THE LABOR EXCHANGE.

What the Labor Exchange Branches Are Doing.

The following items are gleaned from correspondence and exchanges:

Falls City, Or.—I am now working in Labor Exchange Branch No. 203 of this place. We are running a sawmill. We are making slow progress, but possibly may come out on top all right yet. We have fine natural resources, and if we do not make a mistake, we are sure to succeed.—I. L. Martin, Manager Branch No. 89, Amity, Oregon.

Kingstown, Ind.—We are having a very hard struggle here—so much opposition, prejudice and ignorance that it is very discouraging; yet we hope to make a success. With best wishes for the Labor Exchange, the grandest movement on earth, I remain.—Chas. M. Maxwell, Branch No. 240.

One of the latest branches of the Labor Exhange organized is at Corry, Penn., and has for some of its prime movers, members of the grange (that pioneer farmers' movement) of that place.

Visalia, California.—We are getting along nicely with our mill fund. Expect to get it in running order this fall. Have about $10,000 subscribed.—C. H. Rendell. [Note.—This mill is the combined project of all the Tulare (Cal.) county branches of which other mention has been made in the official organ. It bids fair to become one of the leading Labor Exchange branch projects.—Ed. Accountant.]

Grand Rapids, Mich.—We decided to make weekly contributions, as much as every one is able to do, in order to have some capital to start with. I think that before long we shall be able to state that, and with what industry, we have started. We agreed to leave the money we are able to deposit, at least six months in the possession of the branch—Rev. F. W. N. Hugenholtz, President Labor Exchange Branch 249.

Akron, Ohio.—Branch No. 191 is making exellent progress. Our present quarters, which were thought to be large enough for a long time, are now too small for the business that is coming to us, and will have to be enlarged at least three times its present capacity We have acquired 160 acres of land, and have more offered. Have begun R. R. buildings, with all our smaller industries prosperous. Our good neighbors, branch 224 at Alliance, gave an enjoyable picnic on the 28th of August. This was an educational move in the right direction.—Fraternally, R. E. Nevin, organizer.

Alliance, Ohio, branch 224 has been running about two months. We took an inventory August 25, 1897, and find we have deposit certificates out to the amount of $1,043.90; balance checks out to the amount of $790.45; other accounts due in baskets, $152.85; net gain in two months, $202 56; total $2189.59; permanent wealth and merchandise on hands, $2189 59. We have a depository employing two people. Factory 100 feet long, 40 feet wide; 5 horse power engine and boiler. We have eight people at work on baskets, three on brooms. One man with horse and wagon (which was deposited by branch 245, Columbiana, Ohio) gathereing us produce, and selling our brooms. We also have a large rack for hauling baskets from one place to another. It will hold one car-load. Three people making rag carpets. Coal mine working fifteen men. Will have capacity this winter for fifty men in the mine. We got this mine by paying one-sixth of the coal in royalty. The plant cost $25,000 and includes a fifty acre farm, and coal under one hundred and twenty acres more. When we pay $14,000 in royalty with coal, the plant is ours—which we will do in three year's time, and can build each worker a home on the fifty acres. We have for deposit with other branches the following: brooms No. 1, $2.25 per dozen; brooms No. 2, $2 per dozen; brooms No. 3, $1.05 per dozen; barn brooms, $2.05 per dozen; pie lifters, 60 per dozen; wagon jacks, $6.50 per dozen; knife and fork cleaners, $1.25 per dozen; baskets, one-half bushel splint, 28 cents per dozen; baskets, one-fourth bushel splint, 28 cents per dozen; drop handles, one-half bushel splint, 28 cents per dozen; drop handles, one-fourth bushel splint, 28 cents per dozen; rag carpeting, 38½ to 40 cents per yard; blacking, pint bottles, 75 cents per dozen; ammonia compound, pint bottles, 75 cents per dozen; crocks, all kinds, 5 cents per gallon; coal, Beloit block, car lots, prices, F. O. B. at mine: screened coal, $1.20 per ton; run of mine, $1 per ton; nut, $1 per ton; stock, 60 cents per ton. Freight rates on application. We have one lot harness tools and trimmings for harness for deposit with any branch that can use them. These prices are all net.—F. C. Marchand, Manager Branch 224

Word is received by us that apple growers near San Francisco have formed a combine and refuse to take less than $1 per box for their apples. This action, it seems, should make a better market for Coos county apples, and may account for the activity of San Francisco firms placing agents in this section to buy and pack and ship to them.

We urge especially those who are back with their subscriptions to take this opportunity of liquidating the same. We want good, marketable produce for which we will allow the ruling market price.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Gallier of Bandon visited us a few days last week. Mr. G. was dilating to us upon our beautiful apples in comparison with those he saw abroad in Iowa and other Mississippi valley states, which seem to be all affected with worms, while ours are as totally free from worms or blight of any kind. Our samples were quite all of the "red" varieties, but just as Mr. Gallier departed, our friend J. J. Stanley delivered a basket of the handsomest bright golden Belleflowers we ever saw, and which were all the more beautiful by comparison with the bright red ones already on display. Coos county apples against the world. Mrs. Pannenberg the same evening presented us one of the last Gloria Mundis on the tree, the weight of which is 23 ounces.

INTERESTING DECISION.

Professional Opinion Not One's Own Property. A Lost Art.

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 2.—A decision which has just been rendered by the supreme court in the case of Dixon vs. the people is of great interest to professional men who are called upon to give expert testimony in the courts. Dr. Salmon was called as an expert witness in a personal injury case against the city of Springfield, but refused to testify until he was first paid a reasonable fee for this service, claiming that his professional opinion was his own property and could not be taken away from him except by due process of law as provided in the state constitution. Judge Creighton ruled against him and fined him for contempt of court. The court held that this professional knowledge is not personal property in the meaning of the constitution and the court has the right to compel witnesses to testify. To make such a distinction would defeat the ends ot justice. The finding of Judge Creighton is upheld by the supreme court.

Mr. Broadley was burned about the hands, and a carpet in the room where the lamp fell was burned. Miss Dora Myrick was also burned about the hands in extinguishing the flames.

Exchange: A business man cannot daub his name and business on a fence without getting some good out of it; neither can he run a stereotyped ad in a paper for a solid year without some returns; even if he does not think he sees any benefit it comes nevertheless. 5 DROPS

Hundreds of thousands of Sufferers cured without a single failure by "FIVE DROPS."

Though so universally used and tested did you ever hear anyone speak ill of this great remedy? No, you never did and never will, for if taken as directed and in the proper quantity "5 Drops" cannot fail to cure any of the diseases for which it is recommended. What it has already done to relieve the suffering is told in thousands of letters of grateful praise.

Mr. J. P. Limeburner, widely known for many years as the special representative of the Populists and Free Silver Press of the United States, has kindly forwarded the following letter for publication:

Jan. 25, 1897.

DEAR SIRS—I am anxious for the sake of the suffering and out of gratitude to you to give my personal endorsement of your wonderful remedy. On the 9th of January, 1897, I was in Washington and was suddenly seized with an aggravated, case of inflammatory rheumatism: so severe and painful was the attack that within 24 hours my left arm was paralyzed and I was only able to dress with assistance. I procured a bottle of 5 DROPS and took a dose that night, rubbing some on externally as directed. The following morning I was surprised to find myself immensely relieved, and continuing treatment woke the second morning cured. My arm was absolutely free from pain, and all swelling and stiffness had disappeared. The quickness and completeness of my cure was remarkable. I have known for over a year of the great curative properties of your medicine and have several friends who have been cured by it of Neuralgia, Catarrh and Asthma. Wishing you every success and trusting that those similarly afflicted will at least give this remedy a trial. Sincerely yours J. P LIMEBURNER,
Bureau of Populist and Reform Papers, Old Stock Exchange Building, Chicago, Ill.

CURES THE INCURABLE.

DEAR SIRS:—I would like to thank you for your great remedy, "5 DROPS," and tell you what it has done for me. I had Rheumatism in every joint and in the heart, and I had Catarrh of the head for 30 years, I was so poorly that I lost the use of my legs and arms, and could not move without pain. I was so crippled, that I had done but little work for seven years, and our family physician, a good doctor, told me that my Rheumatism and Catarrh were incurable, and I believed him. But now, after using "5 DROPS" only two months, I can truly say I have not felt so well for seven years. This medicine does more than is claimed for it. At this time my Catarrh is much better, and I have scarcely any Rheumatism at all and the heart weakness and pain are gone. My hearing is now good and my eyesight is much better. I have gained more than 10 pounds of flesh and can do a full day's work. It is the best medicine I ever saw to give a mother who has a young child, for it has the same effect on the child as on the mother. It wards off Croup and cures the hives of the child and causes sweet and refreshing sleep to both young and old

Yours respectfully, WM. M. KELLEMS,
Jan. 29, 1896. Siberia, Perry Co., Ind.

We received the following letter from Mr. J. J. Wilson of Omaha, Ill. Mr. Wilson has been for many years an invalid, and reading the above letter which was published, wrote Mr. Kellems, asking if his endorsement was genuine, and received this reply, which he forwarded us.

MR. J. J. WILSON.

DEAR SIR:—Your letter of recent date at hand, the testimonial you speak of is genuine. The company who manufactures and sells "5 Drops" published my testimonial just as I gave it to them and every word of it is true, and I could swear to it and prove it by many witnesses. The company did not ask me for this letter. I sent it to them last January for publication in order that poor sufferers, incurable as I once was, and as you are, might be cured. Get "5 Drops" and use it and it will cure you as it has cured me. I have received many letters like yours, and it is a pleasure to me to answer all who write. Tell all your neighbors what I have written about "5 Drops." I know how to sympathize with those who are afflicted, for though I suffered so long, it is now 8 months since I have felt any pain.
Dr. S. W. Kellems, my brother, uses "5 Drops" in his practice, and joins me in endorsing this great remedy. He says for a case like yours it is a positive cure.
Sept. 21, 1896. MR. W. M. AND DR. S. W. KELLEMS.

If you have not sufficient confidence after reading these letters to send for a large bottle, send for a sample bottle, which contains sufficient medicine to convince you of its merit. This wonderful curative gives almost instant relief and is a permanent cure for Rheumatism, Sciatica, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia, Backache, Asthma, Hay Fever, Catarrh, Sleeplessness, Nervousness, Nervous and Neuralgic Headaches, Heart Weakness, Toothache, Earache, Croup, "La Grippe," Malaria, Creeping Numbness, Bronchitis and Kindred Diseases.

"FIVE DROPS" is the name and dose. Large bottles (300 doses), $1.00. Six bottles for $5.00. Sample bottle prepaid by mail 25c. Not sold by druggists, but only by us and our agents. Agents appointed in new territory.
