

REGULAR TRAINS

Table with 3 columns: Direction, Time, Station. Rows include Marshfield, Coquille City, Myrtle Point.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

The service and program under the auspices of the ladies of the Presbyterian church will take place at the Christian church next Sunday evening at quarter to 7 o'clock.

QUARTERLY MEETINGS.

Presiding Elder H. S. Shangle, of the M. E. south, will conduct quarterly meetings in Coos county as follows:

LOCAL ITEMS.

Additional locals on 2d page. Corvallis Flour $3.50 per bbl. at the Fair Store.

Just received, a new line of gents' ladies' and children's Tanned Shoes at Geo. A. Robinson's store.

Lyons' mill shut down last Friday at noon to give all hands a whack at the Glorious 4th.

Heartburn, coated tongue, bad breath, constipation, Hudyau cures. All druggists, 50 cents.

Miss Minnie Morris, now of Prosper, came up last Thursday and then took the train for the bay to visit.

Miss Irma Lukens, teacher of the Fairview school, returned home Saturday for a few days' vacation over the holiday season.

Mrs. Manley Barklow, of Myrtle Point, is reported to be dangerously ill, and her baby, born last Thursday, died the same hour.

FOR RENT—House and four lots near Christian church. Two good garden lots in bottom, and small orchard of good fruits on bench lots. Apply at this office.

The Methodist (south) parsonage has been much improved the past few days in the way of additions, repairs and finishing. Rev. Mr. Fitch can drive a nail himself.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Downing, who were visiting at J. J. Stanley's at this place from Gold Hill, Jackson county, for several days, returned home yesterday. The son, Joe, was remain.

Rev. Ennis will preach at the Christian church next Sunday—his regular appointment. The hour preceding the night service will be occupied with a nice program of service and song. All are invited.

Hotel Coquille is full-fledged now in the hands of its new proprietor, John Curren, and has a good patronage. Within a few days new furniture will be received and placed, and the public served as never before.

G. A. Blomfield, of Silver, Okonagon county, Washington, arrived last Friday, via Portland and Marshfield. Mr. B. is prospecting this locality for a location for himself and brother, and will likely work here during the summer to become acquainted with the conditions of this section before permanently locating.

Bob Dean's little daughter, Etta, came near getting badly hurt last Friday. While trying a horseback ride in the yard, the animal passed under a clothesline, while the latter stretched and caught the child about the throat and sawed through the skin, besides bruising the flesh considerably. She was rescued and saved from more serious injury.

Rev. C. A. Stine performed a marriage ceremony Sunday near noon at Mr. Roy's—that of Arthur Ellingson and Miss Hulda O. Roy—and then took the steamer Dispatch for Riverton, where he conducted the baptism by immersion of John F. Leggett, a young convert, and then preached at night. Next Sunday Rev. Stine will occupy the Presbyterian church at Marshfield, by invitation, morning and night.

Supervisor Hudson assures us that the road at Ballock mountain, so long a source of just complaint, and yet so peculiarly located as hardly to be bettered with present facilities, is now in good condition. There never was a better spot in which to test road-making with our timber materials for road-bed and clearing out and drainage. But we need a portable sawmill for the work.

H. Adams, of Portland, returned to this place last Thursday from a visit to and inspection of the upper South Fork and Sixes river country. His special visit was to the coal proposition, and while he observed the "broken" condition of the country, with hardly a possibility of tect to bed-rock, quartz, porphyry or coal, yet he says the coal vein beats anything he ever saw, and promises equally well as far as prospected. A 100 foot vein breaks all records.

18 lbs. dry granulated sugar $1 at the Fair Store. Miss Collison closed her private school last Friday.

The Herald is prepared to do job printing in the best style.

Nine pounds good roast Coffee for $1 at George Robinson's.

Gus Hanscom arrived last week from the sound country in Washington.

18 lbs. of Western Refinery Dry Granulated Sugar for $1, at Geo. A. Robinson's store.

Sick headache, fulness in stomach, pain in bowels. Hudyau cures. All druggists, 50 cents.

For sale—Or exchange for growing cattle or milk cows—a good, gentle and sound single driving horse. R. D. Sanford, Coquille, Oregon.

The Quaker Medicine Co. orator and a negro character delineator gave open air entertainments several evenings past to large audiences.

Mrs. Hersey has just received a large assortment of Sailors, which, owing to delay, she will sell at a discount. Also Children's ready-trimmed Hats at cost.

Dan Barklow, of Myrtle Point, has associated himself with Martin & McLeod in the back line from this place to Roseburg and return. No trouble will be experienced on this line now.

W. C. Chase, non-in-law of our Mr. and Mrs. W. Rich, is expected home tomorrow from Ann Arbor, Mich., where he has spent three years at the law school. Mrs. Chase will join him on the bay and return with him.

Mr. Adams, late of Portland, but now stopping on the lower river, left a Mauser rifle with Mr. Rich a few days for inspection by the curious. It is one of four captured from the Filipinos and sent to Portland by soldier friends.

Capt. W. C. Harris, of Sumner, came over on business yesterday, his first visit in two years. He was pleased at the improvements that showed up on all sides. He is also a fixture at Sumner, in running his steamer to and from Marshfield and extensive dairying interests.

We learn that the old school properties have been sold, or are at least about to be, at private sale. Until reliably informed we will make no further statement as to price realized or party purchasing. The board has disposed of the bell, too, we understand, at Gravel Ford. There are many good desks and seats yet to be disposed of.

Several neat posters were put out the past few days for celebration and ball purposes. The friends at Randolph quickly concluded to celebrate and arranged a good program, with a basket dinner. At night a grand ball was to close the day's proceedings. The Herald leads in the printing line.

Our baby has been continually troubled with colic and cholera infantum since his birth, and all that we could do for him did not seem to give more than temporary relief, until we tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Since giving that remedy he has not been troubled. We want to give you this testimonial as an evidence of our gratitude, not that you need it to advertise your meritorious remedy.—G. M. Law, Keokuk, Iowa. For sale by R. S. Knowlton.

Charles Berdan, mother and daughter, from Oceanide, Cal., arrived in Coquille City by yesterday's train to locate. Mr. B. will seek employment, either in steam-boating or lumbering, both of which callings he is experienced in. He had a letter of introduction from Alyn Noster, son of our Elder W. H. Noster, with whom he is well acquainted—and the Herald frequently fell into his hands and favorably impressed him with prospects here.

Jap Yokam, manager of the Porter mill on the bay, yesterday brought over a surveying crew, with L. A. Wheat of the C. B. R. railroad in charge, to lay out a road from the mouth of Canningham creek, connecting with the railroad and river at this point, to the heavy timber section four or five miles up that stream and toward Sumner. Track will be laid at once and one or more logging camps opened. Right-of-way was finally secured last week. Jap is a well-known rustler, hence we report progress.

The Bandon Recorder has been pressed to make some pretty hard comments regarding the wavering, unreliable support given to steamers from San Francisco to this river by those in this valley who should patronize them; whose interests would, soon as they are promoted and served to advantage, while at present they are playing fast and loose to their own injury. The criticism is merited to some degree. Either we should not ask the general government to keep our river navigable, and waste its efforts with us, or we should be consistent and show our gratitude by aiding and encouraging it. There is a nigger in the wood-pile, and you will soon see his head, if you watch.

F. LONG & SON, Coquille City, Or.

Manufacturers of Saddles and Harness.

ARE COMPETING WITH CATALOGUE FIRMS and make the following standing proposition: Send in catalogue description of goods desired, with name of firm—NO EXCEPTION—and we will duplicate both goods and prices (less freight) and a good many times beat this.

We Also Handle BICYCLES, and can give you best bargains going in the wheel line.

The Herald is hurried out this issue to give all hands at least part of the holiday.

Fire-Crackers at the Berlin Store.

20 lbs. Rice for $1 at Geo. A. Robinson's.

Mrs. John Johnson, of the North Fork, visited friends here last Saturday.

Dr. Moore, of the Coquille Pharmacy, left last Friday for San Francisco. He took his pet deer with him.

A cook stove, a heating stove, both nearly new, and other furniture for sale—inquire at Herald office.

FOR RENT—A neat 2-acre home in Coquille. New house, fruit and shrubbery, and chance for garden if taken at once.

D. C. Randleman, of Parkersburg, visited the county seat on business yesterday. Mr. R. is one of Coos county's best citizens.

CLOSING SALES—To close this season's Millinery, the Berlin Store will offer all the Ladies' Trimmed Hats at reduced prices.

The steamers Fulton, from Portland, and Empire, from San Francisco, brought large quantities of merchandise and mixed freight for this section last week.

THANKS—The undersigned desire to return sincere thanks to the many friends and neighbors who so kindly ministered during the sickness and death of Mrs. Tacy E. James at our home at Sumner.

Bandon Recorder—We are informed on good authority that in a recent personal interview with Spreckels, of San Francisco, an influential business man of Marshfield came in full control of the Graham property he would undoubtedly begin work on the railroad to Roseburg. Spreckels also stated that the coast terminus of that road would, for various reasons, be located at some point on the Bay below Empire.

Edwate Four Bowels With Cascarate. Candy Cathartic, cure constipation forever. 10c. C. C. C. fail, druggists refund money.

The work of fencing the city cemetery has been completed.

F. Long, proprietor of the Coquille City harness shop, was in Myrtle Point Wednesday making arrangements preparatory to opening a branch store at this place.

R. L. Wagner has purchased the city meat market business of E. E. Sherwood, and will hereafter conduct the same.

Max Dixon, who has been attending the Drain Normal School for the past eight months, returned to this place Monday.

Jas. Buell and family left Wednesday by private conveyance for the state of Washington, where they will probably make their future home.

Died, at Imusdale, Cal., June 22, 1899, Dr. H. Flentge, aged 65 years. Dr. Flentge, was well and favorably known at Myrtle Point, having been a practicing physician here from 1887 to 1891, and was the father of Mrs. N. G. W. Perkins of this place.

Arrivals by the Fulton June 29 from Portland: G. A. Bonfield, Mrs. Cooley, J. A. Sutton, Mrs. Stephenson, D. H. Harrison, Miss Harrison, Mrs. Harrington, H. G. Wright, S. C. Johnson, L. H. Arneson, Albert Johnson, I. Chandler, Wm. Chandler, J. P. Blunt and N. M. Singleton.

The relatives of Wm. Page, J. H. Giles and Geo. Mullen, of this place, received letters from them Thursday, the first they have had since last fall when the Mizpah, the little schooner on which they went north, returned. They are at Cinnook river, about 100 miles south of Bebrig strait. The letters were dated January 12th, and reported all in good health and that they had good prospects of taking out a good pay as soon as the season opened, as there had been rich clean-ups from other claims in that immediate vicinity. They don't intend to return until they made a stake.

Ellingson-Roy Wedding.

Sunday last, near noon, a beautiful wedding ceremony was conducted at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Roy on the river above town. There were 50 to 60 invited guests, friends of the families of the bride and groom, to witness the pleasing event. The bride, Miss Hulda O. Roy, was beautifully and appropriately attired, and never looked more charming; and the groom is a favorite in this valley, and appeared every way worthy of the hand and heart of the lovely young lady whom he had won. Rev. C. A. Stine of this city officiated. There were many handsome presents bestowed. A delicious dinner was served under the grove, where also the ceremony was enacted, and the whole affair was more like a fairy scene than an act of real life. The Herald joins the host of friends in well wishes.

Dyer Leneve, formerly in the drug business at Port Orford, and who moved to Eugene last spring, has returned to Port Orford.

Revs. Holt, of Portland, Gillespie, of Marshfield, and Ennis of Bandon departed for Wedderburn last Tuesday. They will organize a Presbyterian church.

Steamboat Inspectors Edwards and Fuller have sent word that they will be here July 6th or 7th and will go to Rogue River after completing their business on this river.

The schooner Mizpah sailed into the river from San Francisco last Monday. She was not sold as was anticipated this trip, and it is understood that she will be tied up as she is too small to make it pay carrying lumber such a distance.

Capt. Geo. Leneve moved his family to Coquille the forepart of this week, where they will reside in the future. Capt. Leneve is now master of the Antelope and the boat will hereafter run between here and Coquille, leaving Coquille every morning and departing every day from Bandon at 1 o'clock p. m.

A few months since, when freight rates via Coos bay to Coquille were cut to $2.50 per ton, it was generally expressed here that the move would appeal to the purses of shippers and have the effect of driving the Hearster from this run, and then freight rates would immediately advance. As these opinions are now realized, there are many who are truthfully saying "I told you so."

Johnson Bro's creditors have forced them to close their books against all creditors. But don't you forget it, they are in the market for cash.

FOR SALE—In Bandon, one of the choicest locations, a pleasant home, new, unique in style, and with a splendid view of the town and ocean. Sheltered from the north winds. For particulars, apply to the Herald.

S. F. Chronicle: Mrs. Margaret Bolger has sued the Blanchard company for 20,000 damages for the death of her husband, William Bolger, who was a seaman on the steamship Alice Blanchard. On May 12, 1899, while the crew were setting the foresail, an iron band fell from the foremast and struck him on the head, fracturing his skull. He died on the same day.

Program for Sunday Evening, July 9th.

At Christian church, at 6:45 p. m.: Music. Scripture reading, R. E. Buck. Prayer. Music. Recitation, Tillie Long. Reading of references. Music.

Paper, Mr. Mast. Recitation, Cora Burns. Solo, Tillie Long. Recitation, Nellie Fairman. Music. Benediction.

DR. DARRIN, OF PORTLAND. One of the Well-Known Drs. Darrin to Visit Coquille, Oregon.

Through the request of many in this vicinity, one of the celebrated Drs. Darrin have prevailed upon to visit Coquille, Or., and will have his office at the Hotel Coquille, July 5th to 20th. Those wishing to consult the doctor will find it to their advantage to call on him while here.

Dr. Darrin has made an enviable record for cures of long-standing disease.

The doctor makes a specialty of treating diseases by electricity, by which many cases of long standing have been relieved and permanently cured.

Consultation is free, and should there be a case that is incurable, the patient will be told immediately, thus saving any further expenditure of time and money.

All chronic diseases treated successfully. Any amount of references at his office.

The doctor may be found at his office from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m.; from 7 to 8 evenings; and on Sundays, 10 a. m. to 3 p. m.

The poor treated free, except medicine.

The doctor will be at Bandon on July 20th to August 10th, stopping at the Pacific Hotel.

KIDNEY TROUBLE

Is a deceptive disease—thousands have it and don't know it. If you can make no mistake by using Dr. Kiltner's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy. At druggists in fifty cent and dollar sizes. Sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney trouble. Address, Dr. Kiltner & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

Death of "Wash" Hermann.

Word came by telegram to the family and friends of W. P. Hermann at Myrtle Point last Thursday, informing them of the accident which had befallen Mr. H. at Flagstaff, Arizona, on the 27th, occasioning his death. Mr. Hermann was supervisor of the Grand Canyon forest reserve, with office at Flagstaff, and a telegram represented that he had been fatally burned by the explosion of a lamp the night preceding. It was supposed he went to sleep and left the lamp burning, and it exploded, setting fire to the bedding.

"Wash" Hermann, as he was familiarly known to us, was a prominent and popular upper-river citizen, a brother of Hon. B. Hermann, commissioner of the general land office at Washington, D. C., and was holding the position of supervisor of the U. S. forest reserve in Arizona at the time of the accident. Deceased was born at Cumberland, Md., Dec. 2, 1848, and arrived in Coos county, Or., June 1, 1859—one of the pioneers of this valley and served against the Indians in the early struggles of the settlement of this valley. His home is on the South Fork of Coquille river, near Myrtle Point, where his family is now—the widow and her children bereft of one who was their stay and protection, so ruthlessly torn from their love.

The body of deceased is expected at once, and will be buried at the family burying ground on the banks of the loved Coquille.

Death of Mrs. Tacy E. James at Sumner.

Ed. Herald: Mrs. Tacy E. James, wife of C. B. James, died at Sumner, at the home of her son, Capt. W. C. Harris, Wednesday, June 28, 1899, of heart failure. Deceased's maiden name was Tacy E. Saltzman, and she was born Oct. 3, 1830; was married to Wm. Harris in 1849, who died Nov. 4, 1887. In 1894 she was married to C. B. James, who survives her. Mrs. James had been for many years a consistent member of the Christian church, and died in the faith of the gospel. She leaves four sons and three daughters behind her, who were her children by Mr. Harris, besides many grandchildren also, who mourn her loss to them. She was a kind wife and mother, and a grandmother very dear to the little ones who were made mourners by Death's rude summons. Her presence will be greatly missed here in this life, but she will occupy a place in many minds and loving hearts for long years to come.

The funeral services were conducted by the writer of this, using for a text Matt. 5th chapter and 8th verse, and we laid her body to rest in the Sumner cemetery, her spirit going to God, who gave it.

The Entertainment

Given by the friends of the Methodist parsonage and society at Masonic hall last Saturday night was a pleasant affair, but hardly as well patronized as it should have been, owing to the audience entertained on the street by the Quaker Medicine Co. minstrels. However, the literary program was pleasing, and then followed strawberries and cream and cake.

The program was short, and as follows: Opening song, "Blest be the tie that binds"; recitation, "Are You an Odd Fellow"—Lilly Way; recitation, "The Wedding Fee"—Mrs. Fry; recitation, "A Contrast"—Emma Sherwood; recitation, "Jacky's Piece"—Mary Hall; recitation by Grace Skeels; dialogue, "The Rival Orators"—Earl Steele and Julius Jacobson; recitation, "Columbia Crum"—Lena Fairman; recitation, "Kentucky Philosophy"—Nellie Fairman.

Then followed refreshments and a social time. The Misses Fairman were new to us, and their recitations out of the usual line, but exceedingly well given and well received.

A friend at Marshfield has called us to task for the criticism of a remark in a late issue of the Sun, wherein the musical fraternity of other towns in the county were dubbed "lop-ears," and the Herald laid the responsibility of the fling at the door of Jesse Luse, the editor. Our friend writes: "I had to say something with reference to that quotation about 'lop-ears' that originated with that pragmatical skunk, Tom Barry. Certainly you are well aware of the fact that I was quoting the Mail. Far be it from me to intentionally reflect on worthy citizens." The Herald is well aware that very few citizens of Marshfield held such opinions of their neighbors and believed that the Sun editor clothed the expression in quotations for one of two reasons, as our correspondent thought of us—either from ignorance or viciousness. Our friend is aware that strictly the expression is a quotation at any rate, and as there was no reference to the "Mail," from which the general public can expect anything, we did not know but that it was a common expression in local slang circles against the Coquille valley people in particular, and might be banded with equal propriety by Barry or Jess. We know, too, our friend did not personally make any such application, for it is not his disposition toward people merely "not of our set;" and it seems Jesse did not use the expression, for he was "swinging around the circle" at the time and off the tripod. We excuse you, Jess.
