We thank somebody for some wedding cake, received by mail from somewhere, the postmark not being legible. Now, this is too bad; we are sure the remembrance is from some worthy young couple whom we would delight to congratulate, but we are wholly without data as to who the parties are and where they reside.

Grand Master Gatch, of the I. O. O. F., visited Sunset Lodge, No. 51, at Marshfield, last Friday. He passed through on the train, returning to this place and visiting Coquille Lodge, No. 53, Saturday evening, at which the brotherhood, including visiting brethren from the upper and lower river, and the Rebekahs, provided a grand reception. Grand Master Gatch is very popular in the order and was well received here. The social features continued to a late hour.

The convention of the Young People's Society of Christian Workers will be held in this city in November. It would be well for the several bodies having organizations here—the Sunday-schools, Christian Endeavor, Epworth League, etc.—to make ready for the convention and have it the most successful yet held.

Our friend, J. M. Upton, esq., of Bandon, was last week wedded to the charming Miss Eleanor Augusta Reed, of the same place, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. W. Horsfall, assisted by Bishop Morris, in the Episcopal church of St. John-by-the-Sea, at Bandon. Sincere congratulations from the HERALD to the happy couple.

We will give a more extended notice next week, including the program, or a portion of it.

A new district was made by the late conference of the Southern M. E. church, called Coquille district, and Rev. W. B. Smith has been made the presiding elder. It includes Coos and Curry counties, which are so cut off and isolated from the inner portion of the state as to be quite inaccessible for several months in the year, hence the necessity to segregate this section and form a new district. Coquille City is made the headquarters, and in view of the district being small, the presiding elder is also local minister of the church at this place.

The donation social given at the little church last Saturday evening, though not largely attended, more than usually interesting and attractive. The program was very pleasing, and besides the several vocal numbers, the orchestra supported the choruses with charming effect. Recitations were given by Leta Barrows, Etta James, Laura Fox, Miss Mamie Millard, Georgia Johnson and Mary Dixon. The Manhattan Club gave a male quartet, Leta Barrows a solo, and Miss Birdie Noser an instrumental piece, entitled, "The Chariot Race, or Ben Hur," a selection of high grade and well performed. Several anthems and choruses were given by the choir.

Friends who received sugar-beet seed through the HERALD office are now requested to bring in each a selection of half a dozen beets of the varieties planted to be forwarded to the Agricultural College at Corvallis for analysis. Please come at once. Select good beets—not just the largest, but average—and bring them promptly so we can forward them.

The first number of Hon. J. H. Upton's paper, the Southwest Oregon Reporter, printed at Langlois, Curry county, has been received. It is an 8-page publication, of 4 columns each, and talks out like the old veteran that he is, in no uncertain sound. We welcome the Reporter, and hope it may receive the support and encouragement it deserves.

The HERALD does not contain an agricultural department because its columns are devoted entirely to news matter, but it gives Free of Charge to every cash in advance subscriber the best farm, fruit and dairy paper printed on the Pacific coast. The Rural Northwest is a sixteen page paper, published semi-monthly, and contains much of interest to those who are engaged in agricultural pursuits. For the regular subscription price of $2 in advance both THE HERALD and Rural Northwest may be received.

The new temporary school building was finished last Saturday. The volunteer help was exceedingly limited, falling far short of what was either promised or expected. Considering the number who were idle the past two or three weeks, it should have been a matter of pride and a pleasure to have donated a day or part of a day in providing a shelter and more healthful and comfortable quarters for the primary department of our school.

Medical experts concede that bronchial, chest and lung troubles lead to Consumption, which, uninterrupted, means speedy and certain death.

Simply write to T. A. Slocum, M. C., 98 Pine street, New York, giving post-office and express address, and the free medicine will be promptly sent. Sufferers should take instant advantage of his generous proposition.
