The Thoughts We Sometimes Speak.

A man of quiet, pious mien
I chanced to pass one day
As a banana-peel unseen
Upon the pavement lay.
Unconsciously he trod it, and
The pavement smote his head:
And oh! he was a wicked man,
For this —— * * ! ! ! —— † — * †
—— ! ! — is what he said.

A parson in the gloaming strolled
About his garden paths,
The wheelbarrow some one had rolled
Right in his way, alas!
His shins were very sadly barked,
His nose the earth had ploughed.
These things —— — — ! ! * —— — * †
—— ! ! which he straightway remarked,
Would sound bad in a crowd.

It happened in a ball-room once,
'Midst music's merry strain,
The ever-present blundering dunce
Trod on a lady's train.
And oh! her temper it was riled
To see the ruin wrought;
And as she pardoned him and smiled
'Twas this —— — * † —— — † † ——
—— † † I knew she thought.

Society is full of lies
And artful, subtle ways;
And nothing but a quick surprise
Will bring them to our gaze.
'Tis policy to thus deceive
With smooth and honeyed word,
When all the while just underneath
These thoughts * —— — — ! † † †
—— —lie all unheard.

Political Pointers.

That "wave of prosperity" hasn't "waved."

Yes, the sugar trust is charitable—to itself.

"Thou shalt not steal"—except by legal enactment.

Eight more national banks went Republican last week.

The people voted for hard times and got what they voted for.

Unless man owns the machine the machine will displace the man.

Those Republican promises are just now way below the 53 cent limit.

The Belshazzars are having their feast now, what of the future?

We have reached that stage where the dance of wealth may soon be the dance of death.

The only way to have a good political party is to insist on having honest and efficient party leaders.

The strangest thing about the Democratic administration was the regular monthly treasury deficit.

The states have no constitutional right to issue money, then why should banks be granted that privilege?

Yes, the law of supply and demand controls prices, and the trusts control the "supply and demand." See?

Various uses have been made of compressed air, but it is seldom utilized by congressmen in making speeches.

McKinley may not be a duck hunter, but before he gets through with the office hunters he will wish he was.

Mr. Hanna has refused to set a date for prosperity. Now, it is part of the business of an advance agent to arrange dates.

The dog has been taken out of the front yard, so that whenever prosperity feels like dropping in she will not be intimidated.

There is a difference in surrender and arbitration. Americans do not care to submit their affairs to the will of an European king.

The grandeur of a nation should consist in the patriotism and moral greatness of her people. Riches alone do not make great, and even the riches should be honestly acquired.---Exchange.

A paper trust holds down that essential in the newspaper business, in connection with the type trust in its particular line; and now we have a printers' ink trust, and we see some of the organs of the bosses and managers chafing. They have no reason to kick at all. It is the natural outcome of their doings. If reforms cannot exist or come intelligently and from patriotism, then the "hair of the dog may cure the bite." The extremity will be reached some day, and while it may appear long a-coming, as did Israel's deliverence from the tyranny of Pharaoh, or that of our fathers from the oppressions of King George, still it will surely come, and the heads of the deviltry will be dethroned and despoiled, and the myriads of little flunkies will be dumped among the garbage and burned as the offal of the nation.

We think the next congress might provide for a few titlted gentlemen for our eastern colonies, and work them as England is doing the South African racket. Why not appoint some young princes to the several Philippine islands—Russell Harrison and Walter Blaine for instance, lately kicked out of the service at Hawaii for princely drunkenness and usurpations; General Merriam's son, a lieutenant, who takes a high-horse ride occasionally with his shoulder-straps to protect him; and Dad Merriam, himself, might find an occasional "greaser" over there who would saddle his horse and black his boots for him. By all means extend our dominion and suspend the civil service rules.

The term "trust" is really a misnamer. Anyway most trusts are opposed to trust.

Polittcal Chaff.

Some men are born great, and some have to be elected.

The man who itches for fame, is usually kept scratching.

A politician will shake your hand one minute and pull your leg the next.

It is the biggest kind of an insult to offer a small sum of money as a bribe.

Many statesmen look upon a morning cocktail as a constitutional amendment.

It is far better to have one hand on a postoffice than both eyes on a foreign mission.

Some men vote as they pray—and they never pray unless it is to ask a personal favor.

Many a candidate thinks himself a Clay, only to discover after the election that his name is Mud.

Some merchants act as if the public was dependent on them instead of them upon the public.

Some politicians who claim to be self-made, were evidently interrupted before the job was completed.

A woman never knows what an unprincipled scoundrel she has married until her husband runs for office.

L. M. Hamp, who has for the second time been made a member of a commission to investigate canal routes across the Isthmus of Panama, has made a statement charging the commission with being solely intended to prevent a canal being constructed, and saying that if the report made by the previous commission had been made public, as it should have been, the people would know why the canal was not being built. It is now up to the administration to tell why it suppressed that report.

The "high commission"—representing the republic of the U. S., the limited monarchy of Great Britain and German Empire—have set aside the God-ordained kingship of Samoa, abolished the throne and exiled the king. It will be soon no telling what these high old commissions and supreme courts may not do one of these days; it won't be Old Nick that will be hunting a job, however.

At an important election to vote a bond issue of $80,000 at Salem recently, only 79 votes were cast—69 for and 10 against. Think of the lack of interest by citizens on so important a question and then think of the fellow who staid away howling about the result! Take your medicine. This is argued as a black eye to the referendum.

What's the matter with Pingree? He seems to have lost his balance. Since he failed to make a successful spurt for the U. S. senatorship, he has fused his interests with Alger, but ignores the army beef. And now he declares himself in favor of McKinley, but "ferninst" Hanna!

We paid Spain $20,000,000 to turn over her interests in licking the Filipinos, and according to all appearances we will get full worth of our money.

Chicago Banker Fined.

Chicago, July 3.—Banker Geo. H. Magill, formerly head of the Avenue Savings bank, was fined $4504.42 by Judge Burke today. Magill's offense was receiving deposits in his bank after it had become insolvent. Several indictments are yet to be heard against Magill. Late this afternoon Magill's father-in-law presented to the court a check for the amount of the fine and the ex-banker was released.

Queer Justice, This.

San Diego, June 30.—Benedict Bergman, who stabbed and almost killed Miss Elizabeth Brekly at Coronado a few weeks ago, will escape all punishment. Yesterday a jury acquitted him on the ground of insanity. Today he had an examination as to his sanity before Judge Hughes. Two physicians testified that Bergman is now in his right mind, whereupon the court ordered him discharged from custody.

City Council Meeting—Water Works Question, Etc.

The town board met last Wednesday evening—present: Chairman J. H. Cecil; Trustees J. T. Nosler, D. P. Strang, J. A. Seed; City Marshal Lee Goodman; City Recorder W. E. McDuffee.

On motion of Nosler, the proposition of the Occidental Water Co. to dispose of its plant, etc., to the city for the sum of $5000 be rejected—carried.

[At a meeting of the board held on July 1st, A. J. Sherwood appeared as a representative of the Occidental Water Co. to make the proposition of a sale of the water company's plant to the city for the sum of $5000; on motion the matter was laid over under "advisement."]

Moved by Strang, that the town advertise for bids on bonds for $5000, to run for 20 years, to raise funds for water works for domestic uses and fire protection. Carried.

Moved that an ordinance be drafted in accordance with and to govern the foregoing order of the board concerning the issuance of bonds. Carried.

On motion, it was ordered that an ordinance be drafted for improvement of streets, sidewalks, etc., heretofore made.

On motion, adjourned.

At a meeting of the board held the previous week, besides hearing the proposition of the water company for the sale of its plant to the city, several orders were made for improvements of streets and sidewalks, as follows:

Hall street, from the little church to the new bridge on south end.

Second street (old plat), from B to Hall street to be planked.

First street to be replanked and sidewalks graded to the adopted grade. Complaint having been filed regarding the dangerous and unsightly grade and condition of the sidewalk on the south side of First street, on motion the sidewalk was declared a nuisance and an order made that the same be graded to the standard with the street.

It was ordered also that the lots belonging to the city be advertised and sold, and the street committee instructed to dispose of the sidewalk material attached to the city lots, now no longer of use.

B street and sidewalks were also ordered to be graded to the standard from Odd Fellows' hall to First street.

Boy Train Wreckers.

Shamokin, Pa. July 3.—Three Polish boys, Levy Korbush, ged 13 years, his brother Michal, two years yonger, an John Zanblen, 9 years, were arrested here today on a charge of wrecking passenger train No. 3 on the Philadelphia & Reading road, near Bickridge switch, last Friday afternoon, which resulted in the death of Fireman Morgan. After a number of witnesses testified, the boys were committed to jail on the charge of manslaughter.

A patient once said to his physician, "Doctor, I believe there is something wrong with my stomach." "Not a bit of it," replied the doctor. "God made your stomach, and he knows how to make stomachs. There may be something wrong with the stuff you put into it or something wrong with the way you stuff it in or cram it down; but your stomach is all right."

STRAIGHT GOODS FROM RUSTY BUTTE.

The Harrison Bro's Reply to the Bandon Recorder's "Richest" of Rusty Butte a Myth.

EDITOR COQUILLE HERALD: We were amused as well as chagrined to note that the Bandon Recorder published an article which purported to be the result of an interview with Stephen Gallier, H. Adams and J. Riddell, who visited our mining camp at Rusty Butte recently. Those gentlemen did visit our place. We entertained them and gave them such refreshments as we had, and we trust that our dinner would everage with that of any other mining camp. We also showed them all that we could induce them to examine, offering them the privilege of washing out a pan of dirt from the Mountain Daisy claim, where we have exceedingly rich dirt, and proposed to give them as a souvenir the result if they would take it down to the spring, some 800 feet, but they declined our offer. In fact, one of us was with these profoundly "experienced miners," who gave their disinterested report, and they did not wash a pan of dirt during the six or eight hours which these expert minerologists walked around and simply looked at the ground.

We were chagrined to learn, also, that men who had accepted our hospitality would go to a newspaper publisher and insinuate that we were liars and deceivers, for we had not got what we pretended to have. The fact is, we made the discovery of the Mountain Daisy on the 14th day of Feburary last; we kept our own counsel as long as we could do so. We have never attempted to cause an excitement, and have not even placed our claims in the market. Prospectors have visited us, and we have told them the truth about our find. we had no reason to exaggerate, for we have several rich mines. We have taken out considerable money and can do so now with a pan or rocker, and if the Recorder and those famous miners, with such amazing experience whoinsinuate that we are humbugging the people, wish to exhibit a spirit of jealousy, we are willing that they may enjoy it to their hearts' content. The Recorder is very much guarded against publishing something that will do the country an injury, but be indirectly accuses us of circulating exaggerated reports for a speculation purpose, expecting, of course, to injure our character and business.

Beauty Is Blood Deep.

Clean blood means a clean skin. No beauty without it. Cascarets, Candy Cathartic clean your blood and keep it clean, by stirring up the lazy liver and driving all impurities from the body. Begin to-day to banish pimples, boils, blotches, blackheads, and that sickly bilious complexion by taking Cascarets,—beauty for ten cents. All druggists, satisfaction guaranteed, 10c, 25c, 50c.

The successful solution of a vexing and oft-tried problem is claimed by Albert Henry in his unsinkable and uncapsizable boat. This has an inner hull, which is much smaller than the outer one, and the space between is perfectly tight, forming an air chamber, which is divided into compartments by partitions. The floor of the inner hull is above the level of the water. In the center is a longitudinal opening through both huls to the water, forming a well in which is suspended an ajustable centerboard of sheet iron heavily weighted with lead. All water entering the vessel escapes through the opening. In late severe trials in France, a 40-foot lifeboat on this model was tipped about 90 degrees, when it quickly righted itself; and even when turned completely over with much effort, it instantly resumed its upright position and emptied itself in four seconds. It sank completely when a tank of 1760 gallons of water was suddenly emptied into it, yet was quickly on the surface again, with the water flowing out of it.

Persons troubled with diarrhoea will be interested in the experience of Mr. W. M. Bush, clerk of Hotel Dorrance, Providence, R. I. He says: "For several years I have been almost a constant sufferer from diarrhoea, the frequent attacks completely prostrating me and rendering me unfit for my duties at this hotel. About two years ago a traveling salesman kindly gave me a small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Much to my surprise and delight its effects were immediate. Whenever I felt symptoms of the disease I would fortify myself against the attack with a few doses of this valuable remedy. The result has been very satisfactory and almost complete relief from the affliction." For sale by R. S. Knowlton.

W. C. Brown, a pioneer of 1847, is building a tomb for himself and wife in a private cemetery on his home grounds near Dallas, Polk county. It is of cut bluestone. The walls are two feet thick.

The Maid and the Miracle

Miss Lucy Tucker, the daughter of a prominent farmer of Versailles, Ind., was the victim of nervous prostration. Most of the time she was confined to bed, and was on the verge of St. Vitus' dance. It was a pitiful case which medical science failed to conquer. Finally a doctor prescribed Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. Her father said:

"We began giving the pills at once, and the next day we could see a change for the better in her. We gave her one pill after each meal until she was entirely well. She has not been sick a day since. We think the cure almost miraculous.

FRANK TUCKER, Mrs. F. TUCKER.

Mr. & Mrs. Frank Tucker, being duly sworn, state that the foregoing is true in every particular.

HUGH JOHNSON,
Justice of the Peace.

—From the Republican, Versailles, Ind.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People contain, in a condensed form, all the elements necessary to give new life and richness to the blood and restore shattered nerves. They are an unfailing specific for such diseases as locomotor ataxia, partial paralysis, St. Vitus' dance, sciatica, neuralgia, rheumatism, nervous headache, the after-effects of the grip, palpitation of the heart, pale and sallow complexions, and all forms of weakness either in male or female.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are never sold by the dozen or hundred, but always in packages. At all druggists, or direct from the Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y., 50 cents per box, 6 boxes $2.50.
