FRANK SMITH.

Let the Office Seek the Man.

MYRTLE POINT, March 6, 1898.

ED. HERALD: It has been the pride of the Populist party in the past that under the Initiative system "the office seeks the man." It therefore behooves each and every Populist to look carefully at his ballot, and only vote for those whom you know have been good Populists in the past and are well qualified for the office for which they are named, also who have not worked for and sought the office. It is not surprising that we should find so many candidates in the field. The condition of the times are such that a good many of us look with longing eyes to the political plums in the gift of the successful party. Beware of the candidates that have in the past ridiculed and scorned the Populist party, and realizing a possible chance of riding into office have joined us. Let us nominate a clean ticket; men who have good records and ability to perform their respective offices for which they are called and we will carry the day.

On the morning of Feb. 20, 1895, I was sick with rheumatism, and lay in bed until May 21st, when I got a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. UPPER-RIVER DEPARTMENT.

Myrtle Point and the Upper-Coquille and What is Going on There.

A. H. Black visited Coos Bay last week.

The mails begin to come earlier than usual.

Harry Houghton's death cast a gloom over our vicinity.

Rev. Blair preached to interested audiences at the usual hour Sunday.

A. A. Jamison of Sixes mines moved to town last Friday. He will occupy one of Mrs. Dixon's houses.

Rev. Goodpasture is said to have delivered very excellent sermons morning and evening Sunday. That divine is becoming very popular.

Ernest Bender started for Roseburg Saturday and he is expected to return with his father, Edward Bender, in a day or two. All will be pleased to welcome the Squire home again.

Since we commenced this department we have seen pictures of Dr. Henry Hermann which are for the new history. They are elegant, and those who knew him assert that they are very natural.

"We Girls" were too busy last week to prepare this department, or rather we depended upon each other too much. Saturday and Sunday were lovely days and the "Big Four," "Dirty Dozen" and everybody were out promonading.

Dr. Roberds has quite a medical laboratory at his residence at the east end of town in the Machado building. The Doctor and Mrs. Roberds have formed some strong ties of friendship during their short stay here, and they have built up a fine practice, considering the healthy climate, and we are glad to learn that they have become permanently settled among us.

J. A. Lehnherr is a full-fledged land agent.

Spring is upon us and gardening has commenced.

There is talk of a new Methodist church in town this Summer.

There are some traveling photographers in town taking landscapes and views of residences in town.

The town by moonlight Sunday evening from the Presbyterian church after service made a pretty picture.

The younger Mr. Traver, who has assisted his brother in the school this winter, has gone to Portland, but we learn that he will soon return.

"We Girls" are tired of hearing the men talk about men who are spoken of for office. Why do they abuse each other so?—even those of their own party. They must be crazy.

Prof. Traver went to Roseburg last week. Many feared that he was hunting for employment elsewhere, but the public will be pleased to learn that he will teach our school this summer; at least we hope so.

We think from appearences that there must have been considerable law business in town last week. Mr. Sinclair and A. J. Sherwood were up from the county seat, and we noticed the justice's office was crowded.

We saw some beautiful pictures of the late Chris Lehnherr and his good old lady a day or two ago, that are intended for the new Pioneers' History. Such early settlers deserve a place in the history. We learned that Mr. Conner of the Enterprise printed the pictures from copperplates.

Lee Items.

Lee, March 5.—Fine weather at present.

R. G. Summerlin made Coquille a pleasant call the first of the week.

D. R. Lewis has rented Jack Wood's ranch for this year.

Rev. Epperly preached at the M. E. church Sunday. Quite a member attended the services.

Mr. Shuck is suffering a good deal after a stroke of paralysis, and we are sorry to hear that he is no better. Mr. Shuck is a good man, and it is to be hoped that he will get up.

J. C. Hervey visited Myrtle Point last week.

Walter Lawhorn and Fred Mast of McKinley are hauling sawlogs for Mr. Hervey at present.

There was a dance given at the residence of Herbert Johnson on the North Fork above Fairview last Wednesday night. Although the weather was bad, quite a crowd attended and all had a good time. Several went from this vicinity.

Miss Lizzie Wallace of Myrtle Point visited friends in this neighborhood last week. Come again, Lizzie.

William Mast made Myrtle Point a pleasant call the first of the week. There seems to be some attraction over there for Will.

Rev. Epperly and wife and Rev. Hamish have gone to Catching slough to conduct a series of meetings.

Mr. Beech of Coquille is in this vicinity at present. He has been engaged in the pruning business, and more than that has been flying round among the widows.

With best wishes,

NOBODY'S DARLING.

The Third Term and the Referendum.

MYRTLE POINT, March 4, 1898.

ED. HERALD: There seems to be a great deal of commenting on the forthcoming assessorship and the fulfilling of the same and also a howl about the three-termers. As to the assessorship, and the required material for the same, is an important matter especially to taxpayers. Of course it's very good to pass around both good and bad But the taxpayer well knows on whom the burden falls to exchange a competent and long experienced officer for one to be educated up at their expense.

As to the third term proposition, as I understand the Populist platform one of the best planks there is the initiative and referendum, therefore I am perfectly willing for the people at the primaries to decide one term or five terms. I say let the good work go on just as has been for the past four years and soon the county will be out of debt, and stop this scrip speculation and then the dear people of good old Coos can repose in that sweet bye-and-bye.

Voters look well to your ballots primary day.

CYCLER.

Commending a Candidate for Assessor.

ED. HERALD: We are glad that J. C. Watson has reconsidered his declination, and has given us permission to place his name on the ticket as a candidate for assessor. J. C. Watson has been an ardent Populist since the organization of the party here in Coos county; he has the respect and confidence of this entire comunity, is known as an honest, straight-foward, capable man, is amply qualified for the position he is named for. Having a splendid business ability, and good judgment of real estate, he would prove a credit to the party that will nominate him. It is essential that we adhere strictly to our principle that the office seeks the man. Populists will bear this in mind when they go to the primaries next Saturday.

MANY FRIENDS.

[Bandon Recorder.]

Mrs. J. B. Hunt and daughter, Mollie, went to Marshfield last Monday to take passage on the steamer Arcata to San Francisco.

Miss Ray Collier, the handsome and affable deputy postmaster at Coquille City, was in Bandon Tuesday on a short visit with Mrs. Robert Frederick.

Peter Loggie visited Coquille City Monday in connection with the adjustment of the loss by fire of the Ocean House. His evidence was required in estimating the actual value of the building destroyed.

Arrivals by Arcata, March 3: F. W. Kronenberg, C. Hunt, W. B. King, M. J. Green, J. Kronenberg, H. Finnell, Miss M. Fox, R. Fox, Mrs. E Smith, H. H. McPherson, E. Turpin, J. W. Lawrie, W. G. Tibbetts, J. W. Tibbetts, W. H. Sturdevant, O. Sleet, C. Pennock, Miss Jensen, Miss McKenzie, R. Somers.

Dr. Horsfall, coroner, of Marshfield, was called to Bandon last Tuesday to hold an inquest over the remains of a babe which had been reported to be found under suspicious circumstances. The remains had been found wrapped in a pillow-case and thrown among some logs.

Rev. Mr. Goodpasture, who is now residing at Bandon, passed up to Myrtle Point last Saturday to conduct services at that place Sunday. The HERALD acknowledges a pleasant call.

All pain banished by Dr. Miles' Pain Pills.

TO THE LAST DOLLAR.

The Canadian Pacific Will Cut the Rate Again—Ten Dollars to Come Off the Present Reduction.

Chicago, March 1.—The Canadian Pacific road is contemplating still another sensational cut in North Pacific coast rates. When next it applies the knife it will, if reports are true, take an additional cut of $10 of the rate. It was understood that this cut was to be made as soon as the American roads actually put into effect, over their lines, the reduced rates it made in first place. So far, however, there has been no official announcement of the new cut. Whenever the Canadian Pacific makes the announcement the American lines, it is said, will meet the new rate.

The American lines seem prepared to follow the cut down to a dollar, if necessary to protect their business. They are apparently in the fight to a finish and officials think that should the contest be prolonged the Canadian road may find itself shut out from doing business in American territory. Agitation in that direction has begun and congress is in session.

Though Wealthy, She Starved.

Oakland, March 2.—Mrs. Matilda P. Rich, who recently starved herself into insanity, went to the Napa asylum a raving maniac, with more than enough gold to have made her comfortable for the rest of her days deposited to her credit in the Hibernia bank in San Francisco. She was a recluse and a miser, and worked and pinched and saved until her reason fled.

At the asylum the secret was wormed out of her, and now it is known that she is worth several thousand dollars.

Business men are beginning to see something, too, during the effort to fasten the single gold standard on the country, and patriotically assert themselves, regardless of party lines, at some points. A late meeting of Business Men was held at Chester, Pa., the home of the Cramps great shipbuilding industry as well as in the heart of nearly every great business industry in the United States—a suburb of Philadelphia and home of the Roaches, so well known as beneficiaries of the Republican idea of American protection some years back—and gives a black eye to the theory. Read on our first page their reply to the address of the Indianapolis Monetary Convention of a prior date. It sounds "anarchistic," "hayseedy" and like "repudiation," but it is declared all the same—"And if that be treason, make the most of it."

Roseburg Review: The Oregonian has discovered a "distinguished" Oregon statesman as follows: "'Hon.' Geo. C. Brownell has distinction. No man, unless totally unacquainted with him, ever believes a word he says."

This knowledge of the g. o. p. leaders comes late. There are many of them similarly affected, vide that party's platforms during the 1896 campaign. And some of the editors(?) in that party are violently affected with the same rabies, with whom the truth never comes in use.

First Gun of the War.

New York, March 1.—A dispatch to the Herald from Paris says:

In the Intransigeant Henry Rochefort writes:

"To really grasp the situation, the explosion of the Maine must be regarded as the first battle between Spain and the United States. As for us, we only see in it the last stage of the advance of the Cubans toward independence. The catastrophe has caused the death of 250 unfortunate sailors, but it has also saved the lives of millions of combatants, for it insures the final triumph of the insurrection before many weeks."

John Kelly, a sawmill man of Forest Grove, is in Portland as witness for the Southern Pacific in case in which Jackson county has been enjoined by the company from collecting taxes on timber lands. The company avers that the assessed valuation of $2.50 to $4 an acre is too high. The Jackson county assessor has valued the tract at $10,000, while in Josephine, adjoining, it is only $3000.

Captain G. E. D. Dimond, who will be 102 years old on May 1, is about to start from San Francisco, March 2, on a pedestrian trip to New York. He helped to build the Erie canal and was formerly United States quartermaster at St. Louis. He has never married because his intended bride died in his arms at a ball given in honor of President Polk.

"No. 2 volume 1" of The Daily Roseburg Review is at hand, a 5-column folio, gotten up in good style and deserving of the patronage of that city and vicinity. Enterprise including the public weal deserves recognition, and the HERALD wishes mutual benefits to people and publishers.
