THE LABOR EXCHANGE.

The Advantage of the Labor Exchange.

The advantages which may result to a farming community by a liberal support of the Labor Exchange, are well nigh incalculable. It will render them in the long run almost entirely independent of legal tender money and its manipulations by the banking interests. Exchange paper would serve a local community with a medium of exchange untaxed, elastic, always sufficient for the volume of trade, yet never in excess, so that it can neither depreciate nor appreciate for speculation. As there is always a commercial value supporting every dollar, it is not apt to shrink away when most needed, like bank money.

It has all the apparent advantages of the Rochdale system of co-operation, i. e., Farmers through a central organization have all the profits of exchange. If generously patronized by the majority of farmers they can fix fair rates for their produce in their local trade, instead of cutting each others price's to sell at the lowest notch. By grading their produce certain, fair rates, especially for butter and such perishables, can be much better obtained. Then they can obtain all their necessary articles of consumption in bulk, saving very largely on everything except monopolized goods, such as sugar, coal oil, etc., and these in time will be overcome. At present, with our legal tender money in such a fog, there is no encouragement in any kind of labor, but the low-priced competitive labor of factories. This new system will start up individual effort and encourage home industry in the production of all those home comforts which we can surround ourselves with and which tend to make home a place of rest and contentment, and to such a home our children will return, from out battling in the world for periods of rest and recuperation. In our hard struggle for existence, we have been apt to neglect things—the broken gate hinges, ruined door-knob, even the half demolished fences keep us on the run and weary our patience, and that broken sash is apt to give us a sudden chill, that induces a period of suffering and distress is not of doctor's expenses. But let us pull up and overtake our neglected tasks; we can make exchanges that will remedy all these things and hundreds more through the Labor Exchange.

Let every farmer make an extra effort for the production of some crop or part of a crop which he can devote to the Exchange when the depository opens, and not be expected to draw everything out at once. $10 deposit from a thousand families if left on hand for a time would give a working capital to trade on of ten thousand dollars, and would make an immense start. Come as near it as possible.—Argus.

Accountant: It is claimed that the Standard Oil Company has cleared $41,000,000 during the past 15 months. Tolerably fair profits for these panicky times. How many of our merchants and farmers will it take to show up a profit of like amount in 15 months? This shows what a monopoly of one of the products of nature will do for a trust at the expense of the people. Distribution which will enable the producers to retain the products of their labor, less the cost of distribution, and again proclaim our dependence, not only of England but of a system that has made it impossible for honest men to secure employment, and under which a few are allowed to live in idle, extravagant luxury while the many are forced to accept a pitiful subsistence in exchange for unceasing toil. This is what the Labor Exchange will do for America.

W. H. P., in Jeffersonian, Faribault, Minn.: Just stop and think a minute and then ask yourself this question: Why, after farmers raise food to feed the nation, and laborers manufacture goods, houses, tools, furniture and all articles of luxury, is it necessary to stand idle until a few grains of worthless sand can be dug out of the bowels of the earth to be used as a medium to exchange all these varied products one with another? Some day the Labor Exchange will explode this foolish superstition of money and panics. Tramps and bankrupt will be heard of no more.

Advance Guard, Defiance, Ohio: As long as children go hungry and cold and naked in the midst of all that is necessary to make them comfortable and happy, there is a great and a shameful crime being committed against God, man and the laws of nature; and just so long will men who have the courage to speak out, speak in thunder tones that will penetrate even the walls of the gilded castles of the rich robbers and echo in their sanctuaries and synagogues.

Subscribers can pay up their subscriptions for the HERALD on the Labor Exchange plan, bring us good, marketable wheat, oats, barley, rye, corn, eggs and chickens. We urge especially those who are back with their subscriptions to take this oportunity of liquidating the same. We want good, marketable produce for which we will allow the ruling market price.

No people suffer so much from physical disabilities as those whose business requires little or no muscular exertion. The lack of exercise causes the liver to become sluggish and the result is constant Constipation, Indigestion, Biliousness and Sick Headache. To prevent this take Simmons Liver Regulator, it keeps the liver active and makes one's condition as comfortable as those who have much exercise.

O. Dodge, U. S. commissioner at Myrtle Point, visited the county seat last Wednesday on business. The HERALD office had a pleasant call, though we were so busy as hardly to be able to greet him. Mr. D. is inquiring why the mails are so irregular, especially from Myrtle Point to the bay and the lower river. This is part of his official duty, and complaints reaching him are necessarily inquired into.

Mrs. Mary A. Langlois, of Curry county, died at the home of her son-in-law, Peter Nelson, at Bandon, on the 8th, aged 78 years. She was born in Tennessee, and crossed the plains, with an ox team in 1834, settling at Oregon City, where her husband was in the employ of the Hudson Bay Co. They moved to Port Orford in 1854, and the following year settled at Floras creek, where Mr. Langlois died in 1886. She was an estimable old lady, highly respected by all who knew her.

The HERALD does not contain an agricultural department because its columns are devoted entirely to news matter, but it gives Free of Charge to every cash in advance subscriber the best farm, fruit and dairy paper printed on the Pacific coast. The Rural Northwest is a sixteen page paper, published semi-monthly, and contains much of interest to those who are engaged in agricultural pursuits. For the regular subscription price of $2 in advance both THE HERALD and Rural Northwest may be received.

A very heavy wind storm visited Coos river on Tuesday of last week. During the height of the gale it was impossible for one to stand on the bank of the river at W. B. Piper's place. Wind storms of such severity are rare occurrence in this section.

A succession of storms has kept the bar "boiling," and for several days past it would have been certain destruction for a vessel to attempt to cross out. The result is that steamers have been bar bound for a longer time time than for many years. The same conditions prevail along the coast, and "storm bound" vessels are numerous, even in the Columbia.

Charles Bartholomew is buying cayuses on the ranges of Morrow county at $1 a head, and gathering them up and shipping them to the horse cannery at Linnton, near Portland. He recently purchased the Looney and Cecil bands of about 500 head. The Heppner Times applands him as a humanitarian, saying he is doing Morrow county a great service this fall as well as doing a humane act to the scores of starving cayuses which roam over that section of eastern Oregon, many of which are actually starving to death and were not some disposition made of them, the boneyard would claim the largest portion of them by spring.

Tries for Young People.

Try to be satisfied to begin on a small scale.

Try not to look at richer homes and covet their costly furniture.

Try being perfectly independent from the first, and shun debt in all its forms.

Try to cultivate the moral courage that will resist the arrogance of fashion.

Try to avoid the too common mistake of making an unwise effort to "begin where the parents ended."

Try going a step further, and visit the homes of the suffering poor when secret dissatisfaction is liable to spring up.

Try to co-operate cheerfully in arranging the family expenses, and share equally in any necessary self-denial and economies.

Try buying all that is necessary to work with skillfully, while adorning the house at first with simply what will render it comfortable.

Try to remember that it matters but little what "people think," provided you are true to yourself, to right and duty, and keep your expenses within your means.—Somerville Journal.

A farmer came into a store the other day, in a near-by town, to sell a load of fine apples. He was offered 50 cents a box. A traveling man, who was standing close by, remarked to the farmer: "If you had those apples in New York you could get $1.50 a box for them." "Ya-as," replied the farmer, "and if I had a pail of water in h—l I reckon I could get 10 cents a glass for it." And the drummer collapsed.

The Cowboy Caller.

The Grangeville, Idaho, Press gives the following from a cowboy dance, by an unknown author:

Git your little sagehens ready;
Trot 'em out upon the floor—
Line up there, you cusses! Steady!
Lively now! One couple more.
Shorty, shed that ol' sombrero!
Broncho, douse that cigarette!
Stop yer cussin', Casimero,
'Fore the ladies! Now all set!

S'lute your ladies, all together!
Ladies opposite the same—
Hit the lumber with yer leather!
Balance all, an' swing yer dame!
Bunch the heifers in the middle!
Circle stags and do-se-do—
Pay attention to the fiddle!
Swing her 'round and off you go!

First four forward! Back to places!
Second feller—shuffle back!
Now you've got it down to cases—
Swing 'em till their trotters crack!
Cents all right a heel and toein'!
Swing 'em, kiss 'em if you kin—
On to next, and keep agoin'
Till you hit your pards again!

Gents to center, ladies 'round 'em,
Form a basket; balance all!
Whirl yer gals to where yo' found 'em!
Promenade around the hall!
Balance to yer pards, an' trot 'em
'Round the circle double quick!
Grab an' kiss 'em while you've got 'em—
Hold 'em to it if they kick!

Ladies, left hand to yer sonnies!
Alaman! Grand right and left!
Balance all, and swing yer honies—
Pick 'em up an feel their heft!
Promenade like skeery cattle—
Balance all, an' swing yer sweets!
Shake yer spurs an' make 'em rattle!
Keno? Promenade to seats.

Deafness Cannot be Cured.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the eustachian tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh; which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give one hundred dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

5 DROPS

Hundreds of thousands of Sufferers cured without a single failure by "FIVE DROPS."

Though so universally used and tested did you ever hear anyone speak ill of this great remedy? No, you never did and never will, for if taken as directed and in the proper quantity "5 Drops" cannot fail to cure any of the diseases for which it is recommended. What it has already done to relieve the suffering is told in thousands of letters of grateful praise.

Mr. J. P. Limeburner, widely known for many years as the special representative of the Populists and Free Silver Press of the United States, has kindly forwarded the following letter for publication:

Jan. 25, 1897.

DEAR SIRS—I am anxious for the sake of the suffering and out of gratitude to you to give my personal endorsement of your wonderful remedy. On the 4th of January, 1897, I was in Washington and was suddenly seized with an ingravated case of inflammatory rheumatism; so severe and painful was the attack that within 24 hours my left arm was paralyzed and I was only able to dress with assistance. I secured a bottle of 5 DROPS and took a dose that night, rubbing some on externally as directed. The following morning I was surprised to find myself immensely relieved, and continuing treatment woke the second morning cured. My arm was absolutely free from pain, and all swelling and stiffness had disappeared. The quickness and completeness of my cure was remarkable. I have known for over a year of the great curative properties of your medicine and have several friends who have been cured by it of Neuralgia, Catarrh and Asthma. Wishing you every success and trusting that those similarly afflicted will at least give this remedy a trial. Sincerely yours

J. P. LIMEBURNER,
Bureau of Populist and Reform Papers, Old Stock Exchange Building, Chicago, Ill.

CURES THE INCURABLE.

DEAR SIRS:—I would like to thank you for your great remedy, "5 DROPS," and tell you what it has done for me. I had Rheumatism in every joint and in the heart, and I had Catarrh of the head for 30 years, I was so poorly that I lost the use of my legs and arms, and could not move without pain. I was so crippled, that I had done but little work for seven years, and our family physician, a good doctor, told me that my Rheumatism and Catarrh were incurable, and I believed him. But now, after using "5 DROPS" only two months, I can truly say I have not felt so well for seven years. This medicine does more than is claimed for it. At this time my Catarrh is much better, and I have scarcely any Rheumatism at all and the heart weakness and pain are gone. My hearing is now good and my eyesight is much better. I have gained more than 10 pounds of flesh and can do a full day's work. It is the best medicine I ever saw to give a mother who has a young child, for it has the same effect on the child as on the mother. It wards off Croup and cures the hives of the child and causes sweet and refreshing sleep to both young and old

Yours respectfully, WM. M. KELLEMS,
Siberia, Perry Co., Ind.
Jan. 29, 1898.

We received the following letter from Mr. J. J. Wilson of Omaha, Ill. Mr. Wilson has been for many years an invalid, and reading the above letter which was published, wrote Mr. Kellems, asking if his endorsement was genuine, and received this reply, which he forwarded us.

MR. J. J. WILSON.

DEAR SIR:—Your letter of recent date at hand, the testimonial you speak of is genuine. The company who manufactures and sells "5 Drops" published my testimonial just as I gave it to them and every word of it is true, and I could swear to it and prove it by many witnesses. The company did not ask me for this letter. I sent it to them last January for publication in order that poor sufferers, incurable as I once was, and as you are, might be cured. Get "5 Drops" and use it and it will cure you as it has cured me. I have received many letters like yours, and it is a pleasure to me to answer all who write. Tell all your neighbors what I have written about "5 Drops." I know how to sympathize with those who are afflicted, for though I suffered so long, it is now 8 months since I have felt any pain.

Dr. S. W. Kellems, my brother, uses "5 Drops" in his practice, and joins me in endorsing this great remedy. He says for a case like yours it is a positive cure.

Sept. 21, 1896. MR. W. M AND DR. S. W. KELLEMS

If you have not sufficient confidence after reading these letters to send for a large bottle, send for a sample bottle, which contains sufficient medicine to convince you of its merit. This wonderful curative gives almost instant relief and is a permanent cure for Rheumatism, Sciatica, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia, Backache, Asthma, Hay Fever, Catarrh, Sleeplessness, Nervousness, Nervous and Neuralgic Headaches, Heart Weakness, Toothache, Earache, Croup, "La Grippe," Malaria, Creeping Numbness, Bronchitis and Kindred Diseases.

"FIVE DROPS" is the name and dose. Large bottles (300 doses), $1.00. Six bottles for $5.00. Sample bottle prepaid by mail 25c. Not sold by druggists, but only by us and our agents. Agents appointed in new territory.
