Leave: Marshfield 8:00 a. m., Arrive: Coquille City 11:00 a. m.
Leave: Coquille City 1:30 p. m., Arrive: Myrtle Point 10:30 p. m.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

County W. C. T. U. convention in this city on the 9th and 10th of August. Sessions to be held at the Methodist church.

The Pioneers' Association will hold its annual meeting and reunion at Myrtle Point on the 15th of August.

The Grange will meet next Saturday, at 10 a. m. All the members are urged to be present without fail to attend to important business.

LOCAL ITEMS.

Mount's Pains cured by Dr. Miles' Pain Balm. Read the Jewett Typewriter advertisement on this page.

Nice jewelry at Gillham's, and repairing of all kinds.

House for rent—west side, near W. Drane's. Call at this office.

Not cheap shoes, but SHOES CHEAP at BERLIN STORE.

WANTED—An apprentice girl in Mrs. Moon's dressmaking department.

Lee Goodman expects to deliver books to subscribers in the next few days.

John Snyder, of the Central Hotel at Marshfield, was visiting Coquille yesterday.

Frank Goodman of Looking Glass has been in Coos county and purchased a band of fine hogs.

W. H. Waddington and family were up from their lower-river home yesterday shopping and visiting.

We hear that Rev. E. A. Ross, evangelist of the Southern Methodist church, will visit Coos county again.

The regular quarterly examination of teachers will be held in this place next Wednesday, beginning at 1 o'clock p. m.

Miss Fannie McDuffee took sick last week and has not been able to canvass for the book we mentioned, of which she has the agency.

Johnson Bro's have positively closed their books against credits. They would rather sell only $5 worth for cash than $25 worth on account.

"Michael Liber," once a resident here and frequent contributor to the HERALD, is giving the Roseburg Review some bitter doses for "Patriotic Wind Bags," and other criticisms.

Dr. Darrin is now at Marshfield, and we call attention of our readers, especially the afflicted, to the doctor's statement in today's HERALD, the last he will make on this visit. Inform yourself of what he has done and is yet doing.

S. M. Geary, Pierson, Mich., writes:—"DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is curing more piles here today than all other remedies combined. It cures eczema and all other skin diseases." R. S. Knowlton.

R. D. Sanford is building an addition to his already neat dry-house to care for his crop of prunes. He has a fair crop this year, which promises to be of fine quality, the trees being moderately full, but not overloaded.

A big fire has been raging in Smith's camp and neighborhood near Hall's creek for several days. All effort to prevent it spreading has proved unavailing so far, though its progress had been retarded. There is danger of it getting down into the little valleys below, among the farmers and their pastures.

WANTED—AGENTS FOR "GLADSTONE'S HIS LIFE AND PUBLIC SERVICES," by Thomas W. Hamilton. A wonderful story of a glorious career. Over 20 large, radiant pages. Best super-size engraving. Richly illustrated. Best and only endorsed "Gladstone book" published. Only $1.00. Commission, 25 per cent. Credit given. Freight paid. Outfit free. Drop all orders and clear $10 a month with the only true and good "Gladstone book." Address THE DOMESTIC COURIER, Dept. 35, 305-326 Broadway, New York City.

R. D. Sanford expects to go to Roseburg with his spring hack about the 8th or 10th of August, or sooner, after his son Curtis, who is returning from his eastern Oregon trip, and will bring Mrs. L. C. Orchard home with him from Stayton, Marion county. Mrs. Orchard is Mr. Sanford's step-mother-in-law, and used to reside with Mr. S. at this place. Mr. Sanford desires three passengers out at a reasonable figure.

Sheriff Gage was on the wing most of last week at Brndon and other lower-river points, on official business. On his return home last Saturday, he started to meet Mrs. Gage and the children on their return from a visit to her mother and other members of the family in Douglas county, during which her and their experience with a runaway team and precipitation over a bluff was not the most entrancing, even if it resulted comparatively harmlessly.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER Absolutely Pure
ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

Have you seen the Jewett typewriter?

Binding twine and grain sacks at the Fair Store.

Whooping cough prevails at Bandon in a mild form.

Go to the Old Soldiers' Store for Cheeses and fresh Groceries of all kinds.

Our stock is being increased constantly and prices lower than ever at Coquille Pharmacy.

The mill shut down last evening to await logs. The fire at Smith's camp has occasioned the death of logs.

Bishop Morris is booked for a visit to this section the present month. He will conduct services at Port Orford on Sunday, 28th.

A letter from Dr. and Mrs. L. A. Leach, now visiting in the Mississippi valley, home of their youth, says they are well and enjoying their visit very much.

Hon. George P. Topping, member-elect to the legislature from this county, has returned to his home at Bandon from a visit to his mother and other members of the family in Josephine county.

Mrs. Knapp, a niece of Mrs. Kroenbergs, passed down to her home at Port Orford last Wednesday, after a visit to Ashland and other points in the upper Rogue river section. She had her two bright little children with her.

E. C. Blanks, of Lewisville, Texas, writes that one box of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve was worth $50 to him. It cured his piles of ten years standing. He advises others to try it. It also cures eczema, skin diseases and obstinate sores. R. S. Knowlton.

Nat H. Lane of Portland came down with Mr. Catlin, receiver of the Beaver Hill Coal Co., last Wednesday, and has been installed in charge of affairs as the receiver's agent. We had the pleasure of making the acquaintance of Mr. L., and find him a very pleasant gentleman and expert business man.

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Wheeler, son George, and daughter Miss Annie, took a conveyance yesterday and started, overland, for Santa Rosa, California. They go via Roseburg and the valley route. We regret to lose them. They have been with us a good while, are clever, good people, and won the friendship and good will of the community. The HERALD wishes good health and prosperity.

The county board of equalization will convene at the county clerk's office in this city on Monday, August 29th, being the last Monday in the month, at 9 o'clock a. m., to examine the assessment rolls, make corrections in names, locations, valuations, hear complaints, etc., etc. This is the time set, and all parties interested should appear to that end. See official "Notice to Taxpayers" in today's HERALD.

J. C. Watson shipped two carloads of hay to the city by last Friday's train. We hope his enterprise may be duly rewarded, and the returns may be such as will warrant our people to keep it up. Hay will be a staple among staples for demands, owing to the shortage elsewhere and the government's great needs. One of the latest invocations in the line of meeting the changed conditions is a "hay convention" announced to be held in one of the large cities.

O, say! Look out for E. A. White, agent for one of the finest books on the market—Sheep's Giant Library—a book of 8 books. Part 1 is made up of charming Bible stories; Book 2 is masterpieces of Shakespeare; Book 3 is music by the best authors; Book 4, art-pictures, being copies from the finest paintings in the world; Book 5, gems of poetry from the best authors; Book 6, orations from the greatest orators of the ages; Book 7, contains fiction, such as Uncle Tom's Cabin, Don Quixote, Robinson Crusoe, etc.; while Book 8 is a condensed history of the world. There are 500 pages, and about 80 full-page superb pictures. In these "8 books in one" will be found the kernel of all these subjects, both in words and in illustrations, that speak for themselves, and without chaff. We have examined the work, and confess it is a marvel as to contents, artistic style and price. Cloth binding, $2.75; half morocco, $3.25; full morocco, $4. Give him an order.

F. A. White, Mrs. White and sister, Mrs. Perry, went to Bandon last week, returning Sunday. They were guests of their sister, Mrs. Crow.

The Curry county teachers' institute will open at Gold Beach on Monday, August 8th, and will continue two days.

Temperance Mass Meeting.

The temperance mass meeting, held at the Christian church last Sunday night, was the regular order of the W. C. T. U., being the 5th Sunday in the month. It was largely attended and supplied a most pleasing and entertaining program, as follows:

Song by the choir—"Temperance is Jaining the Day."
Scripture reading by Mrs. Maury, who presided over the meeting in the absence of Mrs. Gage, president.

Prayer by Rev. W. B. Smith, of the Southern Methodist church.
Select reading by Mrs. Hacker.
Anthem by the choir—"Wine is a Mocker."

Recitation, "Only Sixteen"—Miss Effie Collier.
Song—"Temperance Rally."
Essay, "Gambling"—Miss Clara Gage.

Quartet, "Hear Our Prayer"—Mesdames Hazard and Nosler, Miss Birdie Nosler, A. A. Leach and Aaron Wilson.

Recitation, "The Creeds of the Bells"—Mrs. Dr. Moore.
Remarks by Rev. Smith, followed by a collection and then the closing song—"Steered by the Temperance Star."

These numbers were each appropriate, edifying and charmingly given. Mrs. Moore's rendition of "The Creeds of the Bells," was especially attractive and impressive.

The choir consisted of Mrs. L. H. Hazard and Mrs. C. H. Nosler, sopranos; Miss Birdie Nosler, alto; A. A. Leach and L. H. Hazard, tenors, and Aaron Wilson and John Stone, basses; Miss Marvin Lamb presided at the organ.

The several congregations suspended their regular services and attended this appointment.

The HERALD has received several proof pages of the "Pioneer History of Coos and Curry Counties," from Hon. O. Dodge, the compiler, including four of the illustrations of the many which will embellish it.

Mr. D. is at Salem and in person supervising the publication, which promises to be very fine and creditable to all connected with it. The pages are large—6x9 inches—the letter print large and clear, and the illustrations photo-half-tone, many full-page, very handsome and attractive, and intelligently recording the charming, peculiar and inviting "beauty spots" and scenes of mountains, rivers and valleys, towns and country, farms, logging camps, mining camps, jungles, homes, mills and many faces of those who had been heroes of the strife of pioneer days, as well as of the more familiar today.

The work is a credit to the author and section and will go far toward telling the story of the discovery and early settlement of southwestern Oregon, and of the development, progress and prosperity of this "evergreen shore."

Grants Pass Journal: W. J. Wimer, Geo. Wimer and Mrs. W. J. Wimer came in Tuesday with the clean-up of their eight months' run on their placer mine at Waldo, which is one of the largest placer mines in southern Oregon and has been worked continuously for twenty years. They report a very satisfactory clean-up. The gentleman made our office a pleasant call. The Wimer Bros. left on Thursday morning to visit their aged mother, who lives about six miles this side of Roseburg, and is now 82 years of age and quite feeble. They went by their private conveyance and will return with their mother to have her make them a visit at Waldo. Mrs. Wimer, sr., has never ridden on the railroad train and has an aversion to it, so they will bring her back with their conveyance.

The rush to the beach continues as never before, including visitors from the southern Oregon line—Grants Pass, Jacksonville and points in the valley as far north as Salem, with an occasional visitor from Portland and as far south as San Francisco.

The following passengers arrived on the Arnets, July 27th: Capt. J. H. Simpson, R. M. Weider, Mrs. R. M. Weider, H. Watson, B. C. Rucker, P. C. Goodfellow, Mrs. M. Butler, L. Mensen, B. Bernhardt, Chas. Carlson, U. Stauff, T. Bennett, Mrs. Bennett, A. Bryden, D. G. Bryden, Mrs. Bryden, J. Barlow, C. W. Adams, W. H. Mansell, Mrs. W. J. Mansell, Chas. Mansell, Albert Mansell, Miss J. Larsen, Miss L. Larson.

Liveryman Bert Dean took B. F. Lawrence, Aaron Wilson and John Stone to Myrtle Point last Thursday evening to call on their friend Hank Benham, of whom we made mention last week as having been seriously hurt at Smith's camp. They had heard that he was suffering greatly and would lose a foot by amputation, but they found him doing well, in good spirits and hopeful, expecting also to be brought home in a short while.

Last week we mentioned the fact that Bandon's ministers were about to wholly desert the town, and rather hinted that Editor McDevitt of the Recorder was at the bottom of it, but we saw Rev. Martin there, who is holding forth with a protracted meeting, and McDevitt so subdued—between the evangelist's persuasive words and this editor's muscular presence—that it would be entirely safe for Brother Scott to recall his resignation and enroll Editor McDevitt as Brother Mc.

"Saved Her Life."

DR. JOHN WALLEY, of Jefferson, Wis., than whom none is more highly esteemed or widely known, writes: "In 1890 I had a severe attack of LaGrippe and as the end of four months, in spite of all physicians, friends and good nursing could do, my lungs, heart and nervous system were so completely wrecked, my life was despaired of, my friends giving me up. I could only sleep by the use of opiates. My lungs and chest pained me terribly and my cough was most aggravating. I could not lie in one position but a short time and not on my left side at all. My husband brought me Dr. Miles' Nervine and Heart Cure and I began taking them. When I had taken a half bottle of each I was much better and continuing persistently I took about a dozen bottles and was completely restored to health to the surprise of all."

Dr. Miles' Remedies are sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee, first bottle benefits or money refunded. Book on diseases of the heart and nervous free. Address, DR. MILES MEDICAL CO., Elkhart, Ind.

Mrs. Al Bunch made a visit to Bandon beach last week.

New Goods just received and opened at THE BERLIN STORE.

Miss Edith Hayter and little nephew, Master Owen Knowlton, visited the beach several days.

Miss Emily Lyons, of Portland, is a visitor to Mrs. Lyons at this place. These ladies are not related, but were schoolmates in girlhood and much attached to each other.

A pleasant party was given by Mrs. Jack Franz last Saturday night. Quite a number of young friends attended and enjoyed the hospitality of the hostess till a late hour.

The Eastern Star at Bandon gave a pleasant reception and social last Saturday night, including the entertainment of a number of that order who are visiting from outside localities at the beach.

Producers will be taken to the Oregon Industrial Exposition free of charge. For shipping tags and information drop a card to Secretary Industrial Exposition, Portland, Oregon.

Coast Mail: The dredging of the hogback we understand will be commenced right away, or at least as soon as the contract is let. It is stated that J. S. Polhemus will have charge of the work in the interest of the government.

Mr. Robinson and wife, sister and brother-in-law of the Miss Kelly who was killed at Libby a few weeks ago, were visiting on the lower river lately and on their return visited a day or two at J. C. Watson's, on Cunningham creek, just north of town.

The Chief Burgess of Mileburg Pa., says DeWitt's Little Early Risers are the best pills he ever used in his family during forty years of housekeeping. They cure constipation, sick headache and stomach and liver troubles. Small in size but great in results. R. S. Knowlton.

The rush to the beach continues as never before, including visitors from the southern Oregon line—Grants Pass, Jacksonville and points in the valley as far north as Salem, with an occasional visitor from Portland and as far south as San Francisco.

The following passengers arrived on the Arnets, July 27th: Capt. J. H. Simpson, R. M. Weider, Mrs. R. M. Weider, H. Watson, B. C. Rucker, P. C. Goodfellow, Mrs. M. Butler, L. Mensen, B. Bernhardt, Chas. Carlson, U. Stauff, T. Bennett, Mrs. Bennett, A. Bryden, D. G. Bryden, Mrs. Bryden, J. Barlow, C. W. Adams, W. H. Mansell, Mrs. W. J. Mansell, Chas. Mansell, Albert Mansell, Miss J. Larsen, Miss L. Larson.

Liveryman Bert Dean took B. F. Lawrence, Aaron Wilson and John Stone to Myrtle Point last Thursday evening to call on their friend Hank Benham, of whom we made mention last week as having been seriously hurt at Smith's camp. They had heard that he was suffering greatly and would lose a foot by amputation, but they found him doing well, in good spirits and hopeful, expecting also to be brought home in a short while.

J. J. Baker and four children, and a camp numbering 23 in all from Myrtle Point were camped at Bandon beach last week.

Capt. and Mrs. H. F. Tenneson of Randolph came up Sunday and will visit their daughter, Mrs. Gilkey, and family several days.

Coast Mail: Some twenty Italian coal miners arrived on the Arnets. We understand that they will go to work in R. A. Graham's Klondike mine.

Rev. and Mrs. C. A. Raine, Mrs. J. S. McEwen and little son, Vernon, and Miss Euretta Pannenberg are campers at the beach. Mrs. Pannenberg visited them over Sunday.

W. C. Paxson reached town from his home adjacent yesterday, the first in two months. He had been in very poor health, but is now gradually improving and attending to business matters.

The editor of the Evans City, Pa., Globe, writes: "One Minute Cough Cure is rightly named. It cured my children after all other remedies failed." It cures coughs, colds and all throat and lung troubles. R. S. Knowlton.

Capt. Ed Bender is greeting relatives and many old friends and acquaintances in Coos county while on his inspection work of the swamp lands, representing the general land office at Washington City on a special commission.

Pioneers' Day will be held at Myrtle Point Monday, August 15—just the one day's reunion—for which arrangements have been made for transportation and return by boats and train on that day. [County papers are requested to copy.]

Capt. J. H. Simpson, of San Diego, Cal., father of F. M. Simpson, whose trial and conviction at our last term of district court for embezzlement from Beaver Hill Co. gave him acquaintance and attracted much sympathy from our citizens, arrived at this place last week in the interest of the pardon of his son. Capt. Simpson has letters from members of the court—the judge, prosecuting attorney, prosecuting witnesses—and the names of most of the jurymen in the case on a petition, which will yet be signed by the balance, he is assured, asking for executive clemency in behalf of the young man. Capt. S. is a pleasant, social and intelligent gentleman, and was a participant in the late war department office, where he was appointed to chief of his department. The HERALD wishes him success in his mission.
