REPRESENTATIVE TOPPING EXPLAINS

The Criticism of the Portland Evening Telegram on His Appointment of Clerks.

SALEM, Or., Jan. 24, 1899. EDITOR COQUILLE CITY HERALD, COQUILLE, OREGON:

Dear Sir—I see by the HERALD that a clipping from the Telegram regarding my hiring a lady clerk in the place of a gentleman.

The fact is, the gentleman, who is a newspaper reporter from Benton county, persuaded me to help him, if I could.

I consider (and so do members who know both parties) that I done what was right and proper, and an act which I would repeat under similar circumstances, whether I was in the Oregon legislature or at a corn shucking in Missouri.
