His family is related to Dr. Moore.

Word was received yesterday that our Mrs. F. A. White was detained from returning home to this place yesterday with her mother by being held as a witness in one of those discreditable hoodlum displays at the Salvation Army meeting at Marshfield Sunday night. Our correspondent of a week or two since, signing "John A. Frost, Chairman Vigilance Committee," can hardly defend such conduct as we hear took place; in fact the "vigilance committee" should turn its attention to keeping down rowdyism.

Mrs. H. J. Dunn, of Memphis, Scotland county, Mo., reached this place a few days since on a visit to her brother, W. C. Paxson, and family. Mrs. D. is a widow lady, and comes to spend the winter if the climate and impressions justify. Mr. Paxson and sister had not seen each other for 36 years, and the greetings were very cordial and agreeable.

C. T. Robison brought a handsome and well-executed oil color painting down from his home near Arago in the early part of last week and left it with Mr. Jacobson to be framed and on exhibition. E. McBroom, representing the Roseburg Review in a special autumn edition, arrived in Coquille last Friday and proceeded to make the acquaintance of and interview our citizens. This special number of the Review will try to include Coos county as closely associated with Douglas in agricultural, mineral and commercial interests, and write up our claims to public consideration. We had a brief but pleasant call from Mr. McBroom, and hope he may meet with the success the enterprise merits. Printer's ink is never wasted; it is like "bread cast upon the waters."

The School Board held two meetings last week—Wednesday, at 3 p. m., at the HERALD office, and Thursday night at the residence of J. S. McEwen.

The Band Entertainment.

Consisting of the 3-act comedy-drama, "Little Miss Nobody," was given last Saturday night, at Band hall, to an overflowing house. Even standing-room was occupied and many were turned away.

The Star Comedy Co. sustained its high character as an organization of local talent, while its announcement for this occasion—so long a time intervening since its last performance—was awaited with interest and encouraged by a popular greeting.

The cast of characters was: "Little Miss Nobody," a wife..... Miss Marie Nosler Widow Sheritt..... Miss Clara Gage Uncle Dave, a man of mystery..... Al Hite Jack Mayburn, alias Earl Ramsey..... J. P. Beyers Clint Ford, alias Bill Dinger..... E. A. McEluffee Otto Saitpounerkooker..... Charles Harrington Barney Dooley..... Billy Mansell Perry Periwinkle, colored..... Geo. O. Leach Bob Brennan..... Harry Draper Pietro Masconi..... A. L. Fraser

The two latter are new faces, now at least temporary residents of our place, and have made good impressions. Fraser is immense as a Chinaman, and Draper acted very well. Our old time friends, Geo. Leach, the colored gentleman, Chas. Harrington, in his immitable Dutch, and Billy Mansell, as Barney Dooley, the Irishman, have lost none of their merits as character impersonators; while Jesse Beyers was very good as the villain, Al Hite as Uncle Dave, an old man, and Ethan McDuffee as the villain's helper, wherein his manhood got the mastery at last and made a good ending. Of the ladies we desire to make favorable mention.

Miss Marie Nosler has been a helper with the Star Comedy Co. before, and on this occasion sustained herself admirably as the leading character. Miss Gage, first as a thrice widow and then as wife of her fourth husband and the fifth in view, played her part very well, and the couple were very entertaining.

George Leach's song was first-rate. The orchestra never did better; it was composed of J. M. Whetstone, leader, violin; Miss Birdie Nosler, organist; Ed Root, bass viol; George Leach, solo cornetist; Charley Harrington, solo trombonist.

The entertainment was patronized by all our citizens and proved a decided success.

Joel Patterson, one of our county's best citizens from the lower Coos bay section, was present at the county seat throughout the term of circuit court and served most acceptably in the capacity of bailiff. At the close of the court he greeted personal friends and Saturday departed for home.

Dr. Miles' Nerve A REMEDY FOR THE Effects of Tobacco.

THE excessive use of tobacco, especially by young men is always injurious and undoubtedly shortens life materially. Mr. Ed. C. Eason, compositor on the Contra-Costa News, Martinez, Cal., writes: "I have used Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerve and received much benefit from it. I was troubled with nervousness, dizzy spells and sleeplessness, caused by the use of tobacco and stimulants. I took Dr. Miles' Nerve with marvelous good results, allaying the dizziness, quieting the nerves, and enabling me to sleep and rest, proving in my case a very beneficial remedy."

"Taypayer's" inquiry regarding the salary of the county judge is not replied to yet, except as the HERALD gave the history of the enactment of the law fixing same. It appeared Oct. 4th, and no one can answer it better than Judge Harlocker himself, to whom we still tender space for reply.

F. M. Owen, a young Adventist minister of that locality, and adds that she is very happy. The marriage took place as far back as August 13th. Gable has many friends here who will greet her with well-wishes.

Our young friend Will Cecil son of our Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Cecil, returned a few days since from a residence of several months in Josephine county. The parents were very happy at his coming, but his stay will be short, as he has a mining claim that claims his attention. Last Friday evening many of his young friends convened at the family residence at a party in his honor. A very pleasant evening was passed, and Mr. and Mrs. C. spared no pains to entertain the young folks.

D. D. Campbell sustained a loss of about $100 by fire at Marshfield last Wednesday evening. He uses a small engine and saw on a covered float, which he had moored down at north end of town for cutting wood. The fire is supposed to have caught from fire left in the engine. Henry Sengstacken's warehouse came near being burned too, but heroic efforts prevented the fire from spreading.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Leneve returned yesterday a train from a visit to Portland and the Exposition. Mrs. Grimes, Mrs. Leneve's sister, accompanied from the bay to this place on a visit prior to a trip to San Francisco. Mr. and Mrs. Leneve greatly enjoyed their visit to the fair. They saw a grand display of ordinary things, but they saw also many wonderful and interesting things, novelties, new inventions and the results of great mechanical and scientific discoveries, as well as natural curiosities. They saw some of the Spanish relics of the late war, trial speed, etc., of new torpedo boats, and other sights they might not see again in a generation.
