Church Directory.

M. E. church, south—regular services each Sunday morning and evening, by the pastor. E. L. Frch.

Rev. Robt. Ennis, Presbyterian, will conduct services in this city the 2d and 4th Sundays of each month, in the little church till further notice. All are cordially invited.

LOCAL ITEMS.

Mrs. Ev Hayes returned last week from a visit on the bay.

J. C. Brown, a thrifty lower-river rancher, was doing town last week on business.

The ladies of the Christian church held a meeting last Thursday and organized a missionary society.

L. L. Dietz and family will move up from Riverton and occupy a house on the Notley hill, near A. A. Leach's.

Will Doak, of the lower river, has recovered from a recent accident and was a visitor in town last Wednesday.

Attorney Seaman, of Marshfield, attended to business at the county offices last Friday morning, and returned on the 10:30 train.

Charles Selander and John Hilbakka, of the bay side, were in Coquille City last Wednesday on business at the courthouse.

Mr. Fry began occupancy of the Moulton property, at the creamery above town, which he purchased recently, and moved in part to it last week.

Mrs. George Wulf and Atorneys John F. Hall and J. S. Coke came over from Marshfield on last Wednesday's train to attend to some sheriff's sale business.

John T. Jenkins, after several years' absence from this neighborhood and for something over a year in Washington, returned Monday of last week and joined his family at this place.

W. H. Waddington, of Lampey creek, was in town last Thursday on business. His daughter, who has deen quite ill for some time with rheumatic fever, is better and still on the mend.

Our shipping is fearfully interfered with and endangered by the storms. Vessels at sea have to stay out or be wrecked on the beach, and those inside are barbound and can take no chances.

Mr. Hersey is finishing up his nice business house as rapidly as the weather will permit. He has the brick on hand and J. P. Goodman engaged to construct the flues, but the storm has delayed the work.

Peter Haagensen a prominent Curry county citizen, was visiting his friend F. Thompson, a resident on Cunningham creek, north of town, last week, and both honored the Herald sanctum by a visit Wednesday.

Last Wednesday the storm abated and gave us a very fair day, but a little after midnight the high wind started up again and brought a heavy fall of rain throughout most of the day, starting the river to rise again.

Straight People's party voters are called to hold a county convention in Coquille City, December 30th. They will hold an election in each precinct on Saturday, December 23d, and choose two delegates. Fall in line. See call in today's Herald.

In supreme court at Salem last Wednesday the case of William Howell, respondent. vs. Alfred Johnson, appellant, from Coos county, was called. Ordered, on stipulation, that respondent have until January 1, 1900, to serve and file an additional abstract.

Populist precinct election of two delegates each is called to be held in each precinct on Saturday, December 23d, for the purpose of representation at a county convention to be held in Coquille City on Saturday, December 30th. Read the call in today's Herald.

Our friend, H. P. Duffy, the match maker, is expecting his son, Thomas F. Duffy, from Portland, about January 1st. The son is also a match manufacturer, being in the business at St. Johns, Multnomah county, for some years, but labors under difficulties in the supply of proper match wood.

The steamers Fawn and Antelope have changed their schedule on this river to a run never before tried. The Fawn will now put over night at Coquille City and leave for Myrtle Point at 8 a. m.; arrive at Myrtle Point at 11 a. m.; and leave on returning to this place at 2 p. m., arriving at 4:30 p. m.

Mr. Hardin Norris, clerk of the drugstore of R. Shoemaker, Perry, Ill., says: "A man came into our store the other day and said, 'I want a bottle of that stuff that saves children's lives. I read in the News about it. The children may get sick when we cannot get the doctor quick enough. It's the medicine you sell for croup.'" He alluded to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and bought a bottle before he left the store. For sale by R. S Knowlton.

(Port Orford Tribune.)

In the quarterly report of pupils at the Bishop Scott Academy, Portland, we notice the name of George W. Gauntlett, a Curry county boy, as among those ranking highest in academic department.

Miss Annie Carman, who has been teaching the Illinois district school, has been compelled to cease teaching on account of ill health. Miss Carman passed through this place last week en route to her home in Coos county.

Political aspirants are beginning to make themselves heard; they are already quite numerous and still a-coming. Well, that is right, for it shows a creditable ambition. To seek employment and service in an official capacity is honorable, if the service is honorably sought, and honorably performed if secured.

[Coos Bay News.]

All bar harbors along the coast, including the Columbia, were practically closed to shipping last week.

Reports were received of a cutting scrape on North Coos river, Saturday night. We understand that no arrests were made.

There are no bounty on bear scalps. We have been requested to make a note of this, as a number of the residents of this section think that the county is still paying a bounty on bear scalps. The bounty on panther scalps is $2 each.

About 4000 logs and 1500 piles were brought out of North Coos river on last week's freshet, and were safely boomed at the mouth of Coos river. About 1000 logs are still scattered along the North Fork, all of which can be run out without much trouble.

A. W. Beadle, a member of the firm of A. W. Beadle & Co., of San Francisco, was in town last week, endeavoring to make arrangments to secure a shipyard on the bay. He wants to build three vessels immediately, one of which will be 250 feet long.

The little schooner Lila & Mattie arrived Monday, to load at the stave mill. She was 35 days out from San Francisco, but the captain reports that he had plenty of food and water on board and could have remained at sea for several weeks longer without suffering.

Anton Wirth, agricultural quarantine guardian, was busy last week attending to fruit trees shipped to this port. Some of the trees were disinfected, and others, which were badly infested with bark disease and insects, were burned. Mr. Wirth is using every precaution to prevent the introduction of fruit pests in this section.

Roseburg Review: Joe Thompson, of Camas Valley, in the bee business, has a flourishing apiary and says there is money in it.

Capital Journal: Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Hazard, of Empire, Coos county, left for home today. Judge Hazard had some law business to look after at the capital, and they were the guests of old friends at Salem.

Roseburg Review: Geo. Brosi, of Rockway, had a bad runaway Friday. While Mrs. Brosi was in the buggy alone the horse took fright at a train of cars and became unmanageble. Mrs. Brosi was thrown out and considerably bruised, fortunately receiving no serious injuries. The horse ran into Parrott's fence near the New Era mills, badly smashing up the top buggy.

Port Orford Tribune: Mrs. T. C. Winsor, wife of Wm. S. Winsor, died at her home in Port Orford, on Saturday morning, December 2d, 1899, aged 60 years. * * * The deceased, whose maiden name was Theressa Charlotte Whyte, was born in New York city in 1839, and was married to William S. Winsor at Gold Beach, in this county, in 1857—42 years ago, and they have enjoyed a continuous happy and prosperous life, having resided almost continuously in Curry county, hence her death will be sorrowfully regretted by all the old pioneers of southwest Oregon, with whom she has been a sharer in the hardships, toils and trials incident to the early settlement and development of the country.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the eustachian tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh; which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give one hundred dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) tan cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

DOUGLAS CIRCUIT COURT.

Wm. Perkins, Accomplice of Dora Cole, Convicted.

In the circuit court at Roseburg, on the 1st inst., Wm. Perkins was tried for the larceny of a horse. He had previously plead guilty to the charge of lewd cohabitation with one Dora Cole, who was jointly indicted with him, and who plead guilty to both charges. The trial was very brief. Perkins and his girl companion were a wandering couple who seemed to hail from nowhere and to be going to a similar destination. Either they had not sufficient money to pay the expenses incident to getting married, or thought a little formality like that in order to conform to the laws and customs of society not worth troubling themselves about. Both are young in years, if not in experience, the girl scarcely more than 16 or 17. Perkins claims to have picked her up at Cottage Grove with the consent of her father, who was camping there and cutting wood. She was willing to accompany him because, so she said, her father mistreated her. They had one horse between them when they get to Roseburg, and their commissary contained a sack of potatoes, simply this and nothing more. Money they had none.

They headed for Coos county from this city, and at W. L. Laird's stage station "borrowed" another horse without the owner's consent to the loan of the animal. They spent a few days on Camas mountain with a man named Cluster, who lived there, and Deputy Sheriff B. F. Wells, of Olalla, who was on their trail, took them under his protection and lodged them in the county jail. They had previously turned Mr. Laird's horse loose and it was recovered.

The jury brought in a verdict of guilty, and Perkins was held for sentence.

STATE VERSUS MURPHY.

Joseph Murphy and John Miller were jointly charged with receiving stolen goods, having been arrested at Glendale, while disposing of goods supposed to have been stolen from Wollenberg Bro's store in Roseburg. There was no proof of their committing the burglary except that they had the goods in their possession, hence the charge against them as above. Both belonged to a gang of tramps.

The jury brought in a verdict of guilty as charged.

Judge Hamilton passed the following sentences: Wm. Perkins, for larceny of a horse, two years in the penitentiary; Nora Etta Cole, for larceny of a horse, one year; Walter Brookhart, for assault with an intent to commit rape, to the reform school; Joseph Murphy and John Miller, for receiving stolen goods, two years each in the penitentiary; Wm. Perkins and Nora Etta Cole, for lewd cohabitation, three months each in the county jail at the expiration of their terms in the penitentiary; Robt. Burns, for petty larceny, three months in the county jail.—Roseburg Review.

Great Clubbing Offer:

This paper (the Coquille City Herald) has made arrangements with the Cir. Mgr. of the "Vermont Farm Journal," which enables us to make the most remarkable clubbing offer ever before heard of in this section. Here it is: The COQUILLE CITY HERALD 1 Year, { Vermont Farm Journal 1 yr.

San Francisco Weekly Post 1 yr.
American Poultry Advocate 1 yr.
The Gentlewoman 1 yr.
National Illustrated Magazine 1 yr.
Happy Hours, Family Magazine 1 yr.

All for Only $2.30; Regular Price is $5.50.

This great combination meets the wants of the entire household. The Herald gives all the local and county news; it is your home paper and no member of the household can do without it. The Vermont Farm Journal and American Poultry Advocate should be in the hands of every up-to-date farmer or poultry raiser. The Gentlewoman is the best paper we know of for the ladies, being very similar in size, make-up and quality to the Ladies' Home Journal. The National Illustrated Magazine, published at Washington, is the only publication that publishes the civil service news. Happy Hours is a large 28-page magazine, designed to amuse, entertain and instruct the whole family. The San Francisco Weekly Post gives the news of the world in good, clean, readable form, the market reports and lots of other interesting matter. If you wish we will substitute the Chicago Weekly Inter Ocean, Kansas City Weekly Star, New York Weekly Tribune, Denver Weekly Times, Toledo Weekly Blade, Twice-a-week Louisville Courier-Journal, or Montreal Weekly Gazette in place of San Francisco Weekly Post. No other chances allowed. Call on or address, with cash,

THE HERALD,
Coquille City, Oregon.

The Great Presidential Campaign of 1900.

The policies of the great political parties are now being formed and the candidates discussed. Every citizen must study the great questions that are to come before the people. This can only be done through the medium of a great newspaper. Now is the time, therefore, for every voter to subscribe for the best and most reliable newspaper obtainable. The Semi-Weekly Republic, of St. Louis, covers the whole field of political news. While it is Democratic, it publishes the news in regard to all political parties without prejudice. Its telegraphic and cable news service is superior to that of any other paper, and its special features are the best.

Attention is also called to the Republic's Sunday Magazine. Its half-tone illustrations are alone worth the subscription price. It is made up of special articles by the best literary talent, embracing a variety of subjects of current interest. News features of absorbing interest are illustrated and enlarged upon. For the benefit of the ladies the latest fashions are handsomely illustrated. The Republic Sunday Magazine is always interesting to every member of the family.

The subscription price of the Semi-Weekly Republic is $1 per year; the Republic Sunday Magazine, $1.25 per year. Both papers are now being offered at the very low price of $1.50 for one year. To secure this low rate both must be ordered and paid for at the same time. Address all orders to

The FARM JOURNAL is an old established paper, enjoying great popularity, one of the best and most useful farm papers published. ☞Do not delay.

New York World (Thrice-a-Week Edition)

ALMOST A DAILY—AT THE PRICE OF A WEEKLY.

The most widely circulated "weekly" newspaper in America is the Thrice-a-Week edition of The New York World, and with the presidential campaign now at hand you cannot do without it. Here are some of the reasons why it is easily the leader in a dollar a year journalism:

It is issued every other day, and is to all purposes a daily.

Every week each subscriber receives 18 pages and often during the "busy" season 24 pages each week.

The price is only $1 per year.

It is virtually a daily at the price of a weekly.

Its news covers every known part of the world. No weekly newspaper could stand alone and furnish such service.

The Thrice-a-Week World has at its disposal all of the resources of the greatest newspaper in existence—the wonder of modern journalism—"America's Greatest Newspaper," as it has been justly termed—The New York World.

Its political news is absolutely impartial. This fact will be of especial value in the Presidential campaign coming on.

The best of current fiction is found in its columns.

These are only some of the reasons; there are others. Read it and see them all.

We offer this unequaled newspaper and the Coquille City Herald together one year for $1.90.

The regular subscription price of the two papers is $2.50.

No Other Paper

Gives the clubbing offers that you can get with the Herald. Now it is the

ALL SPRING STEEL FRAME, CHEAPEST AND MOST CONVENIENT FOR USE

On exhibition and sale at COQUILLE PHARMACY, or at my residence near old school building. NORA A. McEWEN, Agent.

I am a farmer located near Stony Brook, one of the most malarious districts in this State, and was bothered with malaria for years, at times so I could not work, and was always very constipated as well. For years I had malaria so bad in the spring, when engaged in plowing, that I could do nothing but shake. I must have taken about a barrel of quinine pills besides dozens of other remedies, but never obtained any permanent benefit. Last fall, in peach time, I had a most serious attack of chills and then commenced to take Ripans Tabules, upon a friend's advice, and the first box made me all right and I have never been without them since. I take one Tabule each morning and night and sometimes when I feel more than usually exhausted I take three in a day. They have kept my stomach sweet, my bowels regular and I have not had the least touch of malaria nor splitting headache since I commenced using them. I know also that I sleep better and wake up more refreshed than formerly. I don't know how many complaints Ripans Tabules will help, but I do know they will cure any one in the condition I was and I would not be without them at any price. I honestly consider them the cheapest-priced medicine in the world, as they are also the most beneficial and the most convenient to take. I am twenty-seven years of age and have worked hard all my life, the same as most farmers, both early and late and in all kinds of weather, and I have never enjoyed such good health as I have since last fall; in fact, my neighbors have all remarked my improved condition and have said, "Say, John, what are you doing to look so healthy?"

WANTED.—A case of bad health that R·I·P·A·N·S will not benefit. They banish pain and prolong life. One gives relief. Note the word R·I·P·A·N·S on the package and accept no substitute. R·I·P·A·N·S, 10 for 5 cents or twelve packets for 48 cents, may be had at any drug store. Ten samples and one hundred testimonials will be mailed to any address for 5 cents, forwarded to the Ripans Chemical Co., No. 10 Spruce St., New York.
