COUNTY JUDGES' SALARIES.

Attorney-General Construes the Acts of 1891 and 1893—Coos County in It.

Salem, May 25.—Attorney-General Blackburn today rendered an opinion at the request of L. Harlocker, county judge of Coos county, in respect to the amount of salary to be paid to the judge. The question was whether the Coos county judge draws salary under the act of 1891 or the act of 1893. If under the former, he would receive $1200 per annum, and under the latter, $800. The opinion sustains the act of 1893, and holds that Mr. Harlocker is entitled to only $800 per annum.

[The HERALD will give the attorney-general's opinion in next issue.]

Railroad Taxes in Douglas County.

W. W. Bretherton, claim agent of the S. P. Co., was in Roseburg yesterday paying the company's taxes in accordance with the railroad view of the case. He paid $10,572.11 on the roadbed and rolling stock, this being at the rate of $3500 a mile on the roadbed and $4373.75 on the congressional lands of the company, being thirty-five cents an acre. He also paid $615 on contracted lands and $175.25 on depot grounds, the latter amounts being the full assessment. Sheriff Stephens accepted the partial payments "on account," without prejudice to the county. The company asserts that it will fight the payment of the remainder of their assessed taxes in the courts. The roadbed was assessed for $5000 a mile last year and their congressional lands for 75 cents an acre. The same assessment was made in '97 and was finally compromised by the company paying on $4200 a mile on their roadbed. It is understood that the county will allow the S. P. Co. to carry the matter into the courts in order to test the question as to the assessor's right to fix valuations upon railroad property. Roadbed assessing has long been a vexed question in this county.—Roseburg Review.

Spreckels-Graham Suit Settled.

The litigation between R. A. Graham and the J. D. Spreckels Bro's Co. has come to an end. There were four law suits pending in different courts, all of which have been dismissed and the relations between the two are to be adjusted amicably. Graham is to pay the Spreckels company $550,000 and take all the interests they had in the C. B., R. & E. R. R. and the Beaver Hill Coal company, and has been allotted a specified time in which to do so. Since the lawsuits have been settled, Graham is to have charge of all the properties and the receiver of the Beaver Hill Coal Co. is to be discharged forthwith.—Sun.

The Session Laws.

The force of clerks in the department of Secretary of State F. I. Dunbar has been busy, for the past few days, handling and disposing of the session laws of the late legislative session. State Printer W. H. Leeds has about finished the work of printing and binding the volumes which consist of about 1250 pages each. The books are this year being retailed by the state at prices slightly in advance of the cost of manufacture. The cloth bound volume sells for $1.75, while that bound in sheepskin brings $2. The total cost to the state in placing these books for sale is $1.67 and $1.87, respectively.—Salem Statesman.

Sixty-Two Hundred of Our Brave Boys.

New York, May 24.—A speial to the Herald from Washington says: Adjutant-General Corbin as prepared a statement of the number of deaths which have occurred in the army since the beginning of the war with Spain:

In Cuba, 1399; in Porto Rico, 287; in Honolule, 45; in the Philippines, 696; in the United States, 3872. Total, 6209.

His Last Embezzlement.

Portland, May 24.—J. Neil Gresham, of Jonesboro, Tenn., nephew of ex-Secretary of State W. Q. Gresham, deceased, committed suicide in a room at the Perkins hotel this evening by shooting himself in the heart. Gresham was arrested on the complaint of a La Grande banker for embezzlement, and the officer who had him in charge locked him in the room. While the officer was away, Gresham killed himself.

A City Council Meeting

Was held last Tuesday evening, present, J. H. Cecil, chairman; J. H. Nosler, D. P. Strang, J. A. Seed, Jos. Hudson, trustees; Recorder McDuffee and Marshal Goodman.

The committee on water supply reported progress, and that additional action had been taken on filing on water rights.

City Recorder McDuffee was ordered to advertise for the sale of the old Panter mill building and its removal, at public outcry, by July 10th.

Marshal Goodman was ordered to notify property owners on Front street to grade in front of lots 1, 2 and 3, block 3, original plat, and lower sidewalks on same; also that owners of lots 3, 4, 5 and 6, block 1; lots 1 and 2, block 2; lots 1, 2 and 3, block 3; lots 3, 4, 5 and 6, block 4, fronting on First street, original plat, be ordered to replank their respective portions of First street with not less than 3-inch planking, on good and substantial foundation timbers.

The marshal's salary was fixed at $150 per annum.

Parties are already corresponding for the supply of piping for the new water works.

Bills were allowed to Marshal Goodman for 11 days' waiting on sick, $5.50; Miss Hattie Dunham, nursing sick, $3.50; J. H. Cecil, services on water supply and cash advanced, $3.80; S. Whetstone, repairing faucet, 50 cents.

Quarantine was, on motion, raised.

In the sale of a few sewing machines the past few months, the HERALD has not only supplied a first-class machine to our citizens, the High-arm Arlington, with all attachments, first-class finish, warranted for 10 years and giving perfect satisfaction to all purchasers, but has saved them the handsome sum of $43 or $45 each, or a total of nearly $450 on ten machines. We ordered two last week—one for Mrs. McNair, at Myrtle Point, and one for Mrs. C. A. Harrington in this city. When these are received, ask them what they think of them, and if they would trade for a $65 machine of any other make.

Marshfield Sun: The regular annual meeting of the Coos County Pioneer Association will be held in Marshfield on August 15. A business meeting is to be held later to determine upon a plan of receiving the pioneers and making their stay in our city as pleasant as possible, and due notice of which will be given by Mrs. M. E. Lockhart, president of the Association, through the press. The pioneers' gatherings [illegible] interest as well as attendance any meeting ever held by the association.

Libby Items.

Libby, May 27.—The mine is working steady with greatly reduced force. We learn the steamer Empire will be laid up until more men can be secured.

William Campbell returned from San Francisco, where he had been a witness in the Graham-Spreckels case.

Mr. Campbell went to Glasgow last Monday with Dr. Tower, Mr. Curzon and Mr. Maxwell to instruct the latter gentlemen of the dip, spurs and angles of that important landmark of Coos bay.

Robert Sneddon returned on last Arcata with his family from Nevada City, Cal. Robert is convalescing after a severe attack of typhoid pneumonia.

Our school is presided over by two young lady school marms. They have nearly 80 pupils.

Our citizens are looking forward to Decoration Day, and later to the 4th of July, but it rains and rains, and it rather casts a damper on the lady portion of our community on what has to be the fate of their new spring bonnet. OBSERVER.

(Myrtle Point Enterprise.)

W. H. Corbin returned Thursday from a visit to his father on lower Sixes. He reports that at their mine and that of Newt Divilbiss, they have made running expenses all winter from the top gravel, with indications of big pay when they clean up the bedrock.

L. W. Deyoe had a thrilling experience with smokeless powder which he was trying in his shotgun for the first time, Friday. He attempted to fire at some pigeons, and the discharge tore out the side of one barrel at the chambers, and the other barrel was discharged by the jar. He was knocked about fifteen feet, but escaped with a slightly bruised finger, a swollen head and a ruined gun.

The state barber's commission met at Salem last week and examined 28 applicants to license, passed 26 and took two under advisement. The secretary of the commission reports that only about 20 barbers in the state have not taken out licenses. Two at Ashland have been notified to comply with the law.

An exchange says that a woman ate some dyed eggs and every since she has been by turns green with envy, purple with rags, red with anger and most dead with blues.

Severe nervous spells, bearing down pains, loss of appetite. Hudyan cures. All druggists, 50 cents.

Etchings from Eckley.

Christmas Home, May 27.—April's showers during the last days of May is a novelty not often witnessed in this part of Oregon, even the Webfoot State.

Capt. Butler of the Zumwalt black sand mine, in company with J. L. Nay of Maplewood farm, on Elk river, arrived at F. S. Avery's yesterday eve, where they will stop until the rain is over, when they will proceed on their way to the new Klondike on South Sixes.

There are several prospectors from lower Sixes river in the South Fork country—Mell, Charley and John Fitzhugh, Gene Pierce, Geo. Baily, Asher Post, and his son Fred being representatives from that section of the Sixes country, with more to follow as soon as it clears up.

A lawyer from California, by the name of Suttler or Settler, with his wife and little daughter, are among the late arrivals for the new Klondike in search of a fortune. They are stopping on Limber Bar.

A Mr. Prohl, from the east, and a gentleman from Oakland, Cal., are among the late arrivals for the new Klondike. Mr. Prohl is not altogether a stranger to these parts, having mined at Salmon mountain 40 years ago, and came to the Coquille with the Hermanns. Like a great many of the early prospectors, Mr. Prohl knew of a certain locality he thought would do to investigate, but up to date he had failed to rediscover that place. Ralph Cox moved the old gentleman and his partner up to Rusty Butte on Tuesday last.

George Baily and George Guerin, jr., have each discovered a quartz ledge that carries gold, and no doubt class themselves among the prospective millionaires.

W. J. Holmes left for Gold Beach the first of the week, on business, the coal mine being closed down until the arrival from the city of some safety lamps, it being dangerous to work in the tunnel on account of so much gas accumulating. C. W. Zumwalt and Gene Cox were both pretty badly burned on their faces by the explosion of gas, Gene being the last victim.

Uncle Joe Haynes, Robert Lowe, Tom Guerin and wife, and Miss Annie Guerin, were visitors to the Harrison mine on Rusty Butte on Tuesday last. MOUNTAINEER.

The Oregon P[illegible]

Will hold its twenty-seventh annual reunion and business meeting at Portland on Thursday, June 15th—the 50th anniversary of the U. S. extending territorial jurisdiction over Oregon, and the 40th anniversary of statehood. The reunion will be held in the armory in that city, and the procession will be under the direction of John W. Minto, grand marshal. After the literary exercises, the Pioneer Women's Auxiliary will give a banquet to the members. All persons coming to, or born in the original territory of Oregon prior to February 14, 1859, without regard to where they live now, are eligible to membership. All pioneers and Indian war veterans paying full fare to Portland over any of the S. P. lines, who take a certificate showing the fact, will be returned to starting point at one-third regular fare. For further information, address Geo. H. Himes, secretary, 272 Oak street, Portland, Oregon.

Many old soldiers now feel the effects of the hard service they endured during the war. Mr. Geo. S. Anderson, of Rossville, York county, Penn., who saw the hardest kind of service at the front, is now frequently troubled with rheumatism. "I had a severe attack lately," he says, "and procured a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It did so much good that I would like to know what you would charge me for one dozen bottles." Mr. Anderson wanted it both for his own use and to supply it to his friends and neighbors, as every family should have a bottle of it in their home, not only for rheumatism, but lame back, sprains, swellings, cuts, bruises and burns, for which it is unequaled. For sale by R. S. Knowlton.

At the annual conference of the Seventh Day Adventists, last week at Portland, Elder H. W. Decker was elected president for the third time and begins his twenty-fourth year as conference president, having served in that capacity in Illinois, Texas and Wisconsin.

The president has given orders to carry out the recommendations of Generals Otis and Lawton, making Colonel Owen Summers, of the Second Oregon, a brevet brigadier-general of volunteers; also making Captain Case, of the engineer corps, a major by brevet.

Governor T. T. Geer has appointed a number of subordinate officers at the Oregon Soldiers' Home, at Roseburg, in compliance with nominations made and submitted by William J. Shipley, commandant at the Home, as follows: D. G. Plam, adjutant, Dr. George E. Houck, surgeon, Mrs. Anna M. Shipley, matron, Miss Cora E. Smith, hospital matron.

The National Press Association.

Albert Tozier, secretary of the Oregon State Press Association, receives the most encouraging assurances from all the states of the union of their interest in the great national meet of newspaper man to be held in Portland early in July, and the pledges of so many to be present and participate. It will include many notable persons, and the state organization headquarters at Portland is in preparation a grand 4th of July greeting and program for the visitors, approved and aided by the citizens of Portland without stint. Seretary Tozier is a worker, well know and having the confidence of all, hence the success attending the proposed welcoming of 1500 or 900 journalists from all parts of the land and hundreds of others accompanying on their visit to our northwest metropolis. While present, also, most of these people will visit places of interest in this state, Washington and California, as also relatives or old friends who came west. Many newspapers throughout the land will be brilliant with descriptive correspondence of the visit, sights and scenes and experiences on this coast, but what share of it Coos county will get, from her isolated and inaccessible position, must of necessity be little or none directly.

Demorest's Superb Magazine.

An important feature to women, which appears for the first time in the May number of DEMOREST'S, is the "Paris Fashion Supplement," a full-page costume designed in Paris especially for DEMOREST'S MAGAZINE. Other fashion features worth considering in this number are the page of hats, beautifully illustrated, and the most recent edicts as to styles in [illegible] New York society woman. Among the variety of good fiction in this number of DEMOREST'S is a briskly-told dialogue by Margaret Sutton Briscoe. Besides the amount of literary matter furnished, equal to that of any purely literary magazine, DEMOREST'S furnishes this issue over half a hundred new Paris fashion designs.

She is doing nicely, but owing to the peculiarity of the injury to the muscles and bone it will be some time before she fully recovers.
