mrs. Fannie G. Dixon, of Myrtle Point, drove down to Coquille City yesterday on business, including a visit to her friend, Mrs. Wes Nosler.

Buckingham's Dye for the Whiskers can be applied when at home, and is uniformly successful in coloring a brown or black. Hence its great popularity.

Bert Dean, of this place, has resigned as mail carrier between this place and Empire City, and accepted a position at John Bear's livery stable at Marshfield.

HOUSES—Several desirable and low-priced pieces of property not in our advertised list, and several town lots, way-down in prices, have been placed in our hands for sale. Call quick.

WANTED—A good dairy ranch, on or close to the river; enough land to have 30 to 40 head of cows. Address the HERALD, Coquille City, stating location and best terms to a good tenant.

Jim Whetstone has been carrying a very sore hand for several days past—a boil made its appearance, which was aggravated during the work of putting up new telegraph poles.

Prof. Hawkins and crowd of hunters daily returned last week from their trip up in the mountains near Eckley. The boys didn't bring all the deer with them, but had a good time.

The name of the new mining section in Alaska is now by authority spelled "Klondike." We shall endeavor to be uniform about it in the future, taking the geographical society's say-so as the ultimatum.

The W. C. T. U. will give their usual temperance mass-meeting in this place on the night of the 5th Sunday—29th inst. Mrs. Rev. W. C. Scott, of Bandon, will be present and address the ladies only on Saturday, and on Sunday night address the general public, to which all are cordially invited.

I have choice Petite prunes which will begin ripening about August 25th, which will be sold at the orchard near Coquille at 1 1/2 cents per lb., or aboard river steamers or cars at same price. If you need choice fruit for canning or other purposes send in your orders.

R. D. SANFORD.

Orvil Dodge, esq., of Myrtle Point, went to Empire City last Saturday to be in attendance at the Pioneers' annual reunion, of which association he is historian and an earnest worker. The editor of the HERALD thanks him for a kindly invitation to a free seat in his conveyance and to return from the reunion, but business rush forbade our attendance. Mr. D. returned this morning, in view of his attendance at the G. A. R. Encampment tomorrow at Myrtle Point.

The "Peterson Family" gave one of their pleasing musical concerts and entertaining exhibitions at Masonic hall last night, and will give another tonight. These young folks are musical prodigies, and besides their charming selection of instrumental and vocal specialties, they give several other specialties, chiefly wonderful slight-of-hand performances. Prof. Godfrey gave an outdoor performance on light rope preceding the entertainment. A large audience greeted the artists. Another exhibition will be given tonight.

The Godfreys—Prof. Godfrey and wife—gave a splendid entertainment to a good house last Saturday night. As an acrobat, trapezist, tumbler and contortionist, Prof. Godfrey has added to his varieties, with the help of Mrs. G., instrumental and vocal solos, duets and part songs, dialogues, plays, character songs and fancy dances. Mr. and Mrs. G. give a very choice and pleasing program. Prof. Godfrey was assisted also by the Peterson family, who furnished charming orchestral music, with Mrs. Elsie Price at the organ.

The steamer Coquille River is due about Thursday.

A good fish-boat and oars for sale cheap. J. J. STANLEY.

W. E. McDuffee and Ethan are doing the painting at the Kroll property.

Attend the Peterson family concert, at Masonic hall, tonight. Admission—10, 20 and 25 cents.

The mill stopped a day or so last week, owing to breakage of some of the belting. It started up yesterday again.

The Kroll property, near the schoolhouse, is being put in thorough repair, improved, finished within and repainted.

Attorney T. S. Minott, of Marshfield, returned home through this place yesterday from a visit to his mining interests near Eckley.

Miss Lilly Poole, of Florence, came to Coquille City via the bay last Saturday, on a visit to Prof. and Mrs. Millard and family.

The Collegiate Institute at this place will open on Monday, August 30, and gives promise of a great improvement on past terms.

Yesterday Ira Johnson, who works in Geo. Pike's logging camp, had the misfortune to cut his knee with an ax; not seriously, however.

Hon. Thomas Tongue, acting congressman from this district, has returned home from Washington to remain until the regular session meets.

Miss Lillie Wagner returned to her upper-river home yesterday, but will come to Coquille again and attend our Collegiate Institute this winter.

A branch from a Petite prune tree was left at this office last week by Oliver Sanford, taken from his father's orchard, having 82 prunes thereon.

Mr. CANNING, superintendent of the poor farm, has two nice looking little boys to find homes for. Address him through the postoffice, or call.

Mrs. Airey S. Bennett, mother of our Mrs. George Martin, was down from Myrtle Point several days last week visiting her daughter and family, and included a short visit at Marshfield.

Mr. Canning, superintendent of the county farm, is seeking good homes for two nice looking little boys. Persons wishing to secure a little boy to raise should call on or address Mr. Canning at this postoffice.

Prof. Nicholson, of the Collegiate Institute, returned Monday from a trip of several days at Bandon and down into Curry county in the interest of his school. He is quite hopeful of having a good school.

L. H. Morgan, a practical carpenter and builder, announces through the HERALD today that he is "here to stay," and ready to make estimates and contract for the construction of all kinds of buildings.

J. J. Stanley and family and Jacob Croy and family departed yesterday for a camping trip down the coast into California, thence across the mountains to Shasta and return via Rogue River and Umpqua valleys. They will be gone a month or two.

J. S. Edmunds, paper hanger and house decorator, has been doing some nice work and contracting for more at this place. He will be here the balance of this week. Better make your arrangements with him and select and order your paper through his agency.

The Wonders of Science Lung Troubles and Consumption Can Be Cured.

An Eminent New York Chemist and Surgeon Makes a Free Offer to Our Readers.

The distinguished New York chemist, T. A. Stearns, demonstrating his discovery of a reliable and absolute cure for Consumption (Pulmonary Tuberculosis) and all bronchial, throat, lung and chest diseases, stubborn coughs, catarrhal affections, general decline and weakness, loss of flesh, and all conditions of wasting away, will send THREE FREE BOTTLES (all different) of his New Discoveries to any afflicted reader of the Coquille Herald writing for them.

His "New Scientific Treatment" has cured thousands permanently by its timely use, and he considers it a simple professional duty to suffering humanity to donate a trial to his infallible cure.

Science daily develops new wonders, and this great chemist, patiently experimenting for years, has produced results as beneficial to humanity as can be claimed by any modern genius. His assertion that lung troubles and consumption are curable in any climate is proven by "heartfelt testimonials" filed in his American and European laboratories in thousands from those cured in all parts of the world.

Medical experts concede that bronchial, chest and lung troubles lead to Consumption, which, unattended, means speedy and certain death.

Simply write to T. A. Stearns, M. C., 98 Pine street, New York, giving post-office and express address, and the free medicine will be promptly sent. Sufferers should take instant advantage of his generous proposition.

Please tell the Doctor that you saw his offer in the Coquille City Herald.
