

Church Directory.

M. E. church, south-regular services each Sunday morning and evening, by the pastor, E. L. Fricco.

LOCAL ITEMS.

Manager Clark, of the Bandon woolen mills, returned to Bandon last Friday from a business trip to Marshfield.

Benny Lawrence came down town last Thursday, the first after nearly three weeks of a severe spell of quinsy.

Mrs. Hersey desires all persons owing her to call and settle, as she is receiving her spring goods and needs her money.

Leon Paul was in Coquille last Friday. His father and family have located at Spokane, Wash., where Mr. P. is in the real estate business.

T. J. Stitt, late of the Cape Blanco lighthouse and recently sent to Hecla Head, near Siuslaw, has been promoted to first assistant at Cape Flattery and will leave for that place soon.

If you have a cough, throat irritation, weak lungs, pain in the chest, difficult breathing, croup or hoarseness, let us suggest One Minute Cough Cure. Always reliable and safe. R. S. Knowlton.

The act to regulate the barbers' business is now a law, and Gov. Clear has appointed an examining board. Barbers, therefore, like doctors, will have to be of "our school and ethics" to get a license and practice their calling.

Mr. Macy and family moved last week into the second-story rooms in the Coquille Pharmacy building. The property they were occupying was wanted by the owner, and everything else being occupied, temporarily he fixed up these rooms for residence.

Rev. E. Edwards, pastor of the English Baptist Church at Minersville, Pa., when suffering with rheumatism, was advised to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. He says: "A few applications of this liniment proved of great service to me. It subdued the inflammation and relieved the pain. Should any sufferer profit by giving Pain Balm a trial it will please me." For sale by R. S. Knowlton.

Our friend, Martin Johnson, formerly a citizen here, and who established the Coquille Furniture Co.'s business and manufacturing plant, now run by Mr. Jacobson, came in from Spokane, Wash., last Wednesday and may drive stakes in our midst once more. Mr. J. is a good and progressive citizen, and was popular in our community, and will be welcomed back by a host of friends.

Sam McAdams, one of the commissioners of Curry county, and a thrifty blacksmith and wagon-maker at Langlois, has disposed of his business there to O. P. Haugensen and John Jensen, with the intention to move elsewhere. Mr. Mc was a former citizen and mechanic in this community, and he may have an intention to return. We will interview him, or learn his intentions from persons who know, at the earliest opportunity.

As the season of the year when pneumonia, la grippe, sore throat, coughs, colds, catarrh, bronchitis and lung troubles are to be guarded against, nothing "is a fine substitute," will "answer the purpose," or "is just as good" as One Minute Cough Cure. That is the one infallible remedy for all lung, throat or bronchial troubles. Insist vigorously upon having it if "something else" is offered you. R. S. Knowlton.

E. A. Kennedy and wife, elderly persons, came to this section on their way to Bandon, via Astoria and Coos bay, last Friday, to visit their son, Louis Kennedy. These clever people lost much time and were at heavy expense to reach here, not having had proper information as to how to come. They lay two weeks at Astoria awaiting the Alliance, having gone that route from Sacramento, expecting to reach here via Roseburg, then by Drain, neither of which routes were open for travel, thence to Portland and Astoria. Mr. Kennedy was a comrade in the civil war in the 73d Indiana, and is now a resident of Springfield, Mo., from which city he hails. Mrs. K. is in poor health, but it is expected she will receive benefit on this visit to the Pacific coast. Mr. K. is a railroad man of long service, and is well preserved at his age and varied experience.

We have some large farms 1 to 3 miles from town, creameries, and good shipping facilities, which can be had more on account of old age or infirmity of owners, or lack of means, or proper tact for handling; some are under mortgage, and must be sold; some of these can be had low, and would divide into several choice small homes that can be made very profitable in time to people who are able to work, and have means and act to handle them.

If you want a business lot at a reasonable figure the Herald Land Co. can supply you.

If you think of embarking in the grocery or general store business, our Mr. Sanford can give you information where good bargains can be secured in those lines that will no doubt save you money.
