LOCAL ITEMS.

Hay, there—and everywhere. Farmers are in the midst of it.

The 4th of July. Remember what it cost to attain it and honor it.

Orvil Dodge was down from his Myrtle Point home on business last Wednesday.

The Fair Journal for 5 years and the Herald at the price of one year's subscription to the Herald.

Charley Strang accepts a position on Coos river and expected to leave last week for that section.

Joseph Willis, committed to the asylum at Salem from Coos county in 1878, died on the morning of June 15th.

The Pioneers' promise to have the best, biggest and happiest reunion of that association at Marshfield on August 15th.

Our old friend, R. O. Kirkpatrick, has a splendid cure for corns which he is serving to the afflicted. It is a dead shot, give him a chance.

Gleam Aiken came over from Marshfield on last Friday's train, and met his brother Dave, from Roseburg, at the station, after a long separation. Both are veterans and pioneer settlers.

George Collier and John Johnson returned from the mining section last Wednesday. They visited the Johnson creek locality, and became well satisfied that it would do to tie to, so we may expect they will soon plant themselves there.

Hawkins' "New Store" is spreading in a lively way. Mr. H. buys for cash and sells for cash, hence his best grades of goods at low prices. His shelves are not full yet, but coming at the rate of two invoices on one steamer will soon make a big show.

William Miller, of Williams, Josephine county, has been visiting some two or three weeks with his son-in-law, Frank Miller, at Arago. He inspected this bustling little burg last Wednesday, and visited our sanctum with his old acquaintance and friend, Justice J. H. Cecil.

Joseph Noah, formerly a resident of Coos river, now of Woodland, Wash., was the victim of a collision May 31st between his farm wagon and a street-car on Holly and Railroad avenues. He is now lying in St. Joseph's hospital suffering from severe though not dangerous injuries.

Comrade W. Croy arrived in Coquille from Central Point, Jackson county, last Tuesday—only one week out. The old veteran is looking well, but he will move back here in a short time, or as soon as his daughter, Mrs. Ida Harrington, is able to travel. Mrs. H. is in poor health, and would be all right here.

W. H. and Mrs. Nosler received a wedding card from Portland last week announcing the marriage of U. G. Hayne and Miss Rhoda Hale on the 21st inst. Miss Hale (now Mrs. Hayne) is a cousin of Mrs. W. H. Nosler and lived here some years ago, and is therefore known to some of our citizens. The Herald sends congratulations.

Comrade W. P. Skelly arrived on the train from the bay last Friday morning, just in from the Veterans' Home, Napa, Cal. He will visit his children and friends here for a fortnight, making headquarters at Mrs. Gilman's, above town. He has been absent about three years. He is in fair health, and speaks well of the management of the Veterans' Home in Napa county.

Comrade J. W. Krewson and family arrived in Coquille from Drain last Wednesday and occupied their nice little home, the late Marshall Way place. John McCoy, a neighbor, helped bring the folks over, and accompanying were Comrade A. W. Hart, and a nephew, Herbert Conway. Comrade Hart is prospecting and likes the appearance of things already. Comrade Hart served in the 185th N. Y. infantry, and lost a leg at Petersburg. We would welcome him to a citizenship among us.

Coos Bay News.

Special trains, between Marshfield and Myrtle Point, will be run on the Fourth.

The annual meeting of the Coos County Pioneers will be held at Marshfield on August 15th.

Dick Noble, while loading a scow with lumber, at the Bay City mill, Thursday, met with an accident, resulting in his jaw being badly fractured. Dr. Horsfall attended him.

We learn from J. A. Yoskam that the mill at Porter will be ready to run in about a month. It is the intention to have the boom dredged out, and some dredging will also be done along the water front. He further states that arrangements have been made with C. G. White, a shipbuilder from San Francisco, to commence immediately the construction of a steamer with a carrying capacity of 1200 or 1500 tons of coal, to be run in connection with the Klondike and Beaver Hill mines. The steamer is to be a fast boat and will have excellent passenger accommodations. Capt. Hall, of the Blanchard, is to have charge of the new steamer.

Destructive Game Birds.

W. H. Spangh, a well-known Lane county man, writes as follows to the Salem Independent: In these days when our wise legislators are protecting everything but the crops of the farmer, I think it time that the farmers are devising some means to protect themselves and their growing crops. I have seven acres of bottom land planted to corn; land on which I have raised 75 bushels of corn per acre. Ten days ago I had as good a stand of corn as I ever saw. Today fully one-fourth has been pulled up by China pheasants. A dozen old China roosters did the work. In another week I look to see the entire crop destroyed, and the law protects the birds for city sportsmen to shoot while my labor and my crop are destroyed. Last year half of the entire corn crop in this section was destroyed by China pheasants. Can some reader of the Independent inform me how to protect my growing crop without violating the law?

Bad management keeps more people in poor circumstances than any other one cause. To be successful one must look ahead and plan ahead so that when a favorable opportunity presents itself he is ready to take advantage of it. A little forethought will also save much expense and valuable time. A prudent and careful man will keep a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house, the shiftless fellow will wait until necessity compels it and then ruin his best horse going for a doctor and have a big doctor bill to pay, besides; one pays out 25 cents, the other is out a hundred dollars and then wonders why his neighbor is getting richer while he is getting poorer. For sale by R. S. Knowlton.

"Who is the victim?" asked the deputy coroner when he arrived on the scene. "He is the publisher of an almanac," was the reply of the mob. "But what have you against him?" asked the deputy. "His book says that this is spring," answered the mob. Verdict: Justifiable homicide.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury. As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally, and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.
