M. C. Miller of Dora, president of the Y. P. S. C. W., was in town yesterday. He is arranging for the fall meeting at this place and will endeavor to have it a success.

Doc Lowe came up from the lower river yesterday as a juror. His face is familiar to almost every citizen, as he is an old-timer—one of Coos county's pioneers.

The HERALD Land Company has a house and half acre lot on the edge of town to let for 18 months or two years on easy terms to a reliable tenant. Call and get particulars.

Following are the names of the parties drawing the lucky numbers for those oil paintings at the Fair Store: Miss Maud Nosler, Miss Zetta Messer, Charles Hall, Sherman Flinn and F. Von Pegert.

Dr. Moore performed a surgical operation upon Prof. Kanemetz last Sunday, in the removal of a wen of small but increasing growth from the left temple. The operation was skillfully and satisfactorily performed.

P. C. Stoddard and father, of Myrtle Point, were in town yesterday. Mr. Stoddard, senior, left for California, and Perry will visit Bandon and other points on business and then shortly make a trip to California also.

Two good properties in Coquille City for sale, very low. One has several acres, a nice new house and other improvements thereon; the other is more centrally located, a block of land, good large house and other excellent improvements. Call at HERALD office for a bargain.

Rev. C. A. Stine, who received such serious injury by a fall from the sidewalk to the gravel bed below, a distance of about 14 feet, at Bandon, Saturday evening of week before last, is improving rapidly, and hopes to occupy his pulpit next Sunday.

Uncle George Stauff of Marshfield is agent for the well-known and popular Philadelphia clothing firm of Wananaker & Brown, and is canvassing for the same. He deserves success, for he is honest and popular himself as well as representing America's greatest business house.

Jim Hayes and son, Bart, were driving in a buggy from Empire to Marshfield Sunday, and at a certain point in the road, the boy, who was driving, turned aside to let some ladies pass, and on turning upon the road again the wheel passed over a stump, damped the occupants out, and the team then started on a mad run. Mr. Hayes was hurt, but how badly we have not learned. The boy was not injured. There was no report as to how the team and buggy fared.

The HERALD does not contain an agricultural department because its columns are devoted entirely to news matter, but it gives Free of Charge to every cash in advance subscriber the best farm, fruit and dairy paper printed on the Pacific coast. The Rural Northwest is a sixteen page paper, published semi-monthly, and contains much of interest to those who are engaged in agricultural pursuits. For the regular subscription price of $2 in advance both THE HERALD and Rural Northwest may be received.

THE BEST OFFER YET.—Any one wishing to rent a good home in Coquille City can obtain a bargain by calling at the HERALD office at once.

No one in ordinary health need become bald or gray, if he will follow sensible treatment. We advise cleanliness of the scalp and the use of Hall's Hair Renewer.

The Central Market—W. S. Rose's new place—is neatly finished and supplied with the best meats, vegetables and fruits, at living prices. Give him a trial.

Judge Fullerton and Circuit Attorney W. E. Yates arrived at this place from Curry county last Friday, where they had been attending court for eight or ten days.

HOMES.—Several desirable and low-priced pieces of property not in our advertised list, and several town lots, way-down in prices, have placed in our hands for sale. Call quick.

Johnson Bros. are still in business at the old stand, and are selling flour at $1 per sack. All other produce at the very cheapest rates. Will pay 15 cents per dozen for eggs.

To RENT.—A fine 320-acre stock ranch, located on Halle creek, four miles from Arago creamery. Fine orchard with from 300 to 400 bushels of fruit on place. For particulars call on or address, J. H. BOGUE, Riverton, Or.

Ira Buzan reached this place Saturday evening from his mine on Johnson creek, after an absence of a year. He remained over Sunday, returning yesterday in good shape to do paying work henceforth.

Miss Edith Howell of the lower river came up Sunday and remained over at this place with Miss Jessie Simmons last yesterday, when she took the train for the bay, thence to Monmouth to attend the Normal school.

Bert Dean and Frank Goodman opened a skating rink in Old Fellows' hall last Friday night, and the old-time sport has revived quite an interest. Bert and Frank have sent for more skates, new and up-to-date, and will strive to make the fun attractive and pleasurable.

The shipment of produce of all kinds to Beaver Hill from this station is large and increasing. Fete Johnson shipped 40 sacks of potatoes, and Mr. Hullenback a large number of melons of different kinds—his third or fourth shipment—last Friday.

The school enrollment yesterday was: Prof. Hawkins' room, 65; Prof. Nosler's intermediate grade, 35; Miss Bentley's primary room, 41—an increase of 15 during the week, with more to come into each of them, although many pupils are attending the Collegiate Institute.

The steamer Alice Blanchard was due Thursday at the bay, but having failed to appear up to the present time great uneasiness was expressed for her safety and many stories concerning her were put afloat. Word comes, however, that she is still at Portland, undergoing repairs to her boilers, etc.

The Moro reached this place last Friday, tugged from the lower river owing to something wrong with her engine. The tug also towed her below Saturday, after taking on a deck load of lumber from Lyons' mill. At Riverton she took on a load of coal at Tunon's bunkers.

Wednesday evening of last week, Rome Black, of Myrtle Point, had the misfortune to fall off the sidewalk at Bandon at the same spot and in somewhat the same manner as did Mr. Stine of this city, though escaping severe injury. Since these accidents the city council of that place has had a railing placed at that dangerous spot.

D. C. Herrin of Portland, grand lecturer of the A. O. U. W. for Oregon, spent most of the past week in this city working up an interest in that order and with the view to organize a lodge. He left for Marshfield yesterday, and from there goes to Bandon, where he will also attempt to organize a lodge.

Groceries can be bought for cash at J. W. Leneve's store, at the following prices: Oregon Flour, per bbl. $4 75; Rolled Oats, 13 lbs. for. 50; Granulated Sugar, 16 lbs. 1 00; Best Green Coffee, 5 lbs. 1 00; Best Rice, per pound. 5 5; Arbuckle and Lion Coffee per package. 15

All other groceries at lowest prices.

Among the notes from Bandon, clipped from the Recorder, will be seen one of a letter from J. S. Kimball of San Francisco to T. W. Clark of the woolen mills, who proposes to build a steamer for our river trade, the contract for which is already let to Hans Reed of Bandon. This is indeed good news, but it will start in at the season of the year when business is dull, when we shall have no fruits and other farm products to ship, and then, possibly, be withdrawn, like the others, at the moment she would do well for all parties. However, it is in good hands, both as to ownership and construction.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER. Absolutely Pure. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

O. Dodge, of Myrtle Point, came down this morning to attend court.

State Superintendent of Public Instruction, Hon. G. M. Irwin, of Salem, reached our city Tuesday of last week. It was an unheralded and quite unexpected arrival, but his presence was soon learned by many of our citizens, and he also visited the schools, addressed them and gave out an announcement for a public address at the Methodist church at night. County Superintendent Irwin and afterward expressed much pleasure and inspiration for the cause from the gentleman's able lecture. A volunteer choir was present and gave three or four nice selections of music, including "America" at the request of the lecturer. Mr. Irwin visited the schools Wednesday morning also and addressed the pupils very acceptably. He and Prof. Barklow then took the train for Marshfield, from which place Mr. Irwin would take the steamer for the upper coast section, where he had appointments.

The Men Are Still in It. Fort Scott, Kans., Sept. 28.—Miss M. E. Coos, Mrs. M. W. Douglas, Mrs. A. Kaufman and Miss Cora Wheeler, who were drawn on the district court jury, and are the first women ever called for such service in Kansas, responded to the summons today, and all but Miss Wheeler expressed a willingness to serve. The question of their eligibility was raised and Judge Simons found that, under the constitution and supreme court decisions, a qualified juror must be a male.

They Found Him. Leadville, Colo., Oct. 2.—An Associated Press dispatch sent from this city September 21st has been the means of putting the relatives of James Rowan in communication with the returned Klondiker.

Rowan was a passenger on the Portland, and has been in the Alaskan gold fields for 13 years. During the past year he has accumulated a large fortune, owning several valuable claims on Bonanza creek. It now appears that he has a brother, John Rowan, of Chicago, who first learned of the arrival of James from the item in the Associated Press dispatch from this point.

Rowan, before leaving Leadville, gave his address to a Herald-Democrat reporter, and by this means the two brothers were placed in communication with each other.

WANTED.—TRUSTWORTHY AND respectable gentlemen and ladies to travel for active, established house in state of Oregon. Monthly $65.00 and expenses. Position steady. Reference. Enclose self-addressed stamped envelope. The Dominion Company, Dept. Y, Chicago.

The Shakers of Mt. Lebanon, a community of simple, honest, God-fearing men and women, have prepared the Shaker Digestive Cordial for many years, and it is always the same simple, honest, curative medicine that has helped to make the Shakers the healthy, long-lived people that they are. The shakers never have indigestion. This is partly owing to their simple mode of life, partly to the wonderful properties of Shaker Digestive Cordial. Indigestion is caused by the stomach glands not supplying enough digestive juice. Shaker Digestive Cordial supplies what's wanting. Shaker Digestive Cordial invigorates the stomach and all its glands so that after awhile they don't need help. As evidence of the honesty of Shaker Digestive Cordial, the formula is printed on every bottle. Sold by druggists, price 10 cents to $1 per bottle.

The Wonders of Science Lung Troubles and Consumption Can Be Cured. An Eminent New York Chemist and Scientist Makes a Free Offer to Our Readers.

The distinguished New York chemist, T. A. Slocum, demonstrating his discovery of a reliable and absolute cure for Consumption (Pulmonary Tuberculosis) and all bronchial, throat, lung and chest diseases, stubborn coughs, catarrhal affections, general decline and weakness, loss of flesh, and conditions of wasting away, will send THREE FREE BOTTLES (all different) of his New Discovery to any afflicted sufferer of the Coquille Basin who writes for them.

His "New Scientific Treatment" has cured thousands permanently by its timely use, and he considers it a simple professional duty to suffering humanity to donate a trial to his infallible cure.

Science daily develops new wonders, and this great chemist, patiently experimenting for years, has produced results as beneficial to humanity as can be claimed by any modern genius. His assertion that lung troubles and consumption are curable in any climate is proven by "heartfelt letters of gratitude," filed in his American and European laboratories in thousands from those cured in all parts of the world.

Medical experts concede that bronchial, chest and lung troubles lead to Consumption, which, uninterrupted, means speedy and certain death.

Simply write to T. A. Slocum, M. C., 98 Pine street, New York, giving postoffice and express address, and the free medicine will be promptly sent. Sufferers should take instant advantage of his generous proposition.

Please tell the Doctor that you saw his offer in the Coquille City Herald.
