District court opened at Roseburg yesterday—Judge J. M. Hamilton presiding.

Commissioner I. T. Weekly came down from Gravel Ford last Wednesday evening on a call for county business.

"Mack" Anderson, a former towns-boy, was up from Prosper last Friday on a visit of a day or two to relatives and friends, chiefly his sister, Miss Viggie. Mack looks well, and we learn is doing well.

W. F. Fisher and family passed through town last Wednesday on their way to the bay, thence per steamer to San Francisco. Mr. D. has not fully made up his mind where he will locate, and expects to visit several sections of that state before driving stakes for residence.

The Herald Land & Loan Co. has made several transfers of properties lately and has therefore changed its ad. materially by removing some of the offers and placing several new ones before the public. If you want to buy or sell property to the best advantage, give us a call.

H. P. Thrall, superintendent of mail service, in a recent letter says: "It is my intention within a few days to send a representative from this office over the entire route from Roseburg to Marshfield, Empire City and Coquille, for personal inspection and such action as we hope will improve the service thereon."

Pains in the chest when a person has a cold indicate a tendency toward pneumonia. A piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound on to the chest over the seat of pain will promptly relieve the pain and prevent the threatened attack of pneumonia. This same treatment will cure a lame back in a few hours. Sold by R. S. Knowlton.

The Port Orford Tribune's correspondent at Christmas Home says: B. J. Harrison, of Coquille, is now on the Middle Fork of Sixes, and will put in the winter mowing.

Messrs. Upton and McGrath, the gentlemen who have the Divilbiss quartz mine on Poverty Gulch bonded, are now on the premises with a crew of men sawing lumber and working the mine.

Mr. Hardin Norris, clerk of the drug store of R. Shoemaker, Perry, Ill., says: "A man came into our store the other day and said, 'I want a bottle of that stuff that saves children's lives. I read in the News about it. The children may get sick when we can not get a doctor quick enough. It's the medicine you sell for croup.'" He alluded to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and bought a bottle before he left the store. For sale by R. S. Knowlton.

Bro. T. J. Perkins, our lower-river nurseryman and all-round good citizen, came into Coquille last Thursday from a business trip of delivering orders on the North Fork and at Myrtle Point. Mr. Perkins has been much encouraged, having had a good patronage this year and many old ones adding words of high praise on receipt of their orders. He says his nursery has been so heavily drawn upon this season that it looks as if hogs had gone through it. We are glad of his success, for he is a practical, studious and conscientious man, and deserves the reward.

The Herald clubbing offers are becoming quite popular, several of our prominent citizens taking advantage of the Cosmopolitan, New York World and St. Louis Republic offers specially, while our farmers, dairymen, etc., have become warm friends to the Rural North-west, N. W. Pacific Farmer and other agricultural publications from former acquaintanceship through our clubbing offers; then last week we introduced the "latest news" racket, that of supplying the Daily Evening Telegram (of Portland), an 8 to 12 page newspaper giving the world's and state telegraphic news to our people 24 to 36 hours earlier than any other paper can give it, and at a lower rate than ever afforded our citizens before. The two papers, Evening Telegram and Herald, for only 40 cents per month; $2.10 for 6 months; $4.15 for 1 year. Will have the legislative proceedings in it and all the doings at Salem as well as the state news. See clubbing offers, elsewhere in today's Herald.

Coos Bay News: Miss Mand Miller, who was on the bay last summer, visiting relatives, had a room at the Baldwin hotel, San Francisco, but was not occupying it at the time of the fire. Miss Miller is playing at the Morosco's opera house, and according to the Call, she went to the hotel after the play, but had a premonition of impending disaster, and left the hotel, staying over night at the residence of a lady friend. Her clothes and some valuables, however, were at the hotel, and were consumed in the big blaze.

Deafness Cannot be Cured.

Timbers for the new south-end Hall street bridge, recently granted by the city board, are being received on the site of the structure at Jacobson's furniture store and near the Tattle House.

Sprains and Bruises

It costs little to cure them right away with St. Jacobs Oil. It saves time, money, misery.

Both legs were broken. Presiding Elder Ford, of Eugene District, Badly Injured.

Eugene, Nov. 26.—Rev. T. B. Ford, presiding elder of the Eugene district of the M. E. church, and a trustee of Willamette university, was badly injured in a runaway accident last evening. Both legs were broken. His boys hitched up the family horse in the evening and drove out of town a short distance after milk. The horse became frightened and ran away a short distance, when it was caught. The boys were afraid to drive home, and so unhitched the horse and led it. On arriving home Mr. Ford told them it was a bad policy to give up to the horse, and went back to the buggy and hitched up again, and got in and started home, but the horse soon became unmanageable and ran away. Mr. Ford was thrown out, suffering a compound fracture of both legs. The right leg was broken just above the ankle, and one large bone protruded through the flesh and down over the shoe. The left leg was broken about four inches below the knee, and the bones were splintered into a dozen or more pieces, and several of them protruding through the flesh. The attending surgeon says it is more than likely that the right leg will have to be amputated, but he has hopes of being able to save the other. Mr. Ford will be confined to his bed for at least three months.

Cosos Bay News. A number of the boys intend leaving this week for San Pedro, Cal., where they have been promised employment on the government works.

Following are the officers of the militia company, lately organized in Marshfield: H. L. Burleson, captain; C. A. Albrecht, 1st lieutenant; M. C. Maguire, 2d lieutenant.

The bar has been rough for several days. On Monday, when the Empire crossed in, it was breaking badly, and though the steamer was flying light, she took some water on deck.

George Quigley, formerly of Newport, returned last week from Nevada City, Cal. George thinks Coos Bay is good enough for him, and he will probably spend the balance of his days among his old acquaintances.

The number of pupils enrolled at the Marshfield public school last week was 300, which includes 24 pay scholars.

The mail continues to arrive on excellent time; in fact we never had as good mail service in the winter time as we enjoy at present.

At a meeting of the Coos Bay Camp, No. 196, W. O. W., held on Saturday night, the following officers were elected: A. Abbott, C. C.; C. L. Bonebrake, Adv. L.; W. U. Douglas, banker; Israel Lando, clerk; Chas. Cavanaugh, escort; W. E. Richards, watchman; Frank Saeche, sentry; J. H. Milner, manager.

Great schools of pilchards have been in the bay for months past and they seemed to thrive and get fat until the freshest of last week filled the bay with muddy water. This did not agree with these salt water fish and consequently they died by the thousands, the mudflats at certain points being covered with them. Seagulls and other fish-eating birds have been having a thanksgiving feast ever since the freshest.

Carl Palmer, the little grandson of Mrs. Calvin Palmer, had a narrow escape from drowning Sunday afternoon. He was riding a slab in the slough back of the steam launch and fell in. It was high tide, and the water was about eight feet deep in the slough at the time. Dr. McCormac heard his cries for assistance, and quickly repaired to the scene. He divested himself of his coat and vest, preparatory to plunging in, but Carl managed to get close to shore by this time, and he was lifted out, completely exhausted.

The will of George A. Ward, of Abingdon, Ill., contained a bequest of his false teeth to the Congressional church. The church, with rare good sense, accepted the legacy and sold the teeth for $27.
