Letter With Some Items of Interest to Us.

Napa City, Cal., May 20.—I have been reading your valuable paper through the kindness of Mrs. Barklow, an old resident of your town, and as her son Jim has gone and committed matrimony, I thought I would tell you about it.

The writer thought the girls here in our little town of only 5000 people, with lots of as sick, plump and pretty little and big girls as the sun ever broke through the fog on, weren't good enough for him, so he had to go off to Nord, Butte county, where there ain't but about half a dozen girls to pick from and find a wife.

But you know the ways of boys and girls are hard to figure on, so we will forgive Jim this time, hoping he won't do so any more. But let me tell right here, we got even on him. We charivared them twice and threw rice all over them. I forgot to tell you, he was hitched to Miss Etta Smith. The young Miss lived here a long time when she was younger than she is now, and she isn't very old yet; she won't be 17 till next fall, and he (Jim) won't be 19 till next fall or winter, so he's a kind of a fall chicken too—but we wish them all the success of their forefathers and foremothers.

I suppose you would like to know something about the crops down here. I hear it rains every day except Sundays up there, then it snows so people can go out sleigh-riding, but we live in a milder country down here; we see the sun 300 days in the year (when it isn't foggy). Jack Frost came along this year and knocked out the cherries, plums and prunes in good order, so we have to get you to send us some this year. We have got lots of peaches, pears, apples and figs to feed you on when you come to see us, and dead loads of hay, barley, wheat and corn to feed your mule on. But look out, they kill mules for beef in this town. Cattle are high and scarce in California.

We have thoroughbred men (not horses) down here. There was a man came to town the other day and hadn't time to tie his horse, so he rode into the postoffice and called for his mail, but the postmaster objected and called the "cop" to help lead the horse out, and now the fellow is serving time in the county jail and didn't get a letter either.

Mr. Editor, as this is my first letter to you I will not tire you with anything more, hoping you will not think me impertinent in writing unsolicited. It was by request of a friend, and if you think any portion of it worthy of publication in your paper, please insert it with my best wishes to you and your worthy paper. I am, respectfully, JACK THE KICKER.

(Port Orford Tribune.) On Elk River, Sunday, May 14th, 1899, to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Forty, a son.

Born—in Port Orford, Tuesday, May 16, 1899, to Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Zumwalt, a son.

Miss Mary Merriman arrived from San Jose a few days ago, and will teach the Sixes school.

After a lingering illness, Fred Urican died at the Knapp Hotel last Sunday, he having been in failing health for the past year. Mr. Urican was one of the earliest pioneers of the county, he having arrived here immediately after the memorable fight on Battle Rock, being one of the party who came to the relief of the Battle Rock heroes, and arriving only a few hours after the rock was abandoned. Mr. Urican was an honorable, upright citizen, and was respected and esteemed by all who knew him. Deceased leaves two children, Mr. John Urican, of this place, and Mrs. O. Leneve, of Eugene. The funeral will take place today.

Whooping Cough. I had a little boy who was nearly dead from an attack of whooping cough. My neighbors recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I did not think that any medicine would help him, but after giving him a few doses of that remedy I noticed an improvement, and one bottle cured him entirely. It is the best cough medicine I ever had in the house.—J. L. Moore, South Burgettstown, Pa. For sale by R. S. Knowlton.

"It seems a mere bagatelle for Uncle Sam to put down the Philippine insurrection," says the Republic (St. Louis). "If he wants to fight something nearer his size, why doesn't he tackle the Standard Oil Company?"

Mrs. Dix—"They say Mrs. Peck speaks four languages." Mrs. Dix—"Indeed! And how many does her husband speak?" Mrs. Dix—"Oh, he doesn't speak any when she is around."

We have some large farms 1 to 3 miles from town, creameries, and good shipping facilities, which can be had more on account of old age or infirmity of owners, or lack of means, or proper tact for handling; some are under mortgage, and must be sold; some of these can be had low, and would divide into several choice small homes that can be made very profitable in time to people who are able to work, and have means and act to handle them.

No. 19.—163 acres on Bear creek; 35 acres fenced and in grass; good-sized barn and sheds; fair dwelling-house, young orchard, fine water and outside range, making a desirable location for stock $2000, with some stock included—one-half cash.

No. 21.—116 acres near Beaver Hill coal mines, known as the Willard place. 80 acres is very rich beaver dam bottom, balance hill land. Has spring water, and will make an A 1 place when improved. Can be had at reasonable price on account of it being owned by an aged lady, who cannot improve it.
