Comrade J. W. Felter, of Bandon, visited the county seat on business last Saturday, returning home on the noon boat. Comrade Felter's son Charlie, who shipped from San Francisco some weeks since for Manila, wrote lately that the health of the boys was good and they were making good progress toward the Philippines.

Dr. Mrs. M. Goldson, of San Francisco, Cal., began a course of lectures on "Patriotism and the Diseases of Women" at the Southern M. E. church in this city last Friday afternoon. We understand the lady comes under the auspices of the W. C. T. U., and was received and entertained by the ladies of the local W. C. T. U. The lectures are to her own sex, only, and are mentioned in her notices as being "truly a medical missionary work."

Rev. Amos Dahuff and family, of Knoxville, Tenn., arrived in Coquille City last Friday, via Portland, per steamer National City. He is a minister of the M. E. church, south, and is stationed at Bandon. The Rev. Dahuff and family remained over at Coquille to meet Presiding Elder Shangle and attend the quarterly conference last Saturday and Sunday. This trip was Mr. and Mrs. Dahuff's first experience on old ocean, and they were not favorably impressed with it. The family, including two little folks, were all sea-sick. And, by the way, Bro. Dahuff was a courier during the late civil war, being a member of the 9th Indiana, General Milroy's original regimental organization, in the Army of the Cumberland, and after the war moved to Tennessee and became a citizen of that state.

J. W. Carter, constable in the Marshfield district, M. P. Pendergrass and Dan Ritzman, prominent citizens of the bay side, are attending court.

Judge W. R. Willis, of Roseburg, Col. Eppinger, of Portland, J. B. Riddle, court reporter, of Roseburg, Hon. A. M. Crawford, of Roseburg, are prominent persons from abroad attending our district court.

The editor had a friendly call yesterday from our prominent South Fork citizen, Cass Hermann. Mr. H. visits very little, and had not been down to Coquille for a long while. He is a jurymen at this term of court and may meet many old friends and acquaintances during his stay of a couple of weeks. This was our first handshake with Mr. H.

Among the attorneys of Coos and Curry counties appearing at the opening of our district court yesterday we note: J. F. Hall, J. S. Coke, jr., Judge D. L. Watson, J. W. Bennett, B. Swanson, of Marshfield, J. T. Hall, of Empire City, J. M. Upton, of Bandon, Hon. J. H. Upton, of Denmark, L. A. Roberts, of Myrtle Point, and our local corps, Hon. W. Sinclair, E. Pannenberg, A. J. Sherwood and C. L. Moon.

Hon. H. L. Benson, district judge for the 1st district, arrived Grants Pass Sunday, to preside in Coos county district court, vice Judge J. W. Hamilton, who is disqualified by reason of having been counsel in numerous cases. Judge Benson informs us that two weeks is all he can spend with us, hence he will proceed with the criminal business, and then with that in which Judge Hamilton had been associated. Judge Benson made the acquaintance of many of our citizens since his arrival, and most favorably impressed all as to his ability and worth as a jurist and official.

Her Health Restored

The misery of sleeplessness can only be realized by those who have experienced it. Nervousness, sleeplessness, headache, neuralgia and that miserable feeling of unrest, can surely be cured by Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. Death of Mrs. Adam Wimer.

After a long sickness, and latterly a gradual decline, the spirit of this true mother and loved friend and neighbor, Mrs. Annie E. Wimer, widow of the late well-known and highly respected Adam Wimer, took its flight to its happy home.

"Where sickness and sorrow, pain and death, shall never come." The death took place at the family home on Fishtrap last Friday morning, about 3:30 o'clock.

Deceased was born in Iowa in 1843, and was married to Mr. Wimer about 1860. She leaves 6 sons and one daughter to mourn this sad bereavement, the sons G. W., E. A., W. H., H. T. (at home), J. D. in Jackson county and D. H. in Josephine, and the daughter, Miss Elizabeth, also at home.

The funeral ceremony took place last Saturday, at 1 o'clock, at the home of G. W. Wimer, the oldest son, and the burial immediately thereafter at the Arago cemetery, followed by a large concourse of neighbors and friends in the vicinity, and friends from other portions of the upper and lower river.

Mrs. A. Sage, mother of our Mrs. E. A. White, is expected by Mr. and Mrs. White on the next steamer from Portland from Umatilla county, eastern Oregon. The old lady is 84 years old.
