Now You See It, Now You Don't.

Within the last eleven months 2767 Chinese, 13,218 Japanese and 75 Portuguese have arrived in Hawaii. It has now been annexed much more than a year, and the administration from the very outset had the power, and it was its duty, to enforce the laws of the United States prohibiting such immigration. It did not use this power because it wanted to introduce an unlimited supply of cheap labor into the United States proper. It has also distinctly taken a position in favor of contract labor in the case of that from the Madeira Islands. The American consul there prevented laborers already booked for Honolulu from going there, telling them that their contracts were not worth the paper on which they were written, as Hawaii was American territory, and he was correct; but the state department overruled him, holding that labor contracts were in full force. It is clear that Hawaii either is American territory or it is not. If it is, the laws against importation of Asiatics and contract labor apply without action of congress; if it is not, then the American government has no authority whatever in Hawaii and the annexation is void. There can be no logical intermediate position. Yet it seems to be under the rulings that whenever the interests of labor could be promoted under annexation the islands are foreign; but whenever those of politicians, official and speculators are concerned, they are part of the United States.—S. F. Star.

Rockland (Mass.) Ind.: A singular custom prevails among the Tartars. If a man gets into difficulties—i. e., loses his cattle or other movable property—he pours a little brown sugar into a piece of colored cloth, ties it up and carries one such parcel to each of his friends and acquaintances. In return he is presented, according to circumstances, with a cow, or sheep, or a sum of money. He is thus at once set on his legs again.

But they are only "barbarians." If they were "civilized" they would take a chattel mortgage, and in default of payment turn him out to starve to death.—S. F. Star.

The platform of the Ohio Democracy is as follows: It opposes imperialism in words or on uncertain sound; it favors the initiative and referendum, which means direct recourse to and action by the people; it is against trusts of every kind and advocates public ownership of utilities; it favors election of president and senators by popular vote; it is opposed to all "entangling alliances," particularly an Anglo-Saxon alliance. In brief, it is a truly American platform, "up-to-date."

S. F. Star: It is now stated that General Otis was president of the court-martial that tried Captain Carter, and that instead of the verdict being unanimous, it was 7 to 6, Otis casting the deciding vote, and that the case was not fairly tried; that half the secrets of the Cumberland Sound work, of which work Carter had charge, have not been revealed, because it was taken out of his successor's (Captain Gillett's) reach; that the president's delay in the case is due to his desire to shield Otis.

Republican U. S. Senator Carter, of Montana, in an interview with a Post reporter, says that the Republican party, he believed, would settle this question by insisting that the retention of the Philippines was a matter of business profit. "This," added the senator, "is a practical age. We are going to deal with this question on a basis of dollars and cents."

S. F. Star: So far as press interviews go, it seems that members of the house from this state are shilly-shallying on the subject of trusts. Of course, they all profess to be opposed to them, but think the matter wholly one for state action, well knowing that any state legislation, if efficient, will be nullified in the federal courts.

President Kruger, of Transvaal, in an interview regarding the crisis, said he considered the Boers position best defined by Psalm lxxxii, the path of which is: "They have said, come and let us cut them off from being a nation." In that respect it is equally applicable to all imperialist schemes, British or American.

S. F. Star: General Funston describes himself as "an anti-expansionist, and a disbeliever in the possibility of profit to any Americans except great capitalists from holding the Philippines." Now let some of the stay-at-home expansionists begin to call him a traitor.

S. F. Star: General Otis, not finding that censorship works as per program, is going to run a "rat" paper, but the soldiers assigned to the "cases" want type-setters' pay. Let them be shot; or at least be placed in a "bull-pen."

Are These Your "Traitors?"

There are men who never read the constitution, others who have never read a line of diplomatic correspondence, others who regard themselves, their beliefs, and their party as infallible who have cried out, "treason, traitor," because these and other men have dared oppose their views, their expansion, their "benevolent assimilation," etc. When some patriot(?) uses that language again, instead of considering the source, you might confront him with this list of officers of the "Anti-Imperialist League."
President—George S. Boutwell, ex-secretary of treasury.
Vice Presidents—
Charles Francis Adams, grandson of John Quincy Adams,
Felix Adler,
Edward Atkinson,
L. W. Bacon,
Samuel Bowles,
Gamaliel Bradford,
John C. Bullitt,
Donelson Caffery,
John G. Carlisle, ex-secretary of treasury,
Andrew Carnegie,
James C. Carter,
Grover Cleveland, ex-president,
W. Bourke Cockran, congressman,
Patrick A. Collins,
Theodore L. Cuyler,
George F. Edmunds,
William H. Fleming,
Patrick Ford,
Austen G. Fox,
Samuel Gompers, pres. Federation of Labor,
Thomas Wentworth Higginson,
Henry U. Johnson,
David S. Jordan, president Stanford University,
W. Larrabee,
Charlton T. Lewis,
George G. Mercey,
Herbert Myrick,
Patrick O'Farrell,
H. S. Pingle, governor of Michigan,
Henry Codman Potter,
E. Prentiss,
Henry Wade Rogers,
Carl Schurz, ex-secretary of state,
John Sherman, ex-secretary of state,
Edwin Burritt Smith,
W. G. Sumner,
B. R. Tillman, senator,
Hermann von Holst,
Herbert Welsh,
John J. Valentine, president Well-Fargo Co.

Nearly every one of these men voted and worked for the election of Wm. McKinley for president. Among other prominent anti-expansionists of the country are U. S. Senator Mason, of Illinois (Rep.), ex-Governor Lord, of Oregon, and Admiral George Dewey.

Expense of Going to College.

At Radcliffe, Harvard's affiliated college, the lowest estimate is $450, and this ranks as the most expensive of all the colleges; while Mount Holyoke, at $250, is about the lowest. Barnard, Vassar and Wellesley each charges $400; the Woman's College of Baltimore, $375; Smith, $300; the University of Chicago, $300. This includes laundry charges, too, but nothing more. Books, clothing, and traveling expenses must all be counted extra, and an average of $100 is needed for church, charities, clubs, and the numerous small incidentals that have a way of cropping up on all sides in the everyday college routine. These figures only represent the cost to the student of limited means. The rich girl may easily spend $1000, and not be markedly extravagant either. Every college tries to facilitate the efforts of the wage-earning student by donating whole or partial scholarships, loaning money without interest, and offering employment in the library, copying, tutoring and similar work.

Oregon National Guard.

Salem, Sept. 3.—The new Oregon National Guard, the first company of which was organized in June, 1898, is building up rapidly. It is expected that a full regiment will soon be formed. At present the guard is composed of 12 infantry companies, with a total strength of about 660 men, and battery A, of Portland, with a strength of about 80 men. The infantry companies are located as follows:
Company A, Baker City; B, Ashland; C, Eugene; D, The Dalles; E, F, G, and I, Portland; H, Grant's Pass; K, Salem; separate company F, Oregon City, and separate company K, Bandon.

The colored work in Biggle Berry Book is an immense aid to berry growers. It shows the leading berries true to size, shape and color. They were first carefully painted by an experienced artist, and then reproduced by lithograph at a cost of over one thousand dollars. Aside from the color work there are scores of reproductions made directly from photographs of berries, so that the reader may have an accurate idea of them. See publishers' announcement in another column. The price is 50 cents, free by mail; address the publishers, Wilmer Atkinson Co., Philadelphia.

In Leadville (Col.) Mrs. Catherine Rothenberg has virtually been convicted of being a witch. She was savagely assaulted by Martin Roberts, and the court admitted evidence in palliation to show that she had bewitched him! It needs only one step more in Leadville to burning witches.

Liliuokalani, former queen of Hawaii, is keeping house in Washington. She has abandoned all hopes of regaining her throne, and says she is a thorough American—sorter Annexed. But where's her English chambermaid?

Sixty-three pension attorneys have been lately disbanded by reason of unprofessional and crooked practices. This may be one reason why the total number of pensioners has not gone beyond the million mark.

Even Mexico is engaged in civilizing heathen. The Yaquis are feeling the heavy hand of civilization.

THE G. A. R. ENCAMPMENT.

Forty-two Thousand Veterans to March in the Parade.

Philadelphia, Sept. 3.—The 33d annual encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic will begin tomorrow. The vanguard of the veterans has reached the city and found the people with outstretched hands. Never again, perhaps, will Philadelphia be the scene of a national encampment of the G. A. R. Of the valiant men who defended the cause of the union there remains but a remnant, and with the depletion of the ranks, the welcome is the more heartfelt and enthusiastic. Admiral Sampson and his fighting ships arrive today and this evening, and marks the beginning of the week's celebration. The city is crowded with strangers, while the incoming trains from all sections are bringing thousands to help swell the throng. The city has borne its share of the work, and the citizens of Philadelphia, by contributions of cash and in welcoming banners, have shown their interest in the reunion.
Camp Sexton, near Belmont Park, contains 1600 tents. It is intended to accommodate those posts of the Grand Army which prefer to camp out rather than be quartered in halls, armories or private houses. The tents will shelter 10,000 veterans.

As the veterans pass around the city hall they will be reviewed by President McKinley, who is expected to arrive Monday night, accompanied by Secretaries Root and Gage and Postmaster-General Smith. There will be over 42,000 in line. A feature of Tuesday's event will be the chorus of 3000 school children who will occupy a portion of the grandstand on the north side of the city hall. As the parade passes this point the children will sing patriotic airs.

A Jew's View of Christ.

H. Weinstock, a prominent Jew of Sacramento, California, has created considerable discussion by reading a paper entitled "Jesus the Jew," in various synagogues on the Pacific coast. The following passage will give an idea of his point of view: "I found that according to New Testament traditions, Jesus was born a Jew, lived a Jew, died a Jew. I found that he preached nothing but Judaism in its purest and simplest form. I found that the thought of establishing a new belief or even a new sect was furthest from his mind; that his aim was not to follow after the heathen, but to seek out the lost sheep of the house of Israel. I found that his mission seemed to be to uplift the lowly and to expose wickedness in high places. I found that he gave his heart, his soul and his very being to the poor, the sick and the needy. He said: 'I am not come to heal the sound, I have been sent to the sick.' I found that he was a man of unbounded sympathies and of great moral courage; that he was simply striving to practice and to preach the great moral code established by Moses and the prophets, and to literally put into practice in his daily life the great law-giver's precept of 'love thy neighbor as thyself.'"

Not the Wisest Way.

It is not always best to wait until it is needed before buying a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Quite frequently the remedy is required in the very busiest season or in the night and much inconvenience and suffering must be borne before it can be obtained. It costs but a trifle as compared with its real worth and every family can well afford to keep it in their home. It is everywhere acknowledged to be the most successful medicine in the world for bowel complaints. For sale by R. S. Knowlton.

The National Land List.

The only genuine real estate paper published in America. It circulates in every state in the Union. Parties interested in buying, selling or exchanging land, merchandise or other property will find what they want in THE NATIONAL LAND LIST. It is jam full of special bargains and offers of exchange. Single copies by mail 10 cents. Address The National Land List Publishing Co., Green Ridge, Missouri.

Edward Everett Hale says he recently asked a little boy where Lake Champlain was. "I don't know," said the little boy, "but my father has some of the water in bottles."

Prison-Stripped Nobility.

According to the figures presented in a French magazine the number of persons of titled birth confined in the prisons of Europe is 20,000. Of these Russia has the largest representation, 12,000 of her blue-blooded lawbreakers having been placed behind the bars. Italy, whose dungeon cells contain thousands of noblemen, has won second place in this humiliating rivalry.
It may be that William Waldorf Astor made a mistake after all in relinquishing citizenship in a country of democratic ideas and primitive virtues for the privilege of tolerance among a class so largely represented among the prison denizens of the old world, and so densely populated with the bacilli of moral decay. William Waldorf Astor stated during the progress of his novitiate for British citizenship that his main objection to a residence on this side was the aggressiveness of suddenly acquired wealth and the breezy assurance of the self-confident American. But these are infinitely to be preferred to the mask of artificial manners which is too often worn to conceal a depraved moral nature.

The figures given are instructive to American women. It may prove profitable for them to consider that the ownership of titles, family trees and coats-of-arms do not necessarily imply the possession of self-respect, honesty and honor. American women of millions who figure on buying titles might advantageously speculate upon the chance of purchasing a convenient husband or a family of felons.

Mrs. Ada M. Herr, of 439 N. Charlotte St., Lancaster, Pa., suffered terribly from female disorders. Her nerves became unstrung, she endured intense pain, the slightest labor wearied her and household duties became a burden. Frequent fainting and dizzy spells would come upon her and she would fall prostrate in a swoon. After trying several physicians without success Mrs. Herr began taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. She says: "The pills brought immediate relief, and after taking six boxes I was cured. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People had done what all previous treatment had failed to do."—From the Examiner, Lancaster, Pa.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People contain, in a condensed form, all the elements necessary to give new life and richness to the blood and restore shattered nerves. They are an unfailing specific for such diseases as locomotor ataxia, partial paralysis, St. Vitus' dance, vertigo, neuralgia, rheumatism, nervous headache, the after-effects of the grip, palpitation of the heart, pale and sallow complexion, and all forms of weakness either in male or female.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are never sold by the dozen or hundred, but always in packages. At all druggists, or direct from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y., 80 cents per box, 6 boxes $2.50.

The Improved New High-Arm "Arlington" Sewing Machine

NEW HOME STYLE

Shipped to anyone anywhere, on 15 days' free trial, in your own name, with no obligation, unless you are not satisfied, you can return it at once, and we will refund the money.

10 years' written warranty with each machine.

A strictly high-grade Sewing Machine, finished throughout in the most perfect manner. It possesses all modern improvements, and its mechanical construction is such that it is able to combine simplicity with great strength, thus insuring ease of running, durability, and making it impossible for the machine to be put out of order. It sews fast and makes a perfect stitch with all kinds of thread and all kinds of material. Always ready for use, and perfectly reliable. Workmark of finest quality oak or walnut, gable cover and drawers, nickel-plated legs.

The Head of the "Arlington" swings on patent socket hinges, firmly held down by a thumb screw. Strong, substantial, neat and handsome in design, and beautifully ornamented in gold. Highest Arm—space under the arm is 24 inches high and 9 inches long. This will admit the largest skirts and even quilts. It is Self-Freelancing—absolutely no holes to put thread through except eye of needle. Shuttle revolves, opens out, entirely self-threading, easy to put in and take out. Bobbin holds a large amount of thread. Stitch Regulator is on the top of the machine, beneath the bobbin winder, and has a scale for the length of the stitch, and can be changed from 8 to 24 stitches in the inch. Feed is double and extends on both sides of needle; never fails to take goods through, never slips at seams; movement is positive; no springs to break and get out of order; can be raised and lowered at will. Automatic Bobbin Winder—No. 10: fitting the bobbin automatically and perfectly smooth without holding the thread. Machine does not run while winding bobbin. Light Running—Machine is easy to turn on and off. It makes little noise and sews rapidly. Stitch is a double lock stitch, the same on both sides, will not unravel and can be changed without stopping the machine. Tension is a fine adjustment, and will admit thread from 8 to 150 pound cotton without changing. Never get out of order. The Needle is a straight, self-cutting needle, fits on one side, and cannot be put in wrong. Needle Bar is round, made of one-piece steel, with oil cup at the bottom to prevent oil from getting on the goods. Adjustable Bearings—All bearings are case-hardened steel and easily adjusted with a screw driver. All lost motions can be taken up, and the machine will last a lifetime. Attachments—Each machine is furnished with necessary tools and accessories, and in addition we furnish an extra set of attachments to select lined metal box, free of charge. Sewing Machine, ruffler and gatherer, one leader, one shirting plate, one set of four buttons, different kind of top to 1/2 of an inch, one tucker, one under button, one short or attachment foot, and one thread cutter. Workmark of finest quality oak or walnut, gable cover and drawers, nickel-plated legs to drawers, gable covers and wheels, and device for replacing belt.
