J. N. Russell to Be Pardoned.

Salem, Aug. 26.—Gov. Geer this afternoon decided to pardon Joseph N. Russell, sentenced to the penitentiary for life for the murder of Andrew Carlson, his son-in-law, in Coos county, in 1897.

Mrs. Hersey would like those owing her to call and settle. The money is much needed at present.

W. A. Goodman and family, late residents of Grants Pass, are visiting in Coquille City at his cousin J. P. Goodman's.

According to the state superintendent's explanation of the law, the 9th grade is as much a part of our Coquille district system as any other grade, and of course will proceed from the opening of the school.

Prof. Nosler, principal of our city schools, met his several assistants—Mrs. Chase, Miss Jo Beyers and Miss Fetter—yesterday and consulted on matters relating to the opening of school next Monday and other interests.

J. A. Jacobson is fixing up his part of the business house connected with Gilkey's and will make a splendid establishment out of it.

Coos county has the promise of another railroad—not the Cunningham creek affair, as foretold and assured by certain unreliable parties—but that of the Corvallis and Southern, just incorporated and with Coos bay named as a prospective point.

THE COOS COUNTY TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.

Largely Attended, Ably Conducted, Interesting and Edifying.

Ed. Herald: The teachers' institute convened in the public school building at 2 p. m. on Monday, August 21st, with an attendance of about 40.

This session foreshadowed the success of the week in a manner that gave encouragement to instructors and teachers alike.

MONDAY EVENING'S PROGRAM. At 8 o'clock, at Masonic Hall, was greeted with a large and attentive audience, which thoroughly enjoyed the literary program rendered.

Prof. Groat's lecture on Education was the leading feature of the session. The highly sensible and eminently practical thoughts advanced by the lecturer left no doubt in the minds of his hearers as to the ability of the man selected to instruct the teachers of Coos county.

TUESDAY'S SESSIONS. Were pretty evenly divided between Prof. Groat and State Superintendent Ackerman, the former in presenting the subject of History in an entertaining and highly instructive manner, showing how to lead the student into the great causes of the momentous events of the past; the latter in introducing the state course of study authorized by the last legislature.

Mr. Ackerman has done a very commendable work in getting out this course, and it required but little effort to enthrall the teachers with his own faith in its success.

The state superintendent complimented this county on its advanced plan of district school organization, giving us first place in that respect.

Like the previous one, was in every sense a success. The program consisted of an opening song by the choir; vocal solo, "One Little Girl and Me"—Miss Getty; address by State Superintendent Ackerman—"The Education of the Common People," song by the choir; recitation by Miss Nellie Dement.

The address by State Superintendent Ackerman was listened to in rapt attention. Every thought advanced by that practical school man and head of our state school system was eagerly drunk in by the immense crowd which filled to overflowing the largest hall in the town.

At the close of the regular exercises an informal social time was enjoyed, during which an abundant supply of cake and lemonade added much to the good cheer of the evening.

That occasion will never be forgotten by those who took part in it. It is so seldom that unalloyed pleasure can hold sway so long, during which everybody is exquisitely happy and after which comes no regrets to mar its memory.

WEDNESDAY EVENING. Mr. Ackerman left on the S. a. m. stage. He had appointments at two other institutes for the week, hence the limited time with us.

At this, the 31 day of the institute, the work settled down to regular class work—over 50 teachers composing the class, with Prof. Groat as instructor. It is useless to go into details. The unwavering interest lasting for a whole day cannot be even faintly portrayed by the pen of your reporter, but must be left wholly to the reflections of those who witnessed it.

There was no regular program for Wednesday evening, but that the visiting teachers might be made to fully realize that everybody in Coquille City delighted to do them honor, the "Bachelors' Club" invited the "schoolmams" to their headquarters, in the Band Hall, where the evening was spent in games, pleasant conversation, and in feasting on "cornbread and tasses."

What the sequel to this very enjoyable evening will be, no one not possessing the gift of prophecy can conjecture, but it is evidently the hope of the "club" that it will eliminate the necessity for its existence.

THURSDAY—THE 4TH DAY. Was the last and best day of the institute. Though the work resembled that of the previous day, the variety of subjects and the resources of the conductor made the day speed by like a "tale that is told."

The teachers desired very much to have the work continue over another day, but the means of returning home necessitated the absence of so many that it was thought best to close while the interest was unbroken.

SIXTY SEVEN MEMBERS. Were enrolled during the term—as follows:

Phelo Lamb, Arthur Brown, Alfred A. Johnson, Daisy B. Giles, L. Graves Gould, Lulu Walker, Inez Gause, Lily Wagner, Bertha Barklow, Mrs. Ida C. H. Fitch, Mrs. W. W. Gunn, Fanny Getty, L. M. Strout, C. H. Nosler, L. G. Masters, Elsie Tilman, Belle Vera Rich, M. G. Hawkins, Miss Jo Beyers, Minnie McCloskey, Flo McCloskey, Mand Devoe, Wills Hall, Mrs. D. L. Hood, Eunice Dement, M. O. Hooten, W. F. Fargo, J. H. Barklow, Mollie Caldwell, Bertha Braden, Mrs. E. C. Grout, Ruth Todd, F. A. Golden, Miss Libbie Gabeler.

Eva Hall, E. P. Savage, Mrs. M. A. Hoody, Inez Lusk, Mrs. W. W. Gunn, Birdie Walker, G. W. Johnson, Mrs. M. B. Bright, J. L. Futrell, Mrs. M. F. Wilbur, F. S. Bunch, Leah Hecker, K. L. Cavanaugh, M. D. Sumner, Edna Collier, Mary Quick, Mrs. W. A. Ringaman, Pearl Fetter, Nellie Dement, Irma Lukens, Bertha Frey, Tillie Gamble, L. R. Edmunds, Florence Twombly, Estelle Tyrrell, Mrs. McDonald, Winnie Dement, Isabel Lamont, J. W. Traver, Mrs. W. F. Fargo, G. P. Harrington, Miss Johnson.

The selection of the place for the next annual institute was, as last year, submitted to the teachers. Marshfield was chosen by an overwhelming majority.

The committee on resolutions, composed of Mrs. Rood, J. H. Barklow and W. F. Fargo, drew up and presented a series of very appropriate resolutions, composed of Mrs. Rood, J. H. Barklow and W. F. Fargo, drew up and presented a series of very appropriate resolutions, in substance thanking the state superintendent, county superintendent, and conductor Groat for the success of their work; the Masonic fraternity and school board for the use of buildings, and the people of Coquille City for the untrifling interest taken in the comfort and entertainment of their visitors.

The grand entertainment given THURSDAY NIGHT by the people of the town, in which some of the teachers assisted, was a fitting close to this most successful gathering of Coos county's instructors. The following was the program:

Quintet, "When My Ship Comes Over the Sea"—Mrs. L. H. Hazard, Mrs. Nora McEwen, Miss Irma Lukens, A. A. Leach and J. McEwen; recitation by Nellie Fairman; recitation by Mary Quick; instrumental duet, "Sparks"—Mrs. Prof. Hawkins and Miss Maude Nosler; select reading by J. J. Stanley; quartet, "The Village of the Vale"—Mrs. McEwen, Miss Irma Lukens, A. A. Leach and J. S. McEwen; recitation by Mary Hall; recitation by Cora Burns; cornet solo by V. R. Wilson; recitation (by request) by Miss Eunice Dement; recitation by Leta Barrows; piano solo by Mrs. Hazard; recitation by Miss Johnson; recitation by Miss Flo McCloskey; instrumental duet (guitar) by Mr. and Miss Emory; dialogue, "The Frog-Hollow Lyceum"; ladies' chorus, "The Mermaids' Song"—Mrs. Hazard, Mrs. McEwen, Mrs. Prof. Nosler, Miss Belle Rich, Miss Kittie Johnson and Miss Maude Nosler.

The piano accompaniments to the vocal numbers and cornet solo were splendidly given by Miss Marvin Lamb and Mrs. Louis Hazard, very clever performers.

The vocal music, the instrumental selections, the recitations—in fact everything pertaining to this occasion were of the highest order and held the immense audience as if spellbound to a late hour.

Those who witnessed the week's work and saw those who took part in it can but congratulate the county on the splendid educational outlook.

TEACHER. Corporation Anarchists Dely the Courts.

Spokane, Aug. 22.—At Coeur d'Alene City today officials of the Northern Pacific defied the superior court of the first judicial district of Idaho, and refused to allow S. P. Donnelly to take possession of the property of which he had been appointed receiver by Judge Mayhew. Receiver Donnelly has reported the matter to Judge Mayhew, and asks that the court direct the sheriff of Kootenai county to furnish sufficient force to carry out the mandates of the court. The case is the climax of the bitterly contested litigation between the Coeur d'Alene Railway & Navigation Company and William L. Spalding, the contractor, who built a portion of the road 10 years ago. Spalding, after the cause had been carried to the United States supreme court, obtained judgment for nearly $50,000, and as the road refused to pay, a receiver was appointed for the branch line, and today he was to have begun his duties.

The Annual Reunion of the G. A. R.

The Southwest Oregon Veterans' Association held their annual reunion at Marshfield, August 16, 1899. A majority of the members arrived in that city the 15th, which was pioneer day, and they joined in the festivities of that and assisted in a grand reception given two members of the Second Oregon regiment of the Manila volunteers who returned that evening. The reception was a creditable affair.

The veterans formed in line and headed by the Marshfield band a grand march was had along the principal streets. The veterans swung into the ranks of the procession with much of the spirit and buoyancy displayed before their forms were bent with age and their locks were sprinkled with gray.

Rev. R. C. Lee delivered an eloquent address in the evening and a most pleasurable time was enjoyed that will long be remembered. The exercises were interspersed with vocal and instrumental music.

On the 16th the veterans were hoping that the sun might appear and chase away the mists that cling to the atmosphere so that they might enjoy the camp that had been prepared for them on the hillside, but the clouds kept dropping a gentle spray, hence the hall was occupied and several earnest and patriotic addresses were made. Prof. W. H. Bunch and a visiting Son of a Veteran acquitted themselves satisfactorily to the audience.

In the afternoon Rev. Lee delivered a rousing address. In closing the speaker offered a glowing and eloquent tribute to the defenders of the flag. Twelve young ladies furnished vocal music.

At the business meeting Maj. M. T. Underland, S. V. C.; W. R. Landy, J. V. C.; Rev. F. M. Sanderlin, chaplain; Dr. S. L. Roberts, surgeon; Arthur Bridges, Q. M.

A motion was carried instructing the adjutant to prepare a record book that each member's name may be recorded at each meeting.

A committee, consisting of Comrades Dr. Tower and George Wickham, was appointed to see that every old soldier's grave is marked with a headstone.

A vote of thanks was given the town for the cordial reception they had given the veterans, and to all who had endeavored to assist.

The empire in the evening was a feature of the meeting this year that was pleasing in the extreme. Major Brown, a silvery-haired veteran of the Texas war for independence, was among the most interesting speakers. His story of the first battle with the Mexicans was thrilling, as were also the reminiscences of Judge D. J. Lowe, who pictured with excellent ability the scenes of the war in Mexico some few years after Major Brown's experiences. Comrades Vandear, of Michigan, and others did well to entertain. These interesting exercises continued until a late hour, when an adjournment was had, but not until the members agreed to assemble at Marshfield the next annual meeting and give the good people of the town an opportunity to show a fuller appreciation of the worth of patriotism.

A young man fresh from the seat of war in the Philippine islands was a guest of the assembly, and he received a hearty and royal welcome. ORVILLE DODD, Secretary.

DEWEY NEVER FAVORED IT. Would Like to See Violence Against Filipinos Stopped—Capable of Self-Government.

New York, Aug. 21.—A dispatch to the World from London gives at some length the London Daily News' reported interview with Admiral Dewey at Naples. According to the correspondent Admiral Dewey began by saying that he regarded Cavite as the battle which decisively turned the fortunes of war in favor of the Americans. He added: "The Spanish ships were fought well, all the same."

The correspondent asked him if the Philippines were likely to be pacified soon. The admiral replied: "I have the question of the Philippines more at heart than has any other American, because I know the Filipinos intimately and they know I am their friend. The recent insurrection is the fruit of the anarchy which has long reigned in the islands, but the insurgents will have to submit themselves to the law after being accustomed to no law at all. I believe and affirm, nevertheless, that the Philippine question will be very shortly solved."

"The Filipinos are capable of governing themselves; they have all the qualifications for it. It is a question of time, but the only way to settle the insurrection and assure prosperity to the archipelago is to concede self-government to the inhabitants. That would be a solution of many questions and would satisfy all, especially the Filipinos, who believe themselves worthy of it and are so."

"I have never been in favor of violence toward the Filipinos. The islands are at this moment blockaded by a fleet and war weapons in the interior. This abnormal state of things should cease. I should like to see autonomy first conceded and then annexation might be talked about. This is my opinion."

"I would like to see violence at once put a stop to. According to my view, the concession of self-government ought to be the most just and logical solution."

The admiral spoke with an air of frank conviction.

CATARRH OF THE STOMACH. Is essentially a chronic disease. There is an inflammation of the inner coating of the stomach. A thick,ropy mucus forms and this causes the more pronounced symptoms. It remains in the stomach and decomposes. Then of course digestion cannot be properly performed. The food becomes involved and in a short time the symptoms are more severe. The great vegetable remedy HUYDAN for 50c per package. It is the only medicine that you have used. HUYDAN will cure you of its effects. They are cured. Study your symptoms carefully from this chart. Each number represents a symptom or a group of symptoms. You have the symptoms. Use HUYDAN and they will disappear. Don't wait any longer. Cancer of the stomach has its beginning in a severe case of catarrh of the stomach.

THE SYMPTOMS ARE: 1. BILIOUS HEADACHE—This is more pronounced in the morning, though usually occurring at frequent intervals throughout the day. HUYDAN will relieve the headache. 2. RED AND WATERY EYES—HUYDAN will cause the redness to disappear and make the eyes assume their normal healthy appearance. 3. COATED TONGUE AND FOETID BREATH AND BAD TASTE IN THE MOUTH—HUYDAN will clear the tongue, make the breath pure, clear and sweet and cause the bad taste to disappear. 4. PAIN AND TENDERNESS IN THE STOMACH—This is the indigestion. HUYDAN will cause the food to become perfectly digested and the pain and tenderness will disappear. 5. ENLARGEMENT OF THE LIVER AND A FEELING OF HEAVINESS AND WEIGHT—HUYDAN will lessen the congestion, establish a free and perfect flow of bile and reduce the enlarged liver to its normal size. HUYDAN will relieve you of the above symptoms and make you well. Do not delay. You will find full and explicit directions wrapped with each package of HUYDAN. Go to your druggist at once and procure a package of HUYDAN for 50c, or $1 for $2.50.
