Roseburg Review: Prof. J. S. Diller, of the geological survey, an assistant, a packer and cook, are soon to make extensive examinations of that section of Oregon lying between latitude 42:30 and 43 degrees north and west of the 124th degree, west longitude. Professor Diller is to leave Washington for this country towards the end of May, coming direct to Roseburg, where he will outfit, and from there he will proceed to Port Orford, which will be his headquarters during the season of 4 months that he will be in Oregon. The professor made many friends here during his sojourn in this city and vicinity when preparing information for Roseburg folio, now complete, and all will be glad to see him.

Bad management keeps more people in poor circumstances than any other one cause. To be successful one must look ahead and plan ahead so that when a favorable opportunity presents itself he is ready to take advantage of it. A little forethought will also save much expense and valuable time. A prudent and careful man will keep a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house, the shiftless fellow will wait until necessity compels it and then ruin his best horse going for a doctor and have a big doctor bill to pay, besides; one pays out 25 cents, the other is out a hundred dollars and then wonders why his neighbor is getting richer while he is getting poorer. For sale by R. S. Knowlton.

Mrs. J. N. Russell, of Randolph, returned home from Salem last Thursday through this place. Mrs. R. had been visiting her husband, old man Russell, who is in the state penitentiary for the murder of his son-in-law, A. Carlson, at Randolph, some three or four years ago. The old man is in hospital and very low with dropsy and a stroke of paralysis, from which the prison surgeon says he can hardly survive for more than two or three months. Mrs. Russell visited Governor Geer several times in the interest of her petition for the old man's pardon, so that she can bring him home a free man once more and to die under his own roof and in the presence of his family. The petition was largely signed, and the application was accompanied by a photographic letter from Judge J. C. Fallert, the trial judge, making a special plea. However, Gov. Geer has taken no action in the case as yet, and seemed disinclined to do so. Mrs. Russell traveled over the fearful roads between Roseburg and Myrtle Point, and was from Monday till Thursday reaching this point, very much fatigued and dispirited. She is a small, frail woman, but is sincere in her wishes and would face any hardship.

Report of "Junior League" of the M. E. South of Coquille City.

The children of the Bible play just as important a part in its history as they do in these days. The little captive maid of Israel, who filled a servant's place in a heathen home, was true to God, and through words that she said her heathen master was cured of leprosy, and we as Epworth Leaguers appreciate her example and endeavor to be true to our pledge and our God as was she.

We are only a band of little people, but are thankful for the privilege of bringing in a report of our year's work before this annual assembly, and as delegates from our Junior League, we bring to the president and members of this society, greetings, and I trust you will accept this brief report.

It is never an easy task to give an honest report of a year's work, but after much meditation and prayer, we have endeavored to tell you as best we can of our work.

Our League, numerically, is larger this year than ever, but many of us are not very zealous workers; yet our financial report is good. The following figures give some idea as to the work done: Dues collected $4.90, raised by entertainment $12.50, birthday party $1.00, Total $18.40. No. of members 45, No. of subscribers to the Little Worker 24. This is a paper devoted mostly to children's work, and we use it in connection with our devotional meetings and find it a great help. We also use the lessons given in the Epworth Era, which are priceless to us.

While we have had interesting meetings, we have had some trials. First, resignation of our superintendent, and second, the quarantine. When our superintendent, Mrs. Lyons, gave her resignation in February, we did not know what would follow, or how we could get along without her, but God is good and surely He always gives us just what we need. Since then our pastor's wife has been our leader and we have been busy. We have had one public meeting and rendered a very satisfactory program, "Building the Cable," which showed what great things can be accomplished by small efforts and even by small children. The collection as has before been stated was $12.50.

Then we had a birthday party at the parsonage, at which each child brought as many pennies as they were years of age, but on account of pouring rain, many of the Leaguers were prevented from being present. We state this because the collection was not what we hoped it would be, for we have a room at the parsonage, which is called the "Children's Room," and all of our finances, except what we spend for literature, is put into this room and we hope soon to have it finished and furnished nicely for our parsons. We are so thankful that the Lord can use us for helping carry out His purposes; thankful that He is willing to take our work and make it fit into His plans for the salvation of His children. We have our meetings every Sunday afternoon, and have not missed but one meeting, except through the siege of quarantine, and while they are well attended, we find many boys and girls who do not attend at all. But we trust the time will soon come when every child will come into the ranks of Christian workers. We need them, and God needs them and is anxiously waiting to welcome them into His fold.

IRENE LAMB, Pres. Mary Lee Futrell, Secretary. A citizens' mass meeting was held at Salem Monday evening of last week to consider the entertainment of the delegates to the National Editorial Association. The meeting adjourned till next Monday for final action.
