PAY UP and Get a BIG PRIZE. Farm Journal 5 Years.

By special arrangement made with the publishers of the FARM JOURNAL, we are enabled to offer a 5-year subscription to that paper to every new subscriber who pays for the HERALD one year ahead; and the same offer is made to every old subscriber who will pay all back dues and one year in advance—both papers for the price of ours only.

In order to get the FARM JOURNAL as a premium for advance payment it will be necessary to walk right upo the captain's office, for we have only a limited number of 5-year subscriptions to dispose of. The FARM JOURNAL is on solid foundation and perfectly trustworthy.

FREE, TO CASH SUBSCRIBERS.

In order to get our delinquent subscribers to pay up and in advance we will make them a present of a year's subscription to the

NORTHWEST PACIFIC FARMER,

published at Portland, Oregon.

The Farmer is now in its 30th year, and is authority on all subjects pertaining to farm work and conditions of the northwest.

As the regular price of that paper is $1 per year, it is easy to see what a valuable premium we are willing to give to our paid-in-advance subscribers. This applies to all new subscribers, and all who will pay their delinquencies and a year in advance before March 1, 1899.

Etchings from Eckley.

Christmas Home, April 16.—April showers have been the program the past two days.

F. S. Avery is preparing to put in his spring crops. He has J. C. Clark employed to do his plowing—that is, when the weather permits. It has been too wet the past two days. Uncle John Geiger will prepare his ground for seed also, as soon as the weather permits.

The most valuable valentine your correspondent has heard of this year is the one Bob Harrison and his brother Ben received, they having discovered a valuable gold mine on St. Valentine's day. The mine discovered is situated on the divide between the Middle and South Forks of Sixes river and lies just west of the cabin built by the Myrtle Point Mining Company. From one pan of dirt the boys panned out two ounces and a quarter of gold. Filling four sacks with dirt, they carried the same on their backs quite a distance, panned it out, and had just $122.50. Having made a rocker a few days later, they carried down nine sacks of dirt to the water, rocked it out and secured $260, full weight. From the place of discovery they secured $1200 from dirt the writer could have shoveled in in less than a day. The above information your correspondent secured from a party who stated he knew whereof he spoke, and had been on the ground several times. This is, no doubt, the richest find that has been made in this section of the country.

Miss Allie Wasson and her twin brother, Bert, of Salmon mountain, having heard recently that some mountain sheep were seen grazing on the mountain sides, secured their rifles and started in quest of the game. They had not gone far when they espied their game quietly grazing and unsuspecting of danger. Miss Allie fired first, bringing down the largest of the flock. Herbert then fired, laying low another. Dressing their game, being a man, Herbert offered to carry the heaviest, but Miss Allie would not have it that way, and shouldering the sheep, she marched triumphantly home with it. And, ye Coquille bachelors, this young lady is an expert in the culinary art, so spruce up and do your best to secure this young lady for a prize.

George Syphers arrived at Mr. Avery's Sunday with a 4-horse team, having between two and three hundred feet of piping for the Sixes River Coal Mine, and to deliver a wagon that he had traded to Mr. Avery for three cows.

W. J. Foster, who has been working for Jack Franz on Johnson creek, arrived at Mr. Avery's, where he will tarry for a day or two before returning to his place of employment. Will reports that Jack has not accomplished much this winter so far on account of the scarcity of water.

Will and Gus Foster, stepsons of Mr. Wasson of Salmon mountain, were visiting at the coal mine Saturday and Sunday. The boys report that affairs are progressing very favorably at the mine.

Here is an extract from a letter written by a girl in Flagstaff, Arizona: "Dearest Sallie—We is all well, Ma's got the his Terrik; Bro. bill the hupin Kaugh and Sister Ann a Babee and hope this vill find you the same, Rite sune."

A Youthful Suicide.

Last Thursday near noon word came to town from Sumner that our young friend Creed Beyers had shot himself, with suicidal intent, about 8 o'clock a. m., from which he died near 11 o'clock a. m. the same day. The young man left the family in the dining room and entered his mother's room, where he picked up a bull-dog revolver that was kept there, placed it near the right temple and fired. The report was heard by the family, but no apprehension of a serious character at first seemed to impress them, when the younger sister, Millie, curiously entered the room and discovered the body prostrate. Of course a physician was promptly dispatched for, and Mr. Beyers hitched up and drove to this place as fast as possible for Mrs. Boutell (his daughter, and sister of the young man) and to procure what was necessary in the case. The ball entered just above the right ear, ranging slightly downward and lodging in the base of the brain. Creed had been despondent for some time, having suffered many months from an injured limb and not being in the best of health. At times he became melancholy, and had spoken to his father and sister Alice on one or more occasions of a belief that he was losing his mind. They chided him for it, and endeavored to encourage him that all was right and would be well with him, but he still grew gloomy and morose, till the fatal hour arrived and he could stand it no longer.

Creed Beyers was born at Tuscarora, Nevada, January 21, 1879, and was therefore at the time of this sad event 20 years, 2 months and 23 days old. He came with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Beyers, and older members of the family, to Oregon in 1883, and had resided at Sumner most of that time, having grown up there amid the surroundings of prosperity, good neighbors, prosperous farm home and popularity with his associates. Except that the act was perpetrated under temporary mental aberration, it will be hard to account for the poor boy's sad deed.

The family, of course, are heartbroken over this sad visitation, and have the sincere sympathy of a wide circle of neighbors and friends in their great affliction.

Rev. C. A. Stine of this city officiated at the burial, which took place near the home of Mr. Beyers and near Sumner last Friday afternoon.

The jury found that deceased came to his death by a gunshot wound "inflicted by his own hands during a fit of melancholy.

Fortuna (Cal.) Advance: M. O. Buzan, one of the lost on the steamer Chilkat, had been a resident of Fortuna for the past two or three years, coming from Coquille City, Oregon, and had taken the steamer to go to Mendocino county to join his brother-in-law, Mr. Godfrey, the acrobat and tightrope walker, in the capacity of of musician. Mr. Buzan was well known in baseball circles, having been the pitcher of the Rohnerville and Fortuna boys the past two seasons. A father, mother, and two brothers residing in and near Fortuna survive the deceased, who have the sympathy of this community in their bereavement.

Policies written by the Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Co. excel in every feature that make insurance profitable and liberal. No one can afford to be without an Accident policy at this time of accidents and sickness. Give your application now for either a LIFE, ENDOWMENT or ACCIDENT policy to Rev. J. L. Futrell, or make application at the HERALD office.

Don't favor a policy for your municipal government and then vote for a man who is opposed to it. You have strifes and bickerings enough, without breeding more and keeping alive the old ones.

Bolts Wanted—Ash, Maple and Cedar. Call at the Coquille Handle Mill and make contract.

4w] A. C. CURTIS, Agent.

C. W. White left yesterday for Weaverville, Cal. He will put in the summer there, and may locate permanently.

You can buy pure unwatered milk at Notley's milk shed morning and evening for 10 cents per gallon, cash.

Severe nervous spells, bearing down pains, loss of appetite. Hudyan cures. All druggists, 50 cents.

C. M. Skeels is moved into the Smith property, adjoining the Methodist church, temporarily.

Mrs. L. H. Hazard returned home from the bay yesterday after a visit.

UPPER-RIVER DEPARTMENT.

Myrtle Point and the Upper-Coquille and What is Going on There.

Frank Wyland and Horace Berry have leased Uncle John Berry's farm, a couple of miles above town, for a term of five years. They will engage in the dairy business.

Capt. W. E. Rackleff intended to start up his sawmill again.

Capt. C. T. Riley, the poultry man, says nothing equals a hen farm in Coos county—not even a gold mine on the Klondike.

Trout fishing is now the popular pastime. Many fine strings are brought into town each day. Among the most successful lately were Dickie and Katie Roberds and Daisy Giles, who captured 19 fine trout each, and say that they did not get them all then.

G. M. Short, of Marshfield, has been spending some time in town. We are informed that he contemplates engaging in business in this place in the near future.

Charlie Dodge now has his prairie schooner dressed in new clothes, and expects to start on his way to "God's country," having shaken the soil of old Coos from his feet. Well, Charlie, may the angels watch over you in your wanderings, for well we know you will return, as that fabled land is nowhere else but here.

Dickie R. is said to be the kindest hearted lad in town. He would not hunt a snake—no, not even a little one.

Mrs. D. Giles is expecting to receive a fine lot of new goods in a few days.

W. S. Vanderburg, of Marshfield, has been in town.

W. H. Erdice, the creamery man, has enlarged his plant considerably this season, the building expanding both ways. A new boiler, engine and other machinery is being put in place. He expects to start up promptly and will doubtless handle a large amount of milk this season, making both butter and cheese.

The farmers are now all busy, doing their spring seeding, which in this country always means a bountiful harvest. No such thing as a crop failure was ever recorded against old Coos.

"Learning to plow ain't what it is cracked up to be," so said I. E. Rose, after an experience related to us, about as follows: "Mrs. Rose was steadying the plow, while Innis, astride of the faithful old horse, gently applied a large pair of spurs that hung to his heels. As he was going around the garden plat, all went well until the plow struck a root and brought things to a stand-still." Innis, picking himself up off the fresh plowed ground, made use of the above language with a few adjectives thrown in carelessly.

Dr. Carter, the best dentist on earth, spent a week at the Guerin Hotel. He is "deadshot" on toothache.

The Whittington Bro's will conduct a general creamery business on their farm on the South Fork this season.

J. H. Leek and Miss Bertha Roberts were married at the home of the bride in this city on Tuesday evening of last week and on Wednesday started for Montana, where they will make their future home. This department joins their many friends in wishing them many years of unmarred happiness.

Mrs. F. G. Dixon is expected home in about two weeks, business matters calling her from the sunny south.

S. E. Johnson shipped a carload of beef to Marshfield by a late train.

Victor Halter has begun work on a tile ditch for Uncle Jerry Haynes, just above town. The ditch will be about 80 rods long and laid with 6 inch tiling to drain a pond on his premises. If a few thousand such ditches were scattered over our valley, it would make a vast improvement in our country.

We surely feel thankful for the suggestion that we secure some of Dr. Roberson's "Hair Renewer." We certainly will do so, and at the same time we will get some for the main office. However it certainly is a great discovery.

T. I. Green, of Deer Park, a few days ago bade his friends adieu and started for a visit among old friends in California.

"Every Well Man Hath His Ill Day."

A doctor's examination might show that kidneys, liver and stomach are normal, but the doctor cannot analyze the blood upon which these organs depend.

Hood's Sarsaparilla purifies, vitalizes and enriches the blood. It cures you when "a bit off" or when seriously afflicted. It never disappoints.

Dyspepsia—"My husband had dyspepsia and Hood's Sarsaparilla cured him. Our little boy was nervous and the baby had ulcerous sores. It cured both." MRS. EMMA BEBE, Portage, Pa.

Indigestion—"I could not eat for some months on account of distress and indigestion. Hood's Sarsaparilla cured me so that I can eat and sleep well." MRS. G. A. GUNTZ, Taylor and Walnut Sts., Wilmington, Del.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Never Disappoints

Hood's Pills cure liver ills; the non-irritating and only cathartic to take with Hood's Sarsaparilla.

The great suit of J. D. Spreckels Bro's against R. A. Graham, on a promissory note for the sum of $523,162.50, dated November, 1897, and for interest from April 1, 1898, at the rate of 6 per cent per annum, which it is alleged is defaulted, was before Judge Bahrs at San Francisco the past week. There is a strong array of legal talent on both sides present, as also witnesses galore. Hugh McLain and several Beaver Hill employes of Graham's went down as witnesses for Graham on steamer Blanchard last week, the case having been continued over from last Thursday till today to await their presence. Graham has also a cross-suit in the court, for $750,000 for breach of contract and exemplary damages.

We regret that the Capital Journal misinterpreted our "X-Rays," which was intended to set things straight regarding Coquille City's healthfulness and get the advantage of doing so through the widely circulated Capital Journal. Even the Oregonian, which did publish the slander, was not blamed in that article, but only the mean, malicious spirit that furnished it. The Oregonian was also requested to publish "X-Rays'" able statement of the facts. The Roseburg Review made a few lines of favorable comment, and did not regard the article as attacking it.

The latest cablegram from the island of Beaver Hill is to the effect that she wants to be annexed to Coos county for judicial and protective purposes, and has selected an organ at this capital city to represent the wishes of her citizens of Anglo-African scent. Another election is coming on, see!

Coos Bay News.

The Bay City mill started Monday to saw a raft of logs for R. A. Graham.

The four-masted schooner Manila was towed to sea Wednesday. She was able to get only a little over half a cargo (about 600,000 feet of lumber) and was drawing 15 feet.

J. B. Hutchins, deputy fish commissioner, was in town yesterday, on his way home to Gardiner, from a visit to Rogue river. We learn from him that a hatchery is to be established either on the Coquille or Coos river, and that a selection would soon be made.

We notice a U. S. marshal's sale in the last copy of the Siuslaw West, concerning the steamer Ralph, with the U. S. as libeliant. The boat is to be sold on the 25th at Gardiner. A few months ago the Ralph was taken from the Coquille to the Umpqua, to run on an opposition route, and the little boat has been in trouble ever since.

Grundy Short and J. C. Roberts, well known and prominent young men of Myrtle Point, have bought out the Enterprise at that place and will run it in the interest of their town and section.

Bids will be received at the county clerk's office for fencing the courthouse block, etc. See ad. in today's HERALD—the only paper in the county which gives all the important county news.
