The three-year-old boy of J. A. Johnson, of Lynn Center, Ill., is subject to attacks of croup.

Mr. Johnson says he is satisfied that the timely use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, during a severe attack, saved his little boy's life.

He is in the drug business, a member of the firm of Johnson Bros. of that place; and they handle a great many patent medicines for throat and lung diseases.

He had all these to choose from, and skilled physicians ready to respond to his call, but selected this remedy for use in his own family at a time when his child's life was in danger.

Because he knew it to be superior to any other, and famous the country over for its cures of croup, Mr. Johnson says this is the best selling cough medicine they handle, and that it gives splendid satisfaction in all cases.

New York Journal: If Debs is to be imprisoned for doing that, the court cannot, in common decency, refuse to imprison J. Pierpont Morgan and Mark Hanna, if they are ever caught "inciting" operators to reduce wages.

Unless the scale of justice be held even after such a fashion the conviction will be strengthened that the courts have become a part of the operating plant of capital, and that the old-fashioned American doctrine of equality before the law is extinct.

The Wonders of Science Lung Troubles and Consumption Can Be Cured.

An eminent New York Chemist and Scientist makes a Free Offer to the World.

The distinguished New York chemist, T. A. Slocum, demonstrating his discovery of a reliable and absolutely safe remedy for Consumption (Pulmonary Tuberculosis) and all bronchial, throat, lung and chest diseases, stable or curable, results as beneficial to humanity as can be claimed by any modern genius. His assertion that lung troubles and consumption are curable in any climate is proven by "heartfelt letters of gratitude," filed in his American and European laboratories, and sent to those cured in all parts of the world.
