

Church Directory.

M. E. church, south-regular services each Sunday morning and evening, by the pastor, E. L. FROST.

LOCAL ITEMS.

The Farm Journal for 5 years and the Herald at the price of one year's subscription to the Herald.

Rev. M. C. Miller and Prof. J. A. Easton of Dora, representatives at the Y. P. S. C. W. convention, dropped into the Herald sanctum a brief spell.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Rowan were down from their Fishtrap home shopping last Thursday. They report the general health of their people good.

Clarence Edmunds, an employe in the finishing department of the Bandon woolen mill, was a delegate to the Y. P. S. C. W. convention and made a pleasant call at the Herald office. Mr. E. was elected president for the next term.

The McDuffe Brothers, Bert and Ethan, are doing the painting at the new Alexson block, closely following the carpenters so that the building will be finished and ready for occupancy as soon as the last nail is driven.

Mrs. D. F. Dean will take orders for enlarged photographs, as agent for Mrs. Ed Sherwood, of Myrtle Point. Mrs. Sherwood's work is very fine, and being a home enterprise deserves your patronage. Call and see samples of work at Mrs. Dean's.

Ethan McDuffe is quite a Nimrod, if paraphernalia is any sign. He came home the other day from a fishing trip with two rods and lines across his shoulder, a hand-saw, square, tape-line, etc., but not a fish. The fish wouldn't bite for a fellow who would gauge his fish story by square and tape-measure.

F. Long & Son began moving into their new store room (the new Alexson block) last Thursday morning. They have been so crowded and in such a state of unrest where they had been occupying that they have been on nettles ever since the new building was started. They will have fine quarters, convenient for trade, and the largest and best stock of saddle and harness ware from San Francisco and Portland.

At first the representation to the Y. P. S. C. W. convention at this place last week was pretty slim from the outside districts but materially improved later, bringing in a good number of able, earnest workers. The absence of Rev. R. C. Lee was a disappointment, as was also those of Mrs. Abernethy and Rev. Harnish. However, the convention was interesting and profitable, and was socially much enjoyed.

The Grand Lodge I. O. O. F. of Oregon and the Rebekah Assembly both met at Salem last Wednesday, the former in the senate chamber at the capitol and the latter at Odd Fellows hall. The list of delegates attending the I. O. O. F. meeting names the following from Coos county: Arago Lodge, No. 28, of Empire City—C. M. Byler and B. D. Jones; Sunset No. 51, Marshfield—J. T. McCormac, E. A. Anderson, W. B. Curtis; Coquille No. 53, Coquille City, J. A. Sead, Chas. A. Harrington; Bandon No. 133, Bandon—V. N. Perry, J. C. Logan.

The remains of the late Mrs. Ediza Jane Edwards, for several years a resident of this valley, were taken on the train from Marshfield to Myrtle Point last Wednesday for interment, accompanied by Capt. C. E. Edwards and Hiram Edwards, sons, and Mrs. Manley Roberts. Mrs. Edwards had been moved to the bay some several weeks ago, owing to poor health, and was making her home with her son, Capt. Edwards, and in company with others of her children and friends. Her health continued to fail, however, till Monday morning, at 12:30 o'clock, she passed away at the age of 67 years, 11 months and 14 days. Mrs. Edwards was born in Ohio, moved to Indiana, and when Charlie was about 1 year old moved to Wisconsin. The family moved to Kansas in 1866, and then to Oregon in 1875, residing in Coos county, most of that time at Myrtle Point. She had been a loving and affectionate mother, and her decease is sincerely mourned by her surviving children and many friends.

Cheney & Co., doing business in the City of Toledo, County and State aforesaid, and that said firm will pay the sum of ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS for each and every case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by the use of HALL'S CATARRH CURE. FRANK J. CHENEY. Sworn to before me and subscribed in my presence, this 9th day of December, A. D. 1898. A. W. GILSON, Notary Public.

Umpqua Refuses to Give Up the Dead. W. W. McGuire, brother of the late Hollister D. McGuire, returned Saturday from the Umpqua, where he has been for a month, searching for the bodies of his brother and F. A. Reed. While he has found little to encourage him, Mr. McGuire says that the search will be continued until the last ray of hope has vanished. In addition to the boat and the coats of the two men, which were found a few days after the drowning, two memorandum books have been found. One had belonged to Mr. McGuire and the other to Mr. Reed. These were not found for two or three weeks after the coats were found.

Mr. McGuire says that the will of Mr. Reed has been found. In it he leaves the cannery and personal property to his nephew, Warren Reed, and the remainder of his estate to his wife and other relatives. The estate amounts to about $200,000.

Warren Reed will continue to operate the cannery, which he has practically been in charge of for some time. Here is a scrap from a letter of Private Buchanan, of Colonel Funtson's famous Kansas regiment, worthy of copying as showing the sterling stuff of which our volunteers are made, and that we doubt not depicts the thoughts of many of our citizen soldiers in the Philippines: "The health of the boys is fairly good, but the feeling is general among them that they are not doing the kind of service for which they volunteered. That they will stand by their guns and do their duty like men, without grumbling, so long as they wear Uncle Sam's uniform, and until they die or are honorably discharged, goes without saying. But that does not hinder them feeling—and quietly saying—that under the terms of their enlistment they ought now to be relieved."

Prune-Crop Failure Confirmed. Salem, May 16.—The latest reports from orchardists confirm the statement made last week that the prune crop will be practically a failure this season. The prunes continue to fall from the trees. Many orchardists are disposed to take a cheerful view of the situation, and say that with all conditions favorable only a short crop could be expected, for the trees bore so heavily last year that they needed a rest. With one season's rest and consequent growth, it is hoped a full crop should be realized next year.

(Port Orford Tribune.) Hon. E. S. Platts has purchased 320 acres of land from D. L. Anderson, of Denmark. The land is on the north slope of Sixes river and is a fine stock range. The Guerin boys, of Eckley, while out hunting recently, succeeded in capturing two cub panthers and killing the third cub and the mother. The little captives are about three months old and are doing fine. As panther scalps are worth $2 each, it would not be a bad idea to start a panther ranch somewhere in the mountains of Curry.

Capital Journal: Sheriff Gage and Mrs. Gage, and Deputy J. E. Perrott, of Coquille, registered at the Salem today. Mr. Gage says lumbering and coal are the principal industries. Dairying leads in farming products. Mr. Gage is not much of an expansionist so far as the Philippines are concerned. He thinks they are a savage race of people that we do not want to have much to do with. Roseburg Review: Gov. Geer and Trustees Northup and Canklin came up from Portland last evening to attend the final meeting of the Soldiers' Home board. On Thursday the institution will be turned over to the governor, the board retiring.

The Walla Walla penitentiary has manufactured 700,000 grain sacks this year, but is unable to supply the demand. The price of sacks has been reduced from $54 to $52.50 per 1000.

W. H. Lee, with only 75 cents in his pockets, struck a pocket on Mount Sterling, Josephine county, and in two days took out $1700.

Whooping Cough. I had a little boy who was nearly dead from an attack of whooping cough. My neighbors recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I did not think that any medicine would help him, but after giving him a few doses of that remedy I noticed an improvement, and one bottle cured him entirely. It is the best cough medicine I ever had in my life. For sale by R. S. Knowlton.
