Hunt, the photographer, is preparing a floating gallery, which he will utilize along the river, making visits at all points for his picture work. It will be a residence also for himself and wife.

J. C. Shields and son John, of the Middle Fork section, came down to this place yesterday, reaching here in the evening. They brought a fine deer to Johnson's market. The animal had on the evening before jumped into the cowpen, and the son got a small rifle by which he claimed the intruder as his own.

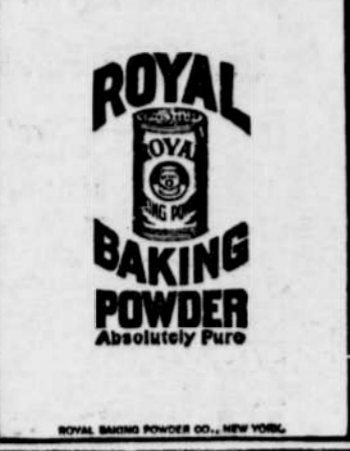

Ott Willard was in town yesterday, having been constrained to quit farming while the sun shines by carrying both hands in a sling from a series of three or four boils on each. Poor fellow has been on the rack for about two weeks now, and suffers from both sides—because he can't work and because of his fearfully afflicted hands.

The HERALD office was unusually quiet most of last week, owing to the outing taken by his Satanic majesty and imp to the G. A. R. reunion and beach. Aaron Wilson, foreman, and John Stone, fireman, earned a brief respite by their faithfulness and constancy at work, but Clarence Dean supplied a helping hand and the work went on.

Bishop Morris, of Portland, accompanied by Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Horsfall and Dr. Horsfall and wife, of Marshfield, came to this place last Wednesday and took the noon boat for Bandon. The bishop conducted services at Bandon last Sunday morning and night. He will hold services at Myrtle Point tomorrow (Wednesday) evening in the parlor of Hotel Guerin, and then come to this place for next Sunday's services of consecration of the Church of St. James the Apostle and to celebrate the rite of confirmation.

We had the pleasure yesterday of a call from Comrade A. Patfenbarger, of Portland, who reached our city afoot via the beach from Toledo. Mr. P. is representing the Pacific Farmer, an Oregon agricultural and horticultural journal, of which he had been the owner and manager from 1881 to 1888. He is yet connected with it and solicits in its interest during the summer months. Comrade P. served a short enlistment during the late war from Ohio, and expressed regret that he was too late to "be with the boys" at Bandon during the encampment. He will be in Myrtle Point today.

R. D. Sanford returned last week from his trip to Roseburg, bringing with him his son Curtis, who has been in eastern Oregon for some months, and Mrs. L. C. Orchard, step-mother of our Mrs. Sanford, from Stayton.

Grandma Stockman walks to town once or twice each week to do shopping and get her mail, but is not at all well. Her special ailment now is erysipelas in her nose, which troubles her very much and the warm weather and exercise greatly aggravate.

More than twenty million free samples of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve have been distributed by the manufacturers. What better proof of their confidence in its merits do you want? It cures bites, burns, scalds, sores, in the shortest space of time. R. S. Knowlton.

Miss Jo Bevers came in from her home at Suwan Sunday and took the train yesterday morning for Myrtle Point, to visit her friend and school-chum, Miss Nellie Dement. Miss Jo has been elected teacher of a 4-months' term of school in district No. 18, on Isthmus slough.

J. W. Caldwell, of Myrtle Point, was attending to business in this place yesterday. He thinks there were 500 persons at the pioneers' reunion at Myrtle Point Monday of last week, including many of the most notable of the old heroes. One thing, he says, operated against a better attendance, which was rumors that had been spread throughout the country neighborhoods that diphtheria, whooping cough and other sickness was then existing or had recently prevailed there, and this hindered many pioneers from attending and taking their families. Aside of these outside influences, the attendance was very good and the social features of that could be expected. Mr. Caldwell cited one interesting feature, where three prominent pioneers and worthy citizens were hobnobbing together and passing sincere and warm greetings. These proved to be Daniel Anderson, of Denmark, Curry county, Daniel Giles, of Myrtle Point, and William Jenkins, now of Myrtle Point, veterans and comrades of Capt. Sheffield's company, who enlisted together for the Rogue River war in 1855-6. The space of 41 or 42 years has passed since the events which called these brave hearts into a fellowship and confidence stronger than life, but through which they had succeeded in crossing the dead line and the hardships, privations and struggles of the intervening years up to the present occasion of reunion. This was, therefore, to them a season of joy and good feeling, an oasis in their lives, and to those who viewed and realized the kinship of the trio, a pleasurable occasion for genuine hero worship toward those who live to link the past gloomy, dangerous, exposed, segregated life with the present thrifty, bright, prosperous and happy social order to which we are invited for participation. Honor to whom honor is due.

Comrade W. H. Hall of the lower river attended the G. A. R. encampment at Bandon last week, and came as far up as this place Saturday noon to attend to some business matters. He enjoyed the reunion very much.

Many citizens join City Marshal Buck in urging a repair of the sidewalks this dry weather. The loose and warped planks can easily be found now, while at the same time you will receive blessing "instead of" by your protection of clothing and limbs of pedestrians.

Comrade Jonathan Quick is ruminating in the scene of his boyhood and among the few of the "old boys" who survive since he cut loose to experience life on his own hook. For the present he is in Vinton county, Ohio, and if health permit, attend the G. A. R. national encampment at Cincinnati.

Dad Johnson and family made a visit to his brother John's, on the North Fork, Sunday. They returned in the evening, bringing Miss Rhoda Coon, sister of Mrs. Johnson, with them. They report John as being better for a day or two past, though he had been very low most of the previous week.

Chas. H. Burggraf, supervising architect of both the new courthouse and schoolhouse, arrived from Salem last Sunday, and Monday morning early was wrapped up in business and pushing the work. Mr. B. will remain with us till the work is finished, and if he can get rooms will bring Mrs. B. for a summer's residence with us.

Walter Drane and George Stevenson expect to start on another trip tomorrow to prospect in the Cow creek and Rogue River section. They take their guns with them, and are sure of something to eat while hunting for the precious metal. Their former visit was favorable, but not secure in such quantity as they desired and believed was in store for them upon a more earnest search.

Comrade C. W. and Mrs. Sanford of the bay, and daughter, Mrs. C. A. Nollner and baby (on a visit from southern California) and two younger members of Comrade Sanford's family, returned home yesterday, after taking in the G. A. R. encampment at Bandon and visiting their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Sanford and family, at this place. Both Mr. and Mrs. Sanford have war experiences that are interesting.

R. E. Shine, manager for Elijah Smith at Empire, visited this place on business last week. He gave out the information that he would run the cannery at Parkersburg, being in expectation of a force of Chinamen from Astoria for that purpose. We observe some life manifested among the fishermen owing to this announcement, and we are glad that some of our natural wealth in this line is to be brought to the surface, and not let slip from swelling the grand total of our resources and local prosperity. A. M. Twambly of the Empire cannery will be in charge.

A. O. Wheeler heard from the California bond folks—his father, mother, a brother and sister—from Glendale, southern Douglas county, where they have stopped for the time being, employed at the opening of a new mine promising immense treasure. The mine is owned by a wealthy company, who are now putting many thousands of dollars worth of machinery and improvements thereon with a view to mining on a large scale. Mr. Wheeler is in improved health, but all complain of the fearfully hot weather they are experiencing. They hope, however, to pass through it, while Mr. W. and George have struck a good job and desire to retain it as long as it holds out.

W. D. Reedy, the school teacher on the bay, since the 23d of July last, has been held in the sum of $1000 on a charge of rape, was surrendered to Sheriff Gage last Friday by his bondsmen and placed in jail here, but Saturday night a new and sufficient bond was accepted by Sheriff Gage and Mr. Reedy released. There was some surprise manifested by those who learned of the action of the bondsmen, Messrs. Levi and W. D. L. F. Smith, for they had been impressed with the belief that few or none where Mr. Reedy's known believed in his guilt, and were assured that these and other bondsmen would have justified in ten times the amount. Mr. Reedy seems to have had no trouble in renewing the bond, while the action of the former bondsmen will have the tendency to prejudice his case.

Jottings About the G. A. R. Encampment.

The G. A. R. annual reunion and encampment at Bandon last Thursday, Friday and Saturday—August 18-20, 1898—proved one of the best attended, most successful and happy since the organization of the district association. We are informed that the spacious campground, eligibly located and charmingly arranged, was well occupied, having about 100 tents, with ample platform and seating facilities for the assembly occasions. The weather, too, proved an attraction—Bandon was on her good behavior in that line and put forth her best.

PROGRAM THURSDAY EVENING, AUG. 17. Song by the choir; address by Elder Holt of the Latter Day Saints; flag drill by 46 little girls; address of welcome by Rev. Comrade F. M. Sanderlin, on behalf of G. A. R.; address of welcome by Mrs. R. H. Rosa, on behalf of W. R. C.; address of welcome on behalf of citizens by Hon. G. O. Topping; response to address of welcome by Hon. W. H. Nosler of Coquille City.

FRIDAY FORENOON. Song by the choir; address by Prof. W. H. Bunch; song by the choir.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON. Song by choir; address by Rev. R. C. Lee.

EVENING PROGRAM. Song by choir; recitation; flag drill by 16 little girls; music by the Telford children; song by a little Tot Telford; address by Elder (Gage); address by Rev. W. H. Nosler; address by Rev. Sanderlin.

SATURDAY MORNING—BUSINESS. The meeting at this morning hour was for business. The following district officers were elected for the ensuing year: Commander—Dal Cathcart, of Marshfield.

S. V.—John W. Felter, of Bandon. J. V.—R. W. Lundy, of Myrtle Point.

Q. M.—Jno. Sunderland, of Marshfield. Surgeon—Dr. S. L. Roberds, of Myrtle Point.

Chaplain—Rev. L. H. Palmer, of Coquille City. President of the W. R. C.—Mrs. Dr. Roberds, of Myrtle Point.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON. Short addresses by Mr. Wooden, Dr. Lowe and Col. R. H. Rosa. Exhibition drill by life-saving crew.

Exhibition drill by Co. K, O. N. G. Life-boat drill in the river. Thus ended one of the pleasantest and most successful reunions of the veterans of southwest Oregon. The address of Rev. R. C. Lee was a masterpiece and received most hearty applause and praise. The address of Prof. W. H. Bunch, also, was scholarly, patriotic and instructive.

Comrade Felter deserves great praise for his unflinching efforts in promoting to so successful and entertaining an issue this annual reunion of the veterans of the late war, and words of praise come from all sides. The "old boys" at Bandon, with backing from the good citizens of the town, spared no effort to make things agreeable and to entertain the visitors. The literary and musical features were each and all pleasing. We understand Marshfield was selected for the encampment next year.

Roy Dunham, 5-year old son of Capt. H. F. Dunham, fell from a wagon last Thursday afternoon, near this office, one hind wheel of which ran over him. It was just the running gear of the wagon, however, upon which they were hauling lumber, and was therefore light and the road dusty, or the child might have been severely hurt. Mr. Dean, who was driving, is generally careful and had ordered on the wagon, that it was not safe, but the little fellow clambered on the rear axle, thence forward along the coupling till he was a "close second" with the driver before the latter knew it, and shortly after the discovery the youngster fell, receiving some bruises and scratches, but no bones broken.

Comrade B. H. Haskin, commander of our local post, G. A. R., took in the encampment at Bandon last week, returning Saturday and driving out home with a load of lumber. Comrade H. reports his daughter, Mrs. Hall, as rapidly recovering from her late serious accident by a wagon and team.

Miss Irma Lukens of this place will teach the fall term of school in the Moon district, having been elected to that position at a late meeting of the board of that district. The district will put up a schoolhouse at once, the former building having been destroyed by fire some few months ago.

E. Heuckendorf, master boat-builder of the bay, was visiting on the upper river a few days past and yesterday went to Parkersburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jackson and son Ralph, of the bay, have been visiting at Mr. and Mrs. Hudson's several days.

Martin Miller, a respected and thrifty farmer of the Dora section, was down last Thursday with fruit.

A host of folks went to Bandon as early as last Wednesday to enjoy an outing and be present at the G. A. R. encampment exercises, including several of the comrades and wives, sisters, daughters, sons, etc., and other members of the W. R. C. Among the comrades and members of families who attended were Walter and Mrs. Drane; Judge Nosler; Hon. W. H. Nosler and daughters, Marie, Birdie and Minnie and son Gene; Peter Nichols and sister, Miss Lucy; W. E. McDuffee and daughter, Fannie; Mr. and Mrs. Hite; also family; Shepard, Mrs. Frank; also family; Mr. and Mrs. Ethan McDuffee; Mr. Moulton, M. R. Young, Misses Clara Gage, Flo Boyrie, Maude Nosler, Marie and Reta Skeels, Jessie Simmons, Ella Buck, Lizzie Winchester, Allie Jenkins, and Messrs. Aaron Wilson, John Stone, Chas. Lorenz and Fred Nosler. Others took later boats, and a host still later of chiefly young folks to be present at the ball Saturday night.

Her Health Restored. THE misery of sleeplessness can only be realized by those who have experienced it. Nervousness, sleeplessness, headaches, neuralgia and that miserable feeling of unrest, can surely be cured by Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. So certain is Dr. Miles of this fact that all druggists are authorized to refund price paid for the first bottle tried, providing it does not benefit. Mrs. Henry Bruce, wife of the well known blacksmith at Grand Junction, Iowa, says: "I was troubled with sleeplessness, nervousness, headache and irregular menstruation; suffering almost miserably for years. I used various advertised remedies for female complaints besides being under the care of local physicians, without help. I noticed in Dr. Miles' advertisement the testimonial of a lady cured of ailments similar to mine, and I shall never cease to thank that lady. Her testimonial induced me to use Dr. Miles' Nervine and Nerve and Liver Pills, which restored me to health. I cannot say enough for Dr. Miles' Remedies."

DR. MILES' REMEDIES are sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee, first bottle benefits or money refunded. Book on diseases of the heart and nerves free. Address: DR. MILES MEDICAL CO., Elkhart, Ind.
