The surgeons give the commissary the war department. It's a general "give away" all round.

Our English-American alliance is well under way. An English syndicate a few years ago bought up most of our breweries, and now they are about to finish the job, having concluded a deal with the Cincinnati brewers. What else can we do but become the tail to the English kite when all our beer is in their hands? Count us for the English-American alliance.

The g. o. p. bosses of New York state set their heads to nominate Col. Roosevelt for governor (although they didn't like him, because as a member of the interstate railroad commission he was somewhat unruly and would not obey their orders) because they saw no other hope of carrying the state; but now they are sorry that they did it, and are arranging to defeat him, because his election as governor would make him a formidable candidate for the presidency before the next national Republican convention. Old stagers can see to some degree how they are managed —who make and unmake their executive officers and whose interests they are caring for.

The goldbug party is starting newspapers at points in Washington and other states where elections are on and where they have no organ. Even the Republican papers in some localities have stuck to their declared principles of bimetallism and will not be bought or choked off, hence Hanna and his swag come in at this important moment and conspiracies, combines and corporations are downing individual enterprise and independence of thought and action. The issue is on in this state now in the legislature, but the members of that body have plain sailing, for they were elected for that very thing and of course.

The city council held a business meeting Wednesday of last week.
The petition of citizens to improve the city wharf was promptly acted on. Extensive improvements will be begun shortly and the work proceeded to a finish. J. H. Cecil was appointed to procure cedar planks at once, and propositions to drive and cap them were submitted by two or more parties. The lower wharf will be extended to include the water-frontage of the city property (old mill), and upper wharf constructed to extend to the log-bum on the west end of the old mill, and high enough to drive under and handle freight and passengers at the lower wharf. It is much needed.

Those who believe chronic diarrhea to be incurable should read what Mr. P. E. Grisham, of Gaars Mills, La., has to say on the subject, viz: "I have been a sufferer from chronic diarrhoea ever since the war and have tried all kinds of medicines for it. At last I found a remedy that effected a cure and that was Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy." This medicine can always be depended upon for colic, cholera morbus, dysentery and diarrhoea. It is pleasant to take and never fails to effect a cure.

No clew to the mail robbers.

This is no doubt good and encouraging news to the guilty parties.
The system of paying a salary to the sheriff instead of fees is a bad one. The compensation is so small that they cannot afford to trace up criminals, and as long as that system is in practice crimes will be committed without fear of detection. We are not saying a word against our efficient sheriff, but it is the system we are criticizing.
When the robbery took place four years ago Uncle Sam refused to compensate the officers who endeavored to detect the guilty parties, hence people are not ambitious to expend money that no one appreciates.

Mr. Dodge, the historian, re-to see that a great change for the better has taken place, and it is believed that she will recover entirely. We learn that the change has already proven beneficial. Mrs.

D. Roberts has taken charge of the unfortunate lady's case.

The Pioneer History.

Orvil Dodge, historian and compiler of the Pioneer History of Coos and Curry Counties, has just received the first edition of the work from the publishers and his agents are delivering to the subscribers as rapidly as possible. The work was undertaken and authorized by the Pioneer and Historical Society of Coos County, Mr. Dodge being appointed or elected historian and compiler at the annual meeting of the society a little more than two years ago. The object of the work is to bring together and perpetuate the early history of Coos and Curry counties, together with a sketch of the lives and arduous labors of the sturdy and brave old pioneers through whose heroic sacrifices, energy and daring made it possible to inhabit and develop the wonderful resources of the country, and establish homes in which today is found comfort, health and happiness.

The book is six by nine inches, and is handsomely bound in blue silk cloth. It contains 600 pages of thrilling narratives as told by the old pioneers themselves, besides a great deal of important historical matter pertaining to the early settlement and development of the two counties. It contains many fine half-tone views and pictures of the old pioneers and their families, and is a most interesting and credible little volume, worthy of a place in every home in Coos and Curry counties. Considering the extent of the work and the many difficulties encountered in collecting the data, statistics and historical matter for its compilation, comparatively few errors occur. The work reflects great credit upon the author, Mr. Dodge, who has been most diligent and painstaking in his efforts to produce a strictly authentic, reliable and interesting pioneer history, in which he has succeeded admirably well.—Myrtle Point Enterprise.

INTERESTING LETTER FROM HONOLULU.

One of Our Coos County Soldier Boys Writes of Matters and Things There.

HONOLULU, Oct. 8, 1898.

FRIEND HERALD: This is the finest climate in the world, and the engineers (how that they have recovered from the first effects) are enjoying it to the fullest extent. Money is scarce in camp, as we have not been paid since leaving San Francisco; still, with the pleasant days and fine moonlight nights (the average temperature night and day being about 74 deg.) with the finest park in the country right at our front door, so to speak, and with Sunday and evening music by the band, and the famous Waiiki beach for a bathing place, and pleasant and healthful location for camping grounds, most of us still think life worth living. But you must not think it is all play with us, for there is work, and plenty of it, to do. Daily drills and other duties, digging ditches for drainage, putting up necessary buildings for the comfort and health of the troops stationed here, all help to fill in the time. Our coming here no doubt prevented serious complications with Japan a few days after landing a Japanese side the harbor. Since then it has transpired that they were under orders to take possession, but seeing the American flag, the N. Y. regiment, together with the engineers and the "Philadelphia," their scheme was abandoned and they went away as mysteriously as they came. Had the troops been delayed two weeks annexation would not have been so easy. I make this statement on good authority.

I have mentioned the climate, with the parks, drives, beach, etc., which are all very nice and enjoyable for those who have means and time to enjoy them, but some people have to work for a living even here. Labor is cheap (imported Japanese and Chinese) and living is high. The soil, with the exception of the small valleys and the island of Kauai, is poor. That makes it rather hard work for small farmers to make a living. Tradesmen get good wages, but there are plenty of them here, so the chance of getting work is poor. A man with some money to invest in business or lots would come out all right, for there is no doubt of a boom within a year or two, and some will make by it.
But in every individual case of a man coming here it must be remembered that this is not a new country.

Frank Batter, Wikander, Willson and Anderson, all from Coos county, are in good health and spirits.

Yours truly,
S. F. SHERARD,
Co. M., 2d U. S. V. E.

Graham Alleges Fraud in His Answer to the Suit of the Spreckleses.

San Francisco, Oct. 18.—R. A.
Graham has filed a vigorous answer to the suit commenced against him some time ago by the J. D. Spreckels & Brothers Company. Graham borrowed $523,162 from the Spreckeles, executing a promissory note therefor bearing the date of November 1, 1897. Foreclosure on the mortgage was attempted on allegation being made that Graham had defaulted in the payment of interest for April and May last, the sum amounting to $5231. In his answer, Graham admits the execution of the note, but denies that he has defaulted in payment of the interest. He asserts that payment was tendered the corporation, but the offer was refused. Graham further denies the authority of the plaintiff to bring suit. He makes claim that the mortgage security lies with California courts. The most sensational part of Graham's answer is in the nature of a cross-complaint, alleging that he is the victim of fraud. Therefore he asks for judgment against the Spreckeles for $750,000 damages. He demands also the return of shares of stock of the Beaver Hill Coal Company and a policy of insurance that the company holds as security.
In the event that delivery cannot be made, Graham asks that the notes against him then be declared void.

REPUBLICAN COMMITTEEMEN ENDORSE SIMON.

After the election of Hon. Joseph Simon to the United States senate, the Oregonian addressed letters to every member of the Republican state central committee of Oregon, asking these questions:
"What is your opinion of the election of Mr. Simon to the senate?
What effect will Mr. Simon's election have upon the future in this state?" Telegraphic inquiry was sent to committeemen living in distant counties. C. W. Olive, chairman for Coos, replies thus:

"Marshfield, Oct. 10.—To your inquiry as to the effect of the election of Joseph Simon as United States senator from Oregon on the Republican party of this county, I have the honor to reply: The election of Mr. Simon as United States senator from Oregon is highly satisfactory to the Republican party of this county, and will unite and strengthen the party in this county.

Breaks Down the Health of an

What a Few Bottles of Hood's

"Our home is in Clark county, Wash-asthma when only two years old, and grew worse until he was five, when the physician advised us to take him to a dry climate. I resolved to go to the great wheat fields of Eastern Oregon and work in harvest, but I soon found my own health was failing. I could neither eat nor drink without getting sick. I was blind and dizzy. I procured a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla and began taking it, and in a few weeks I was well and able to work every day. My little boy is now taking Hood's Sarsaparilla with good results." D. PATTEE, Wasco, Oregon.
