U. S. Attorney Murphy, at Portland, has instituted a suit against the Coos Bay Wagon Road Company--as also against the O. & C. Railroad Company—to set aside patents to lands in certain instances which were "erroniously issued," and to recover title of lands forfeited. There is a disposition on the part of the government also to examine into the titles to some timber lands in southwestern Oregon, where they are believed to have been secured by fraud and perjury and disposed of to speculators and lumber firms in violation of law. This is coming nearly home, and if investigated, as it should be, might disinherit in some instances, and maybe catch up with the tools of the grabbers who served their masters so faithfully and robbed the public, and send them up where others of their ilk are pounding stone and munching hard tack.

S.F.Star: Fourteen million pounds of sugar daily, multiplied by six-tenths of one per cent per pound (equal to $84,000), is the daily donation made by congress to the sugar trust. No wonder its members can found and endow colleges to teach such "political economy" as will enable such steals to be continued for another generation. But it is a wonderful fact on the other side and a flat rebuke to pessimism when all the other professors of Brown University have the courage to denounce the dismissal of the late president of the college, Professor Andrews—because he didn't propose that Rockafeller and company should prescribe his political economy.

The prosperity howlers have fallen back on big crops to produce prosperity. For the past few years big crops were over-production and the source of all our troubles. The producer was dubbed old "hayseeds" and counseled by the intelligent farmer-editor, lawyer, banker and boodler to diversify his farming, stick to his plow and they would run the government. And their promises have been fulfilled—so far as "running" the government is concerned.

S. F. Star: One of the most palpable outcomes of our worse than savage system of land robbery is the eviction of Mrs. Martha Lavilan, aged 66, after half a century's occupancy of a house at the corner of Green street and Van Ness avenue. It is the end of forty years' litigation over a Mexican grant to which probably neither of the litigants had any just claim.

S. F. Star: Delegate Furuseth, of the Sailors' Union, stated at the Labor Council that the steamschooner North Fork, which sailed last Saturday for St. Michaels, Alaska, with an old ferryboat in tow, and overloaded, will probably never reach there. Some authority should exist somewhere to prevent such jeopardizing of human life.

From London to Liverpool is 202 miles, and all the land, which is cultivated and beautified to perfection, legally belongs to six men, whose only claim to it is that they are the oldest sons of their fathers.

Quite a shower of rain fell on the bay side and at Bandon yesterday morning, while we had but a light sprinkle. Last night and this morning, however, we had some rain. Our farmers are not yet ready for rain, having considerable hay and grain out. A few more days of good weather would benefit them greatly.

Mrs. Rev. W. C. Scott, of Bandon, visited Coquille City Saturday and Sunday last and conducted meetings in the interest of temperance for the W. C. T. U. A mass meeting was held Sunday night at the Methodist church, which was addressed ably and entertainingly by Mrs. Scott.

Wm. Harradon, accompanied by George Hunt of the life-saving station at the bay, came over from Marshfield on wheels yesterday. Mr. Hunt extended his trip to Myrtle Point, while Mr. Harradon hustled among our dealers here to place on sale some of the products of his cigar factory.

George Pike, our popular logger, visited Marshfield recently on business, and left yesterday on a similar mission. Mr. P. is moving his camp and extending both the railroad track and skid road about half a mile.

There will be preaching at the Christian church next Lord's day, morning and evening, and hereafter regularly on the 1st and 3d Lord's days of each month.

C. A. STINE.

Mr. Quick and daughters, Flora and Mary, will take a vacation on the lower river for a fortnight.

Institute Committee Reports.

Whereas, The officials of the board of education and the city have thrown wide the doors of the school building and city hall for our profit and convenience and

Whereas, The railroad, steamboats and hotels have accorded us reduced rates of travel and entertainment; and

Whereas, County Superintendent J. H. Barklow has been unremitting and eminently successful in making our assembly a "feas of reason and flow of soul" literally and truly; therefore,

Be it resolved, That we, the instructors and lay members of the institute of 1897, do express to the city in its corporate capacity, to its citizens, one and all, to the management of hotels and transportation companies, and last but not least to our genial and able county superintendent, our deep appreciation of the well-directed efforts put forth to stamp our convention with success and to make our visit to Bandon one to be long held in remembrance; and it is hereby ordered that a copy of these resolutions be given the local press for publication.

Riverton Riotings.

Riverton, Aug. 30.—This town is now very quiet. There are but few miners here at present. One saloon. Even the butcher is thinking of closing out.

Mr. Reagan's daughter, a returned missionary from China, Miss Belle Bennett, connected with the W. P. & H. M. Society, and others. Mrs. Heaton and Mrs. Lawrence of this place expect to attend. Rev. Mr. Smith will close his pastorate with the church at this place next Sunday and then depart for conference.

Portland Telegram: United States Attorney Murphy this morning filed complaints in two new suits against the Oregon & California Railroad Company and Coos Bay Wagon Road Company respectively. The action against the former is brought to set aside patentsto lands erroneously issued. In the suit against the wagon road company, the government seeks to recover title to 1000 acres of land forfeited by the company or payment for the same at valuation of $2.50 per acre.

The "nickel" social of the Christian church was held at the home of Rev. C. A. Stine last Friday night. It was a very pleasant affair and the company was nicely entertained. No special program is being arranged yet, but may be for future occasions. Misses Maude Nosler and Zettie Messer gave a charming duet, and two or three other pieces were given by other attendants that were well received.

Coos Bay News: Don't expect to get any more free information at the telephone office regarding steamers, etc. The inspector, who was here lately, has sent orders to the effect that no questions be answered unless paid for.

Miss Ella Miller, a returned missionary from Burmah, India, lectured at the Christian church last night, and will conduct a service tonight also. The public is cordially invited.

UPPER-RIVER DEPARTMENT.

Myrtle Point and the Upper-Coquille and What is Going on There.

Mr. Friedburg, the water and light man, was in town again last week looking after his interests here.

Rev. J. S. McCain preached two very interesting sermons to an appreciative audience in the Dixon grove on last Sunday.

D. Giles and family left on last Sunday morning for an outing in the mountain air near the headwaters of Floras creek.

Walter Shoemaker, of Bandon, shipped a train-load of beef cattle to San Francisco last Saturday, about 150 head in all.

J. A. Lehuberr left for Deer Park on last Monday, to remain indefinitely, his health having been much improved by his former visit to that healthful locality.

Many of the boys are talking of going to Josephene county to secure employment, where it is reported a large number of men are wanted to work on a mining ditch.

W. H. Brown returned from Bandon last Sunday evening. He reports a very pleasant time on the beach. Mrs. Brown and children are still enjoying the sea breeze.

W. U. Douglas, of Marshfield, as referee, and Attorneys Hazard and Hall finished the taking of evidence in the Brown, Shull and Whittington case on last Saturday.

Many of our people visited Bandon last week during the institute, including of course all of our school teachers, who claim to have been really entertained by the Bandon people.

Hon. Binger Hermann and family arrived in town on last Sunday from Washington, D. C., and are visiting with their relatives and many friends in this vicinity, who accord them a hearty welcome. We are sorry to learn that their stay will be brief, owing to Mr. Hermann's official duties requiring his early return to the nation's capital.

Ralph Knight, of Roseburg, was visiting with relatives in this vicinity last week.

Attorney Charles Moon, of your town, paid our burg a business visit on last Saturday.

Dr. Roberds reports the arrival of a bran new daughter on the 28th inst. to bless the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Dean of the South Fork.

On last Saturday the dray wagon of Lehuberr & Roupp loaded with a very large box, drove up in front of the residence of U. S. Commissioner Orvil Dodge. The box, when landed in the yard and opened, was found to contain an elegant piano, which was a present to the Misses Alta and Daisy Dodge from their father, and is one of which any one might well be proud.

Died—Of diphtheria, on the North Fork of the Coquille river, on Sunday, Aug. 29th, a little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Lewis, aged about 8 years. This dreaded disease has again made its appearance in our fair valley and begun its merciless work on the fair ones of creation. It is to be hoped, however, that it may be checked before it can spread over our territory, as a heavy death rate has marked its appearance heretofore.

Mrs. J. W. Caldwell left Bandon on the 9th of August, and after visiting on the North and South Forks of the Coquille for several days, her baby, a little girl about 15 months old, was taken sick and died within about 36 hours. The little one was brought to this town on last Saturday morning, where Dr. K. A. Leep rendered it all the assistance known to the medical profession, but all to no avail. On Sunday morning at 7:50 o'clock, death claimed the little sufferer. The tiny remains were laid away in the new cemetery on Sunday evening, Rev. Vandyke conducting ceremonies. The family have the sympathy of the community in this, their sad bereavement.

Baker City Epigram: The East Oregonian reports the sale of 350,000 pounds of wool in Umatilla and Morrow counties on the 5th inst., at from 7½ to 5 cents per pound. This wool will be taken to the scouring mills at Pendleton and cleaned, and when this lot of wool is washed the Pendleton scouring plant will have worked over 4,000,000 pounds of wool this season. The price paid for the wool is rather disappointing, with a tariff on wool nearly equal the price paid, and the drouth slaying sheep by the hundred thousand in Australia. It looks like wool ought to bring more than from 7½ to 9 cents per pound.

Bandon Recorder: D. F. Nicholson, principal of the Coquille Collegiate Institute, was in town attending the teachers' institute this week, and made the Recorder office a pleasant call. Mr. Nicholson will start his school next Monday and is making vigorous efforts to increase the standard and merit of the college. He is energetic and has experience as an instructor and the school is to be congratulated upon securing his services.

Bandon Recorder: Following is a list of the passengers on the steamer Coquille River when she sailed last Sunday evening for San Francisco: L Murphy, A. R. Cook, A. N. Knight, M. L. Randleman, Fred H. Dickson, D. Morgan, Charles Wimer, Manuel Repoza, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Lane, Miss M. Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. John Kronenberg, Robert Frederick, Charles Frederick, George Williams and A. T. Livingston.

There has been much talk about our public schools, when they will open, who will compose the corps of teachers, how long they will run, etc., but without any justification. The school board has had no meeting yet to determine these matters, and could not have intelligently done so till the apportionment of the school fund was made, which is just announced. The board will meet sometime this week.

Roseburg Review: The Earl Fruit Co. is making times lively about Riddle, having already shipped seven cars of prunes east from that station. Not less than 100 hands are busy packing there now, the fruit coming from the orchards of G. W. Riddle, G. K. Quine, W. L. Wilson, Fred Sanderson and A. Riddle & Son.

Roseburg Review: The newspapers of Oregon are really very impertinent. Some of them are even insisting that State Treasurer Metschan make a statement of the amount of money in his keeping, and what, if anything, is being done with it. Just as if this money belonged to the taxpayers instead of the state treasury ring!

The cotton crop of the south is said to be heavy this year. It is estimated that there will be nearly 10,000,000 bales.

Prineville people are taking steps looking to the establishment of a high school for that place.

Oregonian: The steamer Bismarck is at Astoria making preparations for her sea voyage to Rogue river. She will go down in charge of Captain Mitchell, and if he succeeds in landing her in safety, he will be entitled to more credit than Captain Denny was for taking the Grady to San Francisco, as the Bismarck is not much of a sea boat.

Burdette Wolff Again.

Another story bobs up with reference to Bardette Wolff, the young law student, who out of pique, fatally shot his sweetheart, Birdie Morton, one night several years ago at Montavilla. The murderer at once fled from the scene of his cruel and fiendish deed, but from time to time reports reached here that he had been seen at one place or another. Suffice it to say that Wolff never was apprehended. For a time it was believed that he committed suicide, but no remains that could be indentified as those of the murderer ever were found. A story comes from The Dalles which leaves the impression that Wolff now is existing somewhere in the vast wilderness of eastern Oregon, as an involuntary hermit. This is based upon the fact that periodically a relative of the assassin visits The Dalles, purchases a lot of provisions and carries them off to some unknown locality. This statement can be easily verified, and there is no doubt that the provisions so bought are for the sustenance of the secluded murderer.—Telegram.
