Smouldering fires of old disease lurk in the blood of many a man, who fancies himself in good health. Let a slight sickness seize him, and the old enemy breaks out anew. The fault is the taking of medicines that suppress, instead of curing disease. You can eradicate disease and purify your blood, if you use the standard remedy of the world, Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

According to a celebrated anatomist there are upwards of 5,000,000 little glands in the human stomach. These glands pour out the digestive juices which dissolve or digest the food. Indigestion is want of juice, weakness of glands, need of help to restore the health of these organs. The best and most natural help is that given by Shaker Digestive Cordial. Natural, because it supplies the materials needed by the glands to prepare the digestive juices. Because it strengthens and invigorates the glands and the stomach, until they are able to do their work alone. Shaker Digestive Cordial cures indigestion certainly and permanently. It does so by natural means, and therein lies the secret of its wonderful and unvaried success.

At druggists, price 10 cents to $1 per bottle. Marshfield Sun: Otto Schetter received a letter this week from his brother, Eugene, who is at present in Alaska. Eugene had recently met two men from Dawson City, who were on their way home. They by no means cherished the living they had to endure in the land of gold, and said that provisions were scarce at Dawson, and even now parties who arrived at Dawson were compelled to divide up their provisions and in their opinion men with plenty of gold would starve this winter. Eugene intends to go to the Klondike in the spring but says no man should leave Juneau with less than $1000 besides an outfit.

Mrs. Clara Mansfield, one of Coos county's handsome and efficient teachers, has accepted the agency and is canvassing for the latest and only reliable and most entertaining work issued from the press under the title of "Alaska and the Klondike Gold Fields," a work just now sought for as giving reliable and interesting data on this most absorbing subject. It gives a graphic description of that wonderful country in every phase, but especially regarding the gold regions, how to find gold and camp life at Klondike. It has something over 500 pages, a splendid map, also, and possibly 200 photo-engravings of the country, photo of life, etc. It is a most valuable work. Prices are $1.50 and $2.50, according to binding. Be ready when she calls on you for a subscription.

Court Notes.

The grand jury, with A. D. Boone as foreman, T. Y. Callaghan, clerk, and R. E. Buck, bailiff, presented to the court on the 6th and 8th instant, respectively, five true bills and one not true bill, as hereafter noted, and on Oct. 9th brought in their final report as follows:

FINAL REPORT OF GRAND JURY.

COQUILLE CITY, Or., Oct. 9, 1897. To the Honorable Circuit Court of the State of Oregon in and for the County of Coos:

We, the undersigned, grand jury, beg to report as follows: That we visited the county treasurer's office and found a complete set of account books neatly kept. We also found that the treasurer has a safe, which is a secure place of deposit for his account books and other public documents.

We also visited the jail and found a strong steel cage for the safe-keeping of prisoners, and believe such cage will meet all requirements in that respect. We would however recommend that as the door of such cage is secured by a combination lock, the combination of which is usually known to none but the sheriff and his deputies, that he or one of his deputies having the combination be present at all times, when there is any prisoner or prisoners in the cage, in order to provide for the safety of such prisoner or prisoners in case of fires.

We also visited the county clerk's office and found a fire-proof vault for the safe keeping of the county records in custody of said clerk, but as said vault is too small to provide for the safe keeping of any but the more important records, we respectfully recommend that provision be made for the safe keeping of all county records, many of the records unprovided for being of considerable importance, and being irreplaceable if lost or destroyed.

In view of the present inconvenient situation of the various county offices, we would respectfully recommend the building, at an early date, of a county building ample to the requirements of the county in this respect.

A. D. BOONE, Foreman.

This ended the labor of the grand jury for this term. The accommodation for a county building is well worth the favorable consideration of the county court, and should, and we hope will be looked after at the very next term of this court. The records of the county must be taken care of in the very best manner, and there should be no hindrances imposed to the county court in trying to do what duty and law expect of them.
