She occupies the same place that the steamer Bessie K. did some months ago, but is no doubt safe and will be gotten off. The steamer belongs to J. S. Kinball Co., San Francisco. Revival of the G. A. R. A meeting of Gen. Lytle Post, No. 27, G. A. R., was held last night at Mercantile hall, and the interest in its existence and necessity revived by the presence of many of the old members and other comrades on invitation. The turnout was good and the sentiment earnest to eradicate all by-gones and nonfraternal views, and be re-established on the preamble and constitution of the patriotic national organization. This prevailed, and the following comrades were elected to fill the elective offices for the ensuing year: J. B. Hanks, commander; L. Harlocker, senior vice; Jacob Croy, junior vice; D. P. Strang, chaplain; W. H. Nosler, officer of the day; J. P. Goodman, officer of the guard.

The following were constituted a committee on applications: W. Drane, D. P. Strang and J. Croy. The ladies of the W. R. C. visited the post while in session and served a delicious lunch and passed a social time.

It was decided to have the installation on the 1st Monday in January, prox., and a detail will be present from Bandon Post to conduct the exercises, and possibly visiting comrades from other posts in the county.

Shooting Scrape at Beaver Hill. What was at first supposed to be an "accidental shooting" occurred in the vicinity of Beaver Hill last Wednesday between boys, one Henry Jarne, aged about 12 years, and a youth whose name we did not learn. The boys had been out hunting, but returning got to shooting at a tin can. Jarne's companion, it seems, was close to the can, and the boys having quarreled and passed harsh names at each other, the next load from Jarne's gun lodged in his companion's hip, making a painful though not serious wound and indicating that there might have been some intention to get even with his associate.

A U. S. inspector in this section and smelling around for some land transactions of ill favor that had been enacted in the past few years. Uncle Sam is said to have been unjustly dealt with in this and Humboldt county, Cal., but he proposes to follow it up. The authorities are "onto" 100,000 acres in Humboldt county, while the transfers here have not been nearly so large. Besides, under a late ruling of the U. S. supreme court, innocent purchasers are no purchasers at all; fraud does not alienate the government's ownership, but makes the parties to the dealings liable for criminal acts.

"Mend it or End it," has been the rallying cry of reform, directed against abuses municipal or social.

For the man who lets himself be abused by a cough the cry should be modified to: Mend it, or it'll end you. You can mend any cough with
