Mrs. R. S. Knowlton and children went to Bandon last Friday to spend a few days on the beach.

Johnson Bro's have positively closed their books against credits. They would rather sell only $5 worth for cash than $25 worth on account. *

Mr. Root and son-in-law, Wm. Darby, returned Saturday evening from their prospecting trip in the Myrtle creek section, and will not make the change at once.

Rev. W. B. Smith, P. E. and pastor in charge at this station, preached his farewell sermon Sunday night. He will leave for the general conferance at Corvallis today.

Rev. and Mrs. J. L. Futrell, and little daughter Mary Lee, spent several days lately in the upper South Fork section, in the Eckley neighborhood, returning last Wednesday.

Prof. Nicholson was down from the Hermann neighborhood last Saturday on business, and included a call on the HERALD. He will have about five months of school at that place.

The Evening Telegram says: Captain H. A. Ebert, who has been in charge of the Portland corps of Volunteers, has withdrawn from that organization and connected himself with the Evangelical church on the East Side. He will begin a series of tabernacle meetings at East Sixth and Market next Saturday.

The Myrtle Point public school will open on the 29th inst—last Monday in this month—with Prof. L. W. Traver in charge as principal, Miss Laura Wise in the intermediate and Miss Julia Braden the primary departments. The school-fund apportionment for the district is $409.20. Prof. Traver, principal, is a brother of the one lately in charge of the school there.

Little Bessie Maury celebrated with a birthday party of her little friends last Wednesday afternoon. She has attained the age of 6 years. There were present at the party: Misses Bessie and May Perry, Agnes Whetstone, Ella and Georgia Johnson, Edna McDonald, Vesta Boyrie, and Masters Vernon Good and Bruce Johnson. They had a happy time, and Miss Bessie received several nice presents.

Messrs. Ford & Stoker, proprietors of the cannery near Bandon, will not operate it this season. It appears now that neither of the canneries on this river will run this season—another source of employment and wages cut off from our section and closed against the development of natural wealth. Those engaged in the fishing business will prepare for salting instead of depending on the canneries to take their catch.

A man named Brandt played sneak-thief among his fellow workmen at Prosper last Sunday a week, burglarizing their rooming apartments while they were absent at Sunday-school or other occupation, taking among the articles a gold watch and chain, a coat, boots and shoes, etc., and then leaving. Constable Smith of Bandon was on his trail, but the fellow eluded him at some point above this place. He may yet be overtaken.

Miss Sopha Tilman has been spending several days in Coquille after a protracted absence from these familiar haunts.

Bert Dean's livery stable is a busy place. He has calls for rigs, saddle horses, freighting, etc., etc., and fills the orders as fast as they come.

It is expected—at least so reported—that the track will be laid from the main road to the Klondyke mine and in running order by the last of September.

The Adventists, by Elder Fero of Portland, conducted a series of meetings at the little church in this city, beginning last Friday and ending Sunday night.

The insurance company made a payment of $1000 in settlement with Mrs. Jeff Williams on the loss by fire she sustained in the burning of her property at Myrtle Point.

Truth wears well. People have learned that DeWitt's Little Early Risers are reliable little pills for regulating the bowels, curing constipation and sick headache. They don't gripe. R. S. Knowlton.

Bishop Barkley, of Marion county, representing the U. B. church of this state, has been visiting on church work in this county the past week. He was on the train from the bay to Myrtle Point yesterday and may visit Coquille City—although having no organized church here—before returning to his home.

Our old friend and fellow-citizen, Robert M. Young, yesterday morning received a letter from his son, Sergeant Roy Young, of Col Reber's signal corps, dated at and mailed in front of San Juan, Porto Rico. He gives his father an entertaing account of his trip, their sights and experiences on arrival at the island and in the trenches.

Parties interested in the hay business think that the outlook for big prices is not so good as it was a month ago, as California is getting its hay largely from Nebraska and Kansas. This condition, they think will shut out Oregon farmers from the California markets, as hay can be produced cheaper in the states of the Mississippi valley than on the Pacific slope.

Uncle Jack Wilson is putting up a building adjoining A. C. Wilson's blacksmith and wagon shop for a machine shop. Uncle Jack is a practical machinest of many years experience, and while he has followed the business here for several years in connection with Lyons' mill, the fact that he was operating under the firm name of another destroyed his identity as the boss machanic and practical machinist" that he is. With such an establishment of such workers in iron, steel and other metals, and with a good stock of machinery suited to the work in both departments, Coquille will soon boast of a first-class machine shop. Todd Dickson is putting up the building.

Now let a concerted move be made to have our products shipped to and handled by honest, fair-dealing commission men or agents at San Francisco. Our farmers can spare thousandsof dollars worth of just such things as are needed in that city and state, for which, if supplied in good marketable shape, good round prices can be received and both sides be benefited. We will have the opportunity, too, of patronizing the establishment of a transportation service that will also be mutually beneficial, and these things will go a great way to establish us in that market and make us mutually helpful—us to forward our excess of crops and they to return to us the "intrinsic value" excess held by them.

The Sixth Annual County W. C. T. U. Convention

Was convened in this city last Wednesday evening, as per previous announcement in the HERALD, at the Southern Methodist church. The attendance of delegates was not large, but the sessions of the body were none the less interesting, while the night meetings were largely attended, the people generally regarding them as public or mass metings, at which they were especially welcome. The president, Rev. Mrs. Scott, of Bandon, recording secretary, Mrs. J. S. Lawrence, of Coquille City, and treasurer, Mrs. Leona Beyers, of Willowdale, were each present and officially advanced the cause by taking active and intelligent part in the work.

The decorations at the church were handsome, chiefly by cut flowers and pot plants and ferns profusely placed about the rostrum and organ. The program of the first meeting — Thursday evening — opened with a beautiful temperance anthem, by the choir—"It is a Good Thing to Give Thanks Unto the Lord"; reading of scripture lesson by the president and prayer by Rev. W. B. Smith; trio, "O, Restless Sea" —Mrs. C. H. Nosler, soprano, L. H. Hazard, tenor, Aaron Wilson, bass, Mrs. Hazard, organist; address of welcome by Miss Clara Gage; response being read by Mrs. Disher, in the absence of Miss Alice Beyers of Sumner; song by the choir "The Temperance Brigade;" president's address; song by the choir—"For God and Home and Native Land;" appointment of committees; song by the choir—"There is a Sadness Tonight."

The president's address was a very able and instructive one, and the songs by the choir appropriate and charmingly given.

The day's proceedings were chiefly "business," and mainly attended by members of the W. C. T. U., whose numbers were augmented by arrivals on the noon boats and in private conveyances. Thursday afternoon's program was somewhat changed by taking from the night program Mrs. Disher's splendid paper on "Equal Suffrage," which was read at this session, and placing on the night program, instead, an address by Rev. H. F. Burgess of California.

Thursday night's, and concluding session of the convention, was more than a success, the church being crowded and a happy spirit pervading the audience. The services opened with an anthem by the choir —"The Heavens Declare the Glory of God;" devotions were conducted by the president and an opening prayer by Rev. C. A. Stine; male quartet, "Keep the Temperance Ball Rolling"—A. A. Leach, 1st tenor, Howard Wrenshall, 2d tenor, J. S. McEwen, 1st bass, Aaron Wilson, 2d bass; Miss Marvin Lamb, organist. Here followed the "Gray Medal Contest:" No 1—Mrs. Dr. Moore, Coquille City—"A Rumseller's Legal Right;" No. 2—Mrs. Wise, Myrtle Point—"The Boys of America;" No 3—Mrs. Leona Beyers, Fishtrap—"Israel Mourning for Her Sons;" No 4—Mrs. W. W. Gage, Coquille City—"Noble Christian Womanhood;" No 5—(not present); No. 6—Mrs. Adda R. Scott of Bandon—"The Young American's War Cry." At the close of these recitations, the judges, Rev. H. F. Burgess, Mr. Abernathy and a lady from Beaver Hill (whose name we failed to learn) retired and consulted, and within a few minutes returned and announced that the committee was not unanimous, but that two had decided to give the medal to No. 6—Adda R. Scott, of The other favored Mrs. Dr. Moore, of this city. This being the first prize of the "Gray" medals award in this county, and so far as known in this state, a special interest centered in the contest and the fairness of the award. The time intervening the committee's absence was filled in by choice selections by the choir.

Rev. Mr. Burgess made the presentation speech and award. The same gentleman then delivered a temperance address, chiefly on the points of the work that is to do, how to do it, and how it was being done. He explained the new organization, the Anti-Saloon League, and its operations and principles in larger towns and cities. He exhibited a chart showing the number of saloons in several of the states in proportion to the population, some of which were very startling, particularly that of California as compared with other states that have almost been ignored as being given over to the rum fiend and past redemption.

Solo, by little Eula Price. Then followed a few parting words by the president and singing of the closing hymn—"God Be With You, Till We Meet Again."

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year, together with superintendents of departments appointed: President, Mrs. Adda R. Scott; recording secretary, Mrs. Annie Lawrence; corresponding secretary, Miss Clara Gage; treasurer, Mrs. Leona Byers; superintendent of Demorest medal contests, Mrs. Leona Byers; superintendent of press work, Mrs. Annie Lawrence; superintendent of literature, Mrs. Alice Gage; superintendent of mother's meetings, Mrs. Lucy Buck; superintendent franchise, Miss Clara Gage; superintendent of narcotics, Mrs. Todd; superintendent of scientific instruction, Mrs. Moore; superintendent of Loyal Temperance Legion, Mrs. Disher.

The choir was composed of Mrs. C. H. Nosler and Mrs. McEwen, sopranos; Miss Irma Lukens and Miss Maude Nosler, altos; A. A. Leach and Howard Wrenshall, tenores; Aaron Wilson and J. S. McEwen, bassos. Miss Marvin Lamb presided at the organ.

From Extreme Nervousness.

THAT no one remedy can contain the elements necessary to cure all diseases, is a fact well known to everyone. Dr. Miles' System of Restorative Remedies consists of seven distinctively different preparations, each for its own purpose.

Mrs. L. C. Bramley, 37 Henry St., St. Catherines, Ontario, writes: "For years I suffered from extreme nervousness and annoying constipation, developing into palpitation and weakness of the heart. I was unable to sleep, suffered much from headache, pain in my left side, palpitation and a constant feeling of weakness and prostration. I began using Dr. Miles' Nervine, Heart Cure and Nerve and Liver Pills and the Anti-Pain Pills to relieve sudden paroxysms of pain and headache. I soon felt much improved and the pains and aches and weariness left me. I then took Dr. Miles' Restorative Tonic and am now restored to my former good health."

Dr. Miles' Remedies are sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee, first bottle benefits or money refunded. Book on diseases of the heart and nerves free. Address, 1st Presbyterian Church of Coquille.

A committee from the presbytery of the Presbyterian church, consisting of Revs. Geo. Gillespie of Marshfield, W. C. Scott of Bandon and A. F. Foster of Myrtle Point, met at this place last Tuesday and that evening held a service at the Christian church, including a sermon by Rev. A. F. Foster, followed by the organization of the 1st Presbyterian church of Coquille City. The attendance was fairly good, considering the brief announcement given, and the discourse was very able and listened to with much interest. After the sermon, the ministers officiated in the organization of the church, several members joining by letter, and a few on profession of faith. The following persons were enrolled: E. Rackleff, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Perry, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Barrows, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse W. Hall and daughters Nora and Winnifred, Mrs. Chas. Hall, Miss Eva Hall and Mrs. Wm. Rich. Three of these were first baptized and then covenanted. The following members were then each chosen as ruling elders for 3, 2 and 1 year respectively: Ed Rackleff, W. S. Perry and Jesse W. Hall. These were then duly ordained and installed. Thus starts the 1st Presbyterian church in Coquille.

R. A. Wise, representing the San Francisco music house of Clark Wise & Co., spent three or four days in this city, going to Bandon today. H. F. Deaner, expert tuner, of the same firm, accompanied Mrs. Wise also joined her husband for an outing on this trip. This firm introduced several of their instruments in this county last year, about this time, and have gained the confidence of our people by fair dealing.

A handsome new carpet and window shades for Masonic hall will arrive on the steamer Barbara Heruster from San Francisco this trip. They were selected by the ladies of the Eastern Star and ordered some time since. Other improvements will follow, such as painting, curtains, etc., in all improving the lodge room in appearance and comfort.

Mrs. D. P. Strang is expected home shortly. Her health is improved but the excessive heat prevailing on the other side of the mountains and up in Portland is more than she can endure for comfort.

A heavy train load of pioneers and friends from the bay, lower-river points and from here went to Myrtle Point yesterday to participate in the reunion.

Cal Wright, a prominent citizen of Roseburg, is now a denizen of Beaver Hill. Mr. W. was in this city yesterday.

The hay-baling at Ott Willard's was finished last Saturday, and summed up 42 tons of fine timothy. It is for sale.

The apportionment of the county school fund, by County Superintendent Bunch, appears in the HERALD today.

Resolutions of Condolence.

At a stated communication of Beulah Chapter, No. 6, O. E. S., held August 13, 1898, the following resolutions were adopted:

Whereas, It has pleased the All-Wise Providence, who controls all earthly things, to remove from our midst Brother T. R. Willard; and

Whereas, We bow with resignation to His will, who doeth all things well, though we do not understand; and

Whereas, We shall miss our departed brother from our chapter, but we hope to be reunited with him, whose absence we mourn, in the Grand Chapter which shall meet beyond death; therefore be it

Resolved, That we, the members of Beulah Chapter, No. 6, O. E. S., of the state of Oregon, hereby express our sorrow at the removal from our midst of our brother, T. R. Willard, whom we loved and shall always cherish in sacred memory; and

Resolved, That we sympathize with all his relatives, and pray that they, with us, may keep green his memory by emulating the noble traits of his honored character; and

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be furnished the relatives of the deceased; and that said resolutions be spread upon the minutes of this chapter, and also a copy hereof be furnished each Coquille City paper for publication.
