The Battle Ship Maine Blown Up.

Havana, Feb, 16.—At a quarter to 10 o'clock last evening a terrible explosion took place on board the United States battleship Maine, in Havena harbor. Many were killed or wounded.

The explosion shook the whole city. The windows were broken in all the houses. The correspondent of Associated Press says he has conversed with several of the wounded sailors, and understands from them that the explosion took place while they were asleep, so they can give no particulars as to the cause.

Key West, Fla, Feb. 18.—The correspondent here of the Associated Press has returned to this place on board the steamer Olivette from the scene of the wreck of the United States battle-ship Maine in Havana harbor.

Admiral Montelola has summoned Capt. Sigsbee to appear before Military Judge Peral to make the necessary depositions.

When the keys of the magazine were delivered to Capt. Sigsbee, the temperature of the forward magazine was 59 degrees, and it is said no high explosives were stored there which would seem to make the mystery more dense. Fears are expressed here that the divers will not be able to throw light on the cause of the disaster, since the forward atoms. As this dispatch is sent no news of importance has been received here from Havana or from the fleet.

As for the Maine herself, notwithstanding the discouraging reports from Lieutenant Howe as to her condition, the navy department will try to raise her. While this is required by every creditable sentiment, they say they are bound to remove the hull from the small habor.

He describes the whole forward body of the ship as completely collapsed where the shock of the explosion was heavest. Photographs of the wreck will be sent to the dement.

New York, Feb. 18.—The Evening World contains a copyrighted cablegram from Havana, signed by Sylvester Scoville, which repeats graphically the story of the blowing up of the battleship Maine, and says:

"I shall now quote what Senor Congosto, then acting govenor-general and fulfilling the functions of that responsible position, said to me the night before the Maine arrived. Consul-General Lee had told him that afternoon that the warship would come. Congosto belligerently objected. General Lee said: Remember, if any trouble does occur, I will have the whole fleet here in four hours.

"Shortly after, I saw Secretary Congosto and he was very mad. He was also indiscreet. He said to me, 'If you people would only let us alone, it would be all right. Spain has put up with more than any other nation would have done. I have warned you that there will be trouble if the Maine comes here, If you want war you can have it. You will find Spain has not forgotten how to fight.'"

Notice.

The Arago Creamery Company will receive sealed bids for the skimmilk for the season of 1898, including a rental consideration for the hogpen and slaughter house. All bids must be in by 1 o'clock p. m. of Saturday, Feb. 26, 1898.

We retain the right to reject any or all bids. Address bids to the undersigned.

Arago, Oregon.

A few months ago, Mr. Byron Every, of Woodstock, Mich., was badly afflicted with rheumatism. His right leg was swollen the full length, causing him great suffering. He was advised to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. The first bottle of it helped him considerably and the second bottle effected a cure. The 25 and 50 cent sizes are for sale by R. S. Knowlton.

UPPER-RIVER DEPARTMENT.

Myrtle Point and the Upper-Coquille and What is Going on There.

Heavy rain Saturday night.

Prof. Traver visited Roseburg last week.

Gus Bender is becoming a very popular postoffice clerk.

H. H. Lewellen, who has been ill for some time, is reported as getting better.

Levi Gant has nearly recovered from the severe burns given him by the robbers.

Posters are out announcing a grand masque ball for the 22d, at Opera hall in this place.

Mr. Dodge, the historian, took the train Friday and is going over the county visiting and interviewing prominent pioneers.

One of Coos county's noble elderly ladies—Grandma Norris—returned to her home at Fairvew Wednesday, after medical treatment for cancer.

It is rumored that in the near future a new sawmill will be erected on the grounds lately occupied by the one consumed by fire here lately.

Samuel Currier, who has been foreman for the Myrtle Point M. & D. Co. for several years, left for Alaska last week. He will see Will Lundy at Portland, that young man having preceded him to that city.

Miss Mattie Huling, one of Myrtle Point's noble young ladies, started for Portland on Friday's train. She intends going by the Drain route. Miss Mattie's many friends wish her a pleasant journey and a speedy return.

Our municipal election last Monday resulted in the choice of the following citizens for councilmen—Chas. Adams, A. H. Clack, W. C. Canner, N. G. W. Perkins and Dr. K. A. Leep. Treasurer—D. A. Huling; marshal—JamesC. Brown; recorder—L. A. Robersts. We learn that Dr. Leep was elected mayor at the first meeting of the new board.

The several fires that have recently taken place in Coos county should remind the people everywhere to provide some protection against the great destroyer. The protection in our town is very limited. "We Girls" have been talking about organizing a fire campany, as the young men are backward in that line. The men suggest several plans that look reasonable and inexpensive, but no one seems to like them. Several windmills for pumping water is one of the plans named.

Our excellent school is again in progress, after a short vacation.

Mrs. D. Giles has reduced her prices on winter hats to almost cost. Call upon the lady and see for yourself.

It is expected that Chat Huling will be lonely since Will has gone. It is said he had that matter in view St. Valentine's day.

People of Myrtle Point are contemplating going to Prosper to see the new Alaskan schooner launched when the proper time comes.

Mat Nystrum's windmill and pump seems to be about completed. It is quite an imposing structure and no doubt will be very useful.

George Stauff, of Marshfield, returned from a visit to the South Fork, and after enjoying a pleasant association with pioneers at Myrtle Point, he took the train for Coquille Friday.

Politicians note the inclination of the Enterprise to fuse—or whatever they call it—as the editor recommends Sheriff Gage and Assessor Hanson for re-election, and it is now expected that Editor Stitt is laughing in his sleeve.

We heard some men discussing the report of the city recorder, recently published, and they could not understand why $31.80 of the people's money should have been expended for attorney's fees, when we have such excellent business men as trustees and no litigation.

Death's cold shadow hovered over the household of S. R. Lushbaugh on the Middle Fork last Wednesday evening, and a lovely mother and affectionate wife crossed over the dark river, leaving a bereaved husband and, we learn, some little ones to mourn in grief and sadness. The deceased was about 37 years old and is thus taken away at the middle age of usefulness.

Miss Alta Dodge and Miss Anderson were honored with a birth-day party last Monday evening at the residence of Miss Alta's father, the two young ladies' sisters—Miss Daisy Dodge and Miss Anderson—acting as hostesses. The guests were royally entertained, and it will be long remembered as a very pleasant evening. Two spacious rooms at the family residence were crouded. The same evening Mrs. L. A. Roberts gave a party that we learn was well attended and the guests royally entertained. The same was carried forth the same evening and that also was well attended.

Dora Doings.

Dora, Feb. 19.—We hear the North Fork steamer is stranded on the dry dock.

F. S. Bunch is contracting for real estate of J. Sturdivant; one parcel 25 rods wide and one half mile long for $8.55.

J. Porter has taken a clain above Brewster valley.

Wm. Moss has sold out his lease on the Palmer ranch to A. L. Brown.

M. J. Krantz is making some improvements on his place. He is doing considerable slashing.

Fine fir timber on the East Fork. Three logging camps are running. No. 1, J. O. Stemler. Luttrell & Co.; No. 2, Swan Miller & Co.; No. 3, J. Sturdivant & Co.; and the way the dust flies is a caution.

Walter L. Lawhorn is to haul a large lot of logs for J. Hervey.

J. D. Laird was given a present by S. Goheen, of Salem, of a barrel of sauer kraut. We think he needs some kraut by the reports we hear he is telling. It is too bad, Jim, you did not get the kraut.

Real estate is changing hands lively around Gravel Ford. M. J. Krantz goes down today to acknowledge four deeds.

The plows are being brought out and seed-sowing has commenced. Crops never fail in Coos, boys, so plow away. DON REX.

Bridge Items.

Bridge, Feb. 20.—Died—At the home of his son, L. D. Belieu, at Enchanted Prairie, on Sunday, Feb. 13, Michael Belieu, aged 84 years. "Uncle Mike," as he was generally known, was one of the old pioneers of Oregon. He leaves an aged wife to mourn his loss.

Died—At her home on Myrtle creek, Sunday, Feb. 13, of typhoid fever, Mrs. Belle Endicott, wife of R. C. Endicott. She leaves a husband, and a little child too small to know a mother's care to mourn her loss. She was buried Tuesday at Remote.

Died—At her home on Big creek Wednesday eve, Feb. 18, Ollie, beloved wife of S. R. Lushbaugh, aged 36 years, 5 months and 18 days. She was buried Friday in the family burying ground, Rev. Thomas Barklow preaching the funeral sermon. She had been a great sufferer, being bedfast for about six months. She leaves a kind husband, father and mother—Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Kirkpatrick, a sister—Mrs. Al Balch, of Coquille City, and five children, the youngest, an infant about 5 months old. A large concourse of her sorrowing friends attended the funeral.

James Houser is wrestling with the mumps.

Bert Allen has rented Dr. Easter's ranch.

John Clinton is still logging on Dr. Easter's place.

Dan Barklow will hereafter keep a station at Bridge. Maybe he will get the mail through on a little better time then usual. X.

Headache stopped in 20 minutes by Dr Miles' PAIN PILLS. "One cent a dose."

Musings from Marshfield.

Marshfield, Feb. 21.—The origin of the fire here last week was: A person, ashes, and an ash-box, and not an act of political enemies to burn "ME" out.

Dr. O. E. Smith gave the fire boys $100, to show his appreciation in a measure of their heroic and successful efforts in saving the valuable building, of which he is half owner, from total destruction. Give the boys encouragement and not adverse criticism.

The Arcata and Empire arrived here Saturday. The former came near meeting with serious disaster. While on the bar her steering apparatus, for some cause, became useless and left her to the mercy of the sea. For awhile it seemed as though she must go on the spit. The passengers were ordered on deck and to prepare for an emergency. By sheer good luck the ship was saved. Had the sea been rough, nothing could have saved ship, crew nor passengers, and "No one to blame."

E. B. Dean & Co's mill started up Thursday on three-fourths time for balance of the week.

The steamer Empire sailed down the bay Sunday morning and stuck on the hog's-back. In the afternoon the Arcata sailed down and tried to push her over by running into the Empire's stern. The effort was fruitless, so far as floating the Empire was concerned, but was eminently successful so far as knocking a hole about 7 by 4 feet in the stern of the Empire is concerned. The Arcata then towed the Empire to North Bend where she will be repaired. "No one to blame."

Some ten or twelve men hit the road last Saturday on their way to the sound in search of work.

Ed. Jess Luse is laid up with mumps. T. S. Minott is slinging the ink during Jess' illness.

His "New Scientific Treatment" has cured thousands permanently by its timely use, and he considers it a simple profession al duty to suffering humanity to donate a trial fo his infallible cure.

Science daily develops new wonders, and this great chemist, patiently experimenting for years, has produced results as beneficial to humanity as can be claimed by any modern genius. His assertion that lung troubles and consumption are curable in any climate is proven by "heartfelt letters of gratitude," filed in his American and European laboratories in thousands from those cured in all parts of the world.

Medical experts concede that bronchial, chest and lung troubles lead to Consumption, which, uninterrupted, means speedy and certain death.

Simply write to T. A. Slocum, M. C., 98 Pine street, New York, giving postoffice and express address, and the free medicine will be promptly sent. Sufferers should take instant advantage of his generous proposition.

Please tell the Doctor that you saw his offer in the Coquille City HERALD.
