Dig down to the cause of your sickness, if you want to get well and stay well. Most likely it's indigestion. The irritating poisons of fermenting, putrid food, left in the stomach by indigestion, cause headache, neuralgia, nervousness, dizziness, stomachache, nausea, irritability, and all the other well-known symptoms of indigestion.

They also cause many pains and disorders which are often laid to other causes and hence are not easily cured. But as soon as the poisons are removed, all these symptoms and disorders disappear, because there is nothing success in this like Shaker Digestive Cordial, because it prevents the undigested food from fermenting in the stomach and helps the stomach to digest its food.

Sold by druggists, price 10 cents to $1.00 per bottle. The Mercantile & Shipping Association held its special meeting and annual election at the hall last Saturday. The attendance of the stockholders was not as large as it should have been. The following persons were chosen as the board of directors for the year: J. H. Cecil, W. Drane, John Good, J. J. Stanley and C. W. Martin. The treasurer's and secretary's reports were very favorable, but owing to the limited attendance of stockholders, the matter of pressing its business interests to the front was not discussed nor acted upon. The new board of directors, after the adjournment of the stockholders' meeting, assembled and organized by the election of W. Drane as president; J. J. Stanley, secretary; C. W. Martin, treasurer.

John Caldwell of Bandon called on us last Thursday. Mr. C. is canvassing for a splendid book, "The Earth, Girdled, or The World as Seen Today," by Rev. DeWitt Talmage. It includes descriptions of the Sandwich Islands, the Samoan group, New Zealand, Australia, India, Ceylon, Egypt, Biblical Isles of the Mediterranean, Russia, England, Scotland and Ireland, giving scenes and experiences among semi-civilized as well as cultured peoples of the world. There are over 500 pages of large quarto (or square) form, magnificently illustrated with 400 photographic views and eight full-page plates in the new photographic color process. The prices are $3.50, $4.25 and $5.25, according to style of binding, and it is a magnificent work.

Class No. 6, Mrs. Sugg, teacher, of the Christian Sunday-school entertained at the Christian church last Thursday night. The four young misses composing the class, Edna Lorenz, Rita Sinclair, Eva White and Earets Pannenberg, with the help of their earnest teacher, made extensive arrangements in providing a literary and musical program, and luring refreshments for the patrons. The program furnished pleasing recitations and readings from little Eva Sugg, Mrs. Pannenberg, Rita Sinclair, Leta Barrows and Irene Leneve. A fine vocal solo was given by Aaron Wilson, with Miss Mand Nosler at the organ; an instrumental trio (two mandolins and guitar) by Prof. Nicholson and wife and George Hite, a beautiful solo by Miss Grace Skeels—"The Old Rustic Bridge by the Mill"—and a vocal duet by Mrs. Sugg and Miss Mand Nosler, with Mrs. Nicholson at the organ. After this, a good social time was spent and delicious refreshments were served, continuing till about 10:30. It was a very pleasant and successful occasion, and reflects much credit on the young ladies and their teacher. The attendance was very good, and the receipts netted $10.05 for their class treasury.

Blood... Bubbles. Those pimples or blotches that disfigure your skin, are blood bubbles. They mark the unhealthy condition of the blood-current that throws them up. You must get down to the blood, before you can be rid of them. Local treatment is useless. It suppresses, but does not heal. The best remedy for eruptions, scrofula, sores, and all blood diseases, is Ayer's Sarsaparilla.
