The War Against the Filipinos—For Acquisition of Territory.

ED. HERALD: Two of our Coos county boys are back, and they both state they saw nothing to justify them in staying to continue the fight against the Filipinos.

This one thing can be taken for granted: Had the volunteers who went there to fight Spain been very much enthused with the war against the Filipinos, they would not have been so ready to have rushed home in one body. Whatever may be said in the case, their actions prove their true sentiments. I suppose it is only Democrats and Populists who are able to remember back to the inauguration of the war against Spain, and remember the loud protestations that this was to be a war alone for the sake of humanity, without any thought of conquest, without any desire to acquire new territory, and with no other thought than the humane one of assisting the struggling Cubans and Filipinos to gain their independence.

And it appears to be only Democrats and Populists who are able to see the great change that has come over the heart of the administration, which could now be compared to the philosophy of the leaders of the trusts, which is to "keep all you get, and get all you can." Long and labored articles are written in the Republican press to prove that it has been the policy of the United States ever since we became a government to acquire new territory, and the many advantages of trade are pointed to, but the God and humanity part of the matter is forgotten.

From the best testimony we can get, there must be some political significance in this war, the way it is conducted; no headway appears to be made, and the Filipinos are no nearer whipped today than they were at the start, though from the reports of every battle the Americans have been doing them up in good shape, yet the facts are, that the reports sent and the real facts seem to have no relation to one another.

Everything seems to go with the American people, and a war so they can pay its expenses is enjoyed by them; licking revenue stamps, and seeing monthly reports of deficits and shortage is so common that nobody but a Populist crank would think of making a fuss about it.

But what's the use of being a crank reformer and having ideas of your own? Why build up ideas in your mind of the difference that exists betwixt that which is and that which might be? Why not be like soldiers, know nothing but to obey? The political bosses would have no uneasiness, then when plotters purchase their seats in the senate.

And buy up the courts whenever they please. In the milk of all trade, they throw in their net. Then coolly proceed to take out their cheese. With few to condemn, and many applaud. The people endorse when having their say. And multitudes openly sanction the fraud. So why need we squeal at drinking the whey?

THOMAS BUCKMAN, Marshfield, Or., Aug. 18, 1899.

Union Reform Party in Ohio Names a State Ticket.

Columbus, O., Aug. 22.—The Union Reform party today nominated a full state ticket. Seth A. Ellis, of Warren county, was nominated for governor. It became evident soon after the opening of the convention that the faction who favored the endorsement of Mayor Jones, of Toledo, for governor, were in a hopeless minority, and they made a desperate attempt to turn the convention into a farce, but without success. The platform adopted contains but a single plank, "direct legislation under the system known as the initiative and referendum."

Was Tired of Life.

Salem, Aug. 22.—Mrs. Zelina Porchet, aged 54 years, a patient at the state insane asylum, in which institution she had been confined for nine years, committed suicide by hanging, at 12:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The woman was committed to the asylum from Multnomah county, on January 11, 1890. She was a native of Switzerland and was aged 45 years when received at the state hospital for the insane. Two daughters reside in Portland, where the funeral services and interment will take place.

East Oregonian (Dem.): J. Sterling Morton started a new party some months ago. So far as heard from he and ex-President Grover Cleveland are the only members of it, and Mr. Cleveland was made an honorary member by Mr. Morton "Without the consent of the governed." J. Sterling can make more fools of himself in shorter time than could C. H. Dodd, of Portland, when he was at the height of his political and commercial zenith.

A New Corporation.

A new corporation has just been formed of $50,000, fully subscribed, to manufacture in San Francisco an English preparation, Celery Soda, which will be introduced in the United States as a harmless, yet effective cure for headache, nervousness, biliousness and sleeplessness.

The incorporators are R. W. Tansill, the millionaire cigar man; Edw. L. Baldwin, proprietor of the Ferry Drug Co., and president of the Standard Pharmaceutical Co.; Wm. H. Jordan, one of San Francisco's most prominent attorneys; E. A. Boulton and R. A. von Meier.

This company is composed of experienced men, backed with ample capital, and will introduce this article on the Pacific coast on what is known as the agency policy, appointing one dealer only in each town as selling agent for Celery Soda.

War and the Innocents.

An article by Miss Clara Barton, on the subject of the Cuban reconcentrados, says that there are now in Cuba 50,000 destitute orphan children of reconcentrados who have in the last few years died of starvation and want. These children are scattered throughout nearly every city and town of sufficient size and importance to receive the driven-out country people. They are the best Cuban families. The reconcentrados were largely the country people or property-farmers and small planters.

Rural Northwest: Flocks of Angora goats are kept in Jackson, Josephine, Curry, Coos, Douglas, Lane, Linn, Benton, Lincoln, Polk, Marion, Clackamas, Yamhill, Washington and Multnomah counties in western Oregon, and in Wasco and Malheur counties in eastern Oregon. It is reported that there are a few in Gilliam and Walla-walla counties, but we have been unable to verify the report. It is altogether probable there are a few Angoras in Tillamook and Columbia counties, and it will not be long until they are numerous in every county west of the Cascade mountains.

According to the Alliance News the temperance party in Scotland are greatly incensed to find that so many members of the titled class are owners of public houses. The "beverage" is conspicuous in the house of lords. It is in this way that the nation's politicians reward those who are practically amongst its greatest enemies. But the nobility are not the only offenders. The blackest mark is placed against thirteen clergymen who derive incomes from the proceeds of the liquor traffic, one of them actually drawing £105 a year from a licensed house!

The annual M. E. conference will be held at Salem this year, commencing September 20th. Bishop John H. Vincent, of Topeka, Kansas, will preside. Bishop Vincent is the originator of the great Chattanooga movement, and is a noted Sunday-school worker. He is one of the most distinguished of the bishops. The conference will last from Wednesday until Monday. At this time the minister stationed in the different districts will be assigned.

Roseburg Review: Oregon is getting full returns for the liberal way they entertained the editorial association. Over four thousand feet of written matter by the editors, all speaking in the highest terms of Oregon, its people and its resources, have been received at the editors' headquarters at Portland. This is advertising of the right kind. Men—intelligent men—were here, they saw, and they told what they saw in language all their own.

It is learned that the big 10,000-acre A. B. Conley farm, in the Grand Ronde valley, is to be sold to a party of colonists from the east. Although the papers have not yet been made out and signed, the sale has been arranged, and will be consummated soon. The amount to be paid for the 10,000 acres approximates a quarter of a million dollars. It is very fine land, and will, of course, be cut up into smaller tracts, and farmed thoroughly.

Rev. Sam Jones says: "I understand that by actual mathematics it has been shown that we (the Americans) send to the heathen countries 13,000 barrels of whisky to one missionary. The devil doesn't care how many missionaries you send, if you send that amount of whisky along with them."

The Odd Fellows appointed a committee at the last session of the grand lodge to receive proposals for a site for an Odd Fellows' home, either by donation or purchase. There is a movement on foot to secure its establishment at or near Roseburg.

The anti-Goebel Democrats of Kentucky have put an independent ticket in the field, headed by former governor John Young Brown.

SECRETARY OF WAR ROOT WILL RESIGN.

Does Not Propose to Be Humiliated by the Cabinet Clique as Was Sherman.

Washington, August 19.—Secretary of War Root will resign. He will resign before the Philippine situation is cleared up. He will be forced to abandon his post in humiliation if he does not protect himself by early resignation. He has seen this. He has freely communicated his views as well as his intentions to the president. The alternative of keeping faith with Root is the one tendered to the president to prevent Root doing what ex-Postmaster-General Gary did when humiliated by Secretary of the Treasury Gage, with the consent of the president, or the shameful insults placed on the hoary head of John Sherman by Mark Hanna, by permission of the president. Root will not tolerate it. He has fathomed his ultimatum. He did so a few days ago at Plattsburg, N. Y. He went to the president in person, and the president understood him. Root is not to be juggled with. He is as confident of his position as is Theodore Roosevelt. Indeed, Root is now the Roosevelt of the cabinet. The administration has discovered the fact.

SELECTED AS A DUMMY SECRETARY.

The truth has come out that Secretary Root was not selected as a permanent official of the administration, not as a real secretary of war, but rather as an additional attorney-general, with duties restricted to questions arising out of the war complications and springing from the new relations of the colonial possessions or dependencies.

ANOTHER CALL MADE.

To Organize Ten Regiments of Volunteers for the Philippines.

Washington, Aug. 17.—The order has been issued directing that ten additional regiments of volunteers be organized for service in the Philippines. Regiments will be numbered from 38 to 47 and will be organized at Fort Snelling, Fort Crook, Mead, Fort Riley, Kan.; two at Camp Mead, Pa. Fort Niagara, N. Y.; Fort Ethan Allen, Vt.; Fort Leavenworth, Kan.; Fort Barrack, Mead, Pa.; Washington, Mass.

Improving Waterways—Captain Harris had at Work.

Captain W. W. Harris, says the Evening Telegram, who has charge of much of the river and harbor work in this country, is a busy man these days. This week he finished inspecting the contracts for work to be done at Coos bay, and on the Siuslaw and Coquille rivers. These contracts, along with the bonds, were forwarded to Washington for approval, and as soon as they are returned work will begin at the three places named.

These contracts were all awarded to Portland contractors. Wakefield & Jacobson got the Coos bay work, which amounts to about $140,000; John Kiernan gets the Coquille work, which will foot up something like $35,000, and Hale & Smith will do the $25,000 job contemplated along the Siuslaw.

Senator Harris' Ideas.

Chicago, Aug. 22.—A special to the Chronicle from Topeka, Kan., says: United States Senator Harris will introduce three amendments to the federal constitution at the next session of congress and ask that they be submitted to a vote of the people.

The first will provide that the president will be elected for six years, and shall be disqualified for re-election. The second is designed to make the term of congressmen four years. The third will provide for the election of senators by a direct vote of the people.

Senator Harris says a congressman no more than gets acquainted with the streets in Washington that lead to the capitol until he has to come home and fix up fences for re-election.

The Best Remedy for Flux.

Mr. John Mathias, a well known stock dealer of Pulaski, Ky., says: "After suffering for over a week with flux, and my physician having failed to relieve me, I was advised to try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and the pleasure of stating that the half of one bottle cured me." For sale by R. S. Knowlton.

Gov. Geer has appointed Mrs. Augusta C. Dolph, wife of Hon. Cyrus A. Dolph, as a member of the Paris exposition commission, to succeed to a place on the commission made vacant by the resignation of B. B. Beckman.

The Cottage Grove Nugget reports that all the returned volunteers at that place are opposed to the policy the government is pursuing toward the Philippine islands.

MR. LISTER SET ARIGHT.

Exceptions Taken to His Designation of a Coos County School.

[From the Oregonian, Aug. 17.] Coquille City, Or., Aug. 13.—(To the Editor.)—I am always interested in anything said of the section in which I live, but was from home when the letter of Rev. Mr. Lister appeared in your paper of July 31. He speaks truly of the popularity of the Oregonian, of the delightful breezes, of the rich resources of Coos county. He might have said much more, and yet have been far short of the facts. If he could have seen the immense piles of potatoes, beets or carrots coming off one little piece of ground, or the wagon loads of fruit on a few trees, or the stock that grow the year round without any feed, or the many other things found nowhere else. Perhaps it was his endeavor to see so many things that bewildered him so as to cause him to make what seem to us such inexcusable blunders. If he had said "we were told, etc.," but he tells as facts things that are not correct. He says, "Just adjacent to the city is a large portion of swamp land reserved by the state, that, if opened up to the people, would produce the most abundant crops of every sort. The soil is the best in the world, and brings forth nothing but valueless brush." If we have a state government that robs the people as he indicates, it ought to be punished in some way. But the land does not belong to the state, but to that class which so often obstruct improvement by the people—land-holding capitalists. So we are informed.

Another error he makes is worse, because it affects the living of an innocent family, and is false. No doubt somebody told him, and had a purpose in telling him, but he should have been more careful than to tell things unless he knows them to be true. It was, "There is a denominational college building at Coquille." Now, we know the college does not belong to the church any more than the stores in town do. Its present owner came here three years ago and was encouraged by the business men of the town to purchase the property. The deed is on record in the courthouse, and shows to whom it belongs. I heard the question asked today, "Why do people keep circulating that lie?" Because certain ones want control, and hope thereby to run him down so they can get it. Of course, Mr. Lister didn't know there was a design in his being told that this was a "denominational college," but the effect is the same. It was published in a general way all over the state through the Oregonian, and particularly in Coos and Curry counties, by being copied in the county papers. Many who believe as Mr. Lister claims to, that the public and state schools are much better, send elsewhere and our own part of the state must, forsooth, do without a high school, while helping other counties and states keep up theirs.

Southern Oregon Cattle.

From the Oregonian of Aug. 17, we quote: Langlois, Or., Aug. 14.—(To the Editor.)—Please notify cattle-buyers who come into Portland that Coos and Curry counties are full of cattle. We have no buyers here except the local buyers, and they generally want to get cattle for a song. The best prices obtainable here last spring were $11 for yearlings and $14 for 2-year-olds, and now they are offering 2 1/2 cents for beef. Call the attention of some eastern buyers to this fact. There are hundreds of head of good stock in Curry county for sale.

F. McMULLEN.

Miss Sarah Starr, stenographer at the governor's office, at Salem, died at one o'clock on the 17th from a dose of carbolic acid, probably taken for camphor, by mistake. She worked at the executive office until noon when she left for lunch as usual. During the forenoon the young lady had asked for permission to take a short vacation. She must have taken the poison shortly after 12 o'clock. The doctor does not think the poison was taken intentionally.

Gov. Geer has received and accepted the resignation of Miss Cora Smith, matron of the hospital at the Soldiers' Home at Roseburg, to take effect September 1st, and appointed Miss Myra Murphy to fill the vacancy.
