"Saved Her Life."

MRS. JOHN WALLET, of Jefferson, Wis., than whom none is more highly esteemed or widely known, writes. "In 1890 I had a severe attack of LaGrippe and at the end of four months, in spite of all physicians, friends and good nursing could do, my lungs heart and nervous system were so completely wrecked, my life was despaired of, my friends giving me up. I could only sleep by the use of opiates. My lungs and heart pained me terribly and my cough was most aggravating. I could not lie in one position but a short time and not on my left side at all. My husband brought me Dr. Miles' Nervine and Heart Cure and I began taking them. When I had taken a half bottle of each I was much better and continuing persistently I took about a dozen bottles and was completely restored to health to the surprise of all."

Dr. Miles' Remedies are sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee, first bottle benefits or money refunded. Book on diseases of the heart and nerves free. Address,

Besides the several charming musical selections, there were a short address or two and several recitations, including one from Mrs. Fitch, the pastor's wife.

Late issues of the Oregonian have given brief write-ups of two or more citizens of Coos county among others from other portions of the state. One was our loved Mrs. E. M. Lockhart, of the bay, the first white woman to Coos county, the sketch of whose life and pioneer experiences we copy in today's HERALD. Another is of our young Bandon attorney friend and member of the legislature, Hon. G. P. Topping. Of course the latter has more of a political phase connected with it.

The O. E. S. Entertainment.

Given at Masonic hall last Saturday night—notwithstanding the inclement and threatening weather—proved very successful. A very pleasing program was given, though illness prevented several from taking part who were on the list. The program consisted of the following:

Song, Hunters, Chorus.....quartet
Remarks.....Hon. W. Sinclair
Flag Drill.....16 young ladies
Solo, "Away Down in Maine".....Esther Johnson
Recitation, "The Painter of Seville".....Mrs. Dr. Moore
Song, "The Song that was Sung by the Mill"—duet, quartet and obligato solo.

TABLEAUX.

1—Liberty.
2—The Bachelor's Reverie (two scenes)
3—{ Farewell to Home. / In Sight of Home.

At the conclusion of the program, a social time was announced, in which all could join in plays, games, or conversation, to their liking.

The flag drill was very pleasing and beautiful, absorbing earnest attention from all for nearly 20 minutes. There were many evolutions and each was executed with precision and attractively. The young ladies were handsomely robed, looked charmingly, and the beautiful groupings of "Old Glory" made an attractive feature of the entertainment. The songs were new and well executed. Mrs. Moore's recitation was fine and well given. Little Miss Johnson's song was comical and cute. The several tableaux were pretty and well given. Miss Birdie Nosler was organist, giving the march for the flag drill and the instrumental accompaniments for the songs in her usually acceptable manner.

The HERALD today publishes a chapter from a series of editorial correspondence entitled "The Oregon Coast Trail," from the Northwest Pacific Farmer at Portland, the present one relating to the partial write-up of the visit to Coos county.

Sudden Death at Riverton.

F. M. Jackson, an Oregon Pioneer living at Riverton, died Monday of last week very suddenly, and the funeral was held at this place at noon Tuesday, after brief services at the Christian church conducted by Rev. C. A. Stine. Deceased was born in Iowa, Oct. 25, 1837; came to Oregon in 1853. He married Miss Lucy Goodman (sister of our townsman, Matt Goodman, and late townsman, J. P. Goodman) in California, March 4, 1869. Of 10 children born to Mr. and Mrs. Jackson, only four survive, who, with the widowed mother, mourn the grievous loss to them of a loving, faithful, Christian husband and father. Mr. Jackson had been long a member of the Baptist church, to which faith he held earnestly to the day of his death. Deceased was working in one of the mines at Riverton, and up to 1 o'clock on Monday was in apparently good health, enjoyed his dinner and was in extra good humor and spirits. He returned to his work at the mine, and about half an hour later fell and expired within a few minutes. It was heart trouble that caused his death. A large number of friends and neighbors of the deceased at Riverton accompanied the remains to this place, with all of whom he stood high as a citizen and neighbor.
