OF INTEREST TO THE PEOPLE.

WASHINGTON'S VISION.
The interesting story that the Father of His Country saw Strange Things in His Sleep.

From the Honolulu Advertiser: The subjoined most remarkable production was published in the Poly-nesian newspaper of this place on the 11th of January, 1861. The article came here from the United States. It was most likely first printed in the fall or winter of 1861, when the issue between the north and south in the United States was pretty close. Very few will fail to read closely and think upon this matter:

AN ACCOUNT OF WASHINGTON'S VISION.
The following narrative was related by Anthony Sherman, an octo-genarian, who heard the account from Washington's own lips: The darkest period of our revolution was in 1777, when Washington, after experiencing many reverses, went into winter quarters at Valley Forge. Often I observed tears course down the cheeks of the beloved commander when he was considering the sufferings of his brave soldiers. Washington was in the habit of praying in secret, and calling upon God for assistance, and it was only by the help of God we passed through days of adversity.
One day Washington spent most of the afternoon in his room alone.
When he came out I observed he was much paler than usual, when he related to me the following:

"Whilst I was sitting at my table this afternoon engaged in writing, and my mind was heavy with sorrow, I suddenly observed directly opposite to me a most beautiful female.

I was so much surprised, for I had given strict orders not to be disturbed, that I could not find words at the moment to inquire the object of this unexpected visit. Two, three and even four times I repeated the question without receiving an answer, the only effect being that she raised her eyes a little.

"I now experienced a most curious sensation spread over my whole body. I wished to rise from my seat, but the steady gaze of my mysterious visitor kept me spellbound. I again tried to speak to her, but my tongue was tied. An unknown, mysterious, irresistible power had taken me prisoner. I could do nothing else but gaze at the apparition. Gradually the room filled with light and the form grew more clear and bright. My feelings were those of a dying man; I could neither think nor act. My steady gaze at the figure was all that I was aware of.

"I now heard a voice, which said:
'Son of the Republic, behold and learn.' At the same time the figure stretched out its arm and pointed with the finger toward the east.
Light clouds arose in the distance, which dispersed, and revealed to my eyes a most astonishing picture.
Before me all the countries of the earth were spread out—Europe, Asia, Africa and America. Between Europe and America I saw the waves of the Atlantic ocean toss backward and forward, and between America and Asia the waves of the Pacific ocean. Again I heard the voice, 'Son of the Republic, behold and learn.'

"Immediately a dark form like that of an angel appeared over the ocean between Europe and America.
It then dipped water from the ocean with both hands, and with the right hand sprinkled it over America and with the left hand over Europe.
Immediately dark clouds arose from both countries, which met in the middle of the ocean; here they remained stationary for a short while, then moved westward and wrapped America in darkness. Lightning flashed through the dark clouds and I heard the groaning and shrieking of the American people.

"Again the angel dipped water from the ocean and sprinkled it as before. The black clouds withdrew and sunk into the sea. For the third time I heard the voice, 'Son of the Republic, behold and learn!'
"I looked toward America and saw populous villages and cities spread out from the Atlantic coast to the Pacific ocean. Again I heard the mysterious voice, 'Son of the Republic, behold and learn.'

"The dark form of the angel then turned toward the south, and, coming from Africa, I observed a horrible phantom make its way to our country. It floated slow and heavily over our towns and country; the inhabitants rose to make war on each other, and formed in battle array. As I looked at this scene I observed an angel surrounded with light; on his head he wore a beautiful crown on which was inscribed the word 'Union,' in his hand he held the American Star-Spangled banner; this he planted between the contending armies, crying out, 'Remember, you are brothers.'

"Immediately the nations threw away their arms, became friends again and gathered round the Star-Spangled Banner. Again I heard
Republic, the second danger is past; behold and learn.'
"And I saw villages and cities steadily increase in size and number until the whole country was covered with them, the whole extent, from the Atlantic to the Pacific ocean, and the nation had multiplied in as countless numbers as the stars in heaven or the sands on the seashore. Again I heard the voice, 'Son of the Republic, the end of the century is at hand; behold and learn.'

"The dark angel then put a trumpet to his mouth, blew in it three times, then dipped out some water from the sea and sprinkled it over Europe, Asia and America.

"My eyes now beheld a most terrible scene. From each of these countries dark, heavy clouds arose aid united in one mass; through this mass dark red lightning played.
I saw troops of armed men marching and then sail across the sea to America, which was immediately covered by the black cloud. And I saw now these immense armies desolate the land, and laid towns and villages in ashes. I heard the roar of cannon, the clashing of swords, the cry of the victorious millions engaged in deadly strife—when again I heard the mysterious voice proclaim: 'Son of the Republic, behold and learn.'

"The dark angel then again took up the trumpet and gave one long and terrible blow. Suddenly a light broke forth and drove away the dark cloud hovering over America. At the same time I saw an angel with a beautiful crown, on which was inscribed the word 'Union,' descend from heaven, holding in one hand the Star-Spangled Banner and in the other a sword, and accompanied by legions of heavenly spirits. These united with the American people, when the latter were almost overpowered, who took fresh courage and formed in battle array. Again, amid the horrible noise of war, I heard the mysterious voice: 'Son of the Republic, behold and learn.'

"After this voice the dark angel dipped out water for the last time
America, and immediately the dark cloud retreated with its armies which it had brought along, leaving the victory to the Americans. I then again saw towns and villages rise in the same places where they had stood before, while the heavenly angel planted the Star-Spangled Banner among the people and cried out with a loud voice: 'As long as the stars are in heaven, and as long as the dew descends from heaven to earth, to long shall this republic exist.' At the same time he took the beautiful crown from his head, on which was inscribed the word 'Union,' placed it on the Star-Spangled Banner; and the people, kneeling down, cried out: 'Amen.'

"The apparition then gradually began to dissolve, and at last the mysterious female was all that remained before me in my room, and again I heard the voice: 'Son of the Republic, what you have seen is explained as follows: Three dangers will come over this Republic; the second is the most dreaded; when this one is passed, the whole world cannot conquer her. Let every child of the Republic learn to serve his God, his country and the Union.' With these words the form vanished.

"I arose from my chair with the firm conviction that the birth, progress and fate of the Republic of the United States of America had been revealed to me."

These words, says Mr. Sherman, I heard myself from General Washington's own lips.

It is always gratifying to receive testimonials for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and when the endorsement is from a physician it is especially so. "There is no more satisfactory or effective remedy than Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," writes Dr. R. E. Robey, physician and pharmacist of Olney, Mo.; and as he has used the Remedy in his family and sold it in his drug store for six years, he should certainly know. For sale by R. S. Knowlton.

PORTO RICO IS LOYAL.
Patriotic Proclamation—The Stars and Stripes Greeted with Enthusiasm.

Ponce, Porto Rico, July 30, 3 p. m.—The following is the text of the mayor's proclamation, issued at Caico, as a United States city:

"Citizens: Today the citizens of Porto Rico assist in one of her most beautiful fetes. The sun of America shines upon your mountains and valleys this day of July. It is a day of glorious remembrance for every citizen of this beloved island, because for the first time there waves over her the flag of stars, planted in the name of the government of the United States of America, by a major-general of the American army, Señor Miles.

"Porto Ricans, we are, by the miraculous intervention of the God of justice, given back to the bosom of our mother America, in whose waters nature has placed us as a people of America. To her we are given back in the name of her government, by General Miles, and we must send our most expressive salutation of generous affection through our conduct toward the valiant troops, represented by the distinguished officers and commanded by the illustrious General Miles.

"Citizens, long live the government of the United States of America; hail to their valiant troops." Hail Porto Rico, always American.

"Yaico, Porto Rico, United States of America.

Advancing Steadily.

With the American Advance, Juan Diaz, Sunday afternoon, via Ponce, July 31, via Galveston, Aug. 1—Colonel Hulings occupied this town at dusk yesterday, Saturday evening, amid the acclamation of the people, who paraded the streets with an American flag made for the occasion. The stars and stripes were hoisted on the town hall amid the vivas of the population. Colonel Hulings issued a proclamation, saying that personal rights and property would be respected.

THE PRESIDENT'S ULTIMATUM.
Spanish Sovereignty Ceases. Evacuation is Demanded of the West Indies Together With Occupation of Manila.

Washington, Aug. 2.—The cabinet was in session an hour. It was stated no word had come from Spain. It was decided to make public our terms of peace.

Washington, Aug. 2.—Following is the full text of the official statement given out by authority of the president as to terms of peace offered Spain by the United States.
The president does not now put forward any claim for indemnity, but requires the relinquishment of all claims of sovereignty over or title to the island of Cuba, as well as the evacuation of Spain of the islands.

Cession to the United States and immediate evacuation of Porto Rico and all the other islands under Spanish sovereignty in the West Indies and cession of an island of the Ladrones. The United States will occupy and hold the city, bay and harbor of Manila, pending conclusion of a treaty of peace, which shall determine the disposition of the Philippines. If terms are accepted by Spain in entirety, it is stated that commissioners will be named by the United States to meet commissioners on the part of Spain, for the purpose of concluding a treaty of peace on the basis above indicated.

ANOTHER PRIZE.
Key West, Aug. 1.—The Spanish schooner Dolores, sixty tons, loaded with corn and provisions, and bound from Progreso, Mexico, for Bata-naco, has been added to the list of war prizes. She was captured by a week ago yesterday, and was brought in today by Ensign Craven.
Sick and wounded Spanish soldiers to the number of 382, some of whom have lost legs and arms, are aboard the prizes, which are held in quarantine.

"Let me give you a pointer," said M. F. Gregg, a popular conductor on the Missouri Pacific railroad.
"Do you know that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy cures you when you have the stomach ache? Well it does." And after giving this friendly bit of advice, the jolly conductor passed on down the aisle. It is a fact that thousands of railroad and traveling men never take a trip without a bottle of this Remedy, which is the best cure for bowel disorders in the world, 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by R. S. Knowlton.

And the Don Came Down.

There was a Don up in the tree,
And a Yankee down below;
"Come down," said the Yankee to the Don,
"But the Don was rather slow."
"What terms," he asked, "will you make with me?"
"If I come down to you?
No terms? Oh, Mr. Kanee man, That'll never do!"
The Yankee took aim with his gun At the Don up in the tree;
"I'll shoot," he said, "if you don't come down Before I've counted three."
Altogether the Don's dark visage spread A terrifying frown.
But the Yankee counted "one" and "two,"
And the little old Don came down.

Hawaiian Chinese.

San Francisco, Aug. 1.—The commissioner of immigration at this port has received instructions from Washington to treat all immigrants from Hawaii as alien immigrants, until such time as laws can be perfected to govern them. This rule will settle all questions as to the entrance of certain races, for the time being, and will be a warning to steamship companies.

has now, in proportion to the popu-

MANY SUFFERERS.

What a Large Number of People are Enduring.
A Distressing Condition in Which Many American People are Involved—The Only Way to Alleviate it.

From the Mountaineer, Wallkill, N. Dakota.
The removal of a guilty stomach is what a very large majority of the people of this nation are suffering with today. It is a well known fact that dyspepsia is a characteristic American disease and it is frequently stated that "we are a nation of dyspeptics." It is a distressing ailment and because of its many forms is difficult to treat. Sometimes it is the result of improper moles of eating, improper food or mental worry and exhaustion; then again it may be a depressed condition of the body and treatment should be directed to the restoration of the health, without special attention to the stomach. In other instances, the disease is evidently the result of inflammation of the stomach.
Anyone of these conditions produce a lack of vitality in the system, by causing the blood to lose its life-sustaining elements. The blood is the vital element in our lives and should be carefully nurtured. Restore the blood in its proper condition, dyspepsia will vanish and perfect health follow.
For example, in the county of Pembina, North Dakota, a few miles from Wallkill, resides Mr. Ernest Butler, a man of sterling integrity, whose veracity cannot be doubted.
He was formerly a resident of Londeswore, Ont., but removed to the west and is now a prosperous farmer.
For three years he has been unable to do his work because he was ill with dyspepsia.
He was seriously ill about three years ago, he says, and consulted a doctor who gave me some medicine for indigestion. I continued to grow worse and several physicians were called at intervals who gave me temporary relief, but the disease returned with all its accustomed severity.

tential the bobbin winder, without holding the thread, and without the use of a flat spring. Needle can be raised and lowered at will. Light Quatern Machine is easy to use, does not fatigue the operator, makes little noise and sews rapidly. Stitch is a double lock stitch, the same on both sides,
