

Church Directory.

M. E. church, south-regular services each Sunday morning and evening, by the pastor, E. L. FROST.

LOCAL ITEMS.

The Farm Journal for 5 years and the Herald at the price of one year's subscription to the Herald.

D. P. Strang has constructed a substantial sidewalk with railing on the south side of his home property.

Comrade J. P. Goodman will put the concrete floor in the basement at the schoolhouse. The cement for the purpose is due.

The C. O. Gilkey building, late T. W. Gilham's, on Front street, adjoining Jacobson's furniture rooms, is being repainted and repaired for use.

Miss Zaida Tyrrell and sister, Bertha, of Ferndale, Cal., have arrived in Coos county on a visit to their brother, Robert Tyrrell, at his dairy ranch near Arago.

A band of about 50 horses and mules passed through this place to Beaver Hill last Tuesday. They will be used on the construction of the grade of the Canning ham creek logging road.

Miss Long had a well-supplied news-stand at the barbershop, but the demand for magazines and popular reading matter proved much greater than had been imagined and quickly depleted the stock. But it won't be so again.

Rev. R. Ennis, of Bandon, came up last Thursday to further prosecute the work of the purchase and preparation of the new Presbyterian church property for use for religious services. He also preached at the courthouse Sunday morning and night.

Trustees W. S. Perry, Mrs. Ida Rich and Ed Rockleff last Wednesday filed articles of incorporation of the first Presbyterian church of Coquille City, Or., with the county clerk. The organization is to have usual powers of churches to purchase and own property for church uses.

We observe an engraving in a late issue of the Oregonian of a new courthouse at Moro, Sherman county, in this state, which is to cost $6000. It is a model of our new schoolhouse, except, we suppose the inside arrangement of the courtroom, offices and jail apartments.

W. H. Thomas, for several years a citizen of Bandon, but some months ago stricken with the Klondike fever, returned via this place from Alaska last Wednesday. Mr. T. is not favorably impressed with the risks and hardships attending gold-seeking in Alaska, and has had quite enough of it.

Do you want a Turkish, hot-air, steam, vapor, medicated, perfumed, quinine, hop or sulphur bath—get one of the Quaker Folding, Hot-Air and Vapor Bath Cabinets of Mrs. McEwen, agent for Coos county, or at Coquille Pharmacy, Coquille City, Or. They prevent and cure rheumatism, neuralgia, fevers, colds, grip, skin disease and eruptions.

Charley Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Johnson, of the South Fork, who went north last spring for his health, returned a few days ago in a very feeble condition, but seems now to be slowly recovering, much to the delight of his family and friends. Uncle Sam Johnson and Mr. Neal took some sheep to the bay last Monday, and reached this place Wednesday on their return.

J. W. Bailey, state dairy commissioner, left Salem for this section several days ago. The Capital Journal adds to the notice of his departure for Coos county: "He says he is kept busy looking after the filthy dairies about Portland. People seem to think all that is necessary to run a dairy is to get a lot of cows stabled up in a lot in some gulch near that city, feed them slop, and sell milk."

Mrs. Charley Harrington, of this place, a few days ago received one of the high-arm Arlington sewing machines, ordered through and as advertised in the Herald. The cost is $18.50 and freight, from $3 to $5. They are the equal in every respect of any $65 sewing-machine in the market, and a 10-year written guaranty comes with each. Of course, if you prefer, you can go ahead and pay the difference of $40 or $45 for other machines—you are supposed to be free and live in a free country and have good sense. Without consulting Mr. and Mrs. Harrington as to their satisfaction with this machine, we recommend that you ask her opinion about it; or that of Mrs. B. H. Berns or Mrs. Gene Robinson, of this city; or Mrs. Barklow, of Norway, who has had one for about two years; or Mrs. Major, of Bandon, Mrs. McCue, of Riverton, or Mrs. Hagg, of Parkersburg, or Mrs. Boyers, of Sumner.

Coos Bay News. Peter Michelbrink intends stocking his ranch on North Coos river with Angora goats.

Don Short, who is with an engineer corps in Manila, wires that he has been under fire several times lately, but escaped unhurt.

Capt. C. E. Edwards has opened a store at Alleghany, North Coos river, which is a great convenience to residents of that section.

The keel of the new vessel, to be built at the Ross shipyard, at Pleasant Point, by Capt. Hans Reed, was laid Friday. Capt. Strand, formerly of the Ruth, arrived on the Areata, and will superintend the building.

The dredger finished the government work on the bay Saturday noon, the last work being the cutting of a hundred-foot channel through the shoal opposite the old Bay City wharf. It is at present engaged in dredging for the O. C. & N. Co., in the vicinity of the Newport banker.

W. P. Bartlett, of Wisconsin, was in Portland last week. He was interviewed by an Oregonian reporter who learned that Mr. Bartlett is vice-president of the Grand Ronde Lumbering Company, of La Grande, and owns 100,000,000 feet of standing timber in Coos county, which he does not care to touch for several years to come, as timber is yearly becoming more valuable, while the demand is increasing just as steadily in the markets of the world.

(Port Orford Tribune.) R. Pomeroy, the New Lake dairyman, who has heretofore been shipping his butter via Bandon, is now hauling his product to Port Orford.

S. B. Hermann, the Myrtle Point merchant, son of Hon. Binger Hermann, accompanied by Mrs. H. and two children, is rusticiating in Port Orford.

Dave Carey and Jack Prock passed up to Coquille City last week, with a four-horse team, and will be employed in the construction of the Cunningham railroad during the summer.

Thomas D. Guerin and wife, of Eekley, and the two Misses McGraw, of Oakland, California, who have been visiting relatives in Coos and Curry for the past few weeks, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Dart last week.

Ed Sherwood, of Myrtle Point, returned from a business trip down the coast, last week, having, while in Curry, purchased some sheep of Dave Carey, which he will drive to Coos county about the first of next month.

Roseburg Review: Albert Tozier, secretary of the state press association, won golden opinions from all by the efficient way in which he arranged for the national editorial association, and was rewarded by being unanimously elected third vice president. The convention, also, passed resolutions of condolence upon the death of his father, Judge C. T. Tozier, which occurred in Idaho, during the meeting in Portland. Mr. Tozier was ably assisted in his work by his sister, Miss Edythe Weathered.

"During the hot weather last summer I had a severe attack of cholera morbus, necessitating my leaving my business," says Mr. C. A. Hare, of Hare Bros., Finestale, Ohio. "After taking two or three doses of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy I was completely relieved and in a few hours was able to resume my work in the store. I sincerely recommend it to any one afflicted with stomach or bowel trouble." For sale by R. S. Knowlton.

Cornstalks continue to look up. They yield cellulose, worth $400 a ton, for stopping holes in battle-ships, fine cardboard and paper, the best foundation for dynamite, a patent cattle food and a superior glue. But it is said that 250,000,000 tons of cornstalks still go to waste every year in this country.

Sudden Death. J. Dougherty, who arrived on the Areata on his way to Alsea, where he had relatives, dropped dead near the Jarvis stage landing Friday afternoon. He started to walk up the beach with a companion, and after going a few hundred yards told his friend that he didn't feel well, and requested him to go on alone. His companion went a short distance, and on returning found Dougherty lying on the sand, dead. Dr. Horsfall, coroner, was notified, but did not think it necessary to hold an inquest, as it was evident that heart failure was the cause. The body was brought to Marshfield, and no word having been received from the relatives of deceased, the remains were buried Saturday afternoon. Deceased was 84 years old.—Coos Bay News.
