Mr. and Mrs. Capt. Geo. Leneve went to Bandon Saturday and attended a special meeting of the Eastern Star at that place.

Lorenz is stocking up on a larger scale than ever, and has made special selections for his fall and winter trade. See notice—"Save Money."

The local agent for brick from Giles' yard at Myrtle Point, Wm. Mansell, was busy last week receiving and delivering some orders.

Mrs. Lutke, grand matron of O. E. S., took the train yesterday for Marshfield and will visit Doris chapter tonight. She then goes to Gardiner.

The schooner Mayflower came from San Francisco to Lyons' mill for lumber last Wednesday, and yesterday the Albion reached our wharf.

The social dance given by Leach's orchestra at Bandon Hill last Saturday night was fairly well attended and thoroughly enjoyed by those who attended.

The M. E. church, south, parsonage was put under the artist's brush last week and handsomely painted in time to greet the pastor and his good wife.

David McNair, one of Myrtle Point's substantial and progressive citizens, was in this place last week on a business run. He gave the Herald a pleasant call.

Archbishop Christie, of Portland, had an appointment for a service at this place last Wednesday evening, but it was cancelled for some cause and no service at all given here.

County Judge Harlocker and commissioners Weekly and McIntosh resumed official work in adjourned session last Wednesday. The Herald publishes their proceedings today.

Mrs. J. F. Hall, of Marshfield, went up to Myrtle Point on last Wednesday's train and out over the Middle Fork road to Roseburg. She will visit her mother at Rough-and-Ready, and other friends at Montague, Cal.

The pain of a burn or a scald is almost instantly relieved by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It also heals the injured parts more quickly than any other treatment, and without the burn is very severe does not leave a scar. For sale by R. S. Knowlton.

W. H. Williams, of Beaver Blough, took Mrs. W. to Roseburg last week, en route to some southern point in quest of the latter's health. Mrs. W. has been very ill for several months, having that dread disease consumption afflicting her and at that stage demanding a change of climate.

Next Saturday evening, Sept. 30, there will be a dance at Randolph, given by the Randolph school. Excellent music has been engaged and the steamer Dispatch will leave Bandon in the evening, taking all who wish to attend free of charge. A good time is assured and all are cordially invited. Tickets, including supper, one dollar.

It is reported that all postmasters of the United States will soon be required to wear a uniform consisting of light blue trousers with red stripes, a white blouse with gold shoulder straps, and a skull cap with a silver star in front. Our Bird will look all right in such toggery, but we await the parade of the "profess," and will look with distended eyes (but with shaded glasses on) when our several county female postmasters step into line.

Red Clover Seed, in large quantity, at the Pharmacy.

Mrs. Prof. Hawkins is visiting in town for several days.

Hon. Thomas Buckman, of Marshfield, is present as a witness at court.

There are many visitors and prospectors from California and other parts in our section.

Mr. Perry and family returned yesterday from an outing of about two weeks on the beach.

You can see Pencils and "School Things" in general in the Coquille Pharmacy show-windows.

Ashland Tidings: Rev. E. A. Ross' mother arrived in Ashland Thursday from Atlanta, Georgia, and will make her home here with her son.

Whetstone's Orchestra will give a social ball at Masonic Hall next Saturday night. Of course the music will be first-class and a good time assured.

W. S. Chandler, of Marshfield, representing the Sprackels Bros' interests in this section, is in town and takes part as a witness in the court in several cases.

The Herald job office has been busy the past week. Letterheads, billheads, programs and circulars are turned out in the neatest style, by a practical job printer, at city rates.

Owing to sickness in the family of Dr. Parsons, the oculist and optician, who announced to be here about this time, he recalls his appointment at present and will announce it later.

The attendance at opening of court last Monday was very large—attendance of attorneys, jurymen and witnesses being prompt, occasioning no contempt cases, nor the issuance of bench warrants nor mandatory orders against informed parties.

Mr. and Mrs. McQuigg last Saturday placed on our desk a good sample of pole beans—good both in quality and quantity—for which we return thanks. They are something new, and make a dish in that line the equal of anything that reaches the market.

The organization of a lodge of the K. of P. took place in this city last Saturday night. We have no data at hand to make mention of its strength in membership nor its list of officers, but may be furnished the information from one of the inside, reliable and trustworthy.

AGENTS WANTED—FOR—"THE LIFE and Achievements of Admiral Dewey," the world's greatest naval hero. By Marat Halsted, the life-long friend and admirer of the nation's hero. The Lominion Company, 34 Floor Caxton Bldg., Chicago.

J. R. Roebon, the artist painter at Marshfield, attended the special meeting of Beulah Chapter, O. E. S., at this place last Friday evening, during the visit of Mrs. Lutke, grand matron. He spent Saturday night also as an attendant at the organization of the K. of P. by Col. Calk, state organizer.

R. D. Sanford and son, Oliver, have returned home from their visit to Ashland, Grants Pass, Medford and other points in the Rogue river valley. They had a pleasant trip, saw much change since they left that section eight or nine years ago, and have a good opinion of the country, but nothing to induce them to give up their holdings here and make a change back there.

W. H. Hull, ex-chairman Populist county committee, was up from Riverton last Friday. He was glad to know that the Populists of Coquille were on the move, and hoped soon to see the way clear for thorough organization and a fair field. He gave as a pointer or two as to what we may expect from the third-term officials, and we confess it looks that way, from present indications.

Our old friend, B. J. Harrison, who has spent several months mining in the upper Sixes country, father of the Harrison Bros' who lately made the richest strike of years in our mining section, came down to Coquille on the 16th to visit his daughters, Mrs. Charley and Mrs. George Collier, and other friends and acquaintances. He visited the "Old Reliable" sanatorium and was welcome. The old gentleman looks well and confesses the mountain air has given him a new lease of life.

Plenty of water the year round. sold in W. M. GALLIER.

Rev. E. L. Fitch, pastor of the Southern Methodist church at this place the past year, has been re-appointed to this station and is presiding elder also of this new district.

James Ferry, host of the Blanco Hotel at Marshfield, is an attendant at court. He tells us his brother, Joseph, who received severe injuries by a fall lately, is doing well and he hopes for early recovery.

Save Money

By holding your orders just a few days, when Lorenz's will receive the biggest line of Plush and Cloth Caps and Jackets ever brought to this section. You will have money on your purchases.

Revs. Hoye, Irvine and Walsh, of the Baptist order, have been conducting religious services nightly the past week in the Christian church, with increasing interest. The services are very interesting, and will continue several nights yet.

T. W. Clark, president of the Bandon woolen mills, spent some time in this city last week. Large shipments of their manufacture go to this city via this place, and Mr. C. is looking ahead for transportation via the bay. A boat running to and from this river to the city is badly needed.

Myrtle Creek Items, Roseburg Review: Rev. W. R. Hanson, the Southern Methodist minister stationed here for the past two years, has been transferred to Myrtle Point. Rev. Hanson is an able man of untiring energy, and is held in high esteem by the Christian people of this place who regret to see him depart.

Uncle Shad Hudson came down from Eckley yesterday. He is in correspondence with a number of parties investigating our precious metals, particularly gold, platinum and iridium, the introduction of the cyanide and other processes of reduction and other development enterprises. He will make his home at Eckley the coming winter and gather specimens for assay and investigation.

Mr. Sanford met Ed Price and family, formerly residents here, but for two years past Ed being engaged in mill work in California, at Ashland, about concluded to return to Coos county. Ed has done very well since his absence, and was only halting in this latter decision by a proposition he was considering to locate and assist in the establishment of a large milling plant for some investors from the east in that section.

Rev. E. L. Fitch and family reached their home at this place last week and renewed their fellowship with the Southern Methodist church for another year. Mr. F. preached his first sermon of the new conference year Sunday to a good audience. He had a pleasant trip, an interesting conference experience and returns to his work well satisfied to devote another year among the people here. The Herald joins the many welcome that have greeted these clever people.

The Herald acknowledges a pleasant call yesterday from W. S. Jess, a prominent young orchardist and fruit-grower at Grants Pass, who reached this place a few days ago and yesterday wedded our Miss Lucia Nichols, whom he takes with him tomorrow to his home. The Herald congratulates and wishes long life and unalloyed happiness. We regret to lose our young ladies, but when they do so well for companionship, we must yield consent and wish them joy and peace.

Not the Wisest Way.

It is not always best to wait until it is needed before buying a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Quite frequently the remedy is required in the very busiest season or in the night and much inconvenience and suffering must be borne before it can be obtained. It costs but a trifle as compared with its real worth and every family can well afford to keep it in their home. It is everywhere acknowledged to be the most successful medicine in the world for bowel complaints. For sale by R. S. Knowlton.

Parties desiring to attend the academy at this place should address Rev. J. L. Futrell regarding rates and dates. The professor who will come from the east to conduct the school wants a guaranty of a certain number of scholars before assuming charge. Attend to this matter at once.

BOOK KEEPING.—As we hope for enough applications, to justify opening school on Oct. 9, it is important that all wishing to study bookkeeping should set us at once, so the appliances may be sent for. They are not kept here.

In Memoriam.

(Grace Belle Strang (nee Caldwell) was born near Eckley, Curry county, March 3, 1870, and resided there until about six years ago, when she came with the family to near Myrtle Point. She was married to David Strang at Bandon Feb. 3, 1897, and died at the home of her parents near Myrtle Point July 27, 1899, of consumption, aged 30 years, 5 months and 29 days.

A dear one has fallen, one cherished of earth

And gone to the God who knoweth her worth.

Though honored and loved, and trusted by all.

She could but obey the Omnipotent call.

Her stay here, though brief, was peaceful and calm;

Her company sweet, her presence a balm;

A friend to the needy, and bore well her part.

Her kindness is written in many a heart.

There are broken hearts left on this pitiless shore.

All bleeding to think they will see her no more;

There's a vacant seat now in many a place,

Where loved ones oft her image can trace.

Kind parents, fond husband how neath the chastening rod

That is laid upon you by an All-Wise God.

Whose loving care and omnipotent hand

Beacons you on and upward to a better land.

O, refuse not the solace He alone can bestow

While journeying through this valley of woe!

And when you have ended your pilgrimage here,

May you each rest in peace with the loved one so dear.

The District School Meeting

Last Saturday afternoon, held at the school building, was very slimly attended, and no business transacted except to adopt a resolution to instruct the clerk to issue a new call for a meeting to be held on Saturday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, October 7th, and to include therein a proposition for levying a 5-mill tax for the purpose of extending the present school term to nine months.

In noting the call for the school meeting last week, we mentioned its importance for the interests of the school, and since it failed, we are glad that a double importance attaches to the new call necessitating the presence of the friends of our school interests.

Roseburg Review: W. S. Vandenberg, who came within a few votes of beating Tom Tongue for congress, is now engaged in earning an honest livelihood by canvassing for books in Coos and Curry counties.
