Ed Dickson left for Grants Pass yesterday to join his family and reside there.

Our stock is being increased constantly and prices lower than ever at Coquille Pharmacy.

Johnson Bro's pay the highest cash price for all kinds of hides, cured or green, except deer hides.

Ed Price, filer at the mill, was taken down very sick last Thursday and is no better yet. We believe it is a grippa that ails him.

Miss Birdie Walker, who taught a late term of school on Coos river, concluded the same and returned to her home at Myrtle Point last week.

Mrs. Buskirk continues sewing of all kinds, with tailor-made suits as a specialty. Good marketable produce, chickens, eggs, etc., taken in exchange.

An effort is now being made to have a night-watchman placed in the main part of town. This is very commendable and the right thing to do.

As the name indicates, Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer is a renewer of the hair its growth, health, youthful color, and beauty. It will please you.

We learn that a case of diphtheria is reported in the family of Pat Smith, near Norway, as having proved fatal and taken from the family a little 4-year-old son.

Misses Twombly of Empire and Gamble of Kentuck sloop, charming young schoolmarm from the bay side, attended the teachers' examination at this place last week.

Miss Annie McDonald returned yesterday from a residence of about two years in California. She will travel with her brother, Marshall McDonald, and family at this place.

Ship your produce to the Labor Exchange, Branch 26, 322 Davis street, San Francisco, and get honest returns. Correspondence solicited. H. WARFIELD.

Write The Coast Agency Company, Portland, for anything in typewriters' or for typewriter or office supplies. Expert repairing and platens and parts for all machines.

Mrs. Judge Dyer of Bandon spent several days in town last week and until yesterday, when she returned home. She was the guest of her sister, Mrs. R. E. Buck.

Mrs. Lou Hazard and baby returned yesterday from a protracted visit at Empire with relatives and friends. Mrs. L. Hacker, her mother, returned also, having been on a visit for several days to her old home and associations.

J. S. Coke, jr., of Marshfield, came over yesterday on a brief business visit. He is one of the chief losers by the fire at Marshfield Sunday night, in which the Coke Bros', attorneys, lost their library, papers, etc. Mr. C. leaves today on a trip to Portland.

We regret to learn that John Johnson, of the North Fork, is very low and sinking fast, with a prospect of but a few days of life before him. That dread disease, consumption, has held him with a relentless grasp for some years, but will grant a reprieve no longer.

From everywhere come words of praise for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. "Allow me to congratulate you on the merit of your Remedy. It cured me of chronic bronchitis when the doctor could do nothing for me."—Chas. F. Hemel, Toledo, O. For sale by R. S. Knowlton.

God's Regular Army occupied their new hall last Saturday night till midnight. It was a dedication occasion, and was attended by a large crowd, its full capacity—about 400 people. Refreshments were served during the evening, and a sum of about $20 realized for the building fund.

Col. Ebert, Mrs. Ebert, Lieut. Mrs. Baker and Lieut. Noah of Marshfield, and Lieut. Mattie Anderson of this place, of God's Regular Army, will leave tomorrow with a 4 horse outfit for Roseburg, thence to Portland and remain till after "jubilee field council"—whatever that may be—and then go east.

Madison Tollar, an old and respected resident of the lower-river section, died at Mr. Donaldson's place, near Parkersburg, last Sunday, and was buried yesterday at Bandon. The old gentleman had been declining in health for some months, and rheumatism and paralysis made inroads of late until his physical powers were exhausted and death came to his relief. He was aged about 89 years.

We make no further mention of the robbery and feendish cruelty upon the person of Uncle Levi Gant, of near Myrtle Point, at this time, than is contained in our Upper-River Department, fresh from the neighborhood of the deed. We couldn't do justice till we can take one end of a rope that has the offenders dangling at the other end. Our correspondent at Riverport also mentions the robbery, near Beaver Hill, of Mr. Bancke, an Italian, by two negroes, about noon last Friday.

The W. C. T. U. held their regular meeting at Mrs. Messer's Friday afternoon, and as it was the date of award to the contestants of the literary and musical programs given the past quarter, the judges' decision being that the "fat" ladies won on the literary side and the "lean" on the musical side, there was a mutual powow and feasting. A table was spread in the spacious dining room and laden with a delicious and bounteous lunch with coffee and tea. A few invited guests who had been caught on the fly were taken in and feasted, among whom were Sheriff Gage and Treasurer W. W. Hayes. Mrs. Judge Dyer of Bandon was present, as also Misses Zettie Messer, Maude Nosler, Prof. Hawkins and Aaron Wilson, by grace of capture. There was some nice music and a splendid social time.

School Entertainment. Masonic hall was well filled with an appreciative audience last Friday night at the entertainment given for the seat fund of our public schools.

The Municipal band kindly gave two musical selections at the door, and one to introduce the program, which were very pleasing and enlivened the proceedings, and these were followed by this succession of numbers: Song by little girls from Miss Bentley's school; recitation by Miss Virginia Gage—"The Pauper Girl"; flag exercise by little boys from Miss Bentley's room; recitation by Miss Eva White—"Only a Drunkard"; recitation by Emma Sherwood—"The Devil and the Lawyers"; declamation by Mrs. Nora A. Good—"The Wedding Fee"; quartet—"Twinkling Stars"—by Miss Maude Nosler, Miss Irma Lukens, Prof. Claude Nosler and Aaron Wilson, and Miss Zetta Messer at the organ.

Then was announced the silhouettes or shadow-graphs, comprising local scenes familiar to our citizens and striking in their representations. They were well given, considering they were the first and in new hands, and created much merriment. They were presented as follows: "The Coquille Ghost"—4 scenes; "Lovers Strolling, The Ghost Routed, the 'Bicycles Stopped' was then strikingly given; "Swinging on the Gate, or, Chewing Pickings" was a scene familiar to many of our young people and not wholly unremembered by older people; "As the Clock Struck One the Boot Struck, too"; "The Camera Fiend"; "The Sleeping Beauty"; "The Klondike Pilgrims"—5 scenes; Experienced Miner.—The Burden Bearers, Mr. L.uxperience, The Snag-Box Woman, The Dude; "In the Dentist's Office, Who Learned His Trade in a Blacksmith Shop"—2 scenes; Filling a Tooth, and Two Days Later, Extracting Same.

The whole program was good, most of the numbers eliciting hearty applause. Net receipts were $30.65.

Another entertainment was announced to be given at an early day—date not set—in which the Myrtle Point Octet would participate. It will be chiefly a musical affair, of a high order.

Prof. Barklow, county superintendent, was present in Coquille City since last Wednesday till yesterday, in attendance at the quarterly examination of teachers. He included a brief visit to our primary school yesterday and an inspection of the new desks and seats of which he speaks most favorably.

A deer came down the river from a short distance above town last Saturday forenoon, and was tackled by a crowd of excited citizens as it was about to reach the bank at Fox's, opposite our wharf. The deer was lassoed, but floundered and fought bravely. Capt. Will McCloskey, of the steamer Myrl, seized it by the ears and it flopped him into the river, but he held onto it till secured. It made lots of sport for awhile.

Headache stopped in 20 minutes by Dr. Miles' Pain Pills. One cent a dose.

DEATH. ROBERTS—At Riverport, Feb. 12, 1898, to Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Roberts, a daughter.

DEATH. TOLLAR—Near Parkersburg, at the Donaldson place, Feb. 12, 1898, Madison Tollar, aged about 65 years.

DEATH. FISHER—At Ferndale, Feb. 5, 1898, Guy Fisher, aged 7 years, and good nursing could do, my lungs heart and nervous system were so completely wrecked, my life was despaired of, my friends giving me up. I could only sleep by the use of opiates. My lungs and heart pained me terribly and my cough was most aggravating. I could not lie in one position but a short time and not on my left side at all. My husband brought me Dr. Miles' Nervine and Heart Cure and I began taking them. When I had taken a half bottle of each I was much better and continuing persistently I took about a dozen bottles and was completely restored to health to the surprise of all.

Dr. Miles' Remedies are sold by all druggists guaranteed, first bottle benefits or money refunded. Book on diseases of the heart and nerves free. Address, DR. MILES MEDICAL CO., Elkhart, Ind.
