Go to the Old Soldiers' Store for Syrups, Lard, Bacon, Flour, Tea, Coffee—in fact all kinds of Groceries.

Hardy Mast was down a day or two last week from his North Fork home, partially to dicker with Santa Claus.

Mr. Quick, Miss Flora and Grace Smith visited the homestead ranch at Lamprey creek last week, returning yesterday.

Ed Bannell and Gus Carlson have packed 120 barrels of salmon. They lost one week at the test time, being out of salt.

The Old Soldiers' Store will always be found with sugar, coffee, and all the staple groceries on hand and at the lowest cash prices.

Miss Louisa Vallino has reached this place from San Francisco and is in charge of the millinery department of the Berlin Store.

John Quick came up from his Lamprey creek hatching quarters yesterday to be present at some special meetings and festivities here.

Bernard Short has returned to Coos, after spending some weeks in the Flagstaff mining section near Baker City. He likes Coos well enough.

If you desire a luxurious growth of healthy hair of a natural color, nature's crowning ornament of both sexes, use only Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer.

The Fair Store will make a sweeping sale the balance of this week. Many nice holiday goods that were delayed by the storm will be sold at wonderfully low prices.

Thanks to Santa Claus and our friends at Lamprey creek for a Christmas gift to the editor. It is a neat photo holder, the delect work of one of the good people of that community.

Dr. Moore has received a supply of trusses, the most practical of anything of the kind ever invented. If you have any difficulty in getting one to suit, call and have one fitted that will do the work.

The HERALD force has been kindly remembered during the Christmas festivities. Mrs. E. Pannenberg and daughter Eureka served a basket of cake, a pitcher of delicious sweet wine and a basket of extra fine apples.

George Robinson is snugly located in his new store, next door west of Hotel Coquille. It looks as if he is getting a full share of the trade of the town and country. He has a nice and quite full line of goods, and George himself is popular and well known.

B. J. Harrison came in from the South Sixes mining section last week to spend the winter. He showed us some nuggets and dust that indicate a good claim, but winter drives the miners out to shelter. He hurt one leg pretty badly when coming down, but not seriously.

The Christian Sunday-school elected the following officers at last Sunday's meeting: J. A. Seed, superintendent; J. W. Sugg, secretary; Edna Lorenz, assistant secretary; Miss Edith Haxter, treasurer; Miss May Wickham, librarian; Miss May Boyrie, assistant librarian; Miss Maude Nosler, organist.

William Benham, who has been working for Jim Hayes at Empire during the summer months, has come home to this place.

Mrs. Luez Chase, who has been teaching on North Coos river, and sister, Miss Belle Rich who closed her second term at Coos City, have returned in time to spend the holidays at home.

Major Ebert will be present in this place tomorrow with a platoon of helpers of God's Regulars from Marshfield to conduct meetings and establish a post. Elder Farrar, a very able Baptist minister, will be present and join help in the meeting Thursday night.

Coquille Encampment, No. 25, I. O. O. F., elected officers at its meeting last Thursday evening, as follows: R. E. Buck, C. P.; T. J. Little, H. P.; S. P. C. Johnson, S. W.; J. J. Stanley, J. W.; G. F. Boutell, scribe; J. S. Lawrence, treasurer. The installation will take place the 1st Thursday in January, 1897.

Quite a crowd of our young folks took the train last Friday morning for the bay, thence to San Francisco. Of the number were Fred Strang and sister, Miss Sarah, Charley Pendleton, Leon Gregory and Frank Willard. Miss Strang goes for her health, while the young men go for employment and with a view to better their conditions. The HERALD wishes good luck to all.

The HERALD is pleased to chronicle the unparalleled success of the canvass for the sale of the "History of Coos and Curry Counties," as being collated and edited by Orvil Dodge, esq., historian of the Pioneers' Association of Coos and Curry counties. Ot Willard is canvassing, and visited Coquille City for several days last week to sound the sentiment of the people regarding the history. In a visit to Bandon of six days and his first day in Coquille—in all, seven days—he took 119 orders. There are no dissenting voices, but all seemed to be in expectancy and anticipating a most interesting and conscientiously prepared history. This first effort is very encouraging.

The HERALD greets its readers this issue with a special holiday edition—twice the usual size—and with its usual space for interesting and acceptable local matter. The HERALD, as a local paper, is first in the county, first in mechanical skill and ability, and first in the hearts of the people. Besides this, the HERALD office has printed within the past ten days 2000 copies, of 8 pages each, in neat style, of the "College Visitor"—Prof. Fattell's paper; 270 copies of 2 pages, 4-column sheets, for the "Southwest Oregon Reporter"—Hon. J. H. Upton's able Curry county paper—and has other orders, besides posters from Marshfield, the large posters for the Woodmen's masquerade, posters for the Beaver Hill entertainment and much other job work done and on file. These go to show that if the HERALD had only a business show from a united citizenship, without subsidy or unusual effort, we should have a printing house here that would be unselfish and of its own force do more to build up our town and county than any other enterprise.

Accident at Remote By Fire.

A sad, painful and maybe fatal accident occurred at Remote school-house Christmas eve, during the festivities of the season in that neighborhood. William Murray, a well-known citizen, was acting the part of Santa Claus, during which the cotton on his coat ignited from the lights on the tree and caught his clothing, burning him so badly that he may die. The audience fled from fright at the threatening blaze except two citizens and a daughter of the injured man. The latter, however, fainted and could do nothing for her father, but the two neighbors succeeded in extinguishing the fire. Mr. Murray had to be left at the school-house till a physician had been summoned and treated him.

Notice to Mariners.

Notice is given by the lighthouse board that the Coquille buoy, a first-class nun, red, marked "Coquille," in white letters, has gone adrift from its position about 1/2 of a mile N. W. 1/4 N. of the break on Coquille rock. It will be replaced as soon as practicable. This notice affords the list of Beacons, Buoys and Day Marks, Pacific coast, 1896, page 33.

"Mend it or End it," has been the rallying cry of reform, directed against abuses municipal or social.

For the man who lets himself be abused by a cough the cry should be modified to: Mend it, or it'll end you. You can mend any cough with Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER. Absolutely Pure. Royal makes the food pure, wholesome and delicious.

Mr. Dodge, the historian for the Pioneers of Coos and Curry counties, has arranged with J. P. Beyers, the Coquille photographer, so that parties who will be kind enough to furnish their pictures for the forthcoming history can get them taken for 35 cents. Mr. Beyers is an excellent workman.

Don't bolt your food, it irritates your stomach. Choose digestible food and chew it. Indigestion is a dangerous sickness. Proper care prevents it. Shaker Digestive Cordial cures it. That is the long and short of indigestion. Now, the question is: Have you got indigestion? Yes, if you have pain or discomfort after eating, headache, dizziness, nausea, offensive breath, heartburn, languor, weakness, fever, jaundice, flatulence, loss of appetite, irritability, constipation, etc. Yes, you have indigestion. To cure it take Shaker's Digestive Cordial. The medicinal herbs and plants of which Shaker Digestive Cordial is composed, help to digest the food in your stomach; help to strengthen your stomach. When your stomach is strong, care will keep it so. Shaker Digestive Cordial is for sale by druggists, price 10 cents to $1.00 per bottle.
