Old Glory Everywhere.

Havana, Jan. 2.—It developed today that the company of the Indiana regiment which waved the Cuban flag during the parade yesterday was not arrested, as cabled last night. Investigation showed that the flags were distributed to them by Cubans in the crowd, and the act of waving them was thoughtless and not prearranged.

Twenty-five Cuban horsemen, well mounted and armed, joined the column at Prado, rode to Central Park and debouched into a side street. They aroused considerable enthusiasm.

Three bluejackets from the Texas, at about 12:30 yesterday, rowed to the wreck of the Maine and hoisted a large Stars and Stripes to the peak of the wreck. The flag was saluted by the shipping in the harbor.

An immense American flag was also hoisted on top of a 200-foot spar at the naval dock where it could be seen for miles around.

Aguinaldo's Flag is Floating Over Iloilo.

Washington, Dec. 28.—Iloilo, one of the most important seaports of the Philippine islands, has fallen into the hands of the insurgents. The Spaniards have fled.

Just before noon a cablegram was received from Otis which confirmed the fears of the officials as to happenings at Iloilo. Otis stated that the American expedition reached that place too late, the insurgents having taken possession of the city on the 26th, thirty-nine hours prior to Capt. Potter's arrival. Aguinaldo's flag floats over the city.

It is presumed Otis will demand the surrender of Iloilo into his hands and this demand may at once raise the issue between the insurgents and our own government of the possession of the islands.

The province of Iloilo is set down in official directories as having a population of 472,000, and is the second seaport city in importance in the Philippine group.

An Indian Massacre Threatened in Alaska.

Tacoma, Wash., Jan. 3.—Passengers who left Dawson as late as December 3d, report that the Chilcat Indians are terrorizing the white inhabitants at Pyramid harbor, near Skagway, and have threatened to massacre them.

The night before Christmas whites appeared at the Chilcat village with a big supply of whisky, which was sold to the Indians without reserve. The entire tribe got drunk Christmas, and with knives and guns compelled all the whites in that locality to leave. When the Al-ki left Skagway no blood had been shed, but trouble was imminent.

Public Whipping—Five Evansville, Indiana, Boys Flogged.

Evansville, Ind., Jan. 3.—Five boys, ranging in age from 10 to 12 years, were given a public whipping in the police court today for stealing. Their parents were given the option of whipping the boys or having them sent to the reform school. The boys were given 25 lashes each by a turnkey.

A Schooner Abandoned Off the Columbia.

Astoria, Or., Jan. 3.—The British bark Galgate, Captain Griffith, arrived in today, having on board Captain O. Erickson and fourteen of the shipwrecked crew of the steam schooner Protection, which foundered thirty miles off the mouth of the Columbia at 4 o'clock on the morning of January 1st.

Quay Nominated.

Harrisburg, Pa., Jan. 3.—In the Republican caucus for the United States senator tonight Senator Quay received the votes of 109 of the 164 Republicans of the legislature. One hundred and twenty-eight is a majority of the entire legislature, and the anti-Quay men claim he cannot be elected.

Washington, Jan. 3.—Justice Peckham today handed down the opinion of the United States supreme court, which holds the Buffalo Natural Gas & Fuel Co. has a right to import gas from Canada, by means of pipes under the Niagara river free of duty.

PEACE TREATY IN THE SENATE.

Received and Sent to the Foreign Relations Committee—Brief Accompanying Message.

Washington, Jan. 4.—When the senate went into executive session today the peace treaty, which had just been received from the president, was laid before the senate by senator Frye, who occupied the chair in the absence of the vice-president. The treaty was not read, but the president's message, accompanying it, was. This was a simple letter of transmittal, without any word of recommendation or suggestion, and was only a few lines in length.

On motion of Senator Davis, the treaty was referred to the committee on foreign relations and ordered printed for the use of the senate. No order was made looking to making the treaty public, but it is understood that this will be done after the treaty is passed upon by the committee.

Davis entered a motion to make the treaty and proceedings of the commission public, but upon suggestion of Allison, he withdrew the motion for the purpose of allowing the committee to act on it.

A meeting of the committee on foreign relations has been called for Friday, and it is probable the committee will then bring in a resolution for publication of both treaty and proceedings.

Late Literary News.

To have the men who have demonstrated their organizing ability by great business success tell their secrets of organization, is the object of the editor of The Cosmopolitan. That he is succeeding, is proved in the January issue by the article from Charles R. Flint, who is regarded in New York as one of the three or four ablest organizers in America. He is president of the Rubber Trust and the head of the great mercantile house of Flint, Eddy & Co., which has its ramifications in almost every part of the world. Mr. Flint tells very openly what makes for success in the organization of business. His article may be read with interest by the Rockefellers, the Armours, and the Wanamakers as well as by the humblest clerk seeking to fathom the secret of business success.

In the same line is an article, also in the January Cosmopolitan, telling how Mr. Platt organized and conducted the campaign for the election of Roosevelt. It is by a gentleman who was actively engaged at the Republican headquarters during the campaign, and who gives a vivid picture of the perfection to which political organization has been carried in New York state by the most astute of managers. The wary old senator who has been a lifetime in politics and the youngest political aspirant will alike find food for reflection in Mr. Blythe's article.

Forestry Exhibit Open.

The department of forestry, which has been added to the Portland museum through the exertions of L. L. Hawkins and T. Brooke White, was formally presented to Hon. W. S. Mason, on behalf of the city, Monday afternoon, 2d inst.

Mr. Hawkins stated that the collection had been made possible through the co-operation of a number of individuals and firms, including, especially, the exposition committee of 1898, who had contributed the specimens exhibited at the recent exposition; A. J. Johnson, of Astoria, who had made the collection for the exposition, and had contributed valuable specimens of his own: Martin W. Gorman, who had scientifically classified and named the specimens and besides many throughout the state, including our own W. T Rennie, of Empire City, and Captain Rosa, Bandon, Or.

The announcement is made at Washington on the highest authority that Hon. Joseph H. Choate, of New York, would be nominated ambassador of Great Britain. The nomination will not be sent to the senate for a few days, but those near the president say the delay does not indicate any possibility of a change of plans.

EDUCATORS FINALLY ADJOURNED.

Resolutions Expressing Dissatisfaction With Kuykendall Law.

Before adjournment yesterday the school superintendents approved the main features of the Daly school bill. Only fitful flashes of the storm were to be seen.

The state-paper clause of the Daly bill was preferred by the normal-school people, but the college people were not satisfied, as their graduates, they thought, ought to be entitled to enter examinations for state papers at once, though not for county papers. The vote, however, was in favor of the proposed law.

The following resolutions were adopted:

"Be it resolved, by the department of superintendence of the Oregon State Teachers' Association, in regular session assembled:

"First, That we condemn that portion of the Kuykendall school law (senate bill No. 68, passed by the special session of the legislature), which, in the country districts, takes from parents having children to educate, the right to vote on the questions of building schoolhouses, borrowing money, levying school taxes and petitioning for the division or consolidation of school districts; that we regard such portion of the act as injurious to the educational interests of the state, and as not justified by public needs or public sentiment; that we request the regular session of the legislature to repeal promptly such portion of the act, and to attach the emergency clause to such repeal.

"Second—That the qualifications for voters at all school elections and meetings should be uniform in all districts in the state having less than 4000 population (those districts having three directers), and should include householders (fathers and widows) having children of school age in the district, and taxpayers, male and female."—Evening Telegram.

La Grippe Successfully Treated.

"I have just recovered from the second attack of la grippe this year," says Mr. Jas. A. Jones, publisher of the Leader, Mexia, Texas. "In the latter case I used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and I think with considerable success, only being in bed a little over two days against ten days for the former attack. The second attack I am satisfied would have been equally as bad as the first but for the use of this remedy, as I had to go to bed in about six hours after being 'struck' with it, while in the first case I was to attend to business about two days before getting 'down.'" A Convict's Suicide.

St. Louis Jan. 3.—David Shea, an ex-convict, deliberately committed suicide in a rooming house by shooting himself through the head.

In a pathetic letter left by Shea to the editor of the Post-Dispatch he says he was driven to death by a private detective agency as a result of being hounded by the agency.

Shea claims he was unable to obtain work to sustain himself honestly by reason of the alleged detectives and he decided to die.

Lazarus and the Rich Man.

"You see, it was dis way," said the old darkey preacher, giving his version of the parable of Lazarus and the rich man. "Dar wuz a rich man named Degrees, en likewise a po' man named Lathurus. Well, Lathurus come 'long 'bout Chris'mas, and bein' all stove up wid de rheumatiz en threaten' wid de smallpox, he set down fer ter res' hisself 'long side der rich man's gate; en' Lathurus bein' hungry, holler out: 'Chris'mus gif!' En de debil answer: 'My son, you's in de fire department, which you jined last night.' Den the rich man say: 'I wish you, please suh, tell Kunnell Latherus to turn on the hose on me, kase dis heh's the hot stuff?' But de debil make answer: 'Yo' fr'en Christmas with Mister Abraham; en he done sent word that he ain't got time to fool wid you. You's my meat now, en I gwine ter bri'le yer till yer plumb brown!'"

Father of Masonry.

An Illinois boy was asked to write an essay on Masonry, and here is what he wrote: "King Solomon was a man who lived so many years in the country that he was the whole push. He was an awful wise man, and one day two women came to him, each holding to the leg of a baby and nearly pulling it in two, and each claiming it. And King Solomon wasn't feeling right good, and he said: 'Why couldn't the brat have been twins and stop this bother?' And then he called for his machete and was going to Weylerize the poor, innocent little baby, and give each woman a piece of it, when the real mother of the baby said, "Stop, Solomon, stay thy hand. Let the old hag have it. If I can't have a whole baby I won't have any.' Then Solomon told her to take the baby and go home and wash its face, for he knew it was hers. He told the other woman to go chase herself. King Solomon built Solomon's temple, and was the father of Masons. He had 700 wives and 300 lady friends, and that's why there are so many Masons in the world. My papa says King Solomon was a warm number, and I think he was hot stuff myself. That is all I know about King Solomon."

Mrs. Hayricks—It says here in the paper, Silas, that this war has served to bring the people of our country closer together. Do you think there's any truth in it? Mr. Hayricks—Yes. When I looked into the parlor last night, Lieutenant Stripling and our Annie was settin' a good deal closer together than I ever seen 'em before he went away.

La Grippe is again epidemic. Every precaution should be taken to avaid it. Its specific cure is One Minute Cough Cure. A. J. Never gets out of order. The Needle is a straight, self-setting needle, flat on one side, and cannot be put in wrong. Needle Bar is round, made of case-hardened steel, with oil cup at the bottom to prevent oil from getting on the goods. Adjustable Bearings—All bearings are case-hardened steel and easily adjusted with a screw driver.
